The Brain and Nervous System

OF

A MANUAL OF ANATOMY

IN HINDUSTANI,

By Dr. F. J. MOUAT, F. R. C. S.,

etc. etc. etc.

The present work is published as a companion to the Atlas, and will form a complete Manual of Anatomy for the Students of the Military Class attached to the Medical College.

It will consist of the following parts, each complete in itself.

Part I. The General Anatomy of the Tissues.
II. The Bones and Ligaments.
III. The Muscular System.
IV. The Vascular System, including Arteries, Veins, and Lymphatics.
V. The Nervous System.
VI. The Organs of Sense and Voice.
VII. The Viscera of the Chest, Abdomen, and Pelvis.

Each part will be stitched in a separate cover, and a General Index to the whole will be published upon the completion of the work.

The four first parts will be translated from the new edition of Quain's Elements of Anatomy, by Dr. Sharpey, and Professor Richard Quain—the best and most correct authority in the English Language.

The three last are already prepared for the press, and will appear first, commencing with the present issue.

The whole will be illustrated by drawings on stone, and brought up, as nearly as can be accomplished, to the standard of the most recent and approved anatomical text books in Europe.

The 5th Part contains 23 marginal illustrations, drawn on Stone, by Mr. Colesworthy Grant.

Price, plain, ... 3 Rupees per Copy.
colored, ... 6 Ditto.

Sold at the Military Orphan Press.

FRED. J. MOUAT, M. D.,

Govt. Book Agency, 30th November, 1849. Govt. Book Agent.

Under the Patronage of the Government of India.

(Compiled by THOS. C. FENWICK.)

AN INDEX to the Unrepealed Enactments of the Government of India, from 1793 to March 1849, inclusive, to be completed in three Parts—CIVIL, CRIMINAL and REVENUE. Part I. CIVIL, containing 240 closely printed quarto pages, is JUST PUBLISHED. Part II. CRIMINAL, will be published by the end of January 1850, and Part III., REVENUE, by March of the same year.

The work is compiled on the plan of Dale's Index, and contains all the unrepealed portions of that work. The Epitome of the subsequent Enactments has been embodied, with considerable labour, from the Regulations and Acts themselves. The first portion of the work has received the approbation of several gentlemen in the Civil Service, at present holding high appointments in the Presidency, who have been pleased to examine it.

To Subscribers to all the Parts, or to any two Parts the price will be 12 Rs. for each Part. To those who may subscribe to one Part only, the price will still be 12 Rs. provided the Part subscribed for, does not exceed 240 pages. Should the pages exceed that number, an extra charge of 4 annas for every 5 pages will be made. Non-subscribers must be prepared to pay something more. Subscribers to both the unpublished portions of the work may obtain the Part published on the same terms as Subscribers to all the Parts.

It is hoped that the price fixed to the work will be found to be extremely moderate, especially when it is remembered that Dale's Index, which extends only to 1828, is offered even at the present day, for 32 Rs. a copy.

ALSO JUST PUBLISHED.

The Regulations and Acts of the Government of India, relating to the Military Service of the East India Company, attached to the Presidency of Fort William, and doing duty within or without the Company's Territories, or beyond Seas. From 1793 to March 1849, inclusive, including the last Articles of War. The whole accompanied with a copious Index, containing altogether 200 quarto pages, price 8 Rupees.

This work is equally useful to Collectors and Magistrates as to Military men, and the price has been fixed with a view to make it available to the lowest grade of Officers, both Civil and Military.

Subscribers' names received and orders for Copies attended to by the Publishers.,

No. 7.

Fort William, Financial Department, the 31st March, 1849.

NOTIFICATION.—Notice is hereby given, that in pursuance of instructions received from the Hon'ble the Court of Directors, Supplies on account of the Home Treasury, will continue to be raised during the ensuing Official Year 1849-50, on the security of Goods to be hypothecated to the East India Company, and that, so far as is at present known, the sum required to be provided in India by the purchase of Bills will be £900,000 liable, however, to such modification or extension as may hereafter be demanded by the exigencies of the Public Service.

Advances of Cash will accordingly be made, for this purpose, by the Governments of Bengal, Madras and Bombay, to the extent of ⅔ths of the value of the Goods hypothecated, and the Bills in repayment of these advances are to be drawn at six months' sight, at the rate of 1*s.* 10*d.* per Company's Rupee, until further notice.

It is also further notified, that, in pursuance of instructions received from the Hon'ble the Court of Directors, the Governments of Bengal, Madras and Bombay, have been authorized, in any case in which they may consider such a course to be expedient, to dispense with the obligation to insure, which is imposed by the existing terms and conditions upon parties who may obtain advances from the respective Governments, on the security of Goods hypothecated to the East India Company, intimating to them that the Hon'ble Court will make the insurance in England, and requiring a Declaration binding the parties to repay the premium upon insurances, which the Court may effect before the Bills of Lading and other Shipping Documents are handed over to their Agents.

It is to be understood that the Insurance to be effected, will only be to the amount of the advance in each case, so as to cover the East India Company's risk.

In all other respects the existing terms and conditions of the advances to be made by the respective Governments, will remain in force, and be the same as published in the Calcutta Gazette under date the 1st April 1842.

containing

OF

A MANUAL OF ANATOMY

BY DR. F. J. MOUAT, F. R. C. S.,

etc. etc. etc.

The present work is published as a companion to the Atlas, and will form a complete Manual of Anatomy for the Students of the Military Class attached to the Medical College.

It will consist of the following parts, each complete in itself.

Part I. The General Anatomy of the Tissues.
II. The Bones and Ligaments.
III. The Muscular System.
IV. The Vascular System, including Arteries, Veins, and Lymphatics.
V. The Nervous System.
VI. The Organs of Sense and Voice.
VII. The Viscera of the Chest, Abdomen, and Pelvis.

Each part will be stitched in a separate cover, and a General Index to the whole will be published upon the completion of the work.

The four first parts will be translated from the new edition of Quain's Elements of Anatomy, by Dr. Sharpey, and Professor Richard Quain—the best and most correct authority in the English Language.

The three last are already prepared for the press, and will appear first, commencing with the present issue.

The whole will be illustrated by drawings on stone, and brought up, as nearly as can be accomplished, to the standard of the most recent and approved anatomical text books in Europe.

The 5th Part contains 23 marginal illustrations, drawn on Stone, by Mr. COLESWORTHY GRANT.

Price, plain,..... ..... 3 Rupees per Copy.

FRED. J. MOUAT, M. D.,
Govt. Book Agent.

Govt. Book Agency, 30th November, 1849.

Under the Patronage of the Government of India.

(Compiled by THOS. C. FENWICK.)

AN INDEX to the Unrepealed Enactments of the Government of India, from 1793 to March 1849, inclusive, to be completed in three Parts—CIVIL, CRIMINAL and REVENUE. Part I. CIVIL, containing 240 closely printed quarto pages, is JUST PUBLISHED. Part II. CRIMINAL, will be published by the end of January 1850, and Part III., REVENUE, by March of the same year.

The work is compiled on the plan of Dale's Index, and contains all the unrepealed portions of that work. The Epitome of the subsequent Enactments has been embodied, with considerable labour, from the Regulations and Acts themselves. The first portion of the work has received the approbation of several gentlemen in the Civil Service, at present holding high appointments in the Presidency, who have been pleased to examine it.

To Subscribers to all the Parts, or to any two Parts the price will be 12 Rs. for each Part. To those who may subscribe to one Part only, the price will still be 12 Rs., provided the Part subscribed for, does not exceed 240 pages. Should the pages exceed that number, an extra charge of 4 annas for every 5 pages will be made. Non-subscribers must be prepared to pay something more. Subscribers to both the unpublished portions of the work may obtain the Part published on the same terms as Subscribers to all the Parts.

It is hoped that the price fixed to the work will be found to be extremely moderate, especially when it is remembered that Dale's Index, which extends only to 1828, is offered even at the present day, for 32 Rs. a copy.

ALSO JUST PUBLISHED.

The Regulations and Acts of the Government of India, relating to the Military Service of the East India Company, attached to the Presidency of Fort William, and doing duty within or without the Company's Territories, or beyond Seas. From 1793 to March 1849, inclusive, including the last Articles of War. The whole accompanied with a copious Index, containing altogether 200 quarto pages, price 8 Rupees.

This work is equally useful to Collectors and Magistrates as to Military men, and the price has been fixed with a view to make it available to the lowest grade of Officers, both Civil and Military.

Subscribers' names received and orders for Copies attended to by the Publishers.,

No. 7.

Fort William, Financial Department, the 31st March, 1849.

NOTIFICATION.—Notice is hereby given, that in pursuance of instructions received from the Hon'ble the Court of Directors, Supplies on account of the Home Treasury, will continue to be raised during the ensuing Official Year 1849-50, on the security of Goods to be hypothecated to the East India Company, and that, so far as is at present known, the sum required to be provided in India by the purchase of Bills will be £900,000 liable, however, to such modification or extension as may hereafter be demanded by the exigencies of the Public Service.

Advances of Cash will accordingly be made, for this purpose, by the Governments of Bengal, Madras and Bombay, to the extent of ⅔ths of the value of the Goods hypothecated, and the Bills in repayment of these advances are to be drawn at six months' sight, at the rate of 1*s.* 10*d.* per Company's Rupee, until further notice.

It is also further notified, that, in pursuance of instructions received from the Hon'ble the Court of Directors, the Governments of Bengal, Madras and Bombay, have been authorized, in any case in which they may consider such a course to be expedient, to dispense with the obligation to insure, which is imposed by the existing terms and conditions upon parties who may obtain advances from the respective Governments, on the security of Goods hypothecated to the East India Company, intimating to them that the Hon'ble Court will make the insurance in England, and requiring a Declaration binding the parties to repay the premium upon insurances, which the Court may effect before the Bills of Lading and other Shipping Documents are handed over to their Agents.

It is to be understood that the Insurance to be effected, will only be to the amount of the advance in each case, so as to cover the East India Company's risk.

In all other respects the existing terms and conditions of the advances to be made by the respective Governments, will remain in force, and be the same as published in the Calcutta Gazette under date the 1st April 1842.

No. 7.

Fort William, Financial Department, the 31st March, 1849.

Notification.—Notice is hereby given, that in pursuance of instructions received from the Hon'ble the Court of Directors, Supplies on account of the Home Treasury, will continue to be raised during the ensuing Official Year 1849-50, on the security of Goods to be hypothecated to the East India Company, and that, so far as is at present known, the sum required to be provided in India by the purchase of Bills will be £900,000 liable, however, to such modification or extension as may hereafter be demanded by the exigencies of the Public Service.

Advances of Cash will accordingly be made, for this purpose, by the Governments of Bengal, Madras and Bombay, to the extent of ¾ths of the value of the Goods hypothecated, and the Bills in repayment of these advances are to be drawn at xis months' sight, at the rate of 1*s.* 10*d.* per Company's Rupee, until further notice.

It is also further notified, that, in pursuance of instructions received from the Hon'ble the Court of Directors, the Governments of Bengal, Madras and Bombay, have been authorized, in any case in which they may consider such a course to be expedient, to dispense with the obligation to insure, which is imposed by the existing terms and conditions upon parties who may obtain advances from the respective Governments, on the security of Goods hypothecated to the East India Company, intimating to them that the Hon'ble Court will make the insurance in England, and requiring a Declaration binding the parties to repay the premium upon insurances, which the Court may effect before the Bills of Lading and other Shipping Documents are handed over to their Agents.

It is to be understood that the Insurance to be effected, will only be to the amount of the advance in each case, so as to cover the East India Company's risk.

In all other respects the existing terms and conditions of the advances to be made by the respective Governments, will remain in force, and be the same as published in the Calcutta Gazette under date the 1st April 1842.

Published by order of the Hon'ble the President in Council,

J. A. Dorin, Secy. to the Govt. of India.

General Orders by the Hon'ble the President of the Council of India in Council.

Fort William, 11th January, 1850.

No. 26 of 1850.—With the view to supersede as far as possible the use of Ardent Spirits among European Troops by the introduction of Malt Liquors, at a price suited to the means of the European Soldier, the Hon'ble the President in Council, with the concurrence of the Most Noble the Governor General of India, is pleased to direct that, from and after the 1st proximo, the price to be paid by Canteens at the Bengal Presidency for Rum, shall be Company's Annas (13-4) Thirteen and Four Pies, per old Wine Measure (or Ration) Gallon, instead of Co.'s Rs. (2) Two, as heretofore.

2. The difference, Co.'s Rs. (1-2-8) One, Two Annas and Eight Pies per Gallon, between the old and the new rates, is to be laid out in reducing the retail price of Porter, Ale and Beer; and His Excellency the Commander in Chief is requested to issue such subsidiary orders as may be necessary to insure the intentions of Government being carried into effect in Regiments of Her Majesty's and the Hon'ble Company's Army in Bengal.

3. Canteen Committees may, with the sanction of Commanding Officers, make their own arrangements for the supply of Malt Liquors, through the Agency of Contractors, from the Calcutta or other market in India, or should they prefer it, Government will be prepared to procure supplies of Porter, Ale, or Beer from England.

4. No change is to be made in the retail price of Rum, which is to continue to be issued as heretofore at One Anna per dram, and this price is to be charged with Detachments as well as with Regiments, whether there may be a Canteen or not.

5. In Detachments of Her Majesty's and the Hon'ble Company's Service with which there may be no permanent Canteen, the difference between the price per Gallon, Annas (13-4) Thirteen and Four Pies, and the retail price, One Anna per dram, is to be laid out in reducing the price of Malt Liquor, or to be expended under such rules as may be laid down by His Excellency the Commander in Chief.

6. It is to be distinctly understood that the object of Government in reducing the charge to Canteens for Rum, is not to cheapen Spirits to the Soldier, but to enable Malt Liquors to be retailed under prime cost, if possible, and within the means of the Soldier.

7. Commissariat Officers will furnish Commanding Officers with monthly Certificates of the quantity of Rum supplied, which are to be attached to the Quarterly Reports of Canteens.

No. 27 of 1850.—The Hon'ble the President of the Council of India in Council is pleased to make the following Promotions and Alteration of Rank:

CIVIL SERVICE ANNUITY FUND.

At an Annual General Meeting of Subscribers to the Civil Service Annuity Fund, held on Tuesday, the 1st January 1850, at the Town Hall.

PRESENT—Messrs. George Udny, W. B. Jackson, J. J. Harvey, R. Walker, F. J. Halliday, E. Bentall, George Todd, George Adams, A. S. Annand, G. G. Mackintosh, W. Grey, H. Pratt and E. F. Harrison.

W. B. JACKSON, Esq., in the Chair.

The Accounts of the Fund for the past year 1848-49, were laid on the table, and were ordered to be submitted for audit to the General Meeting, to be held on the 1st Monday of next month (4th February,) under Rule 25.

An election of Managers in the room of Messrs. E. M. Gordon, J. J. Harvey, E. Currie, R. Torrens and B. J. Colvin took place.

Messrs. Harvey, Currie and Colvin were re-elected, and in the place of Mr. Gordon resigned, Mr. J. P. Grant, and in the room of Mr. Torrens, appointed to Chittagong, Mr. Cecil Beadon, were elected Managers.

The proposition by fifteen Subscribers duly advertized was then put by the Chairman, viz. That the assent of the Hon'ble Court of Directors be sought to such a revision of the Rules of the Fund, as may entitle every Subscriber after 25 years' Service, to receive unconditionally on his retirement £500 per annum, on account of the contribution of the Court, whatever be the amount of the Annuity derivable to him from his individual Subscriptions.

The written votes (including the proposers) received were 23, but only 5 present voting for it, the proposition was not carried under Rule 26.

A vote of thanks was passed to the Chairman.

WELBY JACKSON, Chairman.

Civil Service Annuity Fund Office, the 1st January, 1850.

NOTICE.—A General Meeting of the Subscribers is convened under Rule 25, and will be held at the Town Hall, on the first Monday in February, (4th idem,) at 11 o'Clock, A. M., to receive and audit the Accounts of the year 1848-49.

By order of the Managers,

G. ADAMS,
Secretary.

C. S. A. F. Office, 3rd January, 1850.

BENGAL CIVIL FUND.

NOTICE.—The Managers beg to notify the result of the reference made to the Subscribers at large, under the Resolution of the Special General Meeting of 12th October 1849. On the closing of the list, after the prescribed two months, on the 31st ultimo, the summing up of the numbers of votes received shewed the following result:

For the Resolution of the Special General Meeting of Subscribers of the 12th October 1849, viz. "That the Rules which have been proposed by the Committee after due consideration, and circulated to the Subscribers at large, for carrying out the principle which has been adopted by this Meeting and by the Subscribers at large, be passed as provisional Rules, and have effect from the 1st January 1850," ..... 297 votes.

Against the same ..... 42 „

Majority in favor, ... 255

NOTE—Several votes in favor of the Resolution have since the 31st ultimo been received, and although not counted among them, will be noted in the list of voters' names, which will be separately printed and circulated.

Accordingly, the new Rules adopted by the General Meeting of 12th October 1849, are now declared to be "passed as provisional Rules, and have effect from the first of January 1850," i. e. from this day. The Civil Auditors are therefore requested to make the necessary deductions from Subscribers' public Allowances accruing from and after the first instant at the rates prescribed by the said new Rules. From the Allowances of such Subscribers as have not yet made the requisite 'return' by filling up the blank form sent to them, deductions will for the present be made either at the rate of 2½ or 4½ per Cent. under Article 4, according to the best information possessed by the Managers in each case. But this will not secure the benefits of the Fund for any of the Children of Subscribers, by whom the additional Subscriptions required under Article 5 are not paid.

For the Children of Subscribers who have filled in their names and dates of birth, but have omitted to state whether or not they wish to pay the additional Subscription on their behalf, the deduction will be made as if they so intended, and to such Children the benefits of the Fund will be secured.

By order of the Managers,

G. ADAMS,
Hony. Secretary.

Civil Fund Office, the 1st January, 1850.

Secy. to the Govt. of India, Mily. Dept.,
with the Govr. Genl.

Camp Mooltan, 1st January, 1850.

The Most Noble the Governor General is pleased to confirm the following Orders:

Dated 7th December 1849, by the Officer Commanding His Lordship's Body Guard, directing the Commissariat Agent to supply a four-Bullock Hackery, for the conveyance of the Sick of his Regiment, instead of the two-Bullock Hackery, mentioned in Regimental Orders of the 25th November 1849.

Dated from the 7th to the 16th December 1849, both days inclusive, by Lieutenant W. A. A. Thomson, Commanding a Detachment of His Lordship's Body Guard, directing the Commissariat Agent to supply Forage for 109 Horses, at the rate of ten Seers per Horse, each day, grass not having been procurable.

Camp Mooltan, 2nd January, 1850.

The Most Noble the Governor General is pleased to appoint Lieutenant G. F. Atkinson, of Engineers, Executive Engineer of the 5th or Benares Division.

J. Stuart, Col.,
Secy. to the Govt. of India, Mily. Dept.,

Fort William, Home Department, Legislative, The 11th January, 1850.

The following Act is passed by the Hon'ble the President of the Council of India in Council on the 11th January 1850, with the assent of the Most Noble the Governor General of India, which has been read and recorded.

Ordered, that the Act be promulgated for general information.

Act No. I. of 1850.

For confirming the title to lands in Calcutta taken for public purposes.

Whereas the execution of works of public usefulness in Calcutta is liable to be hindered by the difficulty in making a good title to the land taken for such purpose, It is enacted as follows:

I. The powers and provisions of the first seven Sections of Regulation I., 1824 of the Bengal Code, shall be applicable to all lands within the town of Calcutta, which shall have been declared by the Governor of Bengal to be needed for any public purpose: and such declaration shall be conclusive evidence that the purpose for which the lands are needed is a public purpose.

II. In all cases in which payment of any part of the purchase or compensation money is reserved, according to the Fifth Clause of Section VI., of the said Regulation, on account of any lands taken for any public purpose under this Act, the Government Securities mentioned in the said Clause shall be deposited with the Government Agent at Fort William in Bengal, in the name and with the privity of the Accountant General of Her Majesty's Supreme Court of Judicature at Fort William, to be placed by him to the credit of the persons interested in such lands, describing them as nearly as may be done according to the course of proceeding in the said Court in matters and causes depending before it in Equity.

III. The said Securities shall remain in the hands of the Government Agent, and the interest accruing thereon shall be, from time to time, received and paid under the order of the said Supreme Court to the person or persons for the time being, who would have been entitled to receive the rents and profits of the said lands, if the same had not been taken as aforesaid, until there shall be some person or persons absolutely entitled to receive the principal sum of the monies so reserved, and thereupon the said Government Securities, with all interest then due thereon, shall be transferred and paid to such person or persons under the like order of the said Court; and so long as no person can be found entitled to receive the interest of the said Government Securities, the Government Agent shall continue to receive, and, from time to time, to invest the accumulation of interest due thereon in the purchase of other Government Securities, to be held and applied by him on the same trusts as the Securities first purchased.

W. Grey,
Offg. Secy. to the Govt. of India.

Fort William, Home Department, Legislative, the 11th January, 1850.

The following Act is passed by the Hon'ble the President of the Council of India in Council on the 11th January 1850, with the assent of the Most Noble the Governor General of India, which has been read and recorded.

Ordered, that the Act be promulgated for general information.

Act No. II. 1850.

An Act to amend and extend to Madras and Bombay, Act No. VII. 1849.

Whereas it is expedient to make new provisions for regulating the Administration of the Estates of British Subjects, dying intestate in the several Presidencies of Fort St. George and Bombay, It is enacted as follows:

I. Act No. VII. 1849, shall be extended, and apply to the several Presidencies of Fort St. George and Bombay, subject to the alterations hereafter contained, as if, with reference to each of the said Presidencies, such Presidency were named therein instead of Bengal and Fort William in Bengal; and the Governor of such Presidency in Council, instead of the Governor General of India in Council, and the Chief Town of such Presidency, instead of Calcutta.

II. The Administrator General at Fort St. George and Bombay respectively, shall not cease to be Ecclesiastical Registrar of the Supreme Court there by virtue of this Act; and the two Offices of Ecclesiastical Registrar and Administrator General may be held at Fort St. George or Bombay respectively, by the same person.

III. The altered rate of Commission, receivable by the Administrator General at Fort St. George and Bombay respectively, under Act VII. 1849 and this Act, shall not take effect until such alteration shall be directed by the Governor of Fort St. George and Bombay in Council respectively, until which several times the same rate of Commission may be lawfully taken there by the Administrator General, as might have been taken by the Ecclesiastical Registrar before the passing of this Act.

IV. It is and is declared to be a misdemeanour, punishable by fine and imprisonment, for any Administrator General, in any of the Presidencies of Fort William in Bengal, Fort St. George and Bombay, to trade or traffic for his own benefit, or for the benefit of any other person or persons whomsoever, unless so far as appears to him expedient for the due management of the Estates administered by him, and for the sole benefit of the several persons entitled to the proceeds of such Estates respectively; but this exception is not to be construed to alter the civil liabilities of the Administrator General as trustee for the estates administered by him.

W. Grey,
Offg. Secy. to the Govt. of India.

Fort William, Home Department, Legislative, the 11th January, 1850.

The following Act is passed by the Hon'ble the President of the Council of India in Council on the 11th January 1850, with the assent of the Most Noble the Governor General of India, which has been read and recorded.

Ordered, that the Act be promulgated for general information.

Act No. III. of 1850.

An Act for amending the Law, concerning the Jurisdiction of the Courts of Sudder Ameens and District Moonsiffs, in the Presidency of Fort St. George.

In modification of Section II. of Act XI. 1836, It is enacted as follows:

I. After the passing of this Act, no person whatever shall, by reason of place of birth, or by reason of descent, be in any Civil proceeding whatever exempt from the Jurisdiction of the Courts of the Sudder Ameens and District Moonsiffs, in the Territories subject to the Presidency of Fort St. George.

W. Grey,
Offg. Secy. to the Govt. of India.

No. 40.

Fort William, Home Department, the 15th January, 1850.

Notification.—Mr. H. Lushington, of the Civil Service, having reported his return from England on the 9th instant, the President in Council is pleased to re-attach that Gentleman to the North Western Provinces.

Wm. Grey,
Offg. Secy. to the Govt. of India.

No. 7.

Fort William, Financial Department, the 31st March, 1849.

NOTIFICATION.—Notice is hereby given, that in pursuance of instructions received from the Hon'ble the Court of Directors, Supplies on account of the Home Treasury, will continue to be raised during the ensuing Official Year 1849-50, on the security of Goods to be hypothecated to the East India Company, and that, so far as is at present known, the sum required to be provided in India by the purchase of Bills will be £900,000 liable, however, to such modification or extension as may hereafter be demanded by the exigencies of the Public Service.

Advances of Cash will accordingly be made, for this purpose, by the Governments of Bengal, Madras and Bombay, to the extent of ¾ths of the value of the Goods hypothecated, and the Bills in repayment of these advances are to be drawn at xis months' sight, at the rate of 1*s.* 10*d.* per Company's Rupee, until further notice.

It is also further notified, that, in pursuance of instructions received from the Hon'ble the Court of Directors, the Governments of Bengal, Madras and Bombay, have been authorized, in any case in which they may consider such a course to be expedient, to dispense with the obligation to insure, which is imposed by the existing terms and conditions upon parties who may obtain advances from the respective Governments, on the security of Goods hypothecated to the East India Company, intimating to them that the Hon'ble Court will make the insurance in England, and requiring a Declaration binding the parties to repay the premium upon insurances, which the Court may effect before the Bills of Lading and other Shipping Documents are handed over to their Agents.

It is to be understood that the Insurance to be effected, will only be to the amount of the advance in each case, so as to cover the East India Company's risk.

In all other respects the existing terms and conditions of the advances to be made by the respective Governments, will remain in force, and be the same as published in the Calcutta Gazette under date the 1st April 1842.

Published by order of the Hon'ble the President in Council,

SATURDAY, JANUARY 19, 1850.

General Orders by the Most Noble the Governor General of India.

Camp Mooltan, 2nd January, 1850.

The leave of absence in extension, granted in General Order by the President in Council, of the 3rd April 1847, to 1st Lieutenant R. Strachey, of Engineers, is to have effect from the 30th of April, instead of the date named.

J. STUART, Colonel,
Secy. to the Govt. of India, Mily. Dept., with the Govr. Genl.

Fort William, Home Department, Legislative, The 11th January, 1850.

The following Act is passed by the Hon'ble the President of the Council of India in Council on the 11th January 1850, with the assent of the Most Noble the Governor General of India, which has been read and recorded.

Ordered, that the Act be promulgated for general information.

ACT No. I. OF 1850.

For confirming the title to lands in Calcutta taken for public purposes.

Whereas the execution of works of public usefulness in Calcutta is liable to be hindered by the difficulty in making a good title to the land taken for such purpose, It is enacted as follows:

I. The powers and provisions of the first seven Sections of Regulation I., 1824 of the Bengal Code, shall be applicable to all lands within the town of Calcutta, which shall have been declared by the Governor of Bengal to be needed for any public purpose: and such declaration shall be conclusive evidence that the purpose for which the lands are needed is a public purpose.

II. In all cases in which payment of any part of the purchase or compensation money is reserved, according to the Fifth Clause of Section VI., of the said Regulation, on account of any lands taken for any public purpose under this Act, the Government Securities mentioned in the said Clause shall be deposited with the Government Agent at Fort William in Bengal, in the name and with the privity of the Accountant General of Her Majesty's Supreme Court of Judicature at Fort William, to be placed by him to the credit of the persons interested in such lands, describing them as nearly as may be done according to the course of proceeding in the said Court in matters and causes depending before it in Equity.

III. The said Securities shall remain in the hands of the Government Agent, and the interest accruing thereon shall be, from time to time, received and paid under the order of the said Supreme Court to the person or persons for the time being, who would have been entitled to receive the rents and profits of the said lands, if the same had not been taken as aforesaid, until there shall be some person or persons absolutely entitled to receive the principal sum of the monies so reserved, and thereupon the said Government Securities, with all interest then due thereon, shall be transferred and paid to such person or persons under the like order of the said Court; and so long as no person can be found entitled to receive the interest of the said Government Securities, the Government Agent shall continue to receive, and, from time to time, to invest the accumulation of interest due thereon in the purchase of other Government Securities, to be held and applied by him on the same trusts as the Securities first purchased.

W. GREY,
Offg. Secy. to the Govt. of India.

Fort William, Home Department, Legislative, the 11th January, 1850.

The following Act is passed by the Hon'ble the President of the Council of India in Council on the 11th January 1850, with the assent of the Most Noble the Governor General of India, which has been read and recorded.

Ordered, that the Act be promulgated for general information.

ACT No. II. 1850.

An Act to amend and extend to Madras and Bombay, Act No. VII. 1849.

Whereas it is expedient to make new provisions for regulating the Administration of the Estates of British Subjects, dying intestate in the several Presidencies of Fort St. George and Bombay, It is enacted as follows:

I. Act No. VII. 1849, shall be extended, and apply to the several Presidencies of Fort St. George and Bombay, subject to the alterations hereafter contained, as if, with reference to each of the said Presidencies, such Presidency were named therein instead of Bengal and Fort William in Bengal; and the Governor of such Presidency in Council, instead of the Governor General of India in Council, and the Chief Town of such Presidency, instead of Calcutta.

II. The Administrator General at Fort St. George and Bombay respectively, shall not cease to be Ecclesiastical Registrar of the Supreme Court there by virtue of this Act; and the two Offices of Ecclesiastical Registrar and Administrator General may be held at Fort St. George or Bombay respectively, by the same person.

III. The altered rate of Commission, receivable by the Administrator General at Fort St. George and Bombay respectively, under Act VII. 1849 and this Act, shall not take effect until such alteration shall be directed by the Governor of Fort St. George and Bombay in Council respectively, until which several times the same rate of Commission may be lawfully taken there by the Administrator General, as might have been taken by the Ecclesiastical Registrar before the passing of this Act.

IV. It is and is declared to be a misdemeanour, punishable by fine and imprisonment, for any Administrator General, in any of the Presidencies of Fort William in Bengal, Fort St. George and Bombay, to trade or traffic for his own benefit, or for the benefit of any other person or persons whomsoever, unless so far as appears to him expedient for the due management of the Estates administered by him, and for the sole benefit of the several persons entitled to the proceeds of such Estates respectively; but this exception is not to be construed to alter the civil liabilities of the Administrator General as trustee for the estates administered by him.

W. Grey,
Offg. Secy. to the Govt. of India.

Fort William, Home Department, Legislative, the 11th January, 1850.

The following Act is passed by the Hon'ble the President of the Council of India in Council on the 11th January 1850, with the assent of the Most Noble the Governor General of India, which has been read and recorded.

Ordered, that the Act be promulgated for general information.

Act No. III. of 1850.

An Act for amending the Law, concerning the Jurisdiction of the Courts of Sudder Ameens and District Moonsiffs, in the Presidency of Fort St. George.

In modification of Section II. of Act XI. 1836, It is enacted as follows:

I. After the passing of this Act, no person whatever shall, by reason of place of birth, or by reason of descent, be in any Civil proceeding whatever exempt from the Jurisdiction of the Courts of the Sudder Ameens and District Moonsiffs, in the Territories subject to the Presidency of Fort St. George.

No. 7.

Fort William, Financial Department, the 31st March, 1849.

Notification.—Notice is hereby given, that in pursuance of instructions received from the Hon'ble the Court of Directors, Supplies on account of the Home Treasury, will continue to be raised during the ensuing Official Year 1849-50, on the security of Goods to be hypothecated to the East India Company, and that, so far as is at present known, the sum required to be provided in India by the purchase of Bills will be £900,000 liable, however, to such modification or extension as may hereafter be demanded by the exigencies of the Public Service.

Advances of Cash will accordingly be made, for this purpose, by the Governments of Bengal, Madras and Bombay, to the extent of ⅔ths of the value of the Goods hypothecated, and the Bills in repayment of these advances are to be drawn at six months' sight, at the rate of 1*s.* 10*d.* per Company's Rupee, until further notice.

It is also further notified, that, in pursuance of instructions received from the Hon'ble the Court of Directors, the Governments of Bengal, Madras and Bombay, have been authorized, in any case in which they may consider such a course to be expedient, to dispense with the obligation to insure, which is imposed by the existing terms and conditions upon parties who may obtain advances from the respective Governments, on the security of Goods hypothecated to the East India Company, intimating to them that the Hon'ble Court will make the insurance in England, and requiring a Declaration binding the parties to repay the premium upon insurances, which the Court may effect before the Bills of Lading and other Shipping Documents are handed over to their Agents.

It is to be understood that the Insurance to be effected, will only be to the amount of the advance in each case, so as to cover the East India Company's risk.

In all other respects the existing terms and conditions of the advances to be made by the respective Governments, will remain in force, and be the same as published in the Calcutta Gazette under date the 1st April 1842.

A MANUAL OF ANATOMY

BY DR. F. J. MOUAT, F. R. C. S.,

etc. etc. etc.

The present work is published as a companion to the Atlas, and will form a complete Manual of Anatomy for the Students of the Military Class attached to the Medical College.

It will consist of the following parts, each complete in itself.

Part I. The General Anatomy of the Tissues.
II. The Bones and Ligaments.
III. The Muscular System.
IV. The Vascular System, including Arteries, Veins, and Lymphatics.
V. The Nervous System.
VI. The Organs of Sense and Voice.
VII. The Viscera of the Chest, Abdomen, and Pelvis.

Each part will be stitched in a separate cover, and a General Index to the whole will be published upon the completion of the work.

The four first parts will be translated from the new edition of Quain's Elements of Anatomy, by Dr. Sharpey, and Professor Richard Quain—the best and most correct authority in the English Language.

The three last are already prepared for the press, and will appear first, commencing with the present issue.

The whole will be illustrated by drawings on stone, and brought up, as nearly as can be accomplished, to the standard of the most recent and approved anatomical text books in Europe.

The 5th Part contains 23 marginal illustrations, drawn on Stone, by Mr. COLESWORTHY GRANT.

FRED. J. MOUAT, M. D.,

Govt. Book Agency, 30th November, 1849. Govt. Book Agent.

Under the Patronage of the Government of India.

(Compiled by THOS. C. FENWICK.)

AN INDEX to the Unrepealed Enactments of the Government of India, from 1793 to March 1849, inclusive, to be completed in three Parts—CIVIL, CRIMINAL and REVENUE. Part I. CIVIL, containing 240 closely printed quarto pages, is JUST PUBLISHED. Part II. CRIMINAL, will be published by the end of January 1850, and Part III., REVENUE, by March of the same year.

The work is compiled on the plan of Dale's Index, and contains all the unrepealed portions of that work. The Epitome of the subsequent Enactments has been embodied, with considerable labour, from the Regulations and Acts themselves. The first portion of the work has received the approbation of several gentlemen in the Civil Service, at present holding high appointments in the Presidency, who have been pleased to examine it.

To Subscribers to all the Parts, or to any two Parts the price will be 12 Rs. for each Part. To those who may subscribe to one Part only, the price will still be 12 Rs, provided the Part subscribed for, does not exceed 240 pages. Should the pages exceed that number, an extra charge of 4 annas for every 5 pages will be made. Non-subscribers must be prepared to pay something more. Subscribers to both the unpublished portions of the work may obtain the Part published on the same terms as Subscribers to all the Parts.

It is hoped that the price fixed to the work will be found to be extremely moderate, especially when it is remembered that Dale's Index, which extends only to 1828, is offered even at the present day, for 32 Rs. a copy.

ALSO JUST PUBLISHED.

The Regulations and Acts of the Government of India, relating to the Military Service of the East India Company, attached to the Presidency of Fort William, and doing duty within or without the Company's Territories, or beyond Seas. From 1793 to March 1849, inclusive, including the last Articles of War. The whole accompanied with a copious Index, containing altogether 200 quarto pages, price 8 Rupees.

This work is equally useful to Collectors and Magistrates as to Military men, and the price has been fixed with a view to make it available to the lowest grade of Officers, both Civil and Military.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 23, 1850.

Fort William, Home Department, Legislative, The 11th January, 1850.

The following Act is passed by the Hon'ble the President of the Council of India in Council on the 11th January 1850, with the assent of the Most Noble the Governor General of India, which has been read and recorded.

Ordered, that the Act be promulgated for general information.

ACT No. I. OF 1850.

For confirming the title to lands in Calcutta taken for public purposes.

Whereas the execution of works of public usefulness in Calcutta is liable to be hindered by the difficulty in making a good title to the land taken for such purpose, It is enacted as follows:

I. The powers and provisions of the first seven Sections of Regulation I., 1824 of the Bengal Code, shall be applicable to all lands within the town of Calcutta, which shall have been declared by the Governor of Bengal to be needed for any public purpose: and such declaration shall be conclusive evidence that the purpose for which the lands are needed is a public purpose.

II. In all cases in which payment of any part of the purchase or compensation money is reserved, according to the Fifth Clause of Section VI. of the said Regulation, on account of any lands taken for any public purpose under this Act, the Government Securities mentioned in the said Clause shall be deposited with the Government Agent at Fort William in Bengal, in the name and with the privity of the Accountant General of Her Majesty's Supreme Court of Judicature at Fort William, to be placed by him to the credit of the persons interested in such lands, describing them as nearly as may be done according to the course of proceeding in the said Court in matters and causes depending before it in Equity.

III. The said Securities shall remain in the hands of the Government Agent, and the interest accruing thereon shall be, from time to time, received and paid under the order of the said Supreme Court to the person or persons for the time being, who would have been entitled to receive the rents and profits of the said lands, if the same had not been taken as aforesaid, until there shall be some person or persons absolutely entitled to receive the principal sum of the monies so reserved, and thereupon the said Government Securities, with all interest then due thereon, shall be transferred and paid to such person or persons under the like order of the said Court; and so long as no person can be found entitled to receive the interest of the said Government Securities, the Government Agent shall continue to receive, and, from time to time, to invest the accumulation of interest due thereon in the purchase of other Government Securities, to be held and applied by him on the same trusts as the Securities first purchased.

The following Act is passed by the Hon'ble the President of the Council of India in Council on the 11th January 1850, with the assent of the Most Noble the Governor General of India, which has been read and recorded.

Ordered, that the Act be promulgated for general information.

ACT No. II. 1850.

An Act to amend and extend to Madras and Bombay, Act No. VII. 1849.

Whereas it is expedient to make new provisions for regulating the Administration of the Estates of British Subjects, dying intestate in the several Presidencies of Fort St. George and Bombay, It is enacted as follows:

I. Act No. VII., 1849, shall be extended, and apply to the several Presidencies of Fort St. George and Bombay, subject to the alterations hereafter contained, as if, with reference to each of the said Presidencies, such Presidency were named therein instead of Bengal and Fort William in Bengal; and the Governor of such Presidency in Council, instead of the Governor General of India in Council, and the Chief Town of such Presidency, instead of Calcutta.

II. The Administrator General at Fort St. George and Bombay respectively, shall not cease to be Ecclesiastical Registrar of the Supreme Court there by virtue of this Act; and the two Offices of Ecclesiastical Registrar and Administrator General may be held at Fort St. George or Bombay respectively, by the same person.

III. The altered rate of Commission, receivable by the Administrator General at Fort St. George and Bombay respectively, under Act VII. 1849 and this Act, shall not take effect until such alteration shall be directed by the Governor of Fort St. George and Bombay in Council respectively, until which several times the same rate of Commission may be lawfully taken there by the Administrator General, as might have been taken by the Ecclesiastical Registrar before the passing of this Act.

IV. It is and is declared to be a misdemeanour, punishable by fine and imprisonment, for any Administrator General, in any of the Presidencies of Fort William in Bengal, Fort St. George and Bombay, to trade or traffic for his own benefit, or for the benefit of any other person or persons whomsoever, unless so far as appears to him expedient for the due management of the Estates administered by him, and for the sole benefit of the several persons entitled to the proceeds of such Estates respectively; but this exception is not to be construed to alter the civil liabilities of the Administrator General as trustee for the estates administered by him.

Act No. III. of 1850.

An Act for amending the Law, concerning the Jurisdiction of the Courts of Sudder Ameens and District Moonsiffs, in the Presidency of Fort St. George.

In modification of Section II. of Act XI. 1836, It is enacted as follows:

I. After the passing of this Act, no person whatever shall, by reason of place of birth, or by reason of descent, be in any Civil proceeding whatever exempt from the Jurisdiction of the Courts of the Sudder Ameens and District Moonsiffs, in the Territories subject to the Presidency of Fort St. George.

No. 7.

Fort William, Financial Department, the 31st March, 1849.

Notification.—Notice is hereby given, that in pursuance of instructions received from the Hon'ble the Court of Directors, Supplies on account of the Home Treasury, will continue to be raised during the ensuing Official Year 1849-50, on the security of Goods to be hypothecated to the East India Company, and that, so far as is at present known, the sum required to be provided in India by the purchase of Bills will be £900,000 liable, however, to such modification or extension as may hereafter be demanded by the exigencies of the Public Service.

Advances of Cash will accordingly be made, for this purpose, by the Governments of Bengal, Madras and Bombay, to the extent of ⅔ths of the value of the Goods hypothecated, and the Bills in repayment of these advances are to be drawn at six months' sight, at the rate of 1*s.* 10*d.* per Company's Rupee, until further notice.

It is also further notified, that, in pursuance of instructions received from the Hon'ble the Court of Directors, the Governments of Bengal, Madras and Bombay, have been authorized, in any case in which they may consider such a course to be expedient, to dispense with the obligation to insure, which is imposed by the existing terms and conditions upon parties who may obtain advances from the respective Governments, on the security of Goods hypothecated to the East India Company, intimating to them that the Hon'ble Court will make the insurance in England, and requiring a Declaration binding the parties to repay the premium upon insurances, which the Court may effect before the Bills of Lading and other Shipping Documents are handed over to their Agents.

It is to be understood that the Insurance to be effected, will only be to the amount of the advance in each case, so as to cover the East India Company's risk.

In all other respects the existing terms and conditions of the advances to be made by the respective Governments, will remain in force, and be the same as published in the Calcutta Gazette under date the 1st April 1842.

PASSAGE AND FREIGHT TO THE NORTH-WESTERN PROVINCES.

The "Matabangah" Accommodation Boat, in tow of a Steamer, will be despatched to Allahabad and intermediate Stations, on the 28th instant, at 4 P. M.

Applications for Passage and Freight to be made at the Office of the Controller of Government Steam Vessels.

By order of the Superintendent of Marine,
J. H. Johnston,
Controller of Govt. S. Vessels.
Steam Department, the 21st January, 1850.

NOTIFICATION.—An Examination will be held early in April 1850, in the College of Fort William, for the purpose of filling up existing Vacancies in the Military Class of the Medical College. All Candidates will be expected to possess a knowledge of the Hindustani Language, adequate to enable them to read and write it in Persian or Devanagri Character.

2nd. All Interpreters of Regiments and Battalions are requested not to grant Certificates of Qualification to any Candidates under the age of fifteen or above that of twenty years; and likewise to reject all who may not pass the prescribed ordeal with a sufficient degree of fluency and facility. Much disappointment, expense and inconvenience have already been experienced by lads from distant stations, being furnished with certificates, who were found, on examination, quite unqualified for admission, and it is with a view to prevent the recurrence of this that the above measure has been adopted.

3rd. Candidates for admission will be required to present themselves before the Secretary to the Medical College, at least three days prior to the day of examination, in order that a proper descriptive roll may be prepared for transmission to the Examiners of the College of Fort William.

4th. The preference in selection, qualifications being equal, will be given to those who have already been attached to, or served in Civil or Regimental Hospitals, or to those who are the sons of Native Officers and Soldiers.

5th. No Candidate will be allowed to present himself for examination, who cannot produce a written testimonial of his conduct and character, or afford satisfactory evidence as to who and what he may be. A few individuals of decidedly bad character, have, upon recent occasions, managed to obtain admittance, it is supposed by producing false papers; the strictest care and scrutiny will therefore be exercised in examining the credentials of all future Candidates, who will, in addition, require to be furnished with regular muster rolls, in order that they may be identified.

6th. All pupils must, as a condition of their appointment, reside within the College premises at all times, and never be absent from morning and evening muster without special leave.

7th. All Students in the Military Class are amenable to the Articles of War, and regularly enlisted as Soldiers.

8th. No Candidate will be admitted into the School, who is physically unfit for the duties of a Soldier.

BENGAL CIVIL FUND.

At a Meeting of Subscribers to the Bengal Civil Fund, held at the Town Hall, on Tuesday the 22nd January 1850.

PRESENT :

Messrs. E. Currie, A. J. M. Mills, T. P. Woodcock, W. S. Quintin, G. Todd, G. Adams, B. J. Colvin, J. H. Young, G. L. Martin, H. V. Bayley, C. Beadon, H. M. Reid, J. W. Dalrymple and W. Maples.

E. CURRIE, ESQ., in the Chair.

Read a requisition by 11 Members as follows : "We the undersigned Members of the Civil Fund, considering that the Committee appointed on the 31st January 1849, to examine and report upon the state of the Civil Fund, have pronounced the Fund to be in an insolvent state, do hereby convene a Meeting at Calcutta on the 22d January 1850, to devise the best means for placing the same in a solvent state." (Signed) T. T. Metcalfe. J. P. Gubbins. C. Gubbins. G. M. Berford. P. Egerton. Gore Ouseley. T. Metcalfe. Edward Colvin. W. H. Deane. H. S. Ravenshaw. W. McChlery.

Proposed by Mr. Young and seconded by Mr. Dalrymple—

That as there appears to be no one present who is prepared to support the proposal of the Subscribers who called this Meeting; Resolved that this Meeting do adjourn.

Amendment proposed by Mr. Beadon and seconded by Mr. Maples—

That in the opinion of this Meeting, the rates of Subscription prescribed by the provisional rules (which have been carried by the votes of the Subscribers at large and are in force, from the 1st of this month,) afford the means of placing the Fund in a solvent state, and that any further steps for the attainment of that object are unnecessary.

Amendment carried—the votes for it being present 11 and proxies 61.

Thanks were voted to the Chairman.

E. CURRIE,
Chairman.

No. 7.

Fort William, Financial Department, the 31st March, 1849.

NOTIFICATION.—Notice is hereby given, that in pursuance of instructions received from the Hon'ble the Court of Directors, Supplies on account of the Home Treasury, will continue to be raised during the ensuing Official Year 1849-50, on the security of Goods to be hypothecated to the East India Company, and that, so far as is at present known, the sum required to be provided in India by the purchase of Bills will be £900,000 liable, however, to such modification or extension as may hereafter be demanded by the exigencies of the Public Service.

Advances of Cash will accordingly be made, for this purpose, by the Governments of Bengal, Madras and Bombay, to the extent of ⅔ths of the value of the Goods hypothecated, and the Bills in repayment of these advances are to be drawn at six months' sight, at the rate of 1*s.* 10*d.* per Company's Rupee, until further notice.

It is also further notified, that, in pursuance of instructions received from the Hon'ble the Court of Directors, the Governments of Bengal, Madras and Bombay, have been authorized, in any case in which they may consider such a course to be expedient, to dispense with the obligation to insure, which is imposed by the existing terms and conditions upon parties who may obtain advances from the respective Governments, on the security of Goods hypothecated to the East India Company, intimating to them that the Hon'ble Court will make the insurance in England, and requiring a Declaration binding the parties to repay the premium upon insurances, which the Court may effect before the Bills of Lading and other Shipping Documents are handed over to their Agents.

It is to be understood that the Insurance to be effected, will only be to the amount of the advance in each case, so as to cover the East India Company's risk.

In all other respects the existing terms and conditions of the advances to be made by the respective Governments, will remain in force, and be the same as published in the Calcutta Gazette under date the 1st April 1842.

No. 54 of 1850.—The Hon'ble the President in Council is pleased to publish the following Extract from the London Gazette, for general information:

Whitehall, November 16*th*, 1849.

"The Queen has been pleased to grant unto Thomas Renny, Esquire, Captain in the Corps of Engineers, in the Service of the East India Company on the Bengal Establishment, eldest surviving Son and Heir of Alexander Renny, afterwards Alexander Renny Tailyour, late of Borrowfield and Newmanswalls, in the Shire of Forfar, Esquire, deceased, Her Royal Licence and Authority that he and his issue may, in compliance with a proviso contained in a certain Deed of Trust, Disposition and Deed of Settlement executed by his said late father; take and use the surname of Tailyour in addition to and after that of Renny together with the designation of Renny Tailyour of Borrowfield, and bear the Arms of Tailyour quarterly with those of Renny, such Arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of Arms and recorded in the Herald's Office, otherwise the said Royal Licence and permission to be void and of none effect.

And also to command that the said Royal concession and declaration be recorded in Her Majesty's College of Arms."

The name of Captain Thomas Renny, of Engineers, is accordingly to be hereafter borne on the Returns of the Army as Thomas Renny Tailyour.

No. 55 of 1850.—With the view of obviating the inconvenience to which Officers are now subjected in being required, pending the adjustment of their Contingent Bills, to pay the charges of the Post Office Department for the conveyance of Parcels and Packages sent, bearing postage, on the Public Service, by the Bullock Train, in the North Western Provinces, the Hon'ble the President in Council is pleased to authorize the immediate discharge by the several Deputy Pay Masters of Divisions, of the Bills of Departmental and Commanding Officers, on account of such charges, to enable them to satisfy the claims of Post Masters without delay.

On receipt of a Parcel or Package containing Clothing, Stationery, Books or other Stores, and sent bonâ fide on the Public Service by the Train, the Departmental or Commanding Officer to whom addressed, whether of Her Majesty's or of the Hon'ble Company's Service, will forthwith transmit to the nearest Deputy Pay Master a Bill, properly vouched and attested, and detailing the contents of the Package, for the Post Office charge for its conveyance, and the amount is to be immediately made over, or remitted, by the Deputy Pay Master to the Drawer, for payment to the Post Master.

The Bills are invariably to show the authority by whom the parcel or package was originally despatched, such as the Military Board, the Clothing Agents, the Brigade Major Queen's Troops, &c. to enable the Pay Master to forward them to the proper Department for final adjustment.

No. 56 of 1850.—The Hon'ble the President of the Council of India in Council is pleased to make the following Removals in the Ordnance Commissariat Department:

Calcutta, 25th January, 1850. W. BRACKEN, Collector of Govt. Customs.

☞ The Collector has no objection to pass Packages which are intended for private use, and not for Sale, unopened, provided that, at the time they are applied for, satisfactory proof of their contents, in the shape of Invoices, Bills, or Letters of Advice, are produced. In the absence of these documents, owners should depute a person to be present at the opening of their Packages.

The Collector has nothing to do with the landing of Packages from Ships, nor with forwarding them to their owners or destinations.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Sealed Tenders of Contract superscribed on the Envelopes "Tender for the supply of Rum," will be received by the Deputy Commissary General, Fort William, on or before Friday, the 15th day of March next, for the annual supply at the Presidency, of from Thirty to Forty Thousand Imperial Gallons of Rum, as may be required by the Commissariat, during the term of one, two, or three years, as may be accepted, from the 1st day of May 1850.

The Rum to be manufactured after the European method, and to be delivered on the terms of the Contract, at the Commissariat Godown in Fort William, free of all other charges whatever, in quantities of from 7,500 or 10,000 Gallons at a time, in the months of February, May, August and November of each year. The first delivery to be made in August 1850, Casks will be found by the Commissariat.

The Rum to be pure and Merchantable, made from Sugar Cane Molasses only, and at the time of delivery of the age of at least three months, to be equal in quality, strength and proof, to what is commonly called London proof, such quality proof or strength to be ascertained and decided upon, by the Deputy Commissary General, the Commissariat Officer in charge at Fort William, or by such other persons as may be duly authorized in manner to be hereafter agreed upon.

The Tenders to be accompanied by a written document, signed by two persons of credibility and competency, acknowledging themselves, if the terms be accepted, willing to become responsible by Deed, for the due performance of the Contractors engagements. The value or cost of the Rum delivered into the Commissariat Godown, will be paid for on the same being surveyed and approved.

The Tenders will be opened by the Deputy Commissary General, precisely at noon of Saturday, the 16th March, when persons tendering are invited to attend at his office.

W. J. THOMPSON, Lieut.-Col.,

J. C. SCOTT, Captain,
Dy. Asst. Commy. Genl.

Fort William, Commt. Office,
The 31st December, 1849.

NOTIFICATION.—An Examination will be held early in April 1850, in the College of Fort William, for the purpose of filling up existing Vacancies in the Military Class of the Medical College. All Candidates will be expected to possess a knowledge of the Hindustani Language, adequate to enable them to read and write it in Persian or Devanagri Character.

2nd. All Interpreters of Regiments and Battalions are requested not to grant Certificates of Qualification to any Candidates under the age of fifteen or above that of twenty years; and likewise to reject all who may not pass the prescribed ordeal with a sufficient degree of fluency and facility. Much disappointment, expense and inconvenience have already been experienced by lads from distant stations, being furnished with certificates, who were found, on examination, quite unqualified for admission, and it is with a view to prevent the recurrence of this that the above measure has been adopted.

3rd. Candidates for admission will be required to present themselves before the Secretary to the Medical College, at least three days prior to the day of examination, in order that a proper descriptive roll may be prepared for transmission to the Examiners of the College of Fort William.

4th. The preference in selection, qualifications being equal, will be given to those who have already been attached to, or served in Civil or Regimental Hospitals, or to those who are the sons of Native Officers and Soldiers.

5th. No Candidate will be allowed to present himself for examination, who cannot produce a written testimonial of his conduct and character, or afford satisfactory evidence as to who and what he may be. A few individuals of decidedly bad character, have, upon recent occasions, managed to obtain admittance, it is supposed by producing false papers; the strictest care and scrutiny will therefore be exercised in examining the credentials of all future Candidates, who will, in addition, require to be furnished with regular muster rolls, in order that they may be identified.

6th. All pupils must, as a condition of their appointment, reside within the College premises at all times, and never be absent from morning and evening muster without special leave.

7th. All Students in the Military Class are amenable to the Articles of War, and regularly enlisted as Soldiers.

8th. No Candidate will be admitted into the School, who is physically unfit for the duties of a Soldier.

(By order,)

OF

A MANUAL OF ANATOMY

BY DR F. J. MOUAT, F. R. C. S.,

etc. etc. etc.

The present work is published as a companion to the Atlas, and will form a complete Manual of Anatomy for the Students of the Military Class attached to the Medical College.

It will consist of the following parts, each complete in itself.

Part I. The General Anatomy of the Tissues.
II. The Bones and Ligaments.
III. The Muscular System.
IV. The Vascular System, including Arteries, Veins, and Lymphatics.
V. The Nervous System.
VI. The Organs of Sense and Voice.
VII. The Viscera of the Chest, Abdomen, and Pelvis.

Each part will be stitched in a separate cover, and a General Index to the whole will be published upon the completion of the work.

The four first parts will be translated from the new edition of Quain's Elements of Anatomy, by Dr. Sharpey, and Professor Richard Quain—the best and most correct authority in the English Language.

The three last are already prepared for the press, and will appear first, commencing with the present issue.

The whole will be illustrated by drawings on stone, and brought up, as nearly as can be accomplished, to the standard of the most recent and approved anatomical text books in Europe.

The 5th Part contains 23 marginal illustrations, drawn on Stone, by Mr. COLESWORTHY GRANT.

No. 109 of 1850.

Fort William, Foreign Department, the 25th January, 1850.

NOTIFICATIONS.—The President in Council is pleased to grant leave of absence, on Medical Certificate, to Lieutenant J. B. Dennys, Adjutant of the Kotah Contingent, for six months, commencing from the 15th instant, with permission to visit Dhurumsala, Kot Kangra, and their vicinities.

No. 111 of 1850.

Lieutenant R. M. S. Annesley, 2nd in Command of the Meywar Bheel Corps, has obtained an extension of leave, from 1st November to 17th December 1849, to enable him to join his appointment.

WM. GREY,
Offg. Secy. to the Govt. of India.

No. 7.

Fort William, Financial Department, the 31st March, 1849.

NOTIFICATION.—Notice is hereby given, that in pursuance of instructions received from the Hon'ble the Court of Directors, Supplies on account of the Home Treasury, will continue to be raised during the ensuing Official Year 1849-50, on the security of Goods to be hypothecated to the East India Company, and that, so far as is at present known, the sum required to be provided in India by the purchase of Bills will be £900,000 liable, however, to such modification or extension as may hereafter be demanded by the exigencies of the Public Service.

Advances of Cash will accordingly be made, for this purpose, by the Governments of Bengal, Madras and Bombay, to the extent of ¾ths of the value of the Goods hypothecated, and the Bills in repayment of these advances are to be drawn at six months' sight, at the rate of 1*s.* 10*d.* per Company's Rupee, until further notice.

It is also further notified, that, in pursuance of instructions received from the Hon'ble the Court of Directors, the Governments of Bengal, Madras and Bombay, have been authorized, in any case in which they may consider such a course to be expedient, to dispense with the obligation to insure, which is imposed by the existing terms and conditions upon parties who may obtain advances from the respective Governments, on the security of Goods hypothecated to the East India Company, intimating to them that the Hon'ble Court will make the insurance in England, and requiring a Declaration binding the parties to repay the premium upon insurances, which the Court may effect before the Bills of Lading and other Shipping Documents are handed over to their Agents.

It is to be understood that the Insurance to be effected, will only be to the amount of the advance in each case, so as to cover the East India Company's risk.

In all other respects the existing terms and conditions of the advances to be made by the respective Governments, will remain in force, and be the same as published in the Calcutta Gazette under date the 1st April 1842.

THE following Notice to Mariners, of a New Lighthouse on the Point of Ardnamurchan, in the County of Argyll, is published by the order of Government, for general information.

By order of the Superintendent of Marine,

JAS. SUTHERLAND, Secretary.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

ARDNAMURCHAN LIGHTHOUSE.

THE Commissioners of the Northern Lighthouses hereby give Notice, that a Lighthouse has been built upon the Point of Ardnamurchan in the County of Argyll, the Light of which will be exhibited on the Night of Saturday the 1st December 1849, and every Night thereafter, from Sun-set till Sun-rise.

The following is a Specification of the Lighthouse and the appearance of the Light, by Mr. Alan Stevenson, Engineer to the Commissioners :—

The Lighthouse is in N. Lat. 56°. 43′. 45″. and W. Long. 6°. 13′. 30″. By Compass, the Lighthouse bears from Calliach Head, N. E. ¾ E., distant 7 miles; from the Cairns of Coll, E.S.E. distant 8 miles; from Kana Head, S. ¼ E., distant 30 miles; from Scour of Eigg, S.W. by S. ¾ W., distant 11 miles; and from Bo Askadil Rock, W.S.W., distant 7 miles.

The Ardnamurchan Light will be known to Mariners as a fixed Light of the natural appearance. It will be visible in a north-westerly direction from N.E. by E. ¾ E. round to S.W. by S. The Lantern is elevated 180 feet above the level of the sea; and the Light will be seen at the distance of about six leagues, and at lesser distances according to the state of the atmosphere.

The Commissioners hereby further give Notice, that by virtue of a Warrant from the Queen in Council, dated 11th August 1848, the following Tolls will be levied in respect of this Light, viz.:—

"For every Vessel belonging to the United "Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, (the "same not belonging to Her Majesty, her heirs "and successors, or being navigated wholly in "ballast), and for every Foreign Vessel which, "by any Act of Parliament, Order in Council, "Convention, or Treaty, shall be Privileged to "enter the Ports of the said United Kingdom, "upon paying the same duties of Tonnage as are "paid by British Vessels (the same not being "Vessels navigated wholly in ballast) which shall "pass the said Lighthouse upon Ardnamurchan, "or derive benefit thereby, the Toll of one Farthing per Ton of the Burden of every such Vessel, for each time of passing the said Lighthouse, or deriving benefit thereby, on a Coasting "Voyage, and Double the said Toll for passing "or deriving benefit on an Oversea Voyage; "and Double the said respective Tolls for every "Foreign Vessel not so privileged."

By order of the Board,

(Signed) ALEX. CUNINGHAM, Secretary.

Office of Lighthouse Board, Edinburgh, October 31, 1849.

J. C. SCOTT, Captain, Dy. Asst. Commy. Genl.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Sealed Tenders of Contract superscribed on the Envelopes "Tender for the supply of Rum," will be received by the Deputy Commissary General, Fort William, on or before Friday, the 15th day of March next, for the annual supply at the Presidency, of from Thirty to Forty Thousand Imperial Gallons of Rum, as may be required by the Commissariat, during the term of one, two, or three years, as may be accepted, from the 1st day of May 1850.

The Rum to be manufactured after the European method, and to be delivered on the terms of the Contract, at the Commissariat Godown in Fort William, free of all other charges whatever, in quantities of from 7,500 or 10,000 Gallons at a time, in the months of February, May, August and November of each year. The first delivery to be made in August 1850, Casks will be found by the Commissariat.

The Rum to be pure and Merchantable, made from Sugar Cane Molasses only, and at the time of delivery of the age of at least three months, to be equal in quality, strength and proof, to what is commonly called London proof, such quality proof or strength to be ascertained and decided upon, by the Deputy Commissary General, the Commissariat Officer in charge at Fort William, or by such other persons as may be duly authorized in manner to be hereafter agreed upon.

The Tenders to be accompanied by a written document, signed by two persons of credibility and competency, acknowledging themselves, if the terms be accepted, willing to become responsible by Deed, for the due performance of the Contractors engagements. The value or cost of the Rum delivered into the Commissariat Godown, will be paid for on the same being surveyed and approved.

The Tenders will be opened by the Deputy Commissary General, precisely at noon of Saturday, the 16th March, when persons tendering are invited to attend at his office.

OF

A MANUAL OF ANATOMY

BY DR. F. J. MOUAT, F. R. C. S.,

etc. etc. etc.

The present work is published as a companion to the Atlas, and will form a complete Manual of Anatomy for the Students of the Military Class attached to the Medical College.

It will consist of the following parts, each complete in itself.

Part I. The General Anatomy of the Tissues.
II. The Bones and Ligaments.
III. The Muscular System.
IV. The Vascular System, including Arteries, Veins, and Lymphatics.
V. The Nervous System.
VI. The Organs of Sense and Voice.
VII. The Viscera of the Chest, Abdomen, and Pelvis.

Each part will be stitched in a separate cover, and a General Index to the whole will be published upon the completion of the work.

The four first parts will be translated from the new edition of Quain's Elements of Anatomy, by Dr. Sharpey, and Professor Richard Quain—the best and most correct authority in the English Language.

The three last are already prepared for the press, and will appear first, commencing with the present issue.

The whole will be illustrated by drawings on stone, and brought up, as nearly as can be accomplished, to the standard of the most recent and approved anatomical text books in Europe.

The 5th Part contains 23 marginal illustrations, drawn on Stone, by Mr. COLESWORTHY GRANT.

FRED. J. MOUAT, M. D.,
Govt. Book Agent.

Govt. Book Agency, 30th November, 1849.

Under the Patronage of the Government of India.

(Compiled by THOS. C. FENWICK.)

AN INDEX to the Unrepealed Enactments of the Government of India, from 1793 to March 1849, inclusive, to be completed in three Parts—CIVIL, CRIMINAL and REVENUE. Part I. CIVIL, containing 240 closely printed quarto pages, is JUST PUBLISHED. Part II. CRIMINAL, will be published by the end of January 1850, and Part III., REVENUE, by March of the same year.

The work is compiled on the plan of Dale's Index, and contains all the unrepealed portions of that work. The Epitome of the subsequent Enactments has been embodied, with considerable labour, from the Regulations and Acts themselves. The first portion of the work has received the approbation of several gentlemen in the Civil Service, at present holding high appointments in the Presidency, who have been pleased to examine it.

To Subscribers to all the Parts, or to any two Parts the price will be 12 Rs. for each Part. To those who may subscribe to one Part only, the price will still be 12 Rs., provided the Part subscribed for, does not exceed 240 pages. Should the pages exceed that number, an extra charge of 4 annas for every 5 pages will be made. Non-subscribers must be prepared to pay something more. Subscribers to both the unpublished portions of the work may obtain the Part published on the same terms as Subscribers to all the Parts.

It is hoped that the price fixed to the work will be found to be extremely moderate, especially when it is remembered that Dale's Index, which extends only to 1828, is offered even at the present day, for 32 Rs. a copy.

ALSO JUST PUBLISHED.

The Regulations and Acts of the Government of India, relating to the Military Service of the East India Company, attached to the Presidency of Fort William, and doing duty within or without the Company's Territories, or beyond Seas. From 1793 to March 1849, inclusive, including the last Articles of War. The whole accompanied with a copious Index, containing altogether 200 quarto pages, price 8 Rupees.

This work is equally useful to Collectors and Magistrates as to Military men, and the price has been fixed with a view to make it available to the lowest grade of Officers, both Civil and Military.

Subscribers' names received and orders for Copies attended to by the Publishers,

No. 7.

Fort William, Financial Department, the 31st March, 1849.

NOTIFICATION.—Notice is hereby given, that in pursuance of instructions received from the Hon'ble the Court of Directors, Supplies on account of the Home Treasury, will continue to be raised during the ensuing Official Year 1849-50, on the security of Goods to be hypothecated to the East India Company, and that, so far as is at present known, the sum required to be provided in India by the purchase of Bills will be £900,000 liable, however, to such modification or extension as may hereafter be demanded by the exigencies of the Public Service.

Advances of Cash will accordingly be made, for this purpose, by the Governments of Bengal, Madras and Bombay, to the extent of ¾ths of the value of the Goods hypothecated, and the Bills in repayment of these advances are to be drawn at six months' sight, at the rate of 1*s.* 10*d.* per Company's Rupee, until further notice.

It is also further notified, that, in pursuance of instructions received from the Hon'ble the Court of Directors, the Governments of Bengal, Madras and Bombay, have been authorized, in any case in which they may consider such a course to be expedient, to dispense with the obligation to insure, which is imposed by the existing terms and conditions upon parties who may obtain advances from the respective Governments, on the security of Goods hypothecated to the East India Company, intimating to them that the Hon'ble Court will make the insurance in England, and requiring a Declaration binding the parties to repay the premium upon insurances, which the Court may effect before the Bills of Lading and other Shipping Documents are handed over to their Agents.

It is to be understood that the Insurance to be effected, will only be to the amount of the advance in each case, so as to cover the East India Company's risk.

In all other respects the existing terms and conditions of the advances to be made by the respective Governments, will remain in force, and be the same as published in the Calcutta Gazette under date the 1st April 1842.

Published by order of the Hon'ble the President in Council,

J. A. DORIN, Secy. to the Govt. of India.

No. 30.

Fort William, Financial Department, the 28th December, 1849.

NOTIFICATION.—Notice is hereby given, that the rate of Exchange at which Bills secured by the Hypothecation of Goods, are to be drawn in favor of the Hon'ble the East India Company, will be 1*s.* 11*d.* per Company's Rupee, until further orders. In all other respects the existing terms and conditions of advances to be made by the Governments of Bengal, Madras and Bombay, will remain as at present in force.

By order of the Hon'ble the President in Council,

J. A. DORIN, Secy. to the Govt. of India.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the practice of granting Temporary Passes for Salt is discontinued; and that, in future, no Salt (except for the purpose of being Bonded,) will be delivered from Ships lying in the River, except on production of a Rowannah. If the quantity of Salt on board be less than that for which the Rowannah has been issued, the Preventive Officer will certify the same on the back of the document, together with the actual quantity of Salt delivered to the holder of it. The Rowannah, so endorsed, will protect the Salt in transit or store until an Exchange Rowannah can be taken out.

By order of the Board of Customs, Salt and Opium,

WILLIAM BRACKEN,
Collector of Govt. Customs.

Calcutta. Govt. Customs House, the 31st January, 1850.

containing

OF

A MANUAL OF ANATOMY

BY DR F. J. MOUAT, F. R. C. S.,

etc. etc. etc.

The present work is published as a companion to the Atlas, and will form a complete Manual of Anatomy for the Students of the Military Class attached to the Medical College.

It will consist of the following parts, each complete in itself.

Part I. The General Anatomy of the Tissues.
II. The Bones and Ligaments.
III. The Muscular System.
IV. The Vascular System, including Arteries, Veins, and Lymphatics.
V. The Nervous System.
VI. The Organs of Sense and Voice.
VII. The Viscera of the Chest, Abdomen, and Pelvis.

Each part will be stitched in a separate cover, and a General Index to the whole will be published upon the completion of the work.

The four first parts will be translated from the new edition of Quain's Elements of Anatomy, by Dr. Sharpey, and Professor Richard Quain—the best and most correct authority in the English Language.

The three last are already prepared for the press, and will appear first, commencing with the present issue.

The whole will be illustrated by drawings on stone, and brought up, as nearly as can be accomplished, to the standard of the most recent and approved anatomical text books in Europe.

The 5th Part contains 23 marginal illustrations, drawn on Stone, by Mr. COLESWORTHY GRANT.

Price, plain,..... ..... 3 Rupees per Copy.

Price 12 Rs.

Applications for Copies to be made to the Superintendent of the Military Orphan Press.

Under the Patronage of the Government of India.

(Compiled by THOS. C. FENWICK.)

AN INDEX to the Unrepealed Enactments of the Government of India, from 1793 to March 1849, inclusive, to be completed in three Parts—CIVIL, CRIMINAL and REVENUE. Part I. CIVIL, containing 240 closely printed quarto pages, is JUST PUBLISHED. Part II. CRIMINAL, will be published by the end of January 1850, and Part III., REVENUE, by March of the same year.

The work is compiled on the plan of Dale's Index, and contains all the unrepealed portions of that work. The Epitome of the subsequent Enactments has been embodied, with considerable labour, from the Regulations and Acts themselves. The first portion of the work has received the approbation of several gentlemen in the Civil Service, at present holding high appointments in the Presidency, who have been pleased to examine it.

To Subscribers to all the Parts, or to any two Parts the price will be 12 Rs. for each Part. To those who may subscribe to one Part only, the price will still be 12 Rs., provided the Part subscribed for, does not exceed 240 pages. Should the pages exceed that number, an extra charge of 4 annas for every 5 pages will be made. Non-subscribers must be prepared to pay something more. Subscribers to both the unpublished portions of the work may obtain the Part published on the same terms as Subscribers to all the Parts.

It is hoped that the price fixed to the work will be found to be extremely moderate, especially when it is remembered that Dale's Index, which extends only to 1828, is offered even at the present day, for 32 Rs. a copy

ALSO JUST PUBLISHED.

The Regulations and Acts of the Government of India, relating to the Military Service of the East India Company, attached to the Presidency of Fort William, and doing duty within or without the Company's Territories, or beyond Seas. From 1793 to March 1849, inclusive, including the last Articles of War. The whole accompanied with a copious Index, containing altogether 200 quarto pages, price 8 Rupees.

This work is equally useful to Collectors and Magistrates as to Military men, and the price has been fixed with a view to make it available to the lowest grade of Officers, both Civil and Military.

Subscribers' names received and orders for Copies attended to by the Publishers,

Board of Customs, Salt and Opium, the 2nd February, 1850.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the practice of granting Temporary Passes for Salt is discontinued; and that, in future, no Salt (except for the purpose of being Bonded,) will be delivered from Ships lying in the River, except on production of a Rowannah. If the quantity of Salt on board be less than that for which the Rowannah has been issued, the Preventive Officer will certify the same on the back of the document, together with the actual quantity of Salt delivered to the holder of it. The Rowannah, so endorsed, will protect the Salt in transit or store until an Exchange Rowannah can be taken out.

By order of the Board of Customs, Salt and Opium,

WILLIAM BRACKEN,
Collector of Govt. Customs.

Calcutta. Govt. Customs House, the 31st January, 1850.

Jelundher, the 10th Dec., 1849.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Sealed Tenders of Contract superscribed on the Envelopes "Tender for the supply of Rum," will be received by the Deputy Commissary General, Fort William, on or before Friday, the 15th day of March next, for the annual supply at the Presidency, of from Thirty to Forty Thousand Imperial Gallons of Rum, as may be required by the Commissariat, during the term of one, two, or three years, as may be accepted, from the 1st day of May 1850.

The Rum to be manufactured after the European method, and to be delivered on the terms of the Contract, at the Commissariat Godown in Fort William, free of all other charges whatever, in quantities of from 7,500 or 10,000 Gallons at a time, in the months of February, May, August and November of each year. The first delivery to be made in August 1850, Casks will be found by the Commissariat.

The Rum to be pure and Merchantable, made from Sugar Cane Molasses only, and at the time of delivery of the age of at least three months, to be equal in quality, strength and proof, to what is commonly called London proof, such quality proof or strength to be ascertained and decided upon, by the Deputy Commissary General, the Commissariat Officer in charge at Fort William, or by such other persons as may be duly authorized in manner to be hereafter agreed upon.

The Tenders to be accompanied by a written document, signed by two persons of credibility and competency, acknowledging themselves, if the terms be accepted, willing to become responsible by Deed, for the due performance of the Contractors engagements. The value or cost of the Rum delivered into the Commissariat Godown, will be paid for on the same being surveyed and approved.

The Tenders will be opened by the Deputy Commissary General, precisely at noon of Saturday, the 16th March, when persons tendering are invited to attend at his office.

SIR,—The Queen having been pleased to command that the situation of the Regimental Quarter Masters of Her Majesty's Army shall be improved, by enabling them to reckon previous service in other Ranks as Commissioned or Non-Commissioned Officers towards their claim for increased full pay as Quarter Masters, I have the honor to transmit to you, herewith, a Copy of Her Majesty's gracious Warrant on the subject, dated the 3rd instant.

The benefit thus conferred by Her Majesty will take effect from the 1st October 1849; and as soon as the Quarter Master of the Regiment under your command shall be entitled to claim increased pay, according to the provisions of the Warrant, his claim is to be forwarded to me, through you, supported by your recommendation, and accompanied by a certified statement of the services upon which the claim is founded, also by the original record of his service, if any, as a Non-Commissioned Officer; unless such record shall have been previously sent to my office.

The claim so forwarded and supported will be then forthwith considered and authority given for the issue of the increased Pay to which the Quarter Master shall be found entitled.

I have the honor to be, &c.,

VICTORIA R.

Whereas We have adjudged it expedient to revise that part of Our Royal Warrant of the 1st July 1848, which regulates the Pay of Regimental Quarter Masters, Our Will and Pleasure is, that from and after the 1st day of October 1849, the daily Pay of a Quarter Master shall be as follows:

Calcutta, 8th February, 1850. W. BRACKEN, Collector of Govt. Customs.

☞ The Collector has no objection to pass Packages which are intended for private use, and not for Sale, unopened, provided that, at the time they are applied for, satisfactory proof of their contents, in the shape of Invoices, Bills, or Letters of Advice, are produced. In the absence of these documents, owners should depute a person to be present at the opening of their Packages.

The Collector has nothing to do with the landing of Packages from Ships, nor with forwarding them to their owners or destinations.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the practice of granting Temporary Passes for Salt is discontinued; and that, in future, no Salt (except for the purpose of being Bonded,) will be delivered from Ships lying in the River, except on production of a Rowannah. If the quantity of Salt on board be less than that for which the Rowannah has been issued, the Preventive Officer will certify the same on the back of the document, together with the actual quantity of Salt delivered to the holder of it. The Rowannah, so endorsed, will protect the Salt in transit or store until an Exchange Rowannah can be taken out.

By order of the Board of Customs, Salt and Opium,

WILLIAM BRACKEN,

Calcutta, Govt. Customs House, the 31st January, 1850.

NOTICE.—Patcheapah Moodelly, formerly of Tanjore and Madras, deceased, by his Will, dated 22nd March 1794, amongst other things bequeathed "the sum of One Lack of Pagodas to be placed "out at Interest, and directed that out of the In-"terest arising therefrom, the ablutions and offer-"ings were to be performed with regularity in "the different holy places from Causey to Rams-"veram," and whereas by a Decree of the Supreme Court of Judicature at Madras, made in a cause "Herbert Compton, Esquire, Advocate General of the East India Company, versus Annasawmy Pillay," and bearing date the Third day of February, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Twenty-six, It was declared, that the said Legacy was a good and valid bequest, and directed that it should be referred to the Master to enquire and report who would be fit and proper persons to have the management of the Charities mentioned in the said Decree. That the Master made his report, dated 21st March 1829, whereby he certified, that the sums bequeathed for Charities to be performed at Benares and other places therein mentioned, should be paid annually to the Durmakhartah, or Church Warden of the respective Pagodas; and whereas by a Decretal Order made in the said cause on the Thirtieth day of October, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Thirty-two, it was amongst other things ordered, that the Sub-Treasurer of Fort Saint George, with the privity of the Accountant General, should carry to the credit of the said cause to an account to be entitled "Patcheapah's Benares Charity," the sum of Sixteen Thousand and Eight Hundred Rupees. The Interest of the same to be received and applied for the purpose of accumulation subject unto and until the further order of the Court; and whereas by an order, dated the Twenty-fifth day of September, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Forty-nine, made in the said cause, on the Petition of Causeevassee Chocalingee Tumberan, It was referred to the said Master to enquire and report who is, or are the proper person or persons to receive the funds standing in the Treasury to the credit of the said cause to the account of "Patcheapah's Benares Charity." Notice is therefore hereby given, that all persons claiming to be entitled to receive the said Fund are required to come in and prove their claims before Charles Martin Teed, Esquire, the Master of the said Supreme Court, on or before the First day of May, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Fifty.

OF

A MANUAL OF ANATOMY

BY DR F. J. MOUAT, F. R. C. S.,

etc. etc. etc.

The present work is published as a companion to the Atlas, and will form a complete Manual of Anatomy for the Students of the Military Class attached to the Medical College.

It will consist of the following parts, each complete in itself.

Part I. The General Anatomy of the Tissues.
II. The Bones and Ligaments.
III. The Muscular System.
IV. The Vascular System, including Arteries, Veins, and Lymphatics.
V. The Nervous System.
VI. The Organs of Sense and Voice.
VII. The Viscera of the Chest, Abdomen, and Pelvis.

Each part will be stitched in a separate cover, and a General Index to the whole will be published upon the completion of the work.

The four first parts will be translated from the new edition of Quain's Elements of Anatomy, by Dr. Sharpey, and Professor Richard Quain—the best and most correct authority in the English Language.

The three last are already prepared for the press, and will appear first, commencing with the present issue.

The whole will be illustrated by drawings on stone, and brought up, as nearly as can be accomplished, to the standard of the most recent and approved anatomical text books in Europe.

The 5th Part contains 23 marginal illustrations, drawn on Stone, by Mr. COLESWORTHY GRANT.

Govt. Book Agency, 30*th November*, 1849.

FRED. J. MOUAT, M. D.,
Govt. Book Agent.

Under the Patronage of the Government of India.

(Compiled by THOS. C. FENWICK.)

AN INDEX to the Unrepealed Enactments of the Government of India, from 1793 to March 1849, inclusive, to be completed in three Parts—CIVIL, CRIMINAL and REVENUE. Part I. CIVIL, containing 240 closely printed quarto pages, is JUST PUBLISHED. Part II. CRIMINAL, will be published by the end of Jauuary 1850, and Part III., REVENUE, by March of the same year.

The work is compiled on the plan of Dale's Index, and contains all the unrepealed portions of that work. The Epitome of the subsequent Enactments has been embodied, with considerable labour, from the Regulations and Acts themselves. The first portion of the work has received the approbation of several gentlemen in the Civil Service, at present holding high appointments in the Presidency, who have been pleased to examine it.

To Subscribers to all the Parts, or to any two Parts the price will be 12 Rs. for each Part. To those who may subscribe to one Part only, the price will still be 12 Rs., provided the Part subscribed for, does not exceed 240 pages. Should the pages exceed that number, an extra charge of 4 annas for every 5 pages will be made. Non-subscribers must be prepared to pay something more. Subscribers to both the unpublished portions of the work may obtain the Par published on the same terms as Subscribers to all the Partst

It is hoped that the price fixed to the work will be found to be extremely moderate, especially when it is remembered that Dale's Index, which extends only to 1828, is offered even at the present day, for 32 Rs. a copy.

ALSO JUST PUBLISHED.

The Regulations and Acts of the Government of India, relating to the Military Service of the East India Company, attached to the Presidency of Fort William, and doing duty within or without the Company's Territories, or beyond Seas. From 1793 to March 1849, inclusive, including the last Articles of War. The whole accompanied with a copious Index, containing altogether 200 quarto pages, price 8 Rupees.

This work is equally useful to Collectors and Magistrates as to Military men, and the price has been fixed with a view to make it available to the lowest grade of Officers, both Civil and Military.

Subscribers' names received and orders for Copies attended to by the Publishers,

Dy. Asst. Commy. Genl.

Fort William, Commt. Office,
The 31st December, 1849.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Sealed Tenders of Contract superscribed on the Envelopes "Tender for the supply of Rum," will be received by the Deputy Commissary General, Fort William, on or before Friday, the 15th day of March next, for the annual supply at the Presidency, of from Thirty to Forty Thousand Imperial Gallons of Rum, as may be required by the Commissariat, during the term of one, two, or three years, as may be accepted, from the 1st day of May 1850.

The Rum to be manufactured after the European method, and to be delivered on the terms of the Contract, at the Commissariat Godown in Fort William, free of all other charges whatever, in quantities of from 7,500 or 10,000 Gallons at a time, in the months of February, May, August and November of each year. The first delivery to be made in August 1850, Casks will be found by the Commissariat.

The Rum to be pure and Merchantable, made from Sugar Cane Molasses only, and at the time of delivery of the age of at least three months, to be equal in quality, strength and proof, to what is commonly called London proof, such quality proof or strength to be ascertained and decided upon, by the Deputy Commissary General, the Commissariat Officer in charge at Fort William, or by such other persons as may be duly authorized in manner to be hereafter agreed upon.

The Tenders to be accompanied by a written document, signed by two persons of eredibility and competency, acknowledging themselves, if the terms be accepted, willing to become responsible by Deed, for the due performance of the Contractors engagements. The value or cost of the Rum delivered into the Commissariat Godown, will be paid for on the same being surveyed and approved.

The Tenders will be opened by the Deputy Commissary General, precisely at noon of Saturday, the 16th March, when persons tendering are invited to attend at his office.

W. J. THOMPSON, Lieut.-Col.,
Deputy Comy. Genl.

Joint Dy. Comy. Genl.'s Office,
Fort William, 24th January, 1850.

NOTIFICATION.—An Examination will be held early in April 1850, in the College of Fort William, for the purpose of filling up existing Vacancies in the Military Class of the Medical College. All Candidates will be expected to possess a knowledge of the Hindustani Language, adequate to enable them to read and write it in Persian or Devanagri Character.

2nd. All Interpreters of Regiments and Battalions are requested not to grant Certificates of Qualification to any Candidates under the age of fifteen or above that of twenty years; and likewise to reject all who may not pass the prescribed ordeal with a sufficient degree of fluency and facility. Much disappointment, expense and inconvenience have already been experienced by lads from distant stations, being furnished with certificates, who were found, on examination, quite unqualified for admission, and it is with a view to prevent the recurrence of this that the above measure has been adopted.

3rd. Candidates for admission will be required to present themselves before the Secretary to the Medical College, at least three days prior to the day of examination, in order that a proper descriptive roll may be prepared for transmission to the Examiners of the College of Fort William.

4th. The preference in selection, qualifications being equal, will be given to those who have already been attached to, or served in Civil or Regimental Hospitals, or to those who are the sons of Native Officers and Soldiers.

5th. No Candidate will be allowed to present himself for examination, who cannot produce a written testimonial of his conduct and character, or afford satisfactory evidence as to who and what he may be. A few individuals of decidedly bad character, have, upon recent occasions, managed to obtain admittance, it is supposed by producing false papers; the strictest care and scrutiny will therefore be exercised in examining the credentials of all future Candidates, who will, in addition, require to be furnished with regular muster rolls, in order that they may be identified.

6th. All pupils must, as a condition of their appointment, reside within the College premises at all times, and never be absent from morning and evening muster without special leave.

7th. All Students in the Military Class are emenable to the Articles of War, and regularly enlisted as Soldiers.

8th. No Candidate will be admitted into the School, who is physically unfit for the duties of a Soldier.

CIVIL SERVICE ANNUITY FUND.

At a General Meeting of Subscribers to the Civil Service Annuity Fund, held at the Town Hall, on Monday, the 4th February, 1850.

PRESENT—Messrs. J. J. Harvey, E. Currie, J. Dunbar, A. J. M. Mills, H. T. Raikes, B. J. Colvin, J. S. Torrens, H. C. Tucker, J. H. Young, G. D. Wilkins, C. Beadon, W. H. Brodhurst, St. G. Tucker, J. W. Dalrymple, and J. R. Mackillop.

J. DUNBAR, ESQ., in the Chair.

The Accounts of the Fund for the past year 1848-49, were approved and past.

Proposed by Mr. Harvey and seconded by Mr. Raikes—That this Meeting consider that the practice of requiring from Retiring Annuitants, who have paid up by their Subscriptions the prescribed full half value of their Annuities, and the full value of premiums for quarterly and to date of decease payments (as entered in the last column of the Table in page 21 of the printed Rules,) an additional cash payment equal to the value of the premium for quarterly and to date of decease payments, to secure to such Subscribers these advantages is not in accordance with Rule 34 or any Rule of the Fund. That it also tends to delay retirements and impede promotion. That this Meeting therefore resolve, that the Managers be instructed to abstain in future from the levy of any such additional sum in cash in all cases in which the additional premium for quarterly and to date of decease payments, together with the ½ value of his Annuity, has been made good by a Subscriber's subscription, or may be available out of the Bonus provided under Rules 35 and 36.

It was then proposed by Mr. Beadon and seconded by Mr. Colvin, as an amendment—

That no notice having been given that the subject of this proposition would be discussed at this Meeting, the consideration of it be deferred until duly notified under Rule 25.—Carried.

Proposed by Mr. Harvey and seconded by Mr. Currie—

That a Special General Meeting be convened on the 1st Monday of April, for the consideration of the following question, viz.—That the practice of requiring from Retiring Annuitants, who have paid up by their Subscriptions the prescribed full half value of their Annuities, and the full value of premiums for quarterly and to date of decease payments (as entered in the last column of the Table in page 21 of the printed Rules,) an additional cash payment, equal to the value of the premium for quarterly and to date of decease payments, to secure to such Subscribers these advantages is not in accordance with Rule 34 or any Rule of the Fund.—Carried.

Mr. Harvey then gave notice that he would bring forward at the said Special General Meeting the following motion :—

That it appears to this Meeting on reference to the 57th para. of the despatch of the Hon'ble the Court of Directors, dated 8th December, 1824, which contemplates that all Civil Servants upon becoming Annuitants will pay half the value of their respective Annuities and NO MORE, and on reference to the 74th para. of the said despatch, wherein the principle so laid down is again recognized and affirmed, that the calculations on which the Annuity Fund is based, do not require from any Subscriber a larger payment than half of the value of his Annuity. That this Meeting therefore consider the continued deduction of 4 per cent. from the salary of a Subscriber after he has paid up from his contributions with interest thereon. The highest full half value of an Annuity as entered in the last column of the Table in page 21 of the printed Rules to be contrary to the principles of the Fund, and not borne out by any positive Rule of the Fund. That this practice in its operation retards promotion and thus impedes one of the main objects of the Fund. That it appears from the Rules of the similarly constituted Fund of the Bombay Service, that the Hon'ble the Court of Directors allow to Retiring Annuitants of that Service a refund of all excess subscription paid by each Subscriber, above the full half value of the Annuity taken by each. That this Rule accelerates retirement and consequent promotion in that Service. That this Meeting therefore resolve to memorialize the Hon'ble the Court of Directors to sanction a modification of the Rules of this Fund in this respect. That for this purpose a Committee be appointed to prepare a Memorial for circulation to the Service, and eventual submission to the Hon'ble the Court of Directors, praying in revision of the existing practice of the Fund: That on retirement a refund of all excess subscription paid by a Subscriber be allowed to Annuitants of the Bengal Civil Service as has been sanctioned by the Hon'ble Court to their Bombay Civil Servants.

A vote of thanks was passed to the Chairman.

J. DUNBAR,
Chairman.

containing

OF

A MANUAL OF ANATOMY

BY DR. F. J. MOUAT, F. R. C. S.,

etc. etc. etc.

The present work is published as a companion to the Atlas, and will form a complete Manual of Anatomy for the Students of the Military Class attached to the Medical College.

It will consist of the following parts, each complete in itself.

Part I. The General Anatomy of the Tissues.
II. The Bones and Ligaments.
III. The Muscular System.
IV. The Vascular System, including Arteries, Veins, and Lymphatics.
V. The Nervous System.
VI. The Organs of Sense and Voice.
VII. The Viscera of the Chest, Abdomen, and Pelvis.

Each part will be stitched in a separate cover, and a General Index to the whole will be published upon the completion of the work.

The four first parts will be translated from the new edition of Quain's Elements of Anatomy, by Dr. Sharpey, and Professor Richard Quain—the best and most correct authority in the English Language.

The three last are already prepared for the press, and will appear first, commencing with the present issue.

The whole will be illustrated by drawings on stone, and brought up, as nearly as can be accomplished, to the standard of the most recent and approved anatomical text books in Europe.

The 5th Part contains 23 marginal illustrations, drawn on Stone, by Mr. COLESWORTHY GRANT.

Price, plain,..... ..... 3 Rupees per Copy.

Under the Patronage of the Government of India.

(Compiled by THOS. C. FENWICK.)

AN INDEX to the Unrepealed Enactments of the Government of India, from 1793 to March 1849, inclusive, to be completed in three Parts—CIVIL, CRIMINAL and REVENUE. Part I. CIVIL, containing 240 closely printed quarto pages, is JUST PUBLISHED. Part II. CRIMINAL, will be published by the end of January 1850, and Part III., REVENUE, by March of the same year.

The work is compiled on the plan of Dale's Index, and contains all the unrepealed portions of that work. The Epitome of the subsequent Enactments has been embodied, with considerable labour, from the Regulations and Acts themselves. The first portion of the work has received the approbation of several gentlemen in the Civil Service, at present holding high appointments in the Presidency, who have been pleased to examine it.

To Subscribers to all the Parts, or to any two Parts the price will be 12 Rs. for each Part. To those who may subscribe to one Part only, the price will still be 12 Rs., provided the Part subscribed for, does not exceed 240 pages. Should the pages exceed that number, an extra charge of 4 annas for every 5 pages will be made. Non-subscribers must be prepared to pay something more. Subscribers to both the unpublished portions of the work may obtain the Part published on the same terms as Subscribers to all the Parts.

It is hoped that the price fixed to the work will be found to be extremely moderate, especially when it is remembered that Dale's Index, which extends only to 1828, is offered even at the present day, for 32 Rs. a copy.

ALSO JUST PUBLISHED.

The Regulations and Acts of the Government of India, relating to the Military Service of the East India Company, attached to the Presidency of Fort William, and doing duty within or without the Company's Territories, or beyond Seas. From 1793 to March 1849, inclusive, including the last Articles of War. The whole accompanied with a copious Index, containing altogether 200 quarto pages, price 8 Rupees.

This work is equally useful to Collectors and Magistrates as to Military men, and the price has been fixed with a view to make it available to the lowest grade of Officers, both Civil and Military.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 16, 1850.

Fort William, Home Department, Legislative, the 15th February, 1850.

The following Act is passed by the Hon'ble the President of the Council of India in Council, on the 15th February 1850, with the assent of the Most Noble the Governor General of India, which has been read and recorded.

Ordered, that the Act be promulgated for general information.

ACT No. IV. OF 1850.

For the amendment of Procedure in Cases of Appeal to the Sudder Court.

Whereas inconvenience has resulted from the rule allowing petitions of Appeal to the Sudder Dewanny Adawlut from Judgments of Principal Sudder Ameens, or of the Judges of the Zillah or City Courts, to be presented either in the Sudder Court, or in the Court in which the decision was passed, and from the rule allowing the specific objections to the Judgment and detailed grounds and reasons for preferring the Appeal to be, at the option of the party, either stated in the original petition of Appeal, or afterwards filed in the Court trying the Appeal, as a separate pleading, It is enacted as follows, in modification of Section X., Regulation VI., 1793, Section III., Regulation XII., 1797, and Section VIII., Regulation XXVI., 1814, of the Bengal Code.

I. Every petition of Regular Appeal, in a case appealable to the Sudder Court, shall be presented to the Court in which the decision was passed, within six weeks from the day of the decision: such petition of Appeal shall contain only notice that the party, being dissatisfied with the Judgment, is desirous of appealing from it.

II. The proceedings held in the cause of Appeal shall be certified to the Sudder Dewanny Adawlut as soon as conveniently may be done; and notice thereof in writing shall be given to the Appellant.

III. Withins three month after receipt of such notice the Appellant shall present to the Sudder Dewanny Adawlut the specific objections to the Judgment and detailed reasons for preferring the Appeal; otherwise it shall be dismissed, unless he shall show reasonable cause to the satisfaction of the Sudder Court for his default.

No. 149 A of 1850.

Head Quarters, General Department, the 9th February, 1850.

RESOLUTION.

1. Enquiries which have been lately instituted in order to ascertain the state of education throughout these provinces, show that the greatest ignorance prevails amongst the people, and that there are no adequate means at work for affording them instruction. The means of learning are scanty and the instruction which is given, is of the rudest and least practical character.

2. The present scheme contemplates the employment of an Agency, which shall rouse the people to a sense of the evils resulting from ignorance, which shall stimulate them to exertions on their own part to remove this ignorance, which shall furnish them with qualified teachers and appropriate books, and which shall afford rewards and encouragement to the most deserving teachers and pupils.

3. The means of effecting this object will be sought in that feature of the existing Revenue System, which provides for the annual registration of all landed property throughout the country.

4. It is well known that the land is minutely divided amongst the people. There are few of the agricultural classes, who are not possessed of some rights of property in the soil. In order to explain and protect these rights, a system of registration has been devised, which is based on the Survey made at the time of settlement and which annually shows the state of the property. It is necessary for the correctness of this register, that those, whose rights it records, should be able to consult it and to ascertain the nature of the entries affecting themselves. This involves a knowledge of reading and writing, of the simple rules of arithmetic, and of land measurement.

5. The means are thus afforded for setting before the people the practical bearing of learning on the safety of the rights in land, which they most highly prize, and it is hoped that when the powers of the mind have once been excited into action, the pupils may often be induced to advance further, and to persevere till they reach a higher state of intellectual cultivation.

6. The agency by which it is hoped to effect this purpose will be thus constituted.

7. There will be a Government Village School at the Head Quarters of every Tuhseeldar. In every two or more Tuhseeldarees, there will be a Pergunnah visitor. Over these a Zillah visitor in each district, and over all a Visitor General for the whole of the provinces.

8. The Government Village School at each Tuhseeldaree, will be conducted by a Schoolmaster, who will receive from Government a salary of from 10 to 20 Rupees per annum, besides such fees as he may collect from his scholars. The course of instruction in this school, will consist of reading and writing the vernacular languages, both Oordoo and Hindi, Accounts and the Mensuration of Land according to the native system. To these will be added such instruction in geography, history, geometry or other general subjects, conveyed through the medium of the vernacular language, as the people may be willing to receive. Care will be taken to prevent these schools from becoming rivals of the indigenous schools maintained by the natives themselves. This will be effected by making the terms of admission higher than are usually demanded in village schools, and by allowing free admissions only on recommendations given by Village Schoolmasters, who may be on the Visitor's lists.

9. The Pergunnah Visitors will receive salaries varying from 20 to 40 Rupees a month. It will be their duty to visit all the towns and principal villages in their jurisdictions, and to ascertain what means of instruction are available to the people. Where there is no Village School, they will explain to the people the advantages that would result from the institution of a school; they will offer their assistance in finding a qualified teacher and in providing books, &c. Where schools are found in existence they will ascertain the nature of the instruction and the number of scholars, and they will offer their assistance to the person conducting the school. If this offer is accepted, the school will be entered on their lists, the boys will be examined, and the more advanced scholars noted, improvements in the course or mode of instruction will be recommended, and such books as may be required will be procured. Prizes will be proposed for the most deserving of the teachers or scholars, and the power of granting free admissions to the Tuhseeldaree School will be accorded.

10. The Zillah Visitor will draw a salary between 100 and 200 a month. He will superintend the Pergunnah Visitors and the Tuhseeldaree Schools. He will see that the former perform their duty; he will test the accuracy of their reports and decide on the bestowal of the prizes, which they may recommend. The sum of 500 Rupees per annum will be at the disposal of the Zillah Visitor to give as rewards within the district. He will pay particular attention to the Tuhseeldaree Schools, holding periodical examinations and reporting on the conduct of the masters, and the progress and qualifications of the pupils. It will be his duty also to furnish an annual report on the state of education in the district, and in the compilation of this, he will carefully test the statistical data, which may be afforded him by the Pergunnah Visitors. This report will include all schools, both those on his lists and those which are not, and he will describe the course of education followed in each class of schools. He will also ascertain, as far as he may be able, the extent and nature of the private instruction given to those of the upper classes, who do not attend schools. He will be the Agent for the distribution and sale of school-books, and will receive a commission of 10 per cent. on all such sales, which he may effect.

11. It will be the duty of the Visitor General to supply the subordinate agency, and to superintend the working of the whole. He will correspond direct with the Government, and will furnish an Annual Report on the state of Education in the several districts under his charge, as soon as may be practicable after the 1st of May of each year.

12. It will be observed that this scheme contemplates drawing forth the energies of the people for their own improvement rather than actually supplying to them the means of instruction at the cost of the Government. Persuasion, assistance and encouragement are the means to be principally employed. The greatest consideration is to be shown for the feelings and prejudices of the people, and no interference is ever to be exercised, where it is not desired by those who conduct the Institution. The success of the scheme will chiefly appear in the number and character of the indigenous schools which may be established. The poor may be persuaded to combine for the support of a teacher; the rich may be encouraged to support schools for their poorer neighbours, and all the schools that are established may be assisted, improved, and brought forward.

13. These operations must be conducted in concert with the Revenue Authorities, and must obtain their cordial assistance. The agency which is now called into action, may be made most valuable in ensuring the proper training of Putwarries, and in ascertaining the qualifications of candidates or nominees for that office. Certificates of qualification from some of the persons employed in the department may be made necessary for advancement to the post of Village Putwarrie and also to many other appointments such as those of Peon, Chupprassie, or Burkundauze, as well as to those higher offices where literary attainments are more evidently essential.

14. It will remain for consideration hereafter whether Zillah schools can be advantageously established where a higher course of education may be given. For the present it is sufficient to determine that the Visitor General shall have the power of granting free admissions to the Government Colleges to a certain number of the most promising amongst the youth who come under his notice.

15. Operations in the spirit of this scheme have already been partially commenced in the districts of Bareilly, Agra, Muttra, Mynpoorie and Benares. The sanction of the Hon'ble Court at present authorizes the introduction of the system into eight districts. The Zillahs noted in the margin have been selected for the purpose. It is necessary for the present to exclude Benares from the scheme in consequence of its distance from the other districts.

No. 348.

THE following Notice to Mariners, of a New Lighthouse on the Point of Ardnamurchan, in the County of Argyll, is published by the order of Government, for general information.

By order of the Superintendent of Marine,

JAS. SUTHERLAND, Secretary.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

ARDNAMURCHAN LIGHTHOUSE.

THE Commissioners of the Northern Lighthouses hereby give Notice, that a Lighthouse has been built upon the Point of Ardnamurchan in the County of Argyll, the Light of which will be exhibited on the Night of Saturday the 1st December 1849, and every Night thereafter, from Sun-set till Sun-rise.

The following is a Specification of the Lighthouse and the appearance of the Light, by Mr. Alan Stevenson, Engineer to the Commissioners :—

The Lighthouse is in N. Lat. 56°. 43′. 45″. and W. Long. 6°. 13′. 30″. By Compass, the Lighthouse bears from Calliach Head, N. E. ¾ E., distant 7 miles; from the Cairns of Coll, E.S.E. distant 8 miles; from Kana Head, S. ¼ E., distant 30 miles; from Scour of Eigg, S.W. by S. ¾ W., distant 11 miles; and from Bo Askadil Rock, W.S.W., distant 7 miles.

The Ardnamurchan Light will be known to Mariners as a fixed Light of the natural appearance. It will be visible in a north-westerly direction from N.E. by E. ¾ E. round to S.W. by S. The Lantern is elevated 180 feet above the level of the sea; and the Light will be seen at the distance of about six leagues, and at lesser distances according to the state of the atmosphere.

The Commissioners hereby further give Notice, that by virtue of a Warrant from the Queen in Council, dated 11th August 1848, the following Tolls will be levied in respect of this Light, viz.:—

"For every Vessel belonging to the United "Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, (the "same not belonging to Her Majesty, her heirs "and successors, or being navigated wholly in "ballast), and for every Foreign Vessel which, "by any Act of Parliament, Order in Council, "Convention, or Treaty, shall be Privileged to "enter the Ports of the said United Kingdom, "upon paying the same duties of Tonnage as are "paid by British Vessels (the same not being "Vessels navigated wholly in ballast) which shall "pass the said Lighthouse upon Ardnamurchan, "or derive benefit thereby, the Toll of one Far-"thing per Ton of the Burden of every such Ves-"sel, for each time of passing the said Light-"house, or deriving benefit thereby, on a Coasting "Voyage, and Double the said Toll for passing "or deriving benefit on an Oversea Voyage; "and Double the said respective Tolls for every "Foreign Vessel not so privileged."

By order of the Board,

(Signed) ALEX. CUNINGHAM, Secretary.

Office of Lighthouse Board,
Edinburgh, October 31, 1849.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Sealed Tenders of Contract superscribed on the Envelopes "Tender for the supply of Rum," will be received by the Deputy Commissary General, Fort William, on or before Friday, the 15th day of March next, for the annual supply at the Presidency, of from Thirty to Forty Thousand Imperial Gallons of Rum, as may be required by the Commissariat, during the term of one, two, or three years, as may be accepted, from the 1st day of May 1850.

The Rum to be manufactured after the European method, and to be delivered on the terms of the Contract, at the Commissariat Godown in Fort William, free of all other charges whatever, in quantities of from 7,500 or 10,000 Gallons at a time, in the months of February, May, August and November of each year. The first delivery to be made in August 1850, Casks will be found by the Commissariat.

The Rum to be pure and Merchantable, made from Sugarcane Molasses only, and at the time of delivery of the age of at least three months, to be equal in quality, strength and proof, to what is commonly called London proof, such quality proof or strength to be ascertained and decided upon, by the Deputy Commissary General, the Commissariat Officer in charge at Fort William, or by such other persons as may be duly authorized in manner to be hereafter agreed upon.

The Tenders to be accompanied by a written document, signed by two persons of credibility and competency, acknowledging themselves, if the terms be accepted, willing to become responsible by Deed, for the due performance of the Contractors' engagements. The value or cost of the Rum delivered into the Commissariat Godown, will be paid for on the same being surveyed and approved.

The Tenders will be opened by the Deputy Commissary General, precisely at noon of Saturday, the 16th March, when persons tendering are invited to attend at his office.

BENGAL CIVIL FUND.

At a half-yearly General Meeting of Subscribers to the Bengal Civil Fund, held at the Town Hall, on Thursday, the 31st January, 1850.

PRESENT:

Messrs. W. B. Jackson, J. I. Harvey, E. Currie, J. P. Grant, Geo. Adams, C. Beadon, St. G. Tucker, W. S. Setonkarr, J. W. Dalrymple, and C. P. Hobhouse.

WELBY JACKSON, ESQ., in the Chair.

Read the following Report by the Managers:

"The Managers beg to lay before the Meeting an abstract of their proceedings in the last 6 months.

"As directed by the General Meeting of 31st July, 1849, the adjustment of the pensions of the Children of the late C. G. Udny has been made agreeably to the principle then laid down. Adjustments on the same principle have also been made of the pensions of the Children of R. H. Boddam and of R. M. Tilghman, and the family of R. H. Russell.

"By a mistake of the widow of the late A. Fraser and of Mr. H. Sandeman, the Executor, two Children were admitted with herself at the last Meeting; but from a communication subsequently received from Mr. Sandeman, it appears that only one daughter, Elizabeth Margaret, was entitled to admission to the benefits of the Fund, and the record has been corrected accordingly. The Estate Accounts are not yet settled and the family are therefore still on the Provisional Allowance of £270 per annum.

"The Managers recommend the following applications for admission under the old rules to the benefits of the Fund:

1. Mrs. Caroline C. Wemyss, widow of James Wemyss, who died at Mussooree on the 22nd August, 1849. Mr. Wemyss was an Annuitant of 1st May, 1844, upon the Civil Service Annuity Fund, and had made up his Subscription-balance to this Fund to the prescribed sum under Rule 33. Mrs. Wemyss is entitled to the full Allowance of £300 per annum. She has obtained an advance of Rupees 800 under Article 20 of the old Rules.

2. Mrs. Elizabeth Sage, widow of Jos. White Sage, who died at Rungpore on the 9th September, 1849. Mr. Sage withdrew from the Fund in 1840; but in consideration of the special circumstances of the case, Mrs. Sage was admitted by the General Meeting of Subscribers, held 30th January, 1841, with the votes of the Subscribers at large "to subscribe for her own benefit," which Resolution was confirmed by the Subscribers under date 3rd May, 1841. And she has accordingly regularly paid the Subscription which her late husband would have paid. She is entitled to the full Allowance of £300 per annum.

3. Mrs. Frances Georgiana Smelt, widow and three children (two daughters and one son) of the late Arthur Smelt, who died at Calcutta, on the 26th November, 1849. The allowances from the Fund will amount to about £510 per annum as opposite.

"The Managers' proceedings in respect of the new Rules are detailed below:

"The proceedings of the General Meeting of 31st July 1849, were circulated to the Subscribers at large. A Special General Meeting was convened for the 12th October, 1849, "to consider the Reports and proposed new Rules" previously circulated, and all Subscribers were invited "to vote for or against the adoption of the general principle" of the said Rules. At the Meeting of 12th October the number of votes declared to be in favor of the Rules was 243, those against 25. The proceedings of that Meeting and lists of the voters were transmitted to the Subscribers at large by a Circular, dated 31st October last, and they were invited to vote under Rule 13, on the Resolution passed by the Meeting, viz., "that the "rules which have been proposed by the Committee after due consideration, and circulated to "the Subscribers at large, for carrying out the "principle which has been adopted by this Meeting and by the Subscribers at large, be passed "as Provisional Rules, and have effect from the "1st of January, 1850." At the same time a separate Circular was issued with a blank "Form" to be filled up with information relating to dates of birth of Subscribers, their wives and children, for the purposes of the Actuary to be consulted. In the mean time was received a correspondence between the Committee of Rules (appointed on 12th October last,) and the Secretary of the Bombay Civil Fund, as to the intent and meaning of Article 8 of the proposed new Rules—and this was printed and circulated to Subscribers on the 4th December last. The proceedings of the Subscribers in respect of the new Rules were reported to the Government on the 9th November last, and copies of the new Rules and all papers connected therewith forwarded for the information of the Hon'ble Court of Directors. On the 1st January, instant, the time being fulfilled for the declaration of the result of the votes received upon the Resolution of the 12th October, the same was declared and published (A.), and shewed the votes in favor of the immediate effect of the new Rules to be 297, and those against the same 42. Several votes have since been received and a nominal list of the whole of them will now be published (B.) Communications, suggestive of alterations in the Rules, have been handed over to the Revising Committee, whose report the Managers expect soon to receive and to publish.

Note.—Eleven Subscribers in the N. W. Provinces convened a public Meeting of Subscribers to the Fund in Calcutta, "to devise the best means for placing the Fund in a solvent state:"—in order to meet their wishes the Managers fixed the time and place of Meeting (omitted by the requisitionists) which took place on the 22nd January, 1850, at the Town Hall, the proceedings of which were duly published (C.).

"The new Rules having been thus declared to be passed as Provisional Rules of the Fund and to have effect from the 1st of January, 1850, the Civil Auditors were furnished with a copy of the new Rules and of the notice of 1st instant, and requested to apply the new rates of Subscription-deduction, to the salaries and allowances of Subscribers thenceforward, according to a register of rates furnished to them (D.)

"Of the returns to the request for information for the Actuary, the "Forms" filled up and received amount to 366, and there remain 118 forms yet to be furnished by Subscribers, including those absent on Furlough. Copies of the Rules and of the proceedings relative thereto have been forwarded to England to the Agents of the Fund in London. The retired Subscribers, retaining an interest in the Fund by having fulfilled the conditions of old Rule 33, of whom there are 56, have been addressed and requested to make similar returns by filling up the blank forms sent them for the purpose.

"Mr. H. S. Oldfield, a member of the Civil Service, and formerly a Subscriber to the Fund, but who withdrew from it on the 31st March, 1847, now applies to be re-admitted as a Subscriber. His application is submitted for the orders of the Meeting."

Resolved, that the Managers' proceedings be approved and confirmed, the three families of deceased Subscribers referred to being admitted to the benefits of the Fund.

With reference to the application of Mr. H. S. Oldfield to be re-admitted as a Subscriber to the Fund, it was proposed by Mr. Beadon and seconded by Mr. Setonkarr—

That Mr. Oldfield's letter, dated 27th August, 1849, together with the correspondence connected with his withdrawal from the Fund in 1847, be circulated for the information of the Subscribers (E.); and that the question of Mr. Oldfield's re-admission, and, if re-admitted, of the terms on which he shall be re-admitted, be brought forward at the next General Meeting.—Carried.

An election of Managers in the room of Messrs. W. B. Jackson, J. I. Harvey, E. Currie, C. Beadon, and W. Grey took place. The votes proved that the same Gentlemen were re-elected Managers for the ensuing year.

A vote of thanks were passed to the Chairman.

Civil Service Annuity Fund.

NOTICE.—A Special General Meeting of Subscribers to the Fund will be held at the Town Hall on the 1st Monday of April, i. e. the 1st of that month, for the consideration of the following question: "that the practice of requiring from retiring Annuitants, who have paid up by their subscriptions the prescribed full half value of their Annuities, and the full value of premiums for quarterly and to date of decease payments (as entered in the last column of the Table in page 21 of the printed rules,) an additional cash payment, equal to the value of premium for quarterly and to date of decease payments, to secure to such Subscribers these advantages, is not in accordance with Rule 34 or any rule of the Fund."

Proceedings bearing on this question have been printed separately and circulated among the Subscribers.

Votes should be addressed to the "Chairman" of the Meeting.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 20, 1850.

Fort William, Home Department, Legislative, the 15th February, 1850.

The following Act is passed by the Hon'ble the President of the Council of India in Council, on the 15th February 1850, with the assent of the Most Noble the Governor General of India, which has been read and recorded.

Ordered, that the Act be promulgated for general information.

ACT No. IV. OF 1850.

For the amendment of Procedure in Cases of Appeal to the Sudder Court.

Whereas inconvenience has resulted from the rule allowing petitions of Appeal to the Sudder Dewanny Adawlut from Judgments of Principal Sudder Ameens, or of the Judges of the Zillah or City Courts, to be presented either in the Sudder Court, or in the Court in which the decision was passed, and from the rule allowing the specific objections to the Judgment and detailed grounds and reasons for preferring the Appeal to be, at the option of the party, either stated in the original petition of Appeal, or afterwards filed in the Court trying the Appeal, as a separate pleading, It is enacted as follows, in modification of Section X., Regulation VI., 1793, Section III., Regulation XII., 1797, and Section VIII., Regulation XXVI., 1814, of the Bengal Code.

I. Every petition of Regular Appeal, in a case appealable to the Sudder Court, shall be presented to the Court in which the decision was passed, within six weeks from the day of the decision: such petition of Appeal shall contain only notice that the party, being dissatisfied with the Judgment, is desirous of appealing from it.

II. The proceedings held in the cause of Appeal shall be certified to the Sudder Dewanny Adawlut as soon as conveniently may be done; and notice thereof in writing shall be given to the Appellant.

III. Within three months after receipt of such notice the Appellant shall present to the Sudder Dewanny Adawlut the specific objections to the Judgment and detailed reasons for preferring the Appeal; otherwise it shall be dismissed, unless he shall show reasonable cause to the satisfaction of the Sudder Court for his default.

WM. GREY,
Offg. Secy. to the Govt. of India.

No. 114.

Fort William, Home Department, the 18th February, 1850.

NOTIFICATION.—The undermentioned Gentlemen of the Civil Service having been reported qualified for the public service, the President in Council is pleased to attach them as follows:

Messrs. H. W. Hammond and F. M. Bird, to the North-Western Provinces.

Mr. J. R. Ward, to the Bengal Division of the Presidency of Fort William.

5. Captain H. LeMesurier, of the Invalid Establishment, has also been permitted to retire from the Service.

Fort William, the 20th February, 1850.

No. 110 of 1850.—The following para. of a Military Letter from the Hon'ble the Court of Directors to the Government of India, No. 1, dated 2nd January 1850, is published for general information:

"We have the gratification of apprising you, that Her Majesty has been graciously pleased to confer the Brevet Rank of Major on the undermentioned Officers, viz.

Captain George Malcolm, of the 1st Regiment Bombay Native Infantry, from 22nd June 1849.

Captain Neville Bowles Chamberlain, of the 16th Regiment Bengal Native Infantry, from the 2nd November 1849.

No. 111 of 1850.—In continuation of General Orders by the Most Noble the Governor General, dated Simla the 18th October 1849, the following paragraphs of a Military Letter from the Hon'ble the Court of Directors to the Government of India, No. 2, dated 7th January 1850, are published for general information:

1. "In our letter of the 22nd August last, we expressed to you our opinion that the distinctive Bars to be attached to the Punjab Medal, should be limited to those for Mooltan and Goojerat, as being the Services which were specifically named in the Votes of Thanks by the Houses of Parliament, by the General Court of Proprietors and by the Court of Directors.

2. "As, however, it appears that distinctive Medals have been granted for Services which were not specifically named in the Votes of Thanks, such as Jellalabad, Cabool, Candahar, Khelat-i-Gilzie and Maharajpore, we desire that a Bar may be added to the Punjaub Medal, for those who served at the Battle of Chillianwallah."

No. 112 of 1850.—The undermentioned Officers are permitted to proceed to Europe on Furlough, on Medical Certificate:

Lieutenant Charles Vereker Hamilton, of the 45th Regiment Native Infantry.

Lieutenant Thomas Musgrave Sutton, of the 56th Regiment Native Infantry.

Mr. Henry Doveton Battye having satisfied Government on the points of qualification prescribed by existing Regulations, is admitted to the service, from the 16th instant, as a Cadet of Infantry on this Establishment, agreeably to instructions from the Hon'ble the Court of Directors, and promoted to the rank of Ensign, leaving the date of his Commission for future adjustment.

NOTICE OF SALE.

Zillah Court of Poorneah.

In execution of the Decree in the Case No. 109 of 1847, on behalf of Colonel E. Garstin, Executor of the Estate of the late Charles Colebrook Sutherland, Respondent, Decree-holder,

Syud Ahmud Reza, Mahomed Reza, Ranee Soorut Jehan, and Syud Enaut Reza alias Syud Meerun, Debtors.

TO be sold Rights and Interests in the undermentioned property, for the realization of the award granted by the decree, dated 7th September 1847, amounting to 44,696, exclusive of costs and interest up to the day of realization.

Be it known to all Men, that the decree-holder, on the 29th March 1848, by a Petition prayed that the property mentioned below, might be sold in execution of his decree, and accordingly

Notice is hereby given, that whatever rights and interests the Debtors may possess in the property mentioned below, left by Syud Hussen Reza, deceased, the ancestor of the Debtors, will be sold, after Noon on Monday, the 4th March 1850, corresponding with the 22nd Falgoon 1256 Bengalee, at the Cutcherry of the Zillah Judge of Poorneah. Those who intend to purchase the same rights and interests, should attend the Court on the day at the appointed time personally, or by Mooktears.

Conditions of the Sale.

1. Besides the rights and interests of the Debtors, no other rights and interests will be sold.

2. On the completion of the sale, the purchaser is required immediately on the completion of the sale, to deposit 15 per cent. of the purchase money, and the remainder of the same of the immovable property to be paid within 15 days from the day of sale, and the remainder of the purchase money of all movable property, within 24 hours from the time of sale. The purchaser will obtain possession of the property sold to him.

3. If the purchaser after paying in the deposit of 15 per cent. shall neglect to pay in the remainder of the purchase money of the immovable property within 15 days, and that of the movable property within 24 hours, the property is to be re-sold at the risk of the first purchaser, who is to make good all losses, which, together with the deposit paid by the first purchaser, and the purchase money of the second sale, will be credited to the Debtors. The decree-holder is to be paid out of this sum whatever may be his due.

4. If the purchaser will not on the completion of the sale, pay in the deposit required, the property will forthwith be again put up for sale. In this case, the purchase money will be realized (duly) from the second purchaser, and all loss (of the second sale) from the first purchaser. All this will be credited to the Debtors, and the decree-holder will be paid out of the same to the amount of his due.

5. In both these cases, whatever may be obtained over and above the first sale, will be credited to the Debtors, and the decree-holder shall be paid up to the amount of his decree.

Be it known that up to this day no claim has been advanced by any party to the property.

Dated 21st of July 1850, agreeing with the 9th Magh 1256 Bengalee Style.

containing

OF

A MANUAL OF ANATOMY

BY DR. F. J. MOUAT, F. R. C. S.,

etc. etc. etc.

The present work is published as a companion to the Atlas, and will form a complete Manual of Anatomy for the Students of the Military Class attached to the Medical College.

It will consist of the following parts, each complete in itself.

Part I. The General Anatomy of the Tissues.
II. The Bones and Ligaments.
III. The Muscular System.
IV. The Vascular System, including Arteries, Veins, and Lymphatics.
V. The Nervous System.
VI. The Organs of Sense and Voice.
VII. The Viscera of the Chest, Abdomen, and Pelvis.

Each part will be stitched in a separate cover, and a General Index to the whole will be published upon the completion of the work.

The four first parts will be translated from the new edition of Quain's Elements of Anatomy, by Dr. Sharpey, and Professor Richard Quain—the best and most correct authority in the English Language.

The three last are already prepared for the press, and will appear first, commencing with the present issue.

The whole will be illustrated by drawings on stone, and brought up, as nearly as can be accomplished, to the standard of the most recent and approved anatomical text books in Europe.

The 5th Part contains 23 marginal illustrations, drawn on Stone, by Mr. COLESWORTHY GRANT.

Price, plain,..... ..... 3 Rupees per Copy.

Sold at the Military Orphan Press.

Under the Patronage of the Government of India.

(Compiled by THOS. C. FENWICK.)

AN INDEX to the Unrepealed Enactments of the Government of India, from 1793 to March 1849, inclusive, to be completed in three Parts—CIVIL, CRIMINAL and REVENUE. Part I. CIVIL, containing 240 closely printed quarto pages, is JUST PUBLISHED. Part II. CRIMINAL, will be published by the end of January 1850, and Part III., REVENUE, by March of the same year.

The work is compiled on the plan of Dale's Index, and contains all the unrepealed portions of that work. The Epitome of the subsequent Enactments has been embodied, with considerable labour, from the Regulations and Acts themselves. The first portion of the work has received the approbation of several gentlemen in the Civil Service, at present holding high appointments in the Presidency, who have been pleased to examine it.

To Subscribers to all the Parts, or to any two Parts the price will be 12 Rs. for each Part. To those who may subscribe to one Part only, the price will still be 12 Rs, provided the Part subscribed for, does not exceed 240 pages. Should the pages exceed that number, an extra charge of 4 annas for every 5 pages will be made. Non-subscribers must be prepared to pay something more. Subscribers to both the unpublished portions of the work may obtain the Parts published on the same terms as Subscribers to all the Parts.

It is hoped that the price fixed to the work will be found to be extremely moderate, especially when it is remembered that Dale's Index, which extends only to 1828, is offered even at the present day, for 32 Rs. a copy.

ALSO JUST PUBLISHED.

The Regulations and Acts of the Government of India, relating to the Military Service of the East India Company, attached to the Presidency of Fort William, and doing duty within or without the Company's Territories, or beyond Seas. From 1793 to March 1849, inclusive, including the last Articles of War. The whole accompanied with a copious Index, containing altogether 200 quarto pages, price 8 Rupees.

This work is equally useful to Collectors and Magistrates as to Military men, and the price has been fixed with a view to make it available to the lowest grade of Officers, both Civil and Military.

General Orders by the Most Noble the Governor General of India.

Camp Jullundur, 12th February, 1850.

The services of the undermentioned Officers are placed at the disposal of the Foreign Department, for employment in the Punjab:

Lieutenant J. E. Cracroft, 69th Regiment Native Infantry.

Captain J. H. Wakefield, 17th Regiment Native Infantry.

J. Stuart, Col.,
Secy. to the Govt. of India, Mily. Dept.

Fort William, Home Department, Legislative, the 15th February, 1850.

The following Act is passed by the Hon'ble the President of the Council of India in Council, on the 15th February 1850, with the assent of the Most Noble the Governor General of India, which has been read and recorded.

Ordered, that the Act be promulgated for general information.

Act No. IV. of 1850.

For the amendment of Procedure in Cases of Appeal to the Sudder Court.

Whereas inconvenience has resulted from the rule allowing petitions of Appeal to the Sudder Dewanny Adawlut from Judgments of Principal Sudder Ameens, or of the Judges of the Zillah or City Courts, to be presented either in the Sudder Court, or in the Court in which the decision was passed, and from the rule allowing the specific objections to the Judgment and detailed grounds and reasons for preferring the Appeal to be, at the option of the party, either stated in the original petition of Appeal, or afterwards filed in the Court trying the Appeal, as a separate pleading, It is enacted as follows, in modification of Section X., Regulation VI., 1793, Section III., Regulation XII., 1797, and Section VIII., Regulation XXVI., 1814, of the Bengal Code.

I. Every petition of Regular Appeal, in a case appealable to the Sudder Court, shall be presented to the Court in which the decision was passed, within six weeks from the day of the decision: such petition of Appeal shall contain only notice that the party, being dissatisfied with the Judgment, is desirous of appealing from it.

II. The proceedings held in the cause of Appeal shall be certified to the Sudder Dewanny Adawlut as soon as conveniently may be done; and notice thereof in writing shall be given to the Appellant.

III. Within three months after receipt of such notice the Appellant shall present to the Sudder Dewanny Adawlut the specific objections to the Judgment and detailed reasons for preferring the Appeal; otherwise it shall be dismissed, unless he shall show reasonable cause to the satisfaction of the Sudder Court for his default.

Wm. Grey,
Offg. Secy. to the Govt. of India.

No. 3.

Fort William, Financial Department, the 6th February, 1850.

Notification.—Notice is hereby given, that the rate of Exchange at which Bills secured by the Hypothecation of Goods, are to be drawn in favor of the Hon'ble the East India Company, will be 2 Shillings per Company's Rupee, until further orders.

It is further notified for general information that there is little probability of the rate of Exchange now fixed being reduced during the ensuing twelve months, as so far as is at present known, no advances on Hypothecation will be necessary in India in aid of the Home Treasury during the Official year 1850-51.

By order of the Hon'ble the President in Council,

J. A. Dorin,
Secy. to the Govt. of India.

Fort William, the 21st February, 1850.

Notice to Mariners.

SHIP ROCK OF SANDA LIGHTHOUSE,

At the Mouth of the Firth of Clyde.

The Commissioners of the Northern Lighthouses hereby give Notice, that a Lighthouse has been built upon the Rock called "Ship of Sanda," off the Mull of Kintyre, in the County of Argyll, the Light of which will be exhibited on the Night of Monday the 7th January 1850, and every Night thereafter, from Sun-set till Sun-rise.

The following is a Specification of the Lighthouse, and the appearance of the Light, by Mr. Alan Stevenson, Engineer to the Commissioners:

The Lighthouse is in N. Lat. 55°. 16′. 30″, and W. Long. 5°. 34′. 55″. By Compass, the Lighthouse bears from Pladda Light, W. by S. ¾ W., distant 18 miles; from Patterson's Rock Buoy, W. by N., distant 1½ mile; from Ailsa Craig, N. W. by W. ⅛ W., distant 16 miles; from Corsewall Light, N. by W. ¼ W., distant 22 miles; from the Maiden's Rocks Lights, N. E. ½ N., distant 21½ miles; from Fair Head, in the County Antrim, E. S. E. ¼ E., distant 19½ miles; from the most Northern Point of Rathlin Island, S. E. by E. ½ E., distant 21 miles; and from the most Southern Point of the Mull of Kintyre, S. E. ¾ E., distant 6 miles.

The Ship Rock of Sanda Light will be known to Mariners as a Fixed Red Light. It will be visible in a south-westerly direction from N. W. ½ W. round to S. E. by E. ½ E. The Lantern is elevated 165 feet above the level of the Sea; but the Light, being red, will not be seen at a greater distance than about five leagues, and at lesser distances according to the state of the atmosphere.

The Commissioners hereby further give Notice, that by virtue of a Warrant from the Queen in Council, dated 1st March 1849, the following Tolls will be levied in respect to this Light, viz.:—

"For every Vessel belonging to the United "Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland (the same "not belonging to Her Majesty, her heirs and "successors, or being navigated wholly in ballast), "and for every Foreign Vessel which, by any Act "of Parliament, Order in Council, Convention, or "Treaty, shall be Privileged to enter the Ports of "the said United Kingdom, upon paying the same "duties of Tonnage as are paid by British Vessels "(the same not being Vessels navigated wholly in "ballast) which shall pass the said Lighthouse of "Sanda, or derive benefit thereby, the Toll of one "Farthing per Ton of the Burden of every such "Vessel, for each time of passing the said Light-"house, or deriving benefit thereby, on a Coast-"ing Voyage, and Double the said Toll for pass-"ing or deriving benefit on an Oversea Voyage; "and Double the said respective Tolls for every "Foreign Vessel not so privileged."

By order of the Board,

(Signed) Alex. Cuningham,
Secretary.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Sealed Tenders of Contract superscribed on the Envelopes "Tender for the supply of Rum," will be received by the Deputy Commissary General, Fort William, on or before Friday, the 15th day of March next, for the annual supply at the Presidency, of from Thirty to Forty Thousand Imperial Gallons of Rum, as may be required by the Commissariat, during the term of one, two, or three years, as may be accepted, from the 1st day of May 1850.

The Rum to be manufactured after the European method, and to be delivered on the terms of the Contract, at the Commissariat Godown in Fort William, free of all other charges whatever, in quantities of from 7,500 or 10,000 Gallons at a time, in the months of February, May, August and November of each year. The first delivery to be made in August 1850, Casks will be found by the Commissariat.

The Rum to be pure and Merchantable, made from Sugarcane Molasses only, and at the time of delivery of the age of at least three months, to be equal in quality, strength and proof, to what is commonly called London proof, such quality proof or strength to be ascertained and decided upon, by the Deputy Commissary General, the Commissariat Officer in charge at Fort William, or by such other persons as may be duly authorized in manner to be hereafter agreed upon.

The Tenders to be accompanied by a written document, signed by two persons of credibility and competency, acknowledging themselves, if the terms be accepted, willing to become responsible by Deed, for the due performance of the Contractors' engagements. The value or cost of the Rum delivered into the Commissariat Godown, will be paid for on the same being surveyed and approved.

The Tenders will be opened by the Deputy Commissary General, precisely at noon of Saturday, the 16th March, when persons tendering are invited to attend at his office.

NOTICE.—Patcheapah Moodelly, formerly of Tanjore and Madras, deceased, by his Will, dated 22nd March 1794, amongst other things bequeathed "the sum of One Lack of Pagodas to be placed "out at Interest, and directed that out of the In-"terest arising therefrom, the ablutions and offer-"ings were to be performed with regularity in "the different holy places from Causey to Rams-"veram," and whereas by a Decree of the Supreme Court of Judicature at Madras, made in a cause "Herbert Compton, Esquire, Advocate General of the East India Company, versus Annasawmy Pillay," and bearing date the Third day of February, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Twenty-six, It was declared, that the said Legacy was a good and valid bequest, and directed that it should be referred to the Master to enquire and report who would be fit and proper persons to have the management of the Charities mentioned in the said Decree. That the Master made his report, dated 21st March 1829, whereby he certified, that the sums bequeathed for Charities to be performed at Benares and other places therein mentioned, should be paid annually to the Durmakhartah, or Church Warden of the respective Pagodas; and whereas by a Decretal Order made in the said cause on the Thirtieth day of October, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Thirty-two, it was amongst other things ordered, that the Sub-Treasurer of Fort Saint George, with the privity of the Accountant General, should carry to the credit of the said cause to an account to be entitled "Patcheapah's Benares Charity," the sum of Sixteen Thousand and Eight Hundred Rupees. The Interest of the same to be received and applied for the purpose of accumulation subject unto and until the further order of the Court; and whereas by an order, dated the Twenty-fifth day of September, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Forty-nine, made in the said cause, on the Petition of Causeevassee Chocalingee Tumberan, It was referred to the said Master to enquire and report who is, or are the proper person or persons to receive the funds standing in the Treasury to the credit of the said cause to the account of "Patcheapah's Benares Charity." Notice is therefore hereby given, that all persons claiming to be entitled to receive the said Fund are required to come in and prove their claims before Charles Martin Teed, Esquire, the Master of the said Supreme Court, on or before the First day of May, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Fifty.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the undersigned have established a Depôt of Europe and Country Goods at Calcutta, and Baboo Lollmohun Sein has been appointed manager thereof, who is empowered to transact in and name all business connected with that Depôt, signing for us all Papers respecting monetary transactions, &c. of the same.

OF

A MANUAL OF ANATOMY

BY DR. F. J. MOUAT, F. R. C. S.,

etc. etc. etc.

The present work is published as a companion to the Atlas, and will form a complete Manual of Anatomy for the Students of the Military Class attached to the Medical College.

It will consist of the following parts, each complete in itself.

Part I. The General Anatomy of the Tissues.
II. The Bones and Ligaments.
III. The Muscular System.
IV. The Vascular System, including Arteries, Veins, and Lymphatics.
V. The Nervous System.
VI. The Organs of Sense and Voice.
VII. The Viscera of the Chest, Abdomen, and Pelvis.

Each part will be stitched in a separate cover, and a General Index to the whole will be published upon the completion of the work.

The four first parts will be translated from the new edition of Quain's Elements of Anatomy, by Dr. Sharpey, and Professor Richard Quain—the best and most correct authority in the English Language.

The three last are already prepared for the press, and will appear first, commencing with the present issue.

The whole will be illustrated by drawings on stone, and brought up, as nearly as can be accomplished, to the standard of the most recent and approved anatomical text books in Europe.

The 5th Part contains 23 marginal illustrations, drawn on Stone, by Mr. COLESWORTHY GRANT.

Price, plain,..... .... 3 Rupees per Copy.

Garrison Orders by the Honorable the Deputy Governor.

Fort William, 26th February, 1850.

The whole of the Garrison, and General Staff, and other Officers, on duty at the Presidency, are directed to be in attendance at Government House in Full Dress to meet the Most Noble the Governor General on his return to the Presidency.

The whole of the Troops in Garrison, with Reserve Guards, will parade in Full Dress (White Pantaloons) and be in position in the Compound of the Government House, to receive the Most Noble the Governor General, at such time as will be hereafter directed.

The position to be taken up, and the mode of Formation, will be pointed out by the Town Major.

In order to afford sufficient time for preparation a Signal of "Four Guns" will be fired on the arrival of the Governor General at "Kedgeree," and a Second Signal of "Two Guns" on his arrival at "Moyapore."

Two Salutes of "Nineteen" Guns each will be fired on the occasion. The first as the Most Noble the Governor General passes the Fort. The second when he lands.

Banner Rolls to be placed under the charge of a European Non-Commissioned Officer, from Chandpaul Ghaut to the Saluting Battery.

By Command,

GEORGE WARREN, Colonel,
Town Major.

General Orders by the Most Noble the Governor General of India.

Camp Loodiana, 15th February, 1850.

The services of Mr. Apothecary John Harris Peter are placed at the disposal of the Foreign Department, for appointment to the Medical charge of the 3rd Regiment of Punjaub Local Infantry.

No. 288.

Fort William, Foreign Department, the 22nd February, 1850.

NOTIFICATION.—Captain H. Montgomery, Superintendent of the Astagram Division, has obtained leave of absence for thirty days, to visit Madras, under Section XI. of the Amended Absentee Regulations, from the date of his leaving the Mysore Territory.

WM. GREY,
Offg. Secy. to the Govt. of India.

No. 128.

Fort William, Home Department, the 27th February, 1850.

NOTIFICATION.—Mr. J. F. Cathcart has been permitted to resign the East India Company's Civil Service, from the 1st ultimo.

WM. GREY,
Offg. Secy. to the Govt. of India.

No. 3.

Fort William, Financial Department, the 6th February, 1850.

NOTIFICATION.—Notice is hereby given, that the rate of Exchange at which Bills secured by the Hypothecation of Goods, are to be drawn in favor of the Hon'ble the East India Company, will be 2 Shillings per Company's Rupee, until further orders.

It is further notified for general information that there is little probability of the rate of Exchange now fixed being reduced during the ensuing twelve months, as so far as is at present known, no advances on Hypothecation will be necessary in India in aid of the Home Treasury during the Official year 1850-51.

By order of the Hon'ble the President in Council,

George Warren, Colonel,
Town Major.

NOTIFICATION.—An Examination will be held early in April 1850, in the College of Fort William, for the purpose of filling up existing Vacancies in the Military Class of the Medical College. All Candidates will be expected to possess a knowledge of the Hindustani Language, adequate to enable them to read and write it in Persian or Devanagri Character.

2nd. All Interpreters of Regiments and Battalions are requested not to grant Certificates of Qualification to any Candidates under the age of fifteen or above that of twenty years; and likewise to reject all who may not pass the prescribed ordeal with a sufficient degree of fluency and facility. Much disappointment, expense and inconvenience have already been experienced by lads from distant stations, being furnished with certificates, who were found, on examination, quite unqualified for admission, and it is with a view to prevent the recurrence of this that the above measure has been adopted.

3rd. Candidates for admission will be required to present themselves before the Secretary to the Medical College, at least three days prior to the day of examination, in order that a proper descriptive roll may be prepared for transmission to the Examiners of the College of Fort William.

4th. The preference in selection, qualifications being equal, will be given to those who have already been attached to, or served in Civil or Regimental Hospitals, or to those who are the sons of Native Officers and Soldiers.

5th. No Candidate will be allowed to present himself for examination, who cannot produce a written testimonial of his conduct and character, or afford satisfactory evidence as to who and what he may be. A few individuals of decidedly bad character, have, upon recent occasions, managed to obtain admittance, it is supposed by producing false papers; the strictest care and scrutiny will therefore be exercised in examining the credentials of all future Candidates, who will, in addition, require to be furnished with regular muster rolls, in order that they may be identified.

6th. All pupils must, as a condition of their appointment, reside within the College premises at all times, and never be absent from morning and evening muster without special leave.

7th. All Students in the Military Class are amenable to the Articles of War, and regularly enlisted as Soldiers.

8th. No Candidate will be admitted into the School, who is physically unfit for the duties of a Soldier.

No. 668.

THE following Notice to Mariners is published by the order of Government for general information.

By order of the Superintendent of Marine,

JAS. SUTHERLAND, Secretary.

Fort William, the 21st February, 1850.

Notice to Mariners.

SHIP ROCK OF SANDA LIGHTHOUSE,

At the Mouth of the Firth of Clyde.

The Commissioners of the Northern Lighthouses hereby give Notice, that a Lighthouse has been built upon the Rock called "Ship of Sanda," off the Mull of Kintyre, in the County of Argyll, the Light of which will be exhibited on the Night of Monday the 7th January 1850, and every Night thereafter, from Sun-set till Sun-rise.

The following is a Specification of the Lighthouse, and the appearance of the Light, by Mr. Alan Stevenson, Engineer to the Commissioners:

The Lighthouse is in N. Lat. 55°. 16′. 30″, and W. Long. 5°. 34′. 55″. By Compass, the Lighthouse bears from Pladda Light, W. by S. ¼ W., distant 18 miles; from Patterson's Rock Buoy, W. by N., distant 1½ mile; from Ailsa Craig, N. W. by W. ⅛ W., distant 16 miles; from Corsewall Light, N. by W. ¼ W., distant 22 miles; from the Maiden's Rocks Lights, N. E. ¼ N., distant 21½ miles; from Fair Head, in the County Antrim, E. S. E. ¼ E., distant 19¼ miles; from the most Northern Point of Rathlin Island, S. E. by E. ⅛ E., distant 21 miles; and from the most Southern Point of the Mull of Kintyre, S. E. ¾ E., distant 6 miles.

The Ship Rock of Sanda Light will be known to Mariners as a Fixed Red Light. It will be visible in a south-westerly direction from N. W. ½ W. round to S. E. by E. ½ E. The Lantern is elevated 165 feet above the level of the Sea; but the Light, being red, will not be seen at a greater distance than about five leagues, and at lesser distances according to the state of the atmosphere.

The Commissioners hereby further give Notice, that by virtue of a Warrant from the Queen in Council, dated 1st March 1849, the following Tolls will be levied in respect to this Light, viz::—

"For every Vessel belonging to the United "Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland (the same "not belonging to Her Majesty, her heirs and "successors, or being navigated wholly in ballast), "and for every Foreign Vessel which, by any Act "of Parliament, Order in Council, Convention, or "Treaty, shall be Privileged to enter the Ports of "the said United Kingdom, upon paying the same "duties of Tonnage as are paid by British Vessels "(the same not being Vessels navigated wholly in "ballast) which shall pass the said Lighthouse of "Sanda, or derive benefit thereby, the Toll of one "Farthing per Ton of the Burden of every such "Vessel, for each time of passing the said Light-"house, or deriving benefit thereby, on a Coast-"ing Voyage, and Double the said Toll for pass-"ing or deriving benefit on an Oversea Voyage; "and Double the said respective Tolls for every "Foreign Vessel not so privileged."

By order of the Board,

Office of Lighthouse Board, Edinburgh, Dec. 7, 1849. } Secretary.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Sealed Tenders of Contract superscribed on the Envelopes "Tender for the supply of Rum," will be received by the Deputy Commissary General, Fort William, on or before Friday, the 15th day of March next, for the annual supply at the Presidency, of from Thirty to Forty Thousand Imperial Gallons of Rum, as may be required by the Commissariat, during the term of one, two, or three years, as may be accepted, from the 1st day of May 1850.

The Rum to be manufactured after the European method, and to be delivered on the terms of the Contract, at the Commissariat Godown in Fort William, free of all other charges whatever, in quantities of from 7,500 or 10,000 Gallons at a time, in the months of February, May, August and November of each year. The first delivery to be made in August 1850, Casks will be found by the Commissariat.

The Rum to be pure and Merchantable, made from Sugarcane Molasses only, and at the time of delivery of the age of at least three months, to be equal in quality, strength and proof, to what is commonly called London proof, such quality proof or strength to be ascertained and decided upon, by the Deputy Commissary General, the Commissariat Officer in charge at Fort William, or by such other persons as may be duly authorized in manner to be hereafter agreed upon.

The Tenders to be accompanied by a written document, signed by two persons of credibility and competency, acknowledging themselves, if the terms be accepted, willing to become responsible by Deed, for the due performance of the Contractors' engagements. The value or cost of the Rum delivered into the Commissariat Godown, will be paid for on the same being surveyed and approved.

The Tenders will be opened by the Deputy Commissary General, precisely at noon of Saturday, the 16th March, when persons tendering are invited to attend at his office.

FORT WILLIAM,

HOME DEPARTMENT,

THE 22ND FEBRUARY, 1850.

NOTIFICATION.

The following Despatch received from the Hon'ble the Court of Directors by the last Mail, is published for general information, together with the papers which are referred to in para. 7.

The Hon'ble the President in Council has communicated with the several local Governments regarding the measures which it seems desirable to adopt in order to fulfil the wishes of the Home Authorities expressed in this Despatch, and Notifications on the subject will shortly be issued by those Governments applicable to the Territories respectively subordinate to them.

By order of the Hon'ble the President in Council,

WM. GREY,
Offg. Secy. to the Govt. of India.

PUBLIC DEPARTMENT.

No. 1 OF 1850.

OUR GOVERNOR GENERAL OF INDIA IN COUNCIL.

Para. 1. You have doubtless learnt through the Public Press of this Country, the intention to form in London in 1851, under the patronage of H. R. H. Prince Albert, a great Collection of Works of Industry and Art of all Nations, for the purpose of exhibition and of competition and encouragement.

2. It is proposed that the Collection and Exhibition shall consist of the following Divisions:

Raw Materials: Machinery and Mechanical Inventions: Manufactures: Sculpture and Plastic Art, generally—and in order to stimulate the various Manufacturers to produce Works which, by the effort necessary for their accomplishment, may permanently raise the powers of production and improve the character of the manufacture itself. Premiums of money are to be offered for competition, and an opportunity will be afforded for the latent resources of distant Provinces and the skill of the least known Artist to compete with the produce of the most favored regions, or the works of the most successful genius.

3. An occasion will thus be presented for diffusing, amongst Europeans, a more extensive knowledge of the Raw Products and Manufactures of India. We are, at all times, desirous of encouraging the development of the resources of that vast Empire, and we attach considerable importance to the formation of a Collection of its products for public Exhibition, as calculated to be not only of great use to the European Manufacturer, but also of essential benefit to our Eastern Possessions, which produce many articles little known in this Country, yet possessed of valuable properties and procurable in large quantities, at a probably cheap rate, if a demand could be created for them.

4. It is our wish, therefore, that the objects of the proposed Exhibition should be made known as generally as possible throughout India, and that our several Governments, and those of our Servants whose station or pursuits may afford the opportunity for their so doing, should use their endeavours in order to the formation of such a Collection of the Raw Products and Manufactures of India as may not only be interesting in a scientific point of view, but may also be subservient to the purposes of Commerce and Art.

5. We do not anticipate that any great difficulty would be experienced in forming a Collection of Manufactured Articles, but we apprehend that, looking to the novelty of the undertaking and the cost of transport, individuals in India will not be induced to enter into the proposed competition or to offer Articles for Exhibition, unless encouragement and facilities be afforded by the Local Authorities. We therefore consider that it may be necessary for the Government itself to take a leading part in the formation of the Collection and in procuring the Articles which it may be deemed most advisable to exhibit. It will be requisite to determine the extent to which the Collection is to be carried as well as the expense to be incurred, and these points we feel that we must commit to your judgment and discretion, premising that it is our desire that, whilst any extravagant or unnecessary outlay is avoided, the Collection be such as shall be creditable and serviceable to the Country from which it is received. Care must, of course, be taken to prevent the transmission of an unnecessary number of duplicates, in consequence of the same thing being produced or manufactured in different districts.

6. It has occurred to us that the Manufactured Articles might consist of Cotton and Silk, such as Muslins and Shawls of Dacca and Delhi, and other Manufacturing Districts and Provinces; Brocades of Benares and Loongies of Scinde, &c.

Woollens—such as Blankets of the North-Western Provinces and of the Himalayas, with the coarse fabrics made of the wool of the Shawl Goat, and the Shawls of Cashmere, both in a finished and unfinished state..

Dyed Articles of Cotton and Silk.
Mats of Sylhet and other Provinces.
Paper both of the Plains and Mountains.
Pottery from different parts.
Tanned Leather.
Prepared Skins of different Animals.
Ivory, Ebony and Sandal-wood Articles
Indian Lacquered Ware.
Toys, &c.
Works in Metal—articles made of it for various purposes.
Arms of different kinds.
Utensils in Copper and Brass and other Metals.
Embroidered Works in Gold and Silver and other materials.
Jewellery from various parts of India and of a variety of patterns and uses.

7. With regard to Raw Products we would refer you to the annexed List and accompanying observations which have been prepared under our directions by Professor Royle, and in connection with the subject generally we would request your attention to the Letter from Mr. Taylor, formerly of our Medical Service in India, copy of which forms a number in the Packet, and which appears to us to contain some very useful suggestions.

8. A Commission has been issued by the Queen for the promotion of the intended Exhibition. The Commissioners, entrusted with the arrangements for carrying out the undertaking, will doubtless promulgate such information as may be necessary for parties desirous of submitting Articles for Exhibition and Competition. It will be our endeavour to procure such information and forward the same for circulation in India as soon as may be practicable. In the meantime, it appears to be desirable that the report of the proceedings, which took place at a Meeting held at the Mansion House in the City of London, on the 17th October last, for the purpose of explaining the outlines of the plan of the intended Exhibition, should be circulated as extensively as may be by means of the Public Press of India. We accordingly forward in the Packet 19 Copies of the "Times" Newspaper, containing an authentic Report of the Proceedings referred to.

We are, &c.,

TO JAMES COSMO MELVILL, ESQ.,
Secretary to the East India Company.

SIR,—Having observed from the report of a Meeting at the Mansion House on the 17th ultimo, that it is intended to present specimens of the Dacca Manufactures at the proposed Exhibition of Arts and Manufactures to be held in London in 1851, I have been induced to draw up a few remarks on the productions (both Raw and Manufactured) of that place and neighbouring Districts, with the view of pointing out the principal articles that might be exhibited on that occasion; and in the hope that they may not be unacceptable, I have now the honor to enclose them, with the request that you will do me the favor of submitting them to the Honorable the Court of Directors.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your obedient Servant,

(Signed) JAMES TAYLOR,
Late Civil Surgeon of Dacca.

8, St. Martin's Place, Charing Cross,
Messrs. Grindlay and Co's. East India Rooms,
The 16*th November*, 1849.

TO JAMES COSMO MELVILL, ESQ.,
Secretary to the East India Company.

SIR,—The Honorable the Court of Directors having signified their intention of presenting specimens of the productions of India to the proposed Exhibition of Arts and Manufactures to be held in London in 1851, I do myself the honor to submit to them a few observations in reference to the products of Dacca and the Eastern Districts of Bengal, with the view of indicating the principal articles, both Raw and Manufactured, which that part of the Province could contribute to this great collection of the Works of Industry of all Nations.

Dacca possesses a variety of articles of Agricultural produce, as Rice, Pulse, Millet, Maize, Cotton, Safflower, Indigo, Sugar, Ginger, Coffee and Capsicum, but only two of these, viz., Cotton and Safflower are raised in greater perfection here than elsewhere; and may therefore be considered as staples peculiar to the District.

The indigenous Cotton of Dacca has long been celebrated for its superior quality. It is cultivated along the banks of the Megna from Feringybazar to Edilpore in Backergunge, a distance of about forty miles; on the banks of the Brahmaputra Creek (the ancient Channel of the River of the same name) and along the Luckia and Banar. It presents different shades of quality, the finest of which is named photee, and is the material of which the delicate Muslins are made. As it is described by Roxburgh, as differing from the common Herbaceous Cotton Plant of Bengal in several particulars, but chiefly in having a longer, finer and softer fibre than it, a sample of it should be submitted for comparison, both with the Cotton produced in Bengal and other parts of India, and with the exotic varieties lately introduced into the country.

Safflower (Carthamus Tinctorius) now so extensively used for dyeing Silks in England and France, is one of the most valuable Agricultural products of the District. It is cultivated in the low country between the Ganges and Dullasery; and the produce of Paterghautta and Belispore situated in that locality, is considered, in the London Market, as the best that is exported from India. In 1787, all the Safflower raised in the District was consumed by the Dyers of Dacca, on account of its yellow dye. In 1800, 2,000 Maunds of it were exported; and since that time, the quantity annually sent to Calcutta has gradually increased and is now little short of 6,000 Maunds. The Dacca Safflower ranks next to that of China which is reputed to be of a superior quality.

Coffee has been cultivated in this District for the last thirty years. The plant thrives well and the produce, which is of a good ordinary quality, constitutes a fair sample of this Article as now raised in Bengal.

Sugar made from the *Palmyra Tree and Turmeric are two of the principal products of Dacca Jellalpore. The manufacture of the former is extensively carried on; and the latter, of which a considerable quantity is grown, is of a superior quality.

* Date Tree, (vide Mr. Taylor's Letter of 20th November 1849.)

Of the Arts practised at Dacca, the first that claims attention is the Cotton Manufacture. In a commercial point of view, this Manufacture is no longer the important branch of industry that it formerly was; but regarded as an Art which furnishes exquisite specimens of textile fabrics, it is still unrivalled. As it appears, from an observation made by Mr. Cole, at the Meeting held at the Mansion House, on the 17th ultimo, that it is intended to have, at the Exhibition, a Dacca loom to contrast with the latest newly invented power loom of England, I would take the liberty of suggesting that, in order to illustrate fully the processes of the Dacca Muslin Manufacture, all the implements used in spinning and weaving should, on that occasion, be shewn, side by side, with specimens of the finest thread spun, and most delicate fabrics woven by them. The apparatus indeed, is rude, but perhaps is not the less interesting on that account. The simplicity of its construction contrasts with the delicate Gossamer texture of the fabrics made by means of it, and shews that the skill displayed in this Manufacture is less the result of artistic ingenuity or complicated mechanical appliances than of that dexterous use of the hand and foot, and delicacy of touch which are possessed, in so remarkable a degree, by the Hindoo Artisans of Bengal. With their implements, rude as they are, the Hindoos of Dacca succeed in manufacturing Muslins, "to which," as Dr. Ure observes, "European ingenuity can afford no parallel, such indeed as has led a "competent judge to say, it is beyond his conception how this yarn, greatly finer than the highest "number made in England, can be spun by the distaff and spindle, or woven by any Machinery." (Ure's Cotton Manufacture of Great Britain, Vol. I p. 54.) Commencing with the raw Cotton (kupas) in the state of Seeds and Wool unseparated, there would be exhibited along with it the primitive instrument used for carding the fibres of the Cotton: likewise the instruments employed for separating the Wool from the Seeds, and for bowing or teazing the former. The first is simply the jaw-bone of the Boalee fish (Silurus Boalis), the teeth of which being fine, recurved and closely set, act as a fine comb in removing minute particles of earthy and vegetable matter from the Cotton. The Hindoo Spinner, with that inexhaustible patience that characterizes her race, sits down to the laborious task of cleaning with this instrument the fibres of each Seed of Cotton. Having accomplished this, she then separates the Wool from the Seeds by means of a small iron roller (dullun kathee) which is worked with the hands, backward and forward, on a small quantity of the Cotton Seeds placed upon a flat board. The Cotton is next bowed with a small bow of bamboo strung with a double row of catgut, muga silk, or the fibres of the plantain tree twisted together; and having been reduced by this instrument to a state of light downy fleece, it is made up into a small cylindrical roll (puni) which is held in the hand during the process of spinning. The spinning apparatus is contained in a small basket or tray not unlike the catathers of the ancient Greeks. It consists of a delicate iron spindle (tukooa), having a small ball of clay attached to it, in order to give it sufficient weight in turning; and of a piece of hard shell imbedded in a little clay on which the point of the spindle revolves during the process of spinning. With this instrument the Hindoo women almost rival Arachne's fabled skill in spinning. The thread which they make with it is exquisitely fine, and doubtless it is their delicate organization and the sensibility with which they are endowed by nature, that their inimitable skill in their art is to be ascribed. The finest thread is spun early in the morning before the rising sun dissipates the dew on the grass, for such is the tenuity of its fibre that it would break, if an attempt were made to manufacture it during a drier and warmer portion of the day. The cohesive property of the filaments of Cotton is impaired by a high temperature accompanied with dryness of the air, and hence, when there is no dew on the ground in the morning to indicate the presence of moisture in the atmosphere, the spinners impart the requisite degree of humidity to the Cotton, by making the thread over a shallow vessel of water. Skeins of fine thread of different qualities, with a memorandum of the length, weight, and time occupied in spinning, attached to each skein, should be submitted for exhibition. A specimen which I examined at Dacca in 1846, measured 1,349 yards and weighed only 22 grains, which is in the proportion, if I mistake not, of upwards of 250 miles to a pound weight of staple. The various implements used in the preparatory processes of weaving, as the reeds for winding the thread—the hand-wheels for warping—the sley-hook and reed—and the apparatus for forming the heddles, should also be exhibited. During the process of preparing the thread and before it is warped, it is steeped for a couple of days in fine charcoal powder soot, or lampblack mixed with water, and after being well rinsed in clear water, wrung out, and dried in the shade, it is rubbed with a sizing made of parched rice, (the husk of which has been removed by heated sand) fine lime and water. The loom is light and portable, and could easily be erected for exhibition. It should have for this object, a piece of half finished fine Muslin wound upon its cloth and yarn beams, and be provided with batten, templet, and shuttle, and all the appurtenances requisite to illustrate the process of weaving.

The principal varieties of plain Muslins now manufactured at Dacca, are Mulmul Khas, Abruwan, Shub-num, Khasu, Jhūnā Circar Ali, Tun-zeb, Alabullee, Nyanzook, Buddun Khas, Turundam, Surbutees and Surbund—names which either denote fineness, beauty or transparency of texture, or refer to the origin of the manufacture of the fabrics, or the uses to which they are applied as articles of dress. The finest of all is the Mulmul Khas, (literally Muslin made for the special use of a Prince or great personage). It is woven in half pieces, measuring 10 yards in length, and 1 yard in breadth, having 1,900 threads in the warp, and weighing 10 Siccas, (about 3¾ ounces Avoirdupois.) The finest half piece that I have seen weighed 9 Siccas. The price is 100 Rupees. Some of the other Muslins are also beautiful productions of the loom, as ab-ruwan, compared by the Natives from its clear pellucid texture to "running water." Shub-num, so named from its resemblance when it is wetted and spread upon the bleaching field to the "evening dew" on the grass. Jhūnā, a light, transparent net-like fabric, usually made to order, and chiefly for natives of rank and wealth, worn by the inmates of zenanas and dancers, and apparently the cloth referred to in the Classics under the figurative names of Tela Arenarum, Ventus Textilis. All these Muslins are made in full pieces of 20 yards in length by 1 in breadth, but varying considerably in the number of threads in the warp, and consequently in their weight.

Of figured fabrics, as striped (Doorea), chequered (Charkanee), and flowered (Jamdanee), there exists a considerable variety, both in regard to quality and pattern. The flowered Muslin was formerly in great demand both in India and Europe, and was the most expensive manufacture of the Dacca Urungs. There was a monopoly of the finer fabrics for the Court of Delhi: those made for the Emperor Aurungzebe cost 250 Rupees per piece. This Muslin is still much admired, but is now seldom manufactured of a quality of higher value than 80 Rupees per piece.

Omitting the second rate kinds of Cloth as Sarees, Boonees, Baftas, Jore, Ekpattus, Gamchas, &c., now entirely made of English yarn, imported into the District, and which constitute the great bulk of the Dacca Cotton manufacture. The next class, of which specimens should be exhibited, is that of fabrics of a mixed texture of Cotton and Silk. They are designated by various names, as Nowbuttee, Kutan, Roomee Apjoola and Lucka, and when embroidered with the needle, as many of them frequently are, they are called Kusheedu. The Silk used in their manufacture is the indigenous Muga Silk of Assam and Sylhet, but the Cotton thread employed is now almost entirely English yarn, of qualities varying from No. 30 to 80. These Cloths are made exclusively for the Jedda and Bussora Market, and a considerable stock is yearly imported in the Arab Vessels that trade between Calcutta and these Ports. Pilgrims too, from the vicinity of Dacca, not unfrequently take an investment of them which they dispose of at the great annual fair held at Meena, near Mecca. They are used by the Arabs chiefly for Turbans and Gowns. The golden color of the Muga Silk gives to some of these cloths a rich lustrous appearance. A few pieces, made of Native spun Cotton thread, and of the best kind of Muga Silk, would, I have no doubt, be admired in this country.

Embroidery (Zur-dozee) is an art, in which the Mahomedans of Dacca display a degree of skill almost equal to that exhibited by the Hindoos in weaving. They embroider Cashmere Shawls, and Scarfs, also Muslins, and Net fabrics with silk, gold and silver thread. These fabrics are much esteemed in this country, and are probably still unrivalled by similar productions in any part of the world.

Another branch of needle-work allied to embroidery, which is carried on here, is that of flowering or ornamenting Cloths with Cotton thread (Chikan-kavi.) The dresses of Mahomedans are frequently worked in this manner, and two descriptions of it called Tartor and Sumunderludur, in which the texture of the cloth is broken down with the needle, and converted into network, are held in the highest estimation.

In commissioning fine Muslins from Dacca, ample time should be given for their manufacture. The time required for the preparation of a piece varies from one to four months, according to the quality of the fabric, the latter being the period necessary for the weaving of a half piece of Mulmul Khas. The best season for making this kind of Muslin is during the months of May, June, July and August. If several pieces of the finer kinds were to be manufactured, a full year's notice would be required in order to procure the necessary quantity of thread.

Next to fine Muslins, and embroidered fabrics, silver filigree work is that for which Dacca is most celebrated. This art is also practised in great perfection at Cuttack, and in Sumatra, and China. The articles usually made at Dacca are Ladies' Ornaments, as Bracelets, Ear-rings, Brooches, Chains, Necklaces, &c. and Attar-dans and small boxes for natives. A specimen on a large scale could be made, such as a vase for flowers, a salver, or a stand for writing materials. The design best adapted for displaying the delicate work of filigree is that of a leaf. It should be drawn on stout paper, and of the exact size of the article intended to be made. The apparatus used in the art is exceedingly simple, consisting merely of a few small crucibles, a piece of bamboo for a blow pipe, small hammers for flattening the wire, and sets of forceps for inter-twisting it.

The drawing of silver and gold (i. e. silver covered with gold) wire, used as thread in embroidery, is extensively carried on here. Benares is also celebrated for this art. There are several varieties of silver and gold thread (badla) made at Dacca, as goolabatoon for the embroidery of Muslins and Silks; goshoo for caps and covering the handles of chowries; sulmah for turbans, slippers, and hookah snakes; and boolun for gold lace and brocades. Some of it is drawn almost as fine as a hair. In the time of Aurungzebe a quantity of this article was made yearly for the Court at Delhi. A hundred sticks covered with it, and plain gold, and silver badla to the amount of £2,000 in value, appear among the items composing the Mulboos Khas Nuzr, which was annually sent to the Emperor.

The manufacture of Shell Bracelets is one of the indigenous arts of Bengal, in which the caste of Sankhari at Dacca excel. The chanks of which they are made are large univalve shells (voluta gravis, Lin.) from six to seven inches long, and of a pure white color. They are imported into Calcutta from Ramnad in Southern India, and from the Maldive Islands. At Dacca they are used for beetling fine Muslins, but principally for making the large massive bracelets which are worn by Hindoo women. They are sawn into semi-circular pieces, and these are rivetted and cemented to form the bracelets, some of which are elaborately carved, and inlaid with a composition of lac and a red pigment. A pair of bracelets of this description frequently costs as high as 80 Rupees. Of the thick pieces of the shells, beads are made to form the necklaces, which the Bengal Sepoys wear.

Another art in which the Hindoos excel is that of working in brass and copper. Some of the articles of this kind made at Dacca are considered specimens of superior workmanship, and are exported to different parts of Bengal. The artificers of Vickramapura (the cite of the ancient Hindoo Capital of Bengal,) near Dacca, were formerly celebrated for their skill in this art.

Soap is an article of which a considerable quantity is made at Dacca. It is considered the best in India; and like Soap of Tranquebar, which is also of an excellent quality, it was formerly an export to the Mauritius, Penang, Sumatra, and the Islands of the Indian Archipelago. It is made of sajee mathee (impure carbonate of soda) sesamum oil, common salt, fine shell lime, and goat's suet. The manufacture of this article is carried on by Mahomedans, by whom it appears to have been introduced into India. The Arabic word saboon indeed, is the origin of the names given to soap in many countries, as that of sabun in the Crimea, and savun at Genoa. (See Dr. Clarke's Travels in Russia, and on the Don.)

All the common arts and manufactures of Bengal are carried on here, but in none of them do the Dacca workmen show superior skill, except in that of boat building. For their work in this art, they have been celebrated since the reign of Jehangire, when the Nowarrah was established here for the protection of the lower Districts of Bengal, against the incursions of the Mughs of Arracan. Dacca, it may be mentioned, has also acquired a local name or reputation for a few minor manufactures, such as those of violins, paper, and shola hats.

The District of Mymensing could furnish specimens of the best sunn (Crotolaria Juncea) and the best pát or jute (Corchorus Olitorius) and maestee pát (Hibiscus Cannabinus) grown in Bengal. The fibres of these plants which are so commonly used in that country for making twine, ropes, sails, screens, bags, and paper, are dressed and exported, in large quantities, from Serajegunge and other parts of this part of Bengal, to Calcutta for shipment to England. From this district there might also be obtained samples of oil seeds, as mustard, sesamum, rape and linseed. The two latter are of a superior quality and are now valuable exports to this country.

Sylhet possesses a few manufactures which would perhaps be deemed worthy of exhibition. The Natives there excel in some kinds of ivory work. They manufacture a variety of articles, including Ladies' Bonnets, a specimen of which would perhaps be a novelty in this country. They also make Shields of Buffalo and Rhinoceros' hides, which are celebrated throughout India for their durability and polish. The varnish is made of the juice of the semecarpus anacardium (or Indian marking nut,) and has already attracted attention in this country. One description of target called āflā-o-ī. which is made here, is not varnished but is rendered by some peculiar process of preparing the leather, semi-transparent. The otter skins of the District are an article of traffic, and would bear a comparison with similar furs in Europe. Considerable quantities of them are prepared annually both here and in Mymensing. They were formerly sent to Thibet, but they are now chiefly exported to China. The other manufactures for which Sylhet is famed, are sword handles, morahs, articles of brass work (made at Toroff,) and fine seetalpatee mats, such as are commonly used in Bengal, for covering the seats of chairs, beds, and couches. This place has, also, long been celebrated for the preparation of certain perfumes, as the attars of uggur or lign aloe, and naugissore (mesua ferrea); also several compounds of essential oils, of which that of Cassia is one of the principal ingredients, the tree (aguilaria agallocha, Roxb.), which yields the lign aloe, grows in the Naga country between Sylhet and Assam, also in Cochin China and Siam. Both the wood and the essence extracted from it at Sylhet, are purchased by Mogul merchants for exportation to Bassora, and other Mahomedan countries, where they are held in high estimation and much used, the attar, as a perfume, and the wood, for fumigating apartments and clothes. Lign aloe is interesting from its antiquity as an export from India, being an article that was formerly much used as incense in Western Asia. It is mentioned under the name of agallochum in Scripture.

The Cossyah Country could send to the Exhibition, specimens of iron of great purity, such as that smelted at Pundua; samples of Cossia Lignea, which is one of its principal articles of export; and a variety of parti-coloured cloths, generally known by the name of Sylhet cloths. Some of them are dyed of rich colours, and being of a strong durable texture, are well adapted for table covers, to which purpose they are usually applied in the Eastern part of Bengal.

The Garrow, Tipperah, and Chittagong Hills produce a large quantity of inferior Cotton called Bhoga. It is the principal article of traffic which the hill people bring down to the plains. The quantity annually sold or bartered by the Garrow tribe is estimated at 50,000 maunds; that by the Tipperah Kookees at 1,00,000; and that by the Chittagong people at 50,000* maunds, making a total quantity equal to two millions† of pounds. It is used in the manufacture of the inferior kinds of hummums, baftas, boonees, sarees, jore, &c., also for making ropes and tapes, and the coarsest of all fabrics, viz. garhas and guzeehs, which are commonly used for packing other cloths, and for covering dead bodies, for which purpose a large quantity of them is consumed annually both by Hindoos and Mahomedans. This branch of industry has not yet been touched by the rivalry of British manufactures, the thread of which these fabrics are made, being far below the lowest number of English yarn imported into Bengal. A piece of Guzeeh cloth, measuring 10 yards, can be purchased for 12 annas (18 pence) which is the one hundred and twenty-fifth part of the price paid for a piece of mulmul khas of the same dimensions.

† 15 millions, vide Mr. Taylor's letter, 20th November, 1849.

Chittagong, which formerly possessed a factory subordinate to the one at Dacca, still manufactures inferior fabrics of strong texture. The rough towels made here, are of an excellent quality: they are stout, and durable, and would be found to be superior to the Baden towels, now so much used in dressing rooms in this country. This station could also supply specimens of an inferior sort of isinglass, a considerable quantity of which is prepared here, and sold to Chinese traders.

From Rungpore there might be obtained for exhibition, silk corahs, Megilli cloths made of pât (corchorus olitorius), ginger (the best in Bengal), and tobacco of an excellent quality: and from the neighbouring country of Bhotan, specimens of the beautiful long glossy hair of the tail of the Yak of which chowrees are made.

Commercolly is celebrated for its feathers. They are either prepared singly for head-dresses, or made into tippets, boas, and muffs, some of them are exceedingly beautiful, and apparently not inferior in quality to those imported into this country from Africa.

The valley of Assam is rich in natural productions, and would no doubt contribute largely to this exhibition. It possesses gold, tea, caoutchouc, lac and ivory, specimens of which might be submitted for comparison with the same substances from California, China, South America, Siam and Africa. It abounds in silk, and its two principal indigenous varieties of this article, viz. the muga and the eri would be well worthy of being exhibited both in their raw and manufactured states. A dress made of muga is prized beyond all others, by the Assamese. Assam possesses a variety of valuable woods. Thirty-six species, applied to various useful purposes, have been described by Major Hannay as belonging to Upper Assam. Most of them are light, strong, and durable; while not a few combine with these qualities a fine grain, which renders them well adapted for articles of furniture. The spices of the country comprise, in addition to such as are commonly cultivated in Bengal, black pepper, long pepper, cardamums, tejapatra or malabathrum leaf, and jubrang, the capsule of a species of zanthroxylum, peculiar to the country and described as aromatic, fragrant and highly pungent (vide Robinson's Assam.) Among its vegetable dyes, may be mentioned as the principal, munjit (rubia munjistha) and room or rounn, a species of ruellia. The former is known in commerce under the name of East Indian madder, and is used for its red dye; while the latter is employed by the Khamptis and Lingphos to dye their cloths of a deep blue, and is described by the late Dr. Griffiths as "a valuable dye and highly worthy of attention." Its trees yield valuable oils and gum resins, as wood oil, sassafras oil, gum copal or dammer, and japan varnish, besides others less generally known, as a red gum-like kind produced by the Urian tree, a fragrant balsam from the bark of the Nahoor, and an oil from its seeds, a gum resin from the mekai, and a balsam of the consistence of ghee, having all the qualities of wood oil from the Hoolung tree (vide Major Hannay's paper in Transactions of the Agricultural and Horticultural Society of Calcutta.) Of the manufactures of the Assamese, there might be exhibited some articles of ivory work and bell-metal, in both of which they are reputed to excel; also specimens of the iron work of the Kunungs of the Bor Kangti country, and of the daws or long straight swords of the Mishmis, both of which are said to be of a superior quality.

There are several plants in Bengal that are adapted for the manufacture of textile fabrics. A species of urtica, of whose fibres the much admired grasscloth of China is made, is cultivated in Rungpoor; and either it, or an allied species, the rhea, is grown in Assam and Cachar. The fine apple plant too, from which a beautiful fabric is manufactured in Manilla, is indigenous in Sylhet and Assam, and extensively cultivated about Dacca. The fibres of both plants are used by the natives for making fishing lines and nets; but no attempt, as far as I am aware, has yet been made in Bengal, to weave them into fine cloths. The same remark, perhaps, applies to munga (sanseviera zeylanica) the fibres of which are commonly used to make bowstrings. The Calotropis gigantea possesses a fine silky fibre; and some varieties of the plantain tree, as the musa textilis, yield fibres which, like the abaca hemp of Manilla, are capable of being converted into strong thread or cord, such as the Dacca spinners sometimes use for the bows with which they teaze cotton. The experiment of preparing the fibres of these plants and of weaving them into cloths might now be made, with the view of presenting specimens of them at the proposed Industrial Exhibition. The people of Rungpore make cloths of the fibres of pât; and there can be little doubt, that if encouragement were given to them and other spinners and weavers in Bengal, they would, with the skill which they possess in these arts, also succeed in converting these materials into fabrics. A manufacture of a similar nature, indeed, was formerly carried on in Bengal. Mention is made in several old works relating to India, of cloths having been made of a plant called "Herba Bengalo," which appears to be now unknown as a material of manufacture. Linschoten, who visited Bengal in 1599, is one of the earliest travellers who notice it. After enumerating under the general name of gossipina, the various cotton goods manufactured in Bengal, he states—

" Etiam quædam eximia ex herba instar fili preparant filum apud Paludanum videas colore flavo. ' Herba Bengalo nominatur. Pingunt hoc filo lectum, sagula, pulvinaria, mutitia quibus pueros ' Baptisandos induunt, circumtextis floribus, imaginibusque, ad miraculum usque artis ut nec in ' Europâ tale quid inveneris. Subinde item sericum miscent: sed ex quo purâ herbâ suunt ' preciosiora sunt, ipsumque sericum exsuperant. Telas hujusmodi Sarryn vocant, multi usus in " India ad braccas et thoraces virorum. Abluuntur ut apud nos linteamina nitoremque suum " velut nuper facto recipiunt." (Vide Navigatio ac Itinerarium Johan. H. Linscotani, A. D. 1599.) Mandelso speaks of it as " a certain herb having on the top of its stalk (which is about the com- " pass of a man's thumb) a great button like a tassel : this tassel is spun out, and there are excel- " lent stuffs made of it. The Portuguese call it Herba Bengalo, and make of it hangings and " coverlets, in which they represent all sorts of figures." (Vide Mandelso's Travels, A. D. 1639, translated by J. Davies, Book II., page 94.) A similar description is given of it by the Abbé Guyon in his History of the East Indies : " On trouve encore a Bengale une espèce singuliere des toiles qui n'est ni fil ni coton, dont on fait des tapis et des couvertes. On les nomme simplement herbes. La tige de l'herbe, dont elles sont faites, a un pouce d'epaisseur et au haut une espèce de houppe qui contient une sorte de bourrèe que les femmes du Paris filent on prendroit ces etoffes heure de loiser: mais elles sont sujettes a se couper dans les plis." (Vide Histoire des Indes Orientales, par M. L' Abbé Guyon, A. D. 1744, Vol. 3, p. 19.) Fitch about the year 1586, and Hamilton in 1744, both refer to it in their accounts of Orissa. The latter calls it herba, a sort of tough grass of which they make " ginghams, pinascos and several other goods for exportation," (new account of the East Indies by Captain A. Hamilton, A. D. 1744, Vol. 1, p. 393.) I do not know what plant is here referred to under the name of " Herba Bengalo ;" but the extracts descriptive of it, which I have given above, may perhaps enable Botanists to identify it, and lead to the revival of a manufacture, which appears to have been held in high estimation in former times.

I cannot conclude these remarks on the productions of the Eastern part of Bengal without briefly adverting to the great benefit that is likely to accrue from the contemplated Exhibition of the Works of Industry of all Nations. The undertaking is one, which it is the interest of every country to promote, but to none perhaps does it promise to be productive of greater advantages, than to India. Rich in animal, vegetable, and mineral productions, that extensive region would be able to exhibit numerous articles calculated to be of use in the arts, many of which are almost entirely unknown to the European public at present. The variety and extent of its resources would become more generally known ; and an impulse might thus be given to their development, which would prove highly beneficial to the country. On the other hand India perhaps, would, in return for the advantages she thus received, confer some benefit on the arts here, by the exhibition of her simple processes of manufacture and their products. Europe, though unrivalled in mechanical skill, might possibly still profit from a more extensive acquaintance with the practical arts of Asia. It is not, perhaps, too much to expect, that something suggesting improvement here, might still be gleaned from that quarter. It has happened in many instances, as Mr. Colebrooke, in eloquent terms, observes, that " inventive faculties have been tasked to devise anew what might have " been as readily copied from an Oriental type: or unacknowledged imitation has reproduced in " Europe, with an air of novelty, what had been for ages familiar in the East. Nor is that " source to be considered as already exhausted. In beauty of fabric, in simplicity of process, " there possibly yet remains something to be learned from China, from Japan and from India, " which the refinement of Europe need not disdain." (Discourse, Royal Asiatic Society, 1823.)

To James Cosmo Melvill, Esq.,

Secretary to the East India Company.

Sir,—With reference to my letter of the 14th instant, regarding the productions of Dacca and the Eastern Districts of Bengal, I do myself the honor of again addressing you in order to correct two errors which I find, I have inadvertently made in it, viz.

In the remarks regarding Dacca Jellalpore—

For " Sugar, made from the Palmyra Tree,"

Read " Sugar made from the Date Tree."

In the remarks regarding the Bhoga Cotton from the Tipperah, Garrow and Chittagong Hills—

For "that by the Chittagong Kookees, at 50,000 Maunds, making a total quantity equal to two Millions of Pounds,"

Read, "that by the Chittagong Kookees, at 30,000 Maunds, making a total quantity equal to about fifteen Millions of Pounds."

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your obedient Servant,

(Signed) JAMES TAYLOR,

Late Civil Surgeon Dacca, Bengal.

DR. ROYLE'S OBSERVATIONS, WITH LIST OF PRODUCTS OF INDIA, FOR THE GRAND EXHIBITION OF 1851.

Taking it for granted that it is desirable to exhibit a collection of the products and manufactures of India, at the Grand Exhibition in 1851, it is yet difficult to determine the extent to which this should be carried. To confine it to substances already well known, would disappoint those who expect to see much that is new, while to exhibit only unknown products would limit the interest to a comparatively few. Considering therefore, what may prove of interest to the Exhibition and of ultimate benefit to India, and display at the same time the natural riches of the country, and the skilful ingenuity of its inhabitants, I have prepared the following lists as an index of the extent to which the Exhibition may be carried.

As general instructions might be misapprehended, I have thought it desirable to draw up a specific list of raw products and of manufactured articles, so as to give an idea of the kind of things which may be Exhibited, without intending to mention all that India produces, or wishing to exclude any that it might be thought desirable to send. Of the substances enumerated, many are produced or may be obtained at a great variety of places; but it is necessary to select only one or a few of these in order to avoid the accumulation of useless duplicates. Some might, no doubt, be most easily obtained as commercial articles in this country, though we might not always be able at the time to get the best specimens of each. A few might be borrowed from individuals or from Museums, but a great many of the articles enumerated, can only be obtained by being specifically written for, and in some cases to particular individuals who are favorably situated, or are well acquainted with the subject of research. Some of the products and manufactures, such as the spices of Penang and Travancore, the indigo and sugar of Bengal, will probably be sent for Exhibition by Planters and Merchants in India, if a Notification to that effect is published. The Native Princes of different parts of India would also be very likely to send the products and manufactures of their respective countries, if the objects of the Exhibition are explained to them by the several Political Agents.

Some of the manufactured articles, (as the finest Muslins) will require some time for their preparation, and these as well as some others can only be obtained when specially ordered; most of the others in use by the Natives of India may be obtained at any time.

The directions to be sent, in making such collections, depend so much upon the individuals to be employed in making them, that I find it difficult to avoid being diffuse where I wish only to be precise. The quantities in which the raw products are sent, must depend in some measure on the nature of the substance, but also on the instructions which are to be immediately issued by the Executive Committee of the Royal Commission. Of the majority of the substances a pound or two will be sufficient, but of any which require to be submitted to preliminary processes of manufacture a larger quantity will be necessary, and the expense in either case will be but small. Of the manufactured articles, only single specimens of the more expensive articles would be required unless in cases where two or more places are famous, for the same kind of manufacture or individuals wish to contend for prizes, of which some will, I believe, be awarded at the discretion of the Royal Commission.

In the accompanying lists the different products are arranged, some according to their uses (as dyes and tanning substances) and others according to their proximate principles, as starch, gums, resins, oils, &c. This is not incompatible with the other, as the uses to which these may be and are applied, depend entirely upon their chemical composition. In sending therefore any new substances, it will be necessary to define the class to which it is intended to belong, or to mention the uses to which it is applied by the Natives of India. All as they arrive, will require appropriate sorting and careful labelling, and some will be benefitted by passing through some of the preliminary processes to which they would be subjected, if they were to be employed in any of our manufactures.

Drs. Falconer, McClelland, Jameson and Mouat, might render considerable assistance in collecting the products of the Bengal Presidency; Dr. Wight and Captain Ouchterlony, in Madras; and Drs. Gibson, Giraud and Stocks, in the Bombay Presidency.

MINERALS WITH SOME CHEMICALS.

Combustible Minerals—
Diamonds,	.....	Punna in Bundlecund, Mallavilly, Golconda, Masulipatam.
Sulphur,	.....	Cutch, Scinde, Napal.
Petroleum, (Asphaltum, Naphtha,)	.....	Assam, Rangoon.
Amber,	.....	Cutch, Assam.
Coal,	.....	Tenasserim, Burdwan, Silhet, Beerbhoom, Assam, along Nerbudda.
Acids and Acid Salts—
Citric Acid,	.....	From Lemons and Limes, might be sent either pure or as Citrate of Lime.
Tartaric Acid,	.....	From Tartar, &c., the juice of the Grape or from Tamarinds.
Oxalic Acid,	.....	From the Salt in the leaves of Gram, Cicer, Arietinum.
Alkalis and their Salts—
Potash and Pearlash,	.....	From ashes of any plants, the ashes of Wood-fires, &c.
Saltpetre,	.....	Sarun, Tirhoot, &c.
Carbonate of Soda—
Soda,	.....	From ashes of species of Salsola and Salicornia, on the Coromandel Coast.
Sejjee or Carbonate of Soda,	.....	In Tirhoot.
Oosur Salt,	.....	Mirzapore, &c.
Lanee Kharee,	.....	Scinde.
Natron,	.....	From Lonar Lake in Lat. 20° and Long. 76° 30′.
Mineral Alkali,	.....	Bombay.
Salt, common, (Chloride of Sodium,)	.....	Tumlook, Balasore, Tanjore.
„ or Samur,	.....	Samur or Samur Lake.
„ Rock Salt,	.....	Salt Range of Punjaub,
Borax,	.....	Kemaon and Gurhwall from Tibet.
Khara Noon, (Sulphate of Soda,)	.....	Gyah, Tirhoot, &c.
Sal Ammoniac, (Nuosadur,)	.....	Seharunpore, Calcutta.

A complete collection of the grains and pulses in use as articles of diet in India, would form a very interesting feature of any general collection of agricultural products, and would, at all events, show the great number of little-known grains and pulses upon which the Natives of India subsist. But as it is desirable that these should be seen only in a fresh state, they should not be sent until after the next harvest, before which lists with synonymes will be prepared in detail.

The pysee and julalya wheats of the Nerbudda valley. The wheat, barley, and buckwheat of the Himalayas, the two former grains from the Neilgherries, and oats from the North-Western Provinces, together with the finest specimens of Patna and of Pilibeet rice, would be interesting to agriculturists and merchants at any time.

SATURDAY, MARCH 2, 1850.

Fort William, 26th February, 1850.

The whole of the Garrison, and General Staff, and other Officers, on duty at the Presidency, are directed to be in attendance at Government House in Full Dress to meet the Most Noble the Governor General on his return to the Presidency.

The whole of the Troops in Garrison, with Reserve Guards, will parade in Full Dress (White Pantaloons) and be in position in the Compound of the Government House, to receive the Most Noble the Governor General, at such time as will be hereafter directed.

The position to be taken up, and the mode of Formation, will be pointed out by the Town Major.

In order to afford sufficient time for preparation a Signal of "Four Guns" will be fired on the arrival of the Governor General at "Kedgeree," and a Second Signal of "Two Guns" on his arrival at "Moyapore."

Two Salutes of "Nineteen" Guns each will be fired on the occasion. The first as the Most Noble the Governor General passes the Fort. The second when he lands.

Banner Rolls to be placed under the charge of a European Non-Commissioned Officer, from Chandpaul Ghaut to the Saluting Battery.

By Command,

GEORGE WARREN, Colonel,
Town Major.

No. 668.

THE following Notice to Mariners is published by the order of Government for general information.

By order of the Superintendent of Marine,

JAS. SUTHERLAND, Secretary.

Fort William, the 21st February, 1850.

Notice to Mariners.

SHIP ROCK OF SANDA LIGHTHOUSE,

At the Mouth of the Firth of Clyde.

The Commissioners of the Northern Lighthouses hereby give Notice, that a Lighthouse has been built upon the Rock called "Ship of Sanda," off the Mull of Kintyre, in the County of Argyll, the Light of which will be exhibited on the Night of Monday the 7th January 1850, and every Night thereafter, from Sun-set till Sun-rise.

The following is a Specification of the Lighthouse, and the appearance of the Light, by Mr. Alan Stevenson, Engineer to the Commissioners:

The Lighthouse is in N. Lat. 55°. 16′. 30″, and W. Long. 5°. 34′. 55″. By Compass, the Lighthouse bears from Pladda Light, W. by S. ¾ W., distant 18 miles; from Patterson's Rock Buoy, W. by N., distant 1½ mile; from Ailsa Craig, N. W. by W. ½ W., distant 16 miles; from Corsewall Light, N. by W. ¼ W., distant 22 miles; from the Maiden's Rocks Lights, N. E. ¼ N., distant 21½ miles; from Fair Head, in the County Antrim, E. S. E. ¼ E., distant 19¼ miles; from the most Northern Point of Rathlin Island, S. E. by

E. ½ E., distant 21 miles; and from the most Southern Point of the Mull of Kintyre, S. E. ¾ E., distant 6 miles.

The Ship Rock of Sanda Light will be known to Mariners as a FIXED RED LIGHT. It will be visible in a south-westerly direction from N. W. ½ W. round to S. E. by E. ½ E. The Lantern is elevated 165 feet above the level of the Sea; but the Light, being red, will not be seen at a greater distance than about five leagues, and at lesser distances according to the state of the atmosphere.

The Commissioners hereby further give Notice, that by virtue of a Warrant from the Queen in Council, dated 1st March 1849, the following Tolls will be levied in respect to this Light, viz.:—

"For every Vessel belonging to the United "Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland (the same "not belonging to Her Majesty, her heirs and "successors, or being navigated wholly in ballast), "and for every Foreign Vessel which, by any Act "of Parliament, Order in Council, Convention, or "Treaty, shall be Privileged to enter the Ports of "the said United Kingdom, upon paying the same "duties of Tonnage as are paid by British Vessels "(the same not being Vessels navigated wholly in "ballast) which shall pass the said Lighthouse of "Sanda, or derive benefit thereby, the Toll of one "Farthing per Ton of the Burden of every such "Vessel, for each time of passing the said Light-"house, or deriving benefit thereby, on a Coast-"ing Voyage, and Double the said Toll for pass-"ing or deriving benefit on an Oversea Voyage; "and Double the said respective Tolls for every "Foreign Vessel not so privileged."

By order of the Board,

(Signed) ALEX. CUNINGHAM,

Office of Lighthouse Board, Edinburgh, Dec. 7, 1849. } Secretary.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Sealed Tenders of Contract superscribed on the Envelopes "Tender for the supply of Rum," will be received by the Deputy Commissary General, Fort William, on or before Friday, the 15th day of March next, for the annual supply at the Presidency, of from Thirty to Forty Thousand Imperial Gallons of Rum, as may be required by the Commissariat, during the term of one, two, or three years, as may be accepted, from the 1st day of May 1850.

The Rum to be manufactured after the European method, and to be delivered on the terms of the Contract, at the Commissariat Godown in Fort William, free of all other charges whatever, in quantities of from 7,500 or 10,000 Gallons at a time, in the months of February, May, August and November of each year. The first delivery to be made in August 1850, Casks will be found by the Commissariat.

The Rum to be pure and Merchantable, made from Sugarcane Molasses only, and at the time of delivery of the age of at least three months, to be equal in quality, strength and proof, to what is commonly called London proof, such quality proof or strength to be ascertained and decided upon, by the Deputy Commissary General, the Commissariat Officer in charge at Fort William, or by such other persons as may be duly authorized in manner to be hereafter agreed upon.

The Tenders to be accompanied by a written document, signed by two persons of credibility and competency, acknowledging themselves, if the terms be accepted, willing to become responsible by Deed, for the due performance of the Contractors' engagements. The value or cost of the Rum delivered into the Commissariat Godown, will be paid for on the same being surveyed and approved.

The Tenders will be opened by the Deputy Commissary General, precisely at noon of Saturday, the 16th March, when persons tendering are invited to attend at his office.

NOTICE.—Patcheapah Moodelly, formerly of Tanjore and Madras, deceased, by his Will, dated 22nd March 1794, amongst other things bequeathed "the sum of One Lack of Pagodas to be placed "out at Interest, and directed that out of the Interest arising therefrom, the ablutions and offerings were to be performed with regularity in "the different holy places from Causey to Ramsveram," and whereas by a Decree of the Supreme Court of Judicature at Madras, made in a cause "Herbert Compton, Esquire, Advocate General of the East India Company, versus Annasawmy Pillay," and bearing date the Third day of February, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Twenty-six, It was declared, that the said Legacy was a good and valid bequest, and directed that it should be referred to the Master to enquire and report who would be fit and proper persons to have the management of the Charities mentioned in the said Decree. That the Master made his report, dated 21st March 1829, whereby he certified, that the sums bequeathed for Charities to be performed at Benares and other places therein mentioned, should be paid annually to the Durmakhartah, or Church Warden of the respective Pagodas; and whereas by a Decretal Order made in the said cause on the Thirtieth day of October, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Thirty-two, it was amongst other things ordered, that the Sub-Treasurer of Fort Saint George, with the privity of the Accountant General, should carry to the credit of the said cause to an account to be entitled "Patcheapah's Benares Charity," the sum of Sixteen Thousand and Eight Hundred Rupees. The Interest of the same to be received and applied for the purpose of accumulation subject unto and until the further order of the Court; and whereas by an order, dated the Twenty-fifth day of September, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Forty-nine, made in the said cause, on the Petition of Causeevassee Chocalingee Tumberan, It was referred to the said Master to enquire and report who is, or are the proper person or persons to receive the funds standing in the Treasury to the credit of the said cause to the account of "Patcheapah's Benares Charity." Notice is therefore hereby given, that all persons claiming to be entitled to receive the said Fund are required to come in and prove their claims before Charles Martin Teed, Esquire, the Master of the said Supreme Court, on or before the First day of May, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Fifty.

FRED. J. MOUAT, M. D.,
Govt. Book Agent.

Govt. Book Agency, 30th November, 1849.

Under the Patronage of the Government of India.

(Compiled by THOS. C. FENWICK.)

AN INDEX to the Unrepealed Enactments of the Government of India, from 1793 to March 1849, inclusive, to be completed in three Parts—CIVIL, CRIMINAL and REVENUE. Part I. CIVIL, containing 240 closely printed quarto pages, IS JUST PUBLISHED Part II. CRIMINAL, will be published by the end of January 1850, and Part III., REVENUE, by March of the same year.

The work is compiled on the plan of Dale's Index, and contains all the unrepealed portions of that work. The Epitome of the subsequent Enactments has been embodied, with considerable labour, from the Regulations and Acts themselves. The first portion of the work has received the approbation of several gentlemen in the Civil Service, at present holding high appointments in the Presidency, who have been pleased to examine it.

To Subscribers to all the Parts, or to any two Parts the price will be 12 Rs. for each Part. To those who may subscribe to one Part only, the price will still be 12 Rs, provided the Part subscribed for, does not exceed 240 pages Should the pages exceed that number, an extra charge of 4 annas for every 5 pages will be made. Non-subscribers must be prepared to pay something more. Subscribers to both the unpublished portions of the work may obtain the Part published on the same terms as Subscribers to all the Parts.

It is hoped that the price fixed to the work will be found to be extremely moderate, especially when it is remembered that Dale's Index, which extends only to 1828, is offered even at the present day, for 32 Rs. a copy.

ALSO JUST PUBLISHED.

The Regulations and Acts of the Government of India, relating to the Military Service of the East India Company, attached to the Presidency of Fort William, and doing duty within or without the Company's Territories, or beyond Seas. From 1793 to March 1849, inclusive, including the last Articles of War. The whole accompanied with a copious Index, containing altogether 200 quarto pages, price 8 Rupees.

This work is equally useful to Collectors and Magistrates as to Military men, and the price has been fixed with a view to make it available to the lowest grade of Officers, both Civil and Military.

Subscribers' names received and orders for Copies attended to by the Publishers,

No. 668.

THE following Notice to Mariners is published by the order of Government for general information.

By order of the Superintendent of Marine,
JAS. SUTHERLAND, Secretary.

Fort William, the 21st February, 1850.

Notice to Mariners.

SHIP ROCK OF SANDA LIGHTHOUSE,

At the Mouth of the Frith of Clyde.

The Commissioners of the Northern Lighthouses hereby give Notice, that a Lighthouse has been built upon the Rock called "Ship of Sanda," off the Mull of Kintyre, in the County of Argyll, the Light of which will be exhibited on the Night of Monday the 7th January 1850, and every Night thereafter, from Sunset till Sunrise.

The following is a Specification of the Lighthouse, and the appearance of the Light, by Mr. Alan Stevenson, Engineer to the Commissioners:

The Lighthouse is in N. Lat. 55°. 16′. 30″, and W. Long. 5°. 34′. 55″. By Compass, the Lighthouse bears from Pladda Light, W. by S. ¾ W., distant 18 miles; from Patterson's Rock Buoy, W. by N., distant 1½ mile; from Ailsa Craig, N. W. by W. ½ W., distant 16 miles; from Corsewall Light, N. by W. ¼ W., distant 22 miles; from the Maiden's Rocks Lights, N. E. ¼ N., distant 21½ miles; from Fair Head, in the County Antrim, E. S. E. ¼ E., distant 19¼ miles; from the most Northern Point of Rathlin Island, S. E. by

E. ⅛ E., distant 21 miles; and from the most Southern Point of the Mull of Kintyre, S. E. ¾ E., distant 6 miles.

The Ship-Rock of Sanda Light will be known to Mariners as a FIXED RED LIGHT. It will be visible in a south-westerly direction from N. W. ½ W. round to S. E. by E. ½ E. The Lantern is elevated 165 feet above the level of the Sea; but the Light, being red, will not be seen at a greater distance than about five leagues, and at lesser distances according to the state of the atmosphere.

The Commissioners hereby further give Notice, that by virtue of a Warrant from the Queen in Council, dated 1st March 1849, the following Tolls will be levied in respect to this Light, viz.:—

"For every Vessel belonging to the United "Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland (the same "not belonging to Her Majesty, her heirs and "successors, or being navigated wholly in ballast), "and for every Foreign Vessel which, by any Act "of Parliament, Order in Council, Convention, or "Treaty, shall be Privileged to enter the Ports of "the said United Kingdom, upon paying the same "duties of Tonnage as are paid by British Vessels "(the same not being Vessels navigated wholly in "ballast) which shall pass the said Lighthouse of "Sanda, or derive benefit thereby, the Toll of one "Farthing per Ton of the Burden of every such "Vessel, for each time of passing the said Light-"house, or deriving benefit thereby, on a Coast-"ing Voyage, and Double the said Toll for pass-"ing or deriving benefit on an Oversea Voyage; "and Double the said respective Tolls for every "Foreign Vessel not so privileged."

By order of the Board,

(Signed) ALEX. CUNINGHAM,

Calcutta, Govt. Custom House, The 1st March, 1850.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Sealed Tenders of Contract superscribed on the Envelopes. "Tender for the supply of Rum," will be received by the Deputy Commissary General, Fort William, on or before Friday, the 15th day of March next, for the annual supply at the Presidency, of from Thirty to Forty Thousand Imperial Gallons of Rum, as may be required by the Commissariat, during the term of one, two, or three years, as may be accepted, from the 1st day of May 1850.

The Rum to be manufactured after the European method, and to be delivered on the terms of the Contract, at the Commissariat Godown in Fort William, free of all other charges whatever, in quantities of from 7,500 or 10,000 Gallons at a time, in the months of February, May, August and November of each year. The first delivery to be made in August 1850, Casks will be found by the Commissariat.

The Rum to be pure and Merchantable, made from Sugarcane Molasses only, and at the time of delivery of the age of at least three months, to be equal in quality, strength and proof, to what is commonly called London proof, such quality proof or strength to be ascertained and decided upon, by the Deputy Commissary General, the Commissariat Officer in charge at Fort William, or by such other persons as may be duly authorized in manner to be hereafter agreed upon.

The Tenders to be accompanied by a written document, signed by two persons of credibility and competency, acknowledging themselves, if the terms be accepted, willing to become responsible by Deed, for the due performance of the Contractors' engagements. The value or cost of the Rum delivered into the Commissariat Godown, will be paid for on the same being surveyed and approved.

The Tenders will be opened by the Deputy Commissary General, precisely at noon of Saturday, the 16th March, when persons tendering are invited to attend at his office.

The Brain and Nervous System

OF

A MANUAL OF ANATOMY

BY DR. F. J. MOUAT, F. R. C. S.,

etc. etc. etc.

The present work is published as a companion to the Atlas, and will form a complete Manual of Anatomy for the Students of the Military Class attached to the Medical College.

It will consist of the following parts, each complete in itself.

Part I. The General Anatomy of the Tissues.
II. The Bones and Ligaments.
III. The Muscular System.
IV. The Vascular System, including Arteries, Veins, and Lymphatics.
V. The Nervous System.
VI. The Organs of Sense and Voice.
VII. The Viscera of the Chest, Abdomen, and Pelvis.

Each part will be stitched in a separate cover, and a General Index to the whole will be published upon the completion of the work.

The four first parts will be translated from the new edition of Quain's Elements of Anatomy, by Dr. Sharpey, and Professor Richard Quain—the best and most correct authority in the English Language.

The three last are already prepared for the press, and will appear first, commencing with the present issue.

The whole will be illustrated by drawings on stone, and brought up, as nearly as can be accomplished, to the standard of the most recent and approved anatomical text books in Europe.

The 5th Part contains 23 marginal illustrations, drawn on Stone, by Mr. COLESWORTHY GRANT.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Sealed Tenders of Contract superscribed on the Envelopes "Tender for the supply of Rum," will be received by the Deputy Commissary General, Fort William, on or before Friday, the 15th day of March next, for the annual supply at the Presidency, of from Thirty to Forty Thousand Imperial Gallons of Rum, as may be required by the Commissariat, during the term of one, two, or three years, as may be accepted, from the 1st day of May 1850.

The Rum to be manufactured after the European method, and to be delivered on the terms of the Contract, at the Commissariat Godown in Fort William, free of all other charges whatever, in quantities of from 7,500 or 10,000 Gallons at a time, in the months of February, May, August and November of each year. The first delivery to be made in August 1850, Casks will be found by the Commissariat.

The Rum to be pure and Merchantable, made from Sugarcane Molasses only, and at the time of delivery of the age of at least three months, to be equal in quality, strength and proof, to what is commonly called London proof, such quality proof or strength to be ascertained and decided upon, by the Deputy Commissary General, the Commissariat Officer in charge at Fort William, or by such other persons as may be duly authorized in manner to be hereafter agreed upon.

The Tenders to be accompanied by a written document, signed by two persons of credibility and competency, acknowledging themselves, if the terms be accepted, willing to become responsible by Deed, for the due performance of the Contractors' engagements. The value or cost of the Rum delivered into the Commissariat Godown, will be paid for on the same being surveyed and approved.

The Tenders will be opened by the Deputy Commissary General, precisely at noon of Saturday, the 16th March, when persons tendering are invited to attend at his office.

Bank of Bengal, 11th January, 1849.

NOTICE.—Patcheapah Moodelly, formerly of Tanjore and Madras, deceased, by his Will, dated 22nd March 1794, amongst other things bequeathed "the sum of One Lack of Pagodas to be placed "out at Interest, and directed that out of the In-"terest arising therefrom, the ablutions and offer-"ings were to be performed with regularity in "the different holy places from Causey to Rams-"veram," and whereas by a Decree of the Supreme Court of Judicature at Madras, made in a cause "Herbert Compton, Esquire, Advocate General of the East India Company, versus Annasawmy Pillay," and bearing date the Third day of February, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Twenty-six, It was declared, that the said Legacy was a good and valid bequest, and directed that it should be referred to the Master to enquire and report who would be fit and proper persons to have the management of the Charities mentioned in the said Decree. That the Master made his report, dated 21st March 1829, whereby he certified, that the sums bequeathed for Charities to be performed at Benares and other places therein mentioned, should be paid annually to the Durmakhartah, or Church Warden of the respective Pagodas; and whereas by a Decretal Order made in the said cause on the Thirtieth day of October, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Thirty-two, it was amongst other things ordered, that the Sub-Treasurer of Fort Saint George, with the privity of the Accountant General, should carry to the credit of the said cause to an account to be entitled "Patcheapah's Benares Charity," the sum of Sixteen Thousand and Eight Hundred Rupees. The Interest of the same to be received and applied for the purpose of accumulation subject unto and until the further order of the Court; and whereas by an order, dated the Twenty-fifth day of September, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Forty-nine, made in the said cause, on the Petition of Causeevassee Chocalingee Tumberan, It was referred to the said Master to enquire and report who is, or are the proper person or persons to receive the funds standing in the Treasury to the credit of the said cause to the account of "Patcheapah's Benares Charity." Notice is therefore hereby given, that all persons claiming to be entitled to receive the said Fund are required to come in and prove their claims before Charles Martin Teed, Esquire, the Master of the said Supreme Court, on or before the First day of May, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Fifty.

OF
A MANUAL OF ANATOMY
BY DR. F. J. MOUAT, F. R. C. S.,
etc. etc. etc.

The present work is published as a companion to the Atlas, and will form a complete Manual of Anatomy for the Students of the Military Class attached to the Medical College.

It will consist of the following parts, each complete in itself.

Part I. The General Anatomy of the Tissues.
II. The Bones and Ligaments.
III. The Muscular System.
IV. The Vascular System, including Arteries, Veins, and Lymphatics.
V. The Nervous System.
VI. The Organs of Sense and Voice.
VII. The Viscera of the Chest, Abdomen, and Pelvis.

Each part will be stitched in a separate cover, and a General Index to the whole will be published upon the completion of the work.

The four first parts will be translated from the new edition of Quain's Elements of Anatomy, by Dr. Sharpey, and Professor Richard Quain—the best and most correct authority in the English Language.

The three last are already prepared for the press, and will appear first, commencing with the present issue.

The whole will be illustrated by drawings on stone, and brought up, as nearly as can be accomplished, to the standard of the most recent and approved anatomical text books in Europe.

The 5th Part contains 23 marginal illustrations, drawn on Stone, by Mr. COLESWORTHY GRANT.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 13, 1850.

Fort William, Home Department, Legislative, the 8th March, 1850.

The following Act passed by the Governor General of India in Council on the 8th of March 1850, is hereby promulgated for general information :

ACT No. V. OF 1850.

An Act for freedom of the Coasting Trade of India.

Whereas by an Act of Parliament passed in the thirteenth year of the reign of Her Majesty, intituled An Act to amend the Laws in force for the encouragement of British Shipping and Navigation, it is enacted with regard to the Coasting Trade of India, that it shall be lawful for the Governor General of India in Council to make any regulations authorizing or permitting the conveyance of goods or passengers from one part of the possessions of the East India Company to another part thereof, in other than British Ships, subject to such restrictions or regulations as he may think necessary, It is enacted as follows :

I. Goods and Passengers may be conveyed from one part of the territories under the Government of the East India Company to another part thereof, in other than British Ships, without any restriction, other than is or shall be equally imposed on British Ships, for securing payment of duties of Customs or otherwise.

FRED. JAS. HALLIDAY,
Secy. to the Govt. of India.

Fort William, Home Department, Legislative, the 8th March, 1850.

The following Draft of a proposed Act was read in Council for the first time on the 8th of March 1850:

ACT No. —— OF 1850.

An Act to amend the law for the Prevention of Poisoning.

For amendment of the law relating to the administration of poison, or other deleterious substance, It is enacted as follows:

I. Whoever shall wilfully and unlawfully administer to, or cause to be taken by any person, any poison, or any stupifying, or intoxicating drug, or thing, with intent in any of the cases aforesaid to do any permanent, or temporary bodily harm to such person, or with intent to commit, or abet the commission of any unlawful act, shall be liable at the discretion of the Court to be transported to such place as the Court shall direct for life, or for any term of years, or to be imprisoned for any term not exceeding four years.

II. In any case in which any person shall be charged with administering to, or causing to be taken by any other person any poison, or other destructive thing with intent to commit murder, and the offence proved shall amount only to an offence under this Act, he may be punished as if he had been charged with an offence under this Act.

III. This Act shall be construed with and as part of Act XXXI. 1838.

Ordered, that the Draft now read be published for general information.

Ordered, that the said Draft be re-considered at the first Meeting of the Legislative Council of India on the 8th day of June next.

FRED. JAS. HALLIDAY,
Secy. to the Govt. of India.

Fort William, Home Department, Legislative, the 8th March 1850.

The following Draft of a proposed Act was read in Council for the first time on the 8th of March 1850:

ACT No. —— OF 1850.

For regulating enquiries into the behaviour of Public Servants.

Whereas it is expedient to amend the law for regulating inquiries into the behaviour of public servants not removeable without the sanction of Government, and to make the same uniform throughout the territories under the Government of the East India Company, It is enacted as follows :

I. The following Acts VI. 1838, XXVI. 1839, and XIII. 1843, are repealed, but not so as to revive any Act or Regulation or part of any Act or Regulation thereby repealed.

II. Whenever the Government shall be of opinion that there are good grounds for making a formal inquiry into the truth of any imputation of misbehaviour by any person in the service of the East India Company not removeable from his Office without the sanction of the same Government, it shall cause the substance of the imputations to be drawn into distinct Articles of Charge, and shall order a formal inquiry to be made into the truth thereof.

III. The inquiry may be committed either to the Court, Board or other authority to which the person accused is subordinate, or to any other person or persons, to be appointed by the Government Commissioners for the purpose.

IV. When the Government shall think fit to conduct the prosecution, it shall nominate some person to conduct the same on its behalf.

V. Where the imputations shall have been made by an accuser, and the Government shall think fit to leave to him the conduct of the prosecution, the Government before appointing the Commission shall require him to furnish reasonable security that he will attend and prosecute the charge thoroughly and effectually, and also will be forthcoming to answer any counter charge which may be afterwards preferred against him for malicious prosecution or perjury, as the case may be.

VI. At any subsequent stage of the proceedings, the Government may, if it think fit, abandon the prosecution, and in such case may, if it think fit, on the application of the accuser, allow him to continue the prosecution, if he is desirous of so doing, on his furnishing such security as is hereinbefore mentioned.

VII. The Commissioners shall have the same power of punishing contempts and obstructions to their proceedings as is given to Civil and Criminal Courts by Act XXX. 1841, and shall have the same powers for the summons of witnesses, and for the discharge of their duty under the Commission, and shall be entitled to the same protection as the Zillah and City Judges, except that all process to cause the attendance of witnesses, or other compulsory process, shall be served through and executed by the Zillah or City Judge in whose jurisdiction the witness or other person resides, on whom the process is to be served, and if he resides within [illegible] Madras or Bombay, then through the Supreme Court [illegible] there. When the Commission has been issued to a Court, [illegible] person or persons having power to issue such process in the exercise [illegible] their ordinary authority, they may also use all such power for the purposes of the Commission.

VIII. All persons disobeying any lawful process issued as aforesaid for the purposes of the Commission shall be liable to the same penalties, as if the same had issued originally from the Court or other authority through whom it is executed.

IX. A copy of the Articles of Charge, and list of the documents and witnesses by which each charge is to be sustained shall be delivered to the person accused, at least three days before the beginning of the inquiry, exclusive of the day of delivery, and the first day of the inquiry.

X. At the beginning of the inquiry, the prosecutor shall exhibit the Articles of Charge to the Commissioners, which shall be openly read, and the person accused shall thereupon be required to plead 'guilty' or 'not guilty' to each of them, which pleas shall be forthwith recorded with the Articles of Charge.

XI. The prosecutor shall then be entitled to address the Commissioners in explanation of the Articles of Charge, and of the evidence by which they are to be proved: his address shall not be recorded.

XII. The oral and documentary evidence for the prosecution shall then be exhibited: the witnesses shall be examined by the prosecutor, and may be cross-examined by the person accused. The prosecutor shall be entitled to re-examine the witnesses on any points on which they have been cross-examined, but not on any new matter, without leave of the Commissioners, who also may put such questions as they think fit.

XIII. If it shall appear necessary before the close of the case for the prosecution, the Commissioners may in their discretion allow the prosecutor to exhibit evidence not included in the list given to the person accused, and in such case the person accused shall be entitled to have, if he demand it, an adjournment of the proceedings for three clear days, before the exhibition of such new evidence, exclusive of the day of adjournment and of the day to which the proceedings are adjourned.

XIV. When the case for the prosecution is closed, the person accused shall be required to make his defence, orally or in writing, as he shall prefer. If made orally, it shall not be recorded; if made in writing, it shall be recorded, after being openly read, and in that case a copy shall be given at the same time to the prosecutor.

XV. The evidence for the defence shall then be exhibited, and the witnesses examined, who shall be liable to cross-examination and re-examination and to examination by the Commissioners according to the like rules as the witnesses for the prosecution.

XVI. All witnesses, either for the prosecution or defence, shall be examined on oath, or, if exempt from taking an oath in Courts of Justice, on Solemn Affirmation, to be administered in either case by one of the Commissioners, and every witness so examined and wilfully giving false evidence on any material point shall be liable to the penalties of perjury. When the prosecution is not conducted on behalf of Government, the prosecutor may himself give evidence for the prosecution and may be examined for the defence.

XVII. The Commissioners or some person appointed by them shall take notes of all the oral evidence, which shall be read aloud to each witness by whom the same was given, and shall be recorded with the proceedings.

XVIII. If the person accused makes only an oral defence, and exhibits no evidence, the inquiry shall end with his defence; if he records a written defence, or exhibits evidence, the prosecutor shall be entitled to a general reply on the whole case, and may also exhibit evidence to contradict any evidence exhibited for the defence, in which case the person accused shall not be entitled to any adjournment of the proceedings, although such new evidence were not included in the list furnished to him.

XIX. When the person accused shall object, and the Commissioners shall be of opinion, that the Articles of Charge, or any of them, are not drawn with sufficient clearness and precision, the Commissioners may, in their discretion, require the same to be amended, and may thereupon, on the application of the person accused, adjourn the inquiry for a reasonable time. The Commissioners may also, if they think fit, adjourn the inquiry from time to time, on the application of either the prosecutor or the person accused, on the ground of the sickness or unavoidable absence of any witness or other reasonable cause. When such application is made and refused, the Commissioners shall record the application, and their reasons for refusing to comply with it.

XX. After the close of the inquiry, the Commissioners shall forthwith report to Government their proceedings under the Commission, and shall send with the record thereof their opinion upon each of the Articles of Charge separately, with such observations as they think fit on the whole case.

XXI. The Government, on consideration of the report of the Commissioners, may order them to take further evidence, or give further explanation of their opinions, and when Special Commissioners have been appointed, may also, if it thinks fit, refer the report of the Commissioners to the Court or other authority to which the person accused is subordinate, for their opinion on the case; and will finally pass such orders thereon as appear just and consistent with its powers in such cases.

XXII. The word 'Government' as used in this Act means the Governor General in Council, the Governor or Deputy Governor of the Presidency of Fort William in Bengal, the Governor in Council of the Presidencies of Fort St. George and Bombay respectively, the Lieutenant Governor of the North-Western Provinces of Bengal, and Governor of the Settlements of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore and Malacca respectively, whose sanction is necessary for the removal of the person accused.

Ordered, that the Draft now read be published for general information.

Ordered, that the said Draft be re-considered at the meeting of the Legislative Council of India after the 8th day of June next.

NOTIFICATION.—Notice is hereby given, that the rate of Exchange at which Bills secured by the Hypothecation of Goods, are to be drawn in favor of the Hon'ble the East India Company, will be 2 Shillings per Company's Rupee, until further orders.

It is further notified for general information that there is little probability of the rate of Exchange now fixed being reduced during the ensuing twelve months, as so far as is at present known, no advances on Hypothecation will be necessary in India in aid of the Home Treasury during the Official year 1850-51.

By order of the Hon'ble the President in Council,

J. A. DORIN,
Secy. to the Govt. of India.

Orders by the Hon'ble the Deputy Governor of Bengal.

The 9th March, 1850.

With reference to the Despatch from the Hon'ble the Court of Directors, No. 1 of 1850, and its enclosures, published in the Gazette Extraordinary on the 1st instant, the Hon'ble the Deputy Governor is pleased to direct that the annexed Despatch from the Officiating Secretary to the Government of India, in the Home Department, dated 22nd February, No. 135, be published for general information.

The Hon'ble the Deputy Governor is pleased to notify that a Central Committee of Bengal, for the formation of a Collection of the Raw Products and Manufactures of India, for transmission to the Great Exhibition of Works of Industry and Art of all Nations, to be held in London in 1851, has been constituted this-day. The Committee consists of the following Gentlemen:

President.

The Hon'ble Sir Lawrence Peel, Kt.

Members.

The Hon'ble J. E. D. Bethune.
The Hon'ble Sir James Colvile, Kt.
Prince Ghoolam Mahommed.
Lieut. Col. W. N. Forbes.
Cecil Beadon, Esq.
Dr. H. Falconer.
John McClelland, Esq.
Dr. Mouat.
Joseph Agabeg, Esq.
Rustomjee Cowasjee, Esq.
John Cowie, Esq.
Baboo Ramgopaul Ghose.
Dawd Huffnagle, Esq.
Baboo Joykissen [illegible] Esq.

Mr. Beadon has been appointed [illegible] Secretary to the Committee.

The objects in view are explained by the Despatch from the Hon'ble the Court of Directors above referred to, and by the annexed Despatch of the Officiating Secretary to the Government of India, No. 135, dated the 22nd ultimo, to the Secretary to the Government of Bengal.

At the following places Local Committees will be appointed:

1. Patna—for all the Behar Districts: viz. Shahabad, Sarun, Patna, Behar, Bhaugulpore, Monghyr, Tirhoot and Champarun.

2. Moorshedabad—for the Districts of North Western Bengal: viz. Moorshedabad, Bauleah, Purneah, Rungpore, Dinagepore, Bogra, Beerbhoom, Burdwan, Pubna, and for the Darjeeling Hill Country.

3. Dacca—for the following Districts of Eastern Bengal: viz. Dacca, Furreedpore, Sylhet, Mymensing, Burrisaul, and for the Cossya Hills, Cachar, and Munneepore.

4. Chittagong—for the following Districts of Eastern Bengal: viz. Chittagong, Tipperah, Noacolly, and for the Hill Country of Tipperah.

5. Cuttack—for the Districts in Orissa: viz. Cuttack, Balasore, Pooree, and the Tributary Mehals.

6. Chota Nagpore—for the Districts of the South-West Frontier Agency: viz. Hazareebaugh, Lohardugga, Maunbhoom, Singbhoom and Sumbulpore, and for the Zemeendarees under the Political Agency.

7. Gowhatti—for the Districts in Assam: viz. Gowalparah, Durrung, Nowgong, Kamroop, Seebsagur and Luckimpore, and for Kooch Behar.

8. Akyab—for the Arracan Districts: viz. Arracan, Kyouk-Phyoo, Ramree and Sandoway.

9. Moulmein—for the Tenasserim Districts: viz. Amherst, Tavoy and Mergui.

10. Singapore—for the Settlements under the Governor of the Straits: viz. Singapore, Penang and Malacca.

For the Districts immediately around Calcutta, viz. 24-Pergunnahs, Hooghly, Midnapore, Nuddea, Baraset, Jessore and the Soonderbuns, no Local Committee will be appointed; as it has been thought that the Central Committee will have no difficulty in acquiring directly all the local information necessary in respect of these Districts.

The Officers undermentioned will be Presidents of the Local Committees for the Circles above specified.

The Commissioner of Patna.
" Chittagong.
" Dacca.
" Moorshedabad.
" Cuttack.
" South-West Frontier.
" Arracan.
" Assam.
" Tenasserim Provinces.
Governor of the Straits' Settlements.

Until the formation of the Local Committees, these Officers will correspond with, and carry out the instructions of the Central Committee.

To enable His Honor to form the Local Committees, the Officers abovenamed have been requested to furnish, as early as possible, for their own circles respectively, lists of names of parties, Native and European, whom they may think best qualified to aid in this national object. When the parties to be so named are not at the Head Quarters of the Committee, they will be corresponding Members, and it has been stated that it will be desirable to have corresponding Members at some of the out Stations of each Circle.

By order of the Hon'ble the Deputy Governor of Bengal,

J. P. GRANT,
Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

(No. 135.)

FROM W. GREY, ESQ.,
Offg. Secy. to the Govt. of India,

TO J. P. GRANT, ESQ.,
Secretary to the Govt. of Bengal.
Dated the 22nd February, 1850.

SIR,

I am directed to forward for submission to the Hon'ble the Deputy Governor of Bengal, one hundred copies of a Dispatch and its enclosures, received from the Hon'ble the Court of Directors by the last Mail.

Home Dept.

2. It seems to the President in Council that the object which the Hon'ble Court have in view, in connection with the projected Grand Exhibition of Industry to be held in London in 1851, will be most effectually obtained by entrusting to the supervision of the several Local Governments all the details of the arrangements which it may be necessary to make,—such general points only being fixed by instructions from the Supreme Government as may ensure a certain degree of uniformity in the proceedings of the Local Governments, and also may enable the Supreme Government to retain an effectual control over the expenditure to be incurred, and prevent the needless transmission of duplicate specimens.

3. The general plan of operations which has suggested itself to the President in Council, is the establishment of a Central Committee at the seat of each Government, and the appointment of as many Subordinate Committees, in different parts of each Presidency, as may appear in the judgment of the Local Government to be called for.

4. The Subordinate Committees as well as the Central Committees should each be furnished with a copy of the Hon'ble Court's Dispatch and its enclosures.

5. The Subordinate Committees should be instructed to prepare, with all practicable expedition, for transmission to the Central Committees, reports similar to that furnished by Mr. Taylor in the District of Dacca, with lists of Articles of every description which, in their opinion, it would be desirable to transmit to the Exhibition from the circle of country placed within the range of their report: opposite to every Article in the lists should be placed, as nearly as it can be ascertained, its price, and at the foot of the lists, there should be an estimate of the probable cost of carriage for the conveyance of the whole of the Articles to the Head Quarters of the Central Committee.

6. It should further be stated, in respect of the more elaborate kind of manufactures, what length of time will probably be required for the preparation of a perfect specimen of each, and in any case where the time required for the manufacture of an Article is so great as to make it advisable to give an immediate order for its commencement, the Central Committees should request the authority of the Local Government, for doing so, and should note the circumstance upon the face of the list.

7. As respects the bulk of the Articles, however, the Central Committees, after receiving the lists from the Subordinate Committees, should proceed to their careful revision, removing from them all such Articles as they may not deem of sufficient interest to make it desirable to send them to the Exhibition, and also all duplicates of Articles of the same nature which may have been included by two or more Committees in their lists, unless for special reasons, comparison of the same Article, from different districts, should appear desirable.

8. The lists thus revised, should then be embodied into one general list (the particulars as to the estimated cost of the respective Articles being still retained) and should be sent to the Local Governments, by whom they will be transmitted to the Government of India without any further delay than may be necessary, to enable the Local Government to record such remarks as it may be considered desirable to offer.

9. The lists rendered to the Supreme Government will thus comprise all the Articles which it is proposed to forward to England from the whole extent of Territory situated within the limits of the four Presidencies of Bengal, Agra, Madras and Bombay,—they will also show roughly the cost of procuring the Articles, and the Supreme Government will thus be able to form some definite judgment in regard to the expense which it may be necessary to incur in this undertaking.

10. Some few of the Articles, and those probably the most expensive, will, it is true, have been previously ordered under the discretion allowed by para. 6 of this Dispatch, but with regard to those Articles not ordered, which will constitute the great mass of the proposed collection, it will be for the Supreme Government to determine, with reference to the aggregate of the expenditure estimated from the four Presidencies as well as to other considerations, whether the whole number of Articles selected by each Central Committee shall be purchased and transmitted to England, or whether it may be considered necessary to direct a curtailment of any or all of the four lists. It will probably at all events occur, that in comparing the four lists, many of the same Articles, or Articles closely resembling one another, will be found repeated in two or more of them. Many of the things named also, it may not be necessary for the Government to purchase owing to the same or similar products and manufactures being sent for Exhibition by private individuals, or in some instances perhaps by the Native Princes of the Country. With regard to the probable readiness of many private individuals to send Articles for Exhibition, it might be advisable for the Local Governments to request, by public Notification, that all intended Dispatches should be communicated to the Government, and it might possibly even be worth while to encourage such private transmissions by offering to send the Articles with those dispatched by the Government, and in that case they should be included in the lists of the Central Committees, the owners' names being duly inserted.

11. The lists after undergoing such revision as on any ground it may appear to the Supreme Government necessary to make, will be returned to the Central Committees, who will then immediately proceed to procure all those Articles, the purchase of which may have been sanctioned. The requisite Funds will be supplied by the Local Governments under such Regulations as they may prescribe, and no further reference on any point will be needed to the Government of India: the Articles may be at once packed as soon as they are procured and transmitted direct to England either to the India House or to such other address as may be hereafter indicated.

12. Copies of the four lists, as revised by the Supreme Government, will be sent to the Hon'ble Court at the same time that they are returned to the Central Committees, in order that timely intimation may be made to those appointed to conduct the arrangements of the Exhibition, in regard to the extent of contributions which may be expected to arrive from this Country.

13. The most important point to be considered, in connection with the above plan of arrangements, is obviously whether the plan will leave sufficient time for the purchase and transmission of the Articles to England, subsequent to the return of the lists from Calcutta to the Central Committees.

14. The President in Council does not apprehend that the Exhibition is likely to take place till towards the close of the Summer of 1851, but granting that the bulk of the collections should not be dispatched from this country later than the 1st January in that year, there are ten clear months from this date, and that time seems to His Honor in Council to be sufficient for carrying out the arrangements for a supply of Articles in the manner suggested in this letter. If six weeks are calculated to be occupied from this date before the Subordinate Committees are fairly set to work, and two months are allowed to those Committees for the preparation of their reports, the lists should be in the hands of the Central Committees at latest by the 15th of June. More than six weeks ought not to be occupied in the revision of the lists, their transmission to the Supreme Government and their return to the Central Committees. This would bring the time up to the 1st of August, which would leave five clear months for purchasing, packing, and dispatching the Articles to England.

15. But although it may be desirable that the great bulk of the Collection, in order that it may arrive in England some weeks previous to the time fixed for the Exhibition, should be dispatched as early as the 1st of January, the President in Council does not apprehend that there will be any risk of Articles not reaching England in time, which are dispatched at subsequent dates, certainly up to the middle of February, and light goods might even, if necessary, be transmitted at a still later date by the overland route. By that route also advise should be given of all dispatches which are sent round the Cape, accompanied by lists of the Articles shipped in each vessel.

16. By keeping as closely as may be practicable in each stage of the undertaking within the limits that have been indicated above, and making at the same time as extensive a use of the discretion allowed by para. 6 of this letter as may seem expedient, the President in Council sees no reason to doubt that the several local Governments will be able to complete and transmit to England in time, such collections of the products and manufactures of this vast Empire as will constitute a striking and interesting feature in the grand London Exhibition of 1851.

17. It is, however, obvious that every possible exertion must be made and every precaution taken to prevent the slightest unnecessary delay in any one stage of the proceedings. Much will depend in particular, upon the time occupied in organizing the Committees, and still more perhaps on the care which may be taken in organizing them. If care is taken to select Gentlemen for the Local Committees, who are well qualified both by their attainments, their tastes and inclinations for the task allotted to them, many of those Committees will doubtless be able to prepare their reports in a shorter period than two months, and may thus enable the Central Committees to submit their revised lists to the Government at an earlier date than has been calculated.

18. The selection of Gentlemen for the Committees—the Central as well as the Subordinate Committees—will of course rest with the Local Governments, and the President in Council cannot doubt that, independently of the Officers of Government, any Gentleman whose services it may be thought desirable to obtain, will be ready to afford them upon such an occasion.

19. It is probable that it may be necessary to afford the Central Committees the temporary assistance of one or more English Writers, and possibly also, some assistance of the same kind to the other Committees. Any small expense of this sort, the President in Council authorizes the Local Governments to incur without previous reference to Calcutta, reporting however in the usual form, that they have done so.

20. In conclusion I am desired to say that any points which are unprovided for by this letter, or regarding which doubts may arise, should be decided by the Local Government without reference to the Government of India.

I have the honor to be, &c.

Calcutta, Govt. Custom House, the 1st March, 1850.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Sealed Tenders of Contract superscribed on the Envelopes "Tender for the supply of Rum," will be received by the Deputy Commissary General, Fort William, on or before Friday, the 15th day of March next, for the annual supply at the Presidency, of such quantity of Rum as may be required by the Commissariat not exceeding Forty Thousand Imperial Gallons, during the term of one, two, or three years, as may be accepted, from the 1st day of May 1850.

The Rum to be manufactured after the European method, and to be delivered on the terms of the Contract, at the Commissariat Godown in Fort William, free of all other charges whatever, in quantities of from 7,500 or 10,000 Gallons at a time, in the months of February, May, August and November of each year. The first delivery to be made in August 1850, Casks will be found by the Commissariat.

The Rum to be pure and Merchantable, made from Sugarcane Molasses only, and at the time of delivery of the age of at least three months, to be equal in quality, strength and proof, to what is commonly called London proof, such quality proof or strength to be ascertained and decided upon, by the Deputy Commissary General, the Commissariat Officer in charge at Fort William, or by such other persons as may be duly authorized in manner to be hereafter agreed upon.

The Tenders to be accompanied by a written document, signed by two persons of credibility and competency, acknowledging themselves, if the terms be accepted, willing to become responsible by Deed, for the due performance of the Contractors' engagements. The value or cost of the Rum delivered into the Commissariat Godown, will be paid for on the same being surveyed and approved.

The Tenders will be opened by the Deputy Commissary General, precisely at noon of Saturday, the 16th March, when persons tendering are invited to attend at his office.

W. J. THOMPSON, Lieut.-Col.,
Deputy Comy. Genl.

Joint Dy. Comy. Genl.'s Office, Fort William, 24th January, 1850.

NOTIFICATION.—An Examination will be held early in April 1850, in the College of Fort William, for the purpose of filling up existing Vacancies in the Military Class of the Medical College. All Candidates will be expected to possess a knowledge of the Hindustani Language, adequate to enable them to read and write it in Persian or Devanagri Character.

2nd. All Interpreters of Regiments and Battalions are requested not to grant Certificates of Qualification to any Candidates under the age of fifteen or above that of twenty years; and likewise to reject all who may not pass the prescribed ordeal with a sufficient degree of fluency and facility. Much disappointment, expense and inconvenience have already been experienced by lads from distant stations, being furnished with certificates, who were found, on examination, quite unqualified for admission, and it is with a view to prevent the recurrence of this that the above measure has been adopted.

3rd. Candidates for admission will be required to present themselves before the Secretary to the Medical College, at least three days prior to the day of examination, in order that a proper descriptive roll may be prepared for transmission to the Examiners of the College of Fort William.

4th. The preference in selection, qualifications being equal, will be given to those who have already been attached to, or served in Civil or Regimental Hospitals, or to those who are the sons of Native Officers and Soldiers.

5th. No Candidate will be allowed to present himself for examination, who cannot produce a written testimonial of his conduct and character, or afford satisfactory evidence as to who and what he may be. A few individuals of decidedly bad character, have, upon recent occasions, managed to obtain admittance, it is supposed by producing false papers; the strictest care and scrutiny will therefore be exercised in examining the credentials of all future Candidates, who will, in addition, require to be furnished with regular muster rolls, in order that they may be identified.

6th. All pupils must, as a condition of their appointment, reside within the College premises at all times, and never be absent from morning and evening muster without special leave.

7th. All Students in the Military Class are amenable to the Articles of War, and regularly enlisted as Soldiers.

8th. No Candidate will be admitted into the School, who is physically unfit for the duties of a Soldier.

OF
A MANUAL OF ANATOMY
BY DR. F. J. MOUAT, F. R. C. S.,
etc. etc. etc.

The present work is published as a companion to the Atlas, and will form a complete Manual of Anatomy for the Students of the Military Class attached to the Medical College.

It will consist of the following parts, each complete in itself.

Part I. The General Anatomy of the Tissues.
II. The Bones and Ligaments.
III. The Muscular System.
IV. The Vascular System, including Arteries, Veins, and Lymphatics.
V. The Nervous System.
VI. The Organs of Sense and Voice.
VII. The Viscera of the Chest, Abdomen, and Pelvis.

Each part will be stitched in a separate cover, and a General Index to the whole will be published upon the completion of the work.

The four first parts will be translated from the new edition of Quain's Elements of Anatomy, by Dr. Sharpey, and Professor Richard Quain—the best and most correct authority in the English Language.

The three last are already prepared for the press, and will appear first, commencing with the present issue.

The whole will be illustrated by drawings on stone, and brought up, as nearly as can be accomplished, to the standard of the most recent and approved anatomical text books in Europe.

The 5th Part contains 23 marginal illustrations, drawn on Stone, by Mr. COLESWORTHY GRANT.

SATURDAY, MARCH 16, 1850.

Fort William, Home Department, Legislative, the 8th March, 1850.

The following Act passed by the Governor General of India in Council on the 8th of March 1850, is hereby promulgated for general information :

ACT No. V. OF 1850.

An Act for freedom of the Coasting Trade of India.

Whereas by an Act of Parliament passed in the thirteenth year of the reign of Her Majesty, intituled An Act to amend the Laws in force for the encouragement of British Shipping and Navigation, it is enacted with regard to the Coasting Trade of India, that it shall be lawful for the Governor General of India in Council to make any regulations authorizing or permitting the conveyance of goods or passengers from one part of the possessions of the East India Company to another part thereof, in other than British Ships, subject to such restrictions or regulations as he may think necessary, It is enacted as follows :

I. Goods and Passengers may be conveyed from one part of the territories under the Government of the East India Company to another part thereof, in other than British Ships, without any restriction, other than is or shall be equally imposed on British Ships, for securing payment of duties of Customs or otherwise.

FRED JAS. HALLIDAY,
Secy. to the Govt. of India.

Fort William, Home Department, Legislative, the 8th March, 1850.

The following Draft of a proposed Act was read in Council for the first time on the 8th of March 1850:

ACT No. —— OF 1850.

An Act to amend the law for the Prevention of Poisoning.

For amendment of the law relating to the administration of poison, or other deleterious substance, It is enacted as follows:

I. Whoever shall wilfully and unlawfully administer to, or cause to be taken by any person, any poison, or any stupifying, or intoxicating drug, or thing, with intent in any of the cases aforesaid to do any permanent, or temporary bodily harm to such person, or with intent to commit, or abet the commission of any unlawful act, shall be liable at the discretion of the Court to be transported to such place as the Court shall direct for life, or for any term of years, or to be imprisoned for any term not exceeding four years.

II. In any case in which any person shall be charged with administering to, or causing to be taken by any other person any poison, or other destructive thing with intent to commit murder, and the offence proved shall amount only to an offence under this Act, he may be punished as if he had been charged with an offence under this Act.

III. This Act shall be construed with and as part of Act XXXI. 1838.

Ordered, that the Draft now read be published for general information.

Ordered, that the said Draft be re-considered at the first Meeting of the Legislative Council of India after the 8th day of June next.

FRED. JAS. HALLIDAY,
Secy. to the Govt. of India.

Fort William, Home Department, Legislative, the 8th March 1850.

The following Draft of a proposed Act was read in Council for the first time on the 8th of March 1850:

ACT No. —— OF 1850.

For regulating enquiries into the behaviour of Public Servants.

Whereas it is expedient to amend the law for regulating inquiries into the behaviour of public servants not removeable without the sanction of Government, and to make the same uniform throughout the territories under the Government of the East India Company, It is enacted as follows :

I. The following Acts VI. 1838, XXVI. 1839, and XIII. 1843, are repealed, but not so as to revive any Act or Regulation, or part of any Act or Regulation thereby repealed.

II. Whenever the Government shall be of opinion that there are good grounds for making a formal inquiry into the truth of any imputation of misbehaviour by any person in the service of the East India Company not removeable from his Office without the sanction of the same Government, it shall cause the substance of the imputations to be drawn into distinct Articles of Charge, and shall order a formal inquiry to be made into the truth thereof.

Moulvee Golam Usghur, Principal Sudder Ameen of Shahabad, assumed charge of his office on the 8th instant, and received also on the same date charge of the office of Civil and Sessions Judge of the District from Mr. A. Almeida.

Erratum.—Dr. W. B. O'Shaughnesssy, omitted in the list of the Committee in page 226 of the Gazette of the 13th instant.

No. 967.

BUOY ON THE TWO AND A HALF FATHOM BANK STRAITS OF MALACCA.

Notice to Mariners.

The following Notice of a First Class Buoy having been placed at the Western entrance to the Straits of Malacca, is published for general information.

By order of the Superintendent of Marine,

JAS. SUTHERLAND,
Secretary.

Fort William,
The 15th March, 1850.

A first class Buoy, painted black and white, having been placed on the 21st of January, 1850, on what is usually called the two and a half fathom bank, at the Western entrance to the Straits of Malacca, in two fathoms at low water Spring Tides, the following bearings were taken by Azimuth Compass from it:

Parcilar Hill ..... East half South
False Parcilar Hill ..... North 50° East
Trees on the low land of Callam Island just visible on the horizon, the eye being elevated 12 feet above the water ..... North 85° East

There is a small patch North East from the Buoy. about twenty fathoms distant with nine feet at low water spring tides.

About a mile to the Eastward of the Buoy on the tail of the bank, there are overfalls of three and four fathoms, with five, six, and seven fathoms between them.

To the Westward of the Buoy, nothing under five fathoms within a quarter of a mile.

To the North and Southward of the Buoy, there are ten and twelve fathoms within a quarter of a mile.

Vessels from the Eastward or Westward, keeping Parcilar Hill, East a quarter South, will just clear to the Southward of the bank, and East three quarters South, will lead a vessel clear to the Northward.

S. CONGALTON, Commander,

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 20, 1850.

Fort William, Home Department, Legislative, the 8th March, 1850.

The following Act passed by the Governor General of India in Council on the 8th of March 1850, is hereby promulgated for general information :

ACT No. V. OF 1850.

An Act for freedom of the Coasting Trade of India.

Whereas by an Act of Parliament passed in the thirteenth year of the reign of Her Majesty, intituled An Act to amend the Laws in force for the encouragement of British Shipping and Navigation, it is enacted with regard to the Coasting Trade of India, that it shall be lawful for the Governor General of India in Council to make any regulations authorizing or permitting the conveyance of goods or passengers from one part of the possessions of the East India Company to another part thereof, in other than British Ships, subject to such restrictions or regulations as he may think necessary, It is enacted as follows :

I. Goods and Passengers may be conveyed from one part of the territories under the Government of the East India Company to another part thereof, in other than British Ships, without any restriction, other than is or shall be equally imposed on British Ships, for securing payment of duties of Customs or otherwise.

The following Act passed by the Governor General of India in Council on the 5th of March 1850, is hereby promulgated for general information :

ACT No. VI. OF 1850.

For enabling the Commander-in-Chief to pardon Military Offences.

Whereas the power of pardoning persons under sentence of a Court Martial, for offences which are not punishable by any other authority, may be entrusted to the Commander-in-Chief of the Military Forces in the service of the East India Company in each Presidency, but in all other cases ought to belong only to the Supreme Government, It is enacted as follows :

I. The Commander-in-Chief of the Military Forces in the service of the East India Company, in each Presidency, shall have power to pardon any person belonging to the said Forces, convicted by sentence of a Court Martial of any offence against the Articles of War framed for the government of the Native Officers and Soldiers in the Military service of the East India Company, which, wherever committed, is not punishable otherwise than by sentence of a Court Martial; or, instead of granting a full pardon to any such person, may remit any part of the punishment awarded for such offence.

II. In such cases, the Commander-in-Chief shall issue a Warrant under his hand, setting forth the offence, and a copy of the Warrant or other instrument by which the offender is kept in custody in execution of the sentence, and pardoning or remitting such part of the punishment awarded for the offence as to him shall seem fit.

III. The said Warrant shall be countersigned by the Magistrate of the Zillah, or City in which the offender is undergoing his sentence; or, if he is confined in any prison belonging to one of the Supreme Courts of Judicature established by Royal Charter, shall be countersigned by a Judge of such Court, if it shall appear to such Magistrate or Judge that the offence, wherever committed, is not punishable by any authority other than that of a Court Martial; but not otherwise.

IV. All Sheriffs, Gaolers, and other persons having custody, of any offender under sentence of a Court Martial, shall obey and give effect to any Warrant of the Commander-in-Chief, countersigned by a Magistrate, or Judge of the Supreme Court as aforesaid, for the pardon and release of any offender in their custody respectively, or for the remission of any part of his sentence.

The following Act passed by the Governor General of India in Council on the 15th of March 1850, is hereby promulgated for general information:

ACT No. VII. OF 1850.

An Act for better defining the Law as to the removal of Prisoners.

Whereas, by the Regulations in force, prisoners may in certain cases be removed from one prison to another by special order of the Nizamut Adawlut or Foujdaree Adawlut, and in other cases by the Governor or Governor in Council of the Presidency; and it is expedient that the Government should be empowered to direct such removal, in every case which appears necessary, without application to the Court for a special order, It is enacted as follows:

I. Act VIII. 1844, is repealed.

II. When any person is under sentence of imprisonment, within the territories under the Government of the East India Company, by any authority other than that of one of the Supreme Courts of Judicature established by Royal Charter, the Governor or Governor in Council, or other person administering the Government of the Presidency or place, may order the removal of such prisoner from the prison, or place, in which he is confined, to any other public prison or place of confinement within the same Presidency or Government.

III. The time of removal from one prison to another, or while the prisoner is in custody under such warrant of removal, shall reckon as part of his imprisonment.

ACT No. VIII. OF 1850.

An Act to amend the law for enabling Zillah and City Judges and Principal Sudder Ameens, in certain cases of Appeal, to confirm the decision without summoning the Respondent.

Whereas it will lessen the delay and expense of Appeals, if the powers possessed by Zillah and City Judges of confirming decisions on certain Appeals without serving any notice on the Respondents, are extended to Principal Sudder Ameens, It is enacted as follows:

I. The powers given to Zillah and City Judges, by Clause Third, Section XVI. of Regulation V. 1831 of the Bengal Code, are extended to Principal Sudder Ameens, in all Appeals referred to them.

II. Every Judge and Principal Sudder Ameen who shall confirm any decision under the said Regulation, or this Act, without giving notice to the Respondent, shall record his reasons for rejecting the Appeal.

Fort William, Home Department, Legislative, the 15th March, 1850.

ACT No. IX. OF 1850.

An Act for the more easy Recovery of Small Debts and Demands in Calcutta, Madras and Bombay.

Whereas it is expedient to amend the constitution and practice, and to extend the jurisdiction, of the several Courts established at Calcutta, Madras and Bombay, for the Recovery of Small Debts, It is enacted as follows:

I. The several Courts of Commissioners and of Requests, for the Recovery of Small Debts, now holden in the Towns of Calcutta, Madras and Bombay, under the authority of the Charter of Justice of King George the Second, and of two Acts of Parliament, severally passed in the thirty-seventh year and fortieth year of the reign of King George the Third, and of the Regulations and Proclamations made, from time to time, for constituting, and for new-modelling, altering and reforming the constitution and practice of the said Courts respectively, and of Act XII. 1848, shall be holden according to the provisions of this Act, from and after such several days as shall be declared within the said Towns by proclamation, to be made and published in due form of law in each of the said Towns by the Governor in Council.

II. Where in this Act the words "Governor in Council," or "Supreme Court," are used, they shall be taken to apply severally to the person or persons administering the executive Government, and to the Supreme Court, established under Royal Charter of each of the Presidencies of Fort William in Bengal, Fort St. George and Bombay, with reference only to the Court holden under this Act, in the same Presidency.

III. From and after the day declared in any such proclamation, all provisions of the said Charter of Justice, and Acts of Parliament, and of any Regulation, Act or Proclamation heretofore made concerning the constitution or practice of the Court, referred to in such proclamation, shall be rescinded and repealed.

IV. The style of the several Courts holden under this Act shall be the ( ) Court of Small Causes, inserting in the blank space, Calcutta, Madras or Bombay, as the case requires.

V. The jurisdiction of the several Courts, holden under this Act, shall extend over the whole district now within the jurisdiction thereof respectively, and over such further district as may, from time to time, be declared by proclamation of the Governor in Council: provided, that no proclamation for extending the district of any of the said Courts be made without the previous sanction of the Governor General of India in Council.

VI. Every Court holden under this Act shall be a Court of Record, and shall be deemed a Court of Requests within the meaning of Act VII. 1841, Section VI.

VII. All proceedings commenced in any of the said Courts, before the time when the constitution and practice of such Court shall be altered under this Act, may be continued, executed and enforced against all persons liable thereunto, in the same manner as if they had been commenced according to this Act: and each of the said Courts shall be empowered in any case of doubt as to the proper manner of continuing, executing or enforcing any such proceedings, to make such orders thereon as shall appear to the Court to be necessary for giving full effect to this enactment.

VIII. The Governor in Council shall appoint as many persons as are necessary not exceeding three to be Judges of the Court, one of whom shall be a Barrister at Law, or Advocate of one of the Supreme Courts of India, or of the Court of Session in Scotland.

IX. No Judge appointed under this Act shall, during his continuance as such Judge, practise as an Advocate, Attorney, or Vakeel in any of the Queen's Courts, or in any Court of the East India Company, or trade or traffic for his own benefit, or for the benefit of any other person, or be the partner of any person so practising, trading or trafficking.

X. The Governor General of India in Council may remove any such Judge on the application of the Governor in Council.

XI. Any Judge or Judges of the Supreme Court of Judicature, who shall consent to aid in the execution of this Act, may exercise all the powers of a Judge appointed under this Act, and suits may be tried by him sitting in the Supreme Court under this Act in like manner as if he were a Judge of the Court of Small Causes, and no appointment of a Judge under this Act shall be made, while it appears to the Governor in Council that the whole business of the Court can be transacted by the Judges of the Supreme Court so consenting to act.

XII. The duties herein directed to be performed by the Clerk and Bailiffs respectively of the Court of Small Causes, shall be performed in such cases as are tried by a Judge of the Supreme Court, by such Ministerial Officers of the Supreme Court as shall be, from time to time, appointed by the said Judge of the Supreme Court for that purpose, and the persons so appointed shall have all the powers and protections by this Act given to the Clerk and Bailiffs of the Court of Small Causes respectively, and shall receive such remuneration for their services out of the fees received in the causes tried by a Judge of the Supreme Court as he shall deem reasonable, and the residue shall form part of the general fund of the Court of Small Causes.

XIII. There shall be a Clerk for every Court holden under this Act, whom the Judges of the Court shall appoint, subject to the approval of the Governor in Council, and may remove, subject to the like approval: if necessary, additional Clerks may be appointed with the sanction of the Governor in Council.

XIV. The Clerk of each Court shall issue all summonses, warrants, precepts and writs of execution, and keep an account of all proceedings of the Court, and shall take charge of, and keep an account of all Court fees, and fines payable or paid into Court, and of all monies paid into, and out of Court, and shall enter an account of all such fees, fines, and monies in a book belonging to the Court, to be kept by him for that purpose, and shall monthly, or at such other times as shall be directed by the Governor in Council, submit his accounts to be audited or settled in such manner as the Governor in Council, from time to time, shall direct.

XV. The Judges of every such Court shall, from time to time, appoint a sufficient number of persons to be Bailiffs of the Court, not exceeding the number, from time to time, allowed by the Governor in Council, and may at their pleasure suspend or dismiss any Bailiff so appointed.

XVI. The Bailiffs shall attend every sitting of the Court, for such time as shall be required by the Judges, and shall serve all the summonses and orders, and execute all the warrants, precepts, and writs, issued out of the Court; and shall, in the execution of their duties, conform to all such general rules as shall be, from time to time, made for regulating the proceedings of the Court.

XVII. Every Clerk, or other Officer of any such Court, who shall, by himself or by any partner, or in any way, directly or indirectly, be concerned or act as Attorney, or Vakeel, or be concerned in any trade or profession on his own account, or for any other person, shall forfeit and pay the sum of Five Hundred Rupees to any person who shall sue for the same in the Supreme Court by action of debt or on the case.

XVIII. The Clerk and Bailiffs shall give security for such sum, and in such manner and form, as the Governor in Council, from time to time, shall order, for the due performance of their several offices, and for the due accounting for and payment of all monies received by them under this Act, or which they may become liable to pay for any misbehaviour in their office.

XIX. There shall be payable in the Courts holden under this Act the fees set forth in the annexed Schedule beside the sum of Two Annas in the Rupee on the amount of the sum claimed, which fees shall be paid over to an account to be termed the General Fund of the Court.

XX. The ratable fee or commission shall be paid by the plaintiff before the summons issues; the other fees on every proceeding shall be paid in the first instance by the plaintiff or party on whose behalf such proceeding is to be had, on or before such proceeding: if the plaintiff recovers a less sum than he has demanded, the defendant shall not, in any case, be required to repay to him more than the fees and commission calculated upon the sum recovered. If the case is settled by agreement of the parties, before hearing, half the amount of the fees paid up to that time shall be returned to the parties by whom they have been severally paid. The Judges of the said Court may at their discretion grant summons to poor plaintiffs without deposit, or with a partial deposit of fees and commission, and also may remit costs wholly or partially to poor suitors.

XXI. The Governor in Council may, at any time, lessen the amount of the fees to be taken in the Courts holden under this Act in such manner as to him shall seem fit, and may again increase such fees, so that the scale of fees given in this Act be not in any case surpassed.

XXII. The Governor in Council shall, from time to time, make such rules as to him shall seem meet for securing the balances, and other sums of money in the hands of any Officers of every Court holden under this Act, and for the due accounting for and application of all such balances and other sums of money.

XXIII. The Courts shall sit daily, except on Sundays, Christmas-day, and Good Friday, and on Native or other Holidays, which the Governor in Council shall direct the Court to observe; and each of the Judges may sit apart from the others or with either of them, at the same time or at different times; and any one or two of the said Judges so sitting apart shall have all the judicial authority, which is herein given to all the Judges.

XXIV. A Seal shall be made for every Court holden under this Act, under the direction of the Governor in Council, and all summonses and other process issuing out of the Court shall be sealed or stamped with the Seal of the Court; and every person, who shall forge the seal or any process of the Court, or who shall serve or enforce any such forged process, knowing the same to be forged, or deliver or cause to be delivered to any person any paper falsely purporting to be a copy of any summons, or other process of the said Court, knowing the same to be false, or who shall act or profess to act under any false colour or pretence of the process of the said Court, shall be guilty of felony.

XXV. All suits, where the debt or damage claimed or value of the property in dispute is not more than Five Hundred Rupees, whether on balance of account or otherwise, may be brought in the Court of Small Causes; and all such suits brought in the said Court shall be heard and determined in a summary way, and every defence which would be deemed good in the Supreme Court sitting as a Court of Equity shall be a good bar to any legal demand in the Court of Small Causes. Provided always, that the Court shall not have jurisdiction in any matter concerning the revenue, or concerning any Act ordered or done by the Governor, or Governor General, or any Member of the Council of India, or of any Presidency, in his public capacity, or done by any person by order of the Governor General or Governor in Council, or concerning any act ordered or done by any Judge or Judicial Officer in the execution of his office, or by any person in pursuance of any judgment or order of any Court, or any such Judge or Judicial Officer, or in any suit for libel or slander.

XXVI. On the application of any person desirous to bring a suit under this Act, the Clerk of the Court shall issue, under the seal of the Court, a summons which shall be numbered, and shall set forth the names of the plaintiff and defendant, the cause of action with such particulars as shall be, from time to time, directed by the Rules of the Court, and the amount sued for, and shall be served on the defendant, so many days before the day on which the Court shall be holden at which the cause is to be tried as shall be directed by the rules for regulating the practice of the Court; and delivery of such summons to the defendant, or in such other manner as shall be specified in the rules of practice, shall be deemed good service; and no misnomer or inaccurate description of any person or place in any such summons shall vitiate the same, if the person or place be therein described so as to be commonly known.

XXVII. No misstatement of the cause of action in the summons issued under this Act shall vitiate the same, and the Judges of the Court may, in their discretion, rectify such misstatement as soon as discovered, and alter the record accordingly, and if the defendant, or one of the defendants be present in Court at the time of such discovery, the hearing of the cause after the record shall have been so altered, shall be proceeded with as if no such misstatement had happened, but in the absence of the defendant or of all the defendants a new summons of the same number and date as the original summons shall be issued with the altered statement of the cause of action.

XXVIII. All persons shall be deemed within the jurisdiction of the Court, who dwell or carry on their business or work for gain within the district of the Court at the time of bringing the action, or who did so dwell or carry on their business or work therein at the time when the cause of action arose, or within six months before the time of bringing the action for causes of action which arose within the same time.

XXIX. Any summons or other process of any of the said Courts, service of which is needed out of the district of the Court, may be exhibited in any Court of Law, or before any Magistrate, and shall be thereupon endorsed by the Magistrate or Judge of such Court; and, when so endorsed, may be served in like manner as any order or process from such Court or Magistrate; and such service shall be as valid as if the same had been made by the Bailiff of the Court out of which such summons or other process shall have issued within the jurisdiction of the Court for which he acts.

XXX. Service of any summons or other process of the Court, which shall require to be served out of the district of the Court, may be proved by affidavit, or solemn affirmation, purporting to be sworn or made before any Judge or Magistrate; and, in every case of the unavoidable absence of the Bailiff by whom any summons or other process of the Court has been served, the service of such summons or other process may be proved, if the Judges think fit, in the same manner as a summons served out of the district of the Court.

XXXI. Any minor may prosecute a suit in any Court holden under this Act for any sum of money not greater than Five Hundred Rupees, which may be due to him for wages or piecework, or for work as a servant, in the same manner as if he were of full age.

XXXII. The jurisdiction of the Court shall extend to the recovery of any demand, not exceeding the sum of Five Hundred Rupees, which is the whole or part of the unliquidated balance of a partnership account, or the amount or part of the amount of a distributive share under an intestacy, or of any legacy under a will.

XXXIII. Any Executor or Administrator may sue and be sued in any Court holden under this Act, in like manner as if he were a party in his own right; and judgment and execution shall be such as in the like case would be given or issued in the Supreme Court in the like case: but no Executor or Administrator shall be summoned in that capacity within six months after the death of the person, whose Executor or Administrator he is.

XXXIV. A plaintiff shall not be allowed to divide any cause of action, for the sake of bringing two or more suits in any of the said Courts; but any plaintiff, having cause of action for more than Five Hundred Rupees, may abandon the excess, which shall be entered in the record, and stated in the summons, and thereupon the plaintiff shall, on proving his case, recover to an amount not exceeding Five Hundred Rupees; and the judgment of the Court shall be in full discharge of all demands in respect of such cause of action; and entry of the judgment shall be made accordingly.

XXXV. The Governor General and Members of the Supreme Council of India, the Governors and Members of Council of the Presidencies of Fort William in Bengal, Fort St. George and Bombay respectively, and the Chief Justices and Judges of the several Supreme Courts established therein by Royal Charter, shall not be liable to arrest or imprisonment by process issuing out of any Court holden under this Act, and no writ or process shall be sued out of the said Court against any of the persons privileged by Act I. 1844, or Act XVIII. 1848, without the consent of the Governor in Council.

XXXVI. Where any plaintiff shall have any demand recoverable under this Act, whether founded on contract or wrong, against two or more persons jointly answerable, it shall be sufficient if any of such persons be served with process, and judgment may be obtained and execution issued against the person or persons so served, notwithstanding that others, jointly liable, may not have been served or sued, or may not be within the jurisdiction of the Court; and every such person against whom judgment shall have been obtained under this Act, and who shall have satisfied such judgment, shall be entitled to demand and recover in the Court, holden under this Act, contribution from any other person jointly liable with him; and in all cases of misjoinder of defendants, the Judges may order the suit to proceed against such of the defendants only against whom cause of action appears, and may give judgment against them only; giving also judgment for costs for the defendants improperly joined.

XXXVII. The Judges of the Court shall be empowered to determine all questions as well of fact as of law or equity, as administered in the Supreme Court, in all cases which they have authority to try.

XXXVIII. On the day in that behalf named in the summons, the plaintiff shall appear, and thereupon the defendant shall be required to appear to answer; and on answer being made in Court, the Judges shall proceed in a summary way to try the cause, and give judgment, without further pleading or formal joinder of issue.

XXXIX. A defendant, having any cause of action against the plaintiff, whether or not the same exceeds Five Hundred Rupees, shall be entitled to set the same against the plaintiff's demand, and if judgment is given in such case for the plaintiff, shall be entitled to sue the plaintiff for the balance only of his original demand, after deducting the amount of debt or damages and costs recovered against him under this Act.

XL. The Judges may, in any case, with the consent of both parties to the suit, order the same, with or without other matters within the jurisdiction of the Court in dispute between such parties, to be referred to arbitration, to such person or persons, and in such manner, and on such terms as they shall think reasonable and just; and such reference shall not be revocable by either party, except by consent of the Judges; and the award of the arbitrator or arbitrators or umpire shall be entered as the judgment in the cause, and shall be as binding and effectual to all intents, as if given by the Judges; provided, that the Judges may, if they think fit, on application to them at the first Court held after the expiration of one week, after the entry of such award, set aside any such award, or may, with the consent of both parties, revoke the reference, or order another reference to be made in the manner aforesaid.

XLI. The Judges of each Court, holden under this Act, subject to the approval of the Judges of the Supreme Court, shall have power to make and issue all the general rules for regulating the practice and proceedings of the Court, and also to frame forms for every proceeding in the Court for which they shall think it necessary that a form be provided, and also for keeping all books, entries, and accounts to be kept by the Clerk of the Court, and, from time to time, to alter any such rule or form; and the rules so made and the forms so framed, shall be observed and used in the Court of that Presidency, and shall be sent to the Supreme Court for approval, but shall be of force until disapproved; and in any case, not expressly provided for herein, or by the said rules, the general principles of practice in the Supreme Court may be adopted and applied at the discretion of the Judges, to actions and proceedings in their Court.

XLII. If upon the day of the return of any summons, or at any continuation or adjournment of the said Court, or of the cause for which the said summons shall have been issued, the plaintiff shall not appear, the cause shall be struck out; and if he shall appear, but shall not make proof of his demand to the satisfaction of the Court, the Judges may nonsuit the plaintiff or give judgment for the defendant; and, in either case, where the defendant shall appear and shall not admit the demand, may award to the defendant, by way of costs and satisfaction for his trouble and attendance, such sum as they, in their discretion, shall think fit; and such sum shall be recoverable from the plaintiff by such ways and means as any debt or damage ordered to be paid by the same Court can be recovered: provided always, that if the plaintiff shall not appear when called upon, and the defendant, or some one duly authorized on his behalf, shall appear, and admit the cause of action to the full amount claimed, and pay the fees payable in the first instance by the plaintiff, the Court, if it shall think fit, may proceed to give judgment, as if the plaintiff had appeared.

XLIII. If on the day so named in the summons, or at any continuation or adjournment of the Court, or cause in which the summons was issued, the defendant shall not appear or sufficiently excuse his absence, or shall neglect to answer when called in Court, the Judges, upon due proof of service of the summons, may issue a writ of attachment to compel the appearance of the defendant; or, in their discretion, may proceed to the hearing or trial of the cause on the part of the plaintiff only; and the judgment thereupon shall be as valid is if both parties had attended; provided always, that the Judges in any such case, at the same or any subsequent Court, may set aside any judgment so given in the absence of the defendant, and the execution thereupon; and may grant new trial of the cause, upon such terms, as to payment of costs, giving security for debt or costs, or otherwise, as they think fit, on sufficient cause shown to them for that purpose.

XLIV. The Judges may, in any case, make orders for granting time to the plaintiff or defendant to proceed in the prosecution or defence of the suit, and also may, from time to time, adjourn any Court, or the hearing or further hearing of any cause, in such manner as to them may seem fit.

XLV. The defendant in any action brought under this Act, for the recovery of money, whether for debt or damages, within such time as shall be directed by the rules for regulating the practice of the Court, may pay into Court such sum of money as he shall think a full satisfaction for the demand of the plaintiff, with the costs incurred by the plaintiff up to the time of such payment; and the said sum of money shall be paid to the plaintiff; but, if he shall elect to proceed, and, if the plaintiff shall recover no further sum in the action than shall have been so paid into Court, the plaintiff shall pay to the defendant the costs incurred by him in the said action after such payment; and such costs shall be settled by the Court, and an order shall thereupon be made by the Court for the payment of such costs by the plaintiff.

XLVI. On the hearing or trial of any action or any other proceeding under this Act the parties thereto, their wives, and all other persons, may be examined, on behalf of either the plaintiff or defendant, subject nevertheless to the Acts and Regulations in force, with respect to the examination of women of a rank and situation in life, which, according to the customs of the country, would render it improper to compel them to appear in a Court of Justice.

XLVII. Every person shall be examined on oath, or when exempt by law from taking an oath in any Court of Justice, on solemn affirmation, and every person, who, in any examination upon oath or solemn affirmation under this Act, shall wilfully and corruptly give false evidence, shall be deemed guilty of perjury.

XLVIII. Either of the parties to the suit or any other proceeding under this Act may obtain, at the office of the Clerk of the Court, summonses to witnesses, with or without a clause requiring the production of books, deeds, papers and writings in their possession or control, and in any such summons any number of names may be inserted.

XLIX. Every person, on whom any such summons shall have been served, either personally or in such other manner as shall be directed by the general rules or practice of the Court, and who shall refuse or neglect, without sufficient cause, to appear, or to produce any books, papers, or writings required by such summons to be produced, and also every person present in Court, who shall be required to give evidence, and who shall refuse to be sworn and give evidence, shall forfeit and pay such fine, not exceeding One Hundred Rupees, as the Judges shall set on him; and the whole or any part of such fine, in the discretion of the Judges, after deducting the costs, may be applied towards indemnifying the party injured by such refusal or neglect.

L. The Judges of any Court established under this Act, in all suits where the debt or demand exceeds the sum of Thirty Rupees, upon proof before them, that any defendant against whom a summons has been taken out, conceals himself from, or otherwise evades process of the Court, or is disposing of his property and effects with intent to defraud the plaintiff, or his creditors generally, or is about to withdraw his person or effects from the jurisdiction of the Court, may issue a warrant for the apprehension of such person, and may commit him to gaol until he shall find security for his appearance in the said Court from time to time, until judgment shall be pronounced in the suit commenced by such summons, and for payment of the amount and the costs which may be decreed against him therein.

LI. Payment of any fine imposed by any Court under the authority of this Act may be enforced upon the order of the Judges, in like manner as payment of any debt adjudged in the said Court, and shall be accounted for as herein provided.

LII. All the costs of any action or proceeding in the Court, not herein otherwise provided for, shall be paid by or apportioned between the parties, in such manner as the Judges shall think fit; and, in default of any special direction, shall abide the event of the action; and execution may issue for the recovery of any such costs, in like manner as for any debt adjudged in the said Court.

LIII. Every order and judgment of any Court holden under this Act, except as herein provided, shall be final and conclusive between the parties; but the Judges shall have power to nonsuit the plaintiff, in every case in which satisfactory proof shall not be given to them, entitling either the plaintiff or defendant to the judgment of the Court; and shall also in every case whatever have the power, if they shall think fit, to order a new trial to be had, upon such terms as they shall think reasonable, and in the meantime to stay the proceedings.

LIV. No cause commenced in any Court, holden under this Act, shall be removed from the said Court into the Supreme Court by any writ or process, unless the debt or damage or value of the property claimed exceeds One Hundred Rupees, and then only by leave of a Judge of the said Supreme Court on proof to his satisfaction that some question of law or equity is likely to arise therein, which, by reason either of its difficulty, novelty or general importance, or of some erroneous course of decision on the same point in the Court of Small Causes may appear to him fit to be tried in the Supreme Court, and upon such terms as to payment of costs, giving security for debt or costs, or otherwise, as he shall think fit.

LV. The Judges of the Court of Small Causes may, in their discretion, reserve any question of law or equity on which they entertain doubts, or which they shall be requested by either party to the suit to reserve, for the opinion of the Judges of the Supreme Court, and shall give judgment contingent upon the opinion of the said Supreme Court on a case which they shall thereupon be entitled to state to the said Court. If only two Judges sit together, and shall differ in opinion, the question, on which they differ shall be so referred.

LVI. The Judges may make orders concerning the time or times, and by what instalments, any debt or damages or costs, for which judgment shall be obtained in the said Court, shall be paid; and all such monies shall be paid into Court, unless the Judges shall otherwise order.

LVII. If there be cross judgments between the parties, execution shall be taken out by that party only, who shall have obtained judgment for the larger sum, and for so much only as shall remain after deducting the smaller sum; and satisfaction for the remainder shall be entered, as well as satisfaction on the judgment for the smaller sum; and, if both sums shall be equal, satisfaction shall be entered upon both judgments.

LVIII. Whenever the Court shall have made an order for the payment of money, the amount shall be recoverable, in case of default or failure of payment thereof forthwith, or at the time or times and in the manner directed, by execution against the body or the goods and chattels of the person against whom such order is made without further notice or order; and the Clerk of the said Court, at the request of the person prosecuting such order, shall issue under the seal of the Court a writ of execution to one of the Bailiffs of the Court, which shall be his warrant to take the body of such person in execution, or to levy, or cause to be levied, by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of such person such sum of money as shall be so ordered, wheresoever they may be found within the district of the Court, and also the costs of the execution; and all Constables and other Peace Officers within their several jurisdictions shall aid in the execution of every such writ.

LIX. If the Court shall have made any order for payment of any sum of money by instalments, execution upon such order shall not issue until after default in payment of some instalment according to such order; and execution or successive executions may then issue without further notice or order for the whole of the said sum of money and costs then remaining unpaid, or for such portion thereof as the Court shall order, either at the time of making the original order, or at any subsequent time, under the seal of the Court.

LX. Whenever any warrant shall issue for taking in execution the body of any person under this Act, the Bailiffs of the Court shall be empowered, by virtue thereof, to take and convey him to any prison, appointed by the Governor in Council to be the prison of the Court, there to remain for such term as shall be directed by the warrant, not longer than six calendar months, or until he shall sooner perform the order of the Court.

LXI. No person shall be imprisoned twice under the same judgment, nor shall execution against the body and goods issue at the same time under the same judgment.

LXII. Every person suing out a warrant of execution against the body of any other person under this Act shall deposit with the Clerk of the Court, at the time of the issue of the warrant, diet money for one week, after the rate of one anna and a half for each day, which shall be paid by the Clerk to the Keeper of the Prison at the time of the execution of the warrant.

LXIII. Notice of the execution of every such warrant shall be forthwith given to the person at whose suit it issued, who shall thereupon deposit with the Keeper of the Prison, diet money for the remainder of the month in which the warrant is executed, after the same daily rate, and shall continue thereafter to deposit monthly with the said Keeper, in advance, diet money at the same daily rate, for each month which the debtor is liable to be kept in prison at his suit.

LXIV. The diet money shall be employed for the subsistence of the prisoner; and if, by default of the detaining creditor, such diet money is not paid, the prisoner shall be entitled to his discharge by order of the Court.

LXV. All diet money, which shall be spent in providing subsistence for any prisoner, shall be costs in the cause, and all diet money, which shall not be so spent, shall be repaid to the creditor advancing the same.

LXVI. Whenever any prisoner shall offer good and reasonable security for payment of any debt or damage and costs, either in full or by instalments as the Court shall think reasonable, the Court may order him to be discharged on giving such security.

LXVII. Upon payment of the debt or damage and costs in full, the prisoner shall be entitled to be forthwith discharged.

LXVIII. If the debt or damage and costs are not paid, the imprisonment shall not extinguish the liability to pay the same; but all property then belonging to or afterwards acquired by the prisoner shall be liable to be taken in execution after his discharge from prison for satisfaction thereof, or of so much thereof as is not paid, including the diet money actually expended for subsistence of the prisoner.

LXIX. Every Bailiff executing any process of execution issuing out of the said Court against the goods of any person, may, by virtue thereof, seize and take any of the goods of such person, (excepting the necessary wearing apparel and bedding of such person or his family, and the tools and implements of his trade,) and may also seize and take any money or Bank-notes, and any cheques, bills of exchange, promissory notes, bonds, specialties or securities for money belonging to any such person against whom any execution shall have issued as aforesaid.

LXX. The Bailiff shall forthwith deliver any cheques, bills of exchange, promissory notes, bonds, specialties, or other securities for money, which shall have been so seized or taken as aforesaid, to the Clerk or other person appointed by the Judges to receive the same, who shall hold them as a security or securities for the amount directed to be levied by such execution, or so much thereof as shall not have been otherwise levied or raised for the benefit of the plaintiff; and the plaintiff may sue in the name of the defendant, or in the name of any person in whose name the defendant might have sued, for the recovery of the sum or sums secured, or made payable thereby, when the time of payment thereof shall have arrived.

LXXI. If it shall, at any time, appear to the satisfaction of the Court that any defendant is unable, from sickness or other sufficient cause, to pay and discharge the debt or damages recovered against him, or any instalment thereof ordered to be paid as aforesaid, the Judges, in their discretion, may suspend or stay any judgment, order or execution given, made or issued in such action, for such time and on such terms as they shall think fit, and so, from time to time, until it shall appear by the like proof as aforesaid that such temporary cause of disability has ceased.

LXXII. No sale of any goods, which shall be taken in execution as aforesaid shall be made, until after the end of five days at least next following the day on which such goods have been so taken, unless such goods be of a perishable nature, or upon the request, in writing, of the party whose goods have been taken.

LXXIII. Until such sale, the goods shall be deposited by the Bailiff by whom they were taken in some fit place, or they may remain in the custody of a fit person approved by the Judges to be put in possession by the Bailiff.

LXXIV. The Judges, from time to time, as they shall think proper, may appoint such and so many persons for keeping possession, and so many of their Bailiffs or other fit persons to be sworn brokers and appraisers for the purpose of selling or valuing any goods, chattels or effects taken in execution under this Act, as shall appear to them to be necessary, and may direct security to be taken from each of them, for such sum and in such manner as they shall think fit, for the faithful performance of their duties, without injury or oppression; and the Judges may dismiss any person, broker or appraiser so appointed.

LXXV. No goods taken in execution under this Act shall be sold for the purpose of satisfying the warrant of execution; except by one of the brokers or appraisers so appointed.

LXXVI. The costs to be demanded or taken for such appraisement and sale, shall be One Anna in the Rupee on the produce of the goods sold; and the Judges may apply the sum so raised as costs towards payment of the contingent charges and remuneration of the said brokers and appraisers, in such manner as shall be approved by the Governor in Council.

LXXVII. The Clerk of the Court shall keep an account of all sums received upon such sales, distinguishing the amount paid to the party entitled to the benefit of the execution, and the amount levied and retained as costs, and also of all sums allowed to the brokers and appraisers upon such sales.

LXXVIII. Whenever any defendant against whom judgment shall have been given in the Court of Small Causes, shall go before execution thereof out of the jurisdiction of the Court, the Judge of any Zillah or Town where he shall be found, upon receiving from the plaintiff, either in person or by vakeel, an application in writing setting forth these facts, with a duly authenticated copy of the judgment of the Court, shall execute the said judgment in the manner prescribed by law for execution of his own decrees; unless the defendant shall allege any reasonable cause, why the judgment should not be executed, and shall give security to such amount as the Judge of such Zillah or Town shall deem reasonable, that he will, within such time as shall be allowed him for that purpose, either satisfy the judgment or produce a duly authenticated copy of an order of the Judges of the Court of Small Causes, discharging their former judgment.

LXXIX. No judgment or execution shall be stayed, delayed or reversed upon or by any writ of error or supersedeas thereon, to be sued for the reversing of any judgment given in any Court holden under the provisions of this Act, unless the amount recovered exceeds One Hundred Rupees, and then only after the person suing out such writ shall become bound with two sufficient sureties to be approved by the Clerk of the Court, in treble the sum adjudged to be recovered in the former judgment, to prosecute the said writ with effect, and also to satisfy and pay (if the writ be not prosecuted, or if the judgment be affirmed), the debt or damages and costs adjudged, and all costs and damages to be awarded for the delay of execution.

LXXX. Upon every warrant of execution issued against the goods and chattels of any person, the Clerk of the Court shall cause to be stated the sum of money and costs adjudged with the sum paid for such warrant; and if the party against whom such execution shall be issued shall, before an actual sale of the goods and chattels, pay or cause to be paid or tendered unto the Clerk of the Court, or to the Bailiff holding the warrant of execution such sum of money and costs, as aforesaid, or such part thereof as the person entitled thereto shall agree to accept in full of his debt or damages and costs, together with the fees herein directed to be paid, the execution shall be superseded, and the goods and chattels of the said party shall be discharged and set at liberty.

LXXXI. The Clerk of every Court holden under this Act shall cause a record of all summonses, and of all orders, and of all judgments and executions, and returns thereto, and of all fines, and of all other proceedings of the Court, to be fairly entered, from time to time, in a book or books belonging to the Court, which shall be kept at the Office of the Court; and shall be duly authenticated by one or more of the Judges; and such entries in the said book or books or a copy thereof bearing the seal of the Court, and purporting to be signed and certified as a true copy by the Clerk of the Court, shall be admitted in all Courts and places as evidence of such entries, and of the proceeding referred to by such entry or entries, and of the regularity of such proceeding, without any further proof.

LXXXII. The Clerk of every such Court shall, in the month of March, in each year, make out a correct list of all sums of money belonging to suitors in the Court, which shall have been paid into Court, and which shall have remained unclaimed for five years before the first day of the month of January then last past, specifying the names of the parties for whom or on whose account the same were so paid into Court; and a copy of such list shall be put up and remain during Court hours in some conspicuous part of the Court House, and at all times in the Clerk's Office; and all sums of money which shall have been paid into any such Court, to the use of any suitor or suitors thereof, and which shall have remained unclaimed for the period of six years before the passing of this Act, and which are now in the hands of any Commissioner or Officer of such Court, or otherwise held in trust for such suitors, and all further sums of money, which shall hereafter be paid into such Court to the use of any suitor or suitors thereof, shall, if unclaimed for the period of six years after the same shall have been so paid into Court, be applicable as part of the fees receivable on account of the Court, and shall be carried to the same account; and no person shall be entitled to claim any sum which shall have remained unclaimed for six years; but no time during which the person entitled to claim such sum shall have been an infant or married woman or of unsound mind, or out of the Territories under the Government of the East India Company, shall be taken into account in estimating the said period of six years.

LXXXIII. If any person shall wilfully insult any Judge, Clerk or Officer of the said Court, for the time being, during his sitting or attendance in Court, or shall wilfully interrupt the proceedings of the Court, or otherwise misbehave in Court, it shall be lawful for any Bailiff or Officer of the Court, with or without the assistance of any other person, by the order of the Judges to take such offender into custody, and detain him until the rising of the Court; and the Judges shall be empowered, if they shall think fit, by a warrant under their hands, and sealed with the seal of the Court, to commit any such offender to any prison to which they have power to commit offenders under this Act, for any time, not exceeding seven days, or to impose upon any such offender a fine, not exceeding Fifty Rupees for every such offence, and in default of payment thereof to commit the offender to any such prison as aforesaid, for any time not exceeding seven days, unless the said fine be sooner paid, or instead of inflicting summary punishment under this Act may cause the offender to be indicted in the Supreme Court, if the offence be an indictable misdemeanour.

LXXXIV. If any Officer or Bailiff of any Court holden under this Act shall be assaulted while in the execution of his duty, or if any rescue shall be made or attempted to be made of any person arrested, or goods levied under process of the Court, the person so offending shall be liable to a fine, not exceeding One Hundred Rupees, to be recovered by order of the Court, or before a Magistrate as hereinafter provided; and the Bailiff of the Court, or any Peace Officer in any such case, may take the offender into custody, (with or without warrant,) and bring him before such Court, or Magistrate accordingly.

LXXXV. If any Bailiff of the said Court, who shall be employed to execute any warrant of the Court, shall, by neglect, or connivance or omission, lose an opportunity of executing such warrant, then, upon complaint of the party aggrieved by reason of such neglect, connivance or omission, (and the fact alleged being proved to the satisfaction of the Court,) the Judges shall order the Bailiff to pay such damages as it shall appear that the plaintiff has sustained thereby, not exceeding in any case the sum of money for which the said execution is issued, and the Bailiff shall be liable thereto; and upon demand made thereof, and on his refusal so to pay and satisfy the same, payment thereof shall be enforced by such ways and means as are herein provided for enforcing a judgment recovered in the said Court, without prejudice nevertheless to the execution of the original warrant.

LXXXVI. If any Clerk, Bailiff or Officer of the Court, acting under colour or pretence of the process of the said Court, shall be charged with extortion or misconduct, or with not duly paying or accounting for any money levied by him under the authority of this Act, the Judges may inquire into such matter in a summary way, and for that purpose may summon and enforce the attendance of all necessary parties in like manner as the attendance of witnesses in any case may be enforced, and may make such order thereupon for the repayment of any money extorted, or for the due payment of any money so levied as aforesaid, and for the payment of such damages and costs, as they shall think just; and also, if they shall think fit, may impose such fine upon the Clerk, Bailiff or Officer, not exceeding One Hundred Rupees for each offence, as they shall deem adequate; and in default of payment of any money so ordered to be paid, payment of the same may be enforced by such ways and means as are herein provided for enforcing a judgment recovered in the said Court.

LXXXVII. Every Clerk, Bailiff or other Officer employed in putting this Act or any of the powers thereof in execution, who shall wilfully and corruptly exact, take or accept any fee or reward whatsoever, other than his lawful salary, for any thing done or to be done by virtue of this Act, or on any account whatsoever, relative to putting this Act into execution, shall, upon proof thereof before the said Court, and in the case of a Clerk, on confirmation of the finding of the Court by the Governor in Council, be for ever incapable of serving, or being employed under this Act in any office of profit or emolument, and shall also be liable for damages as herein provided.

LXXXVIII. If any claim shall be made to, or in respect of, any goods or chattels taken in execution under the process of any Court holden under this Act, or in respect of the proceeds or value thereof, by any person not being the party against whom such process has issued, the Clerk of the Court, upon application of the Officer charged with the execution of such process, as well before as after any action brought against such Officer, may issue a summons calling before the said Court, as well the party issuing such process as the party making such claim, and thereupon any action, which shall have been brought in the Supreme Court in respect of such claim, shall be stayed, and any Judge of the Supreme Court on proof of the issue of such summons, and that the goods and chattels were so taken in execution, may order the party bringing such action to pay the costs of all proceedings had upon such action after the issue of such summons out of the Court of Small Causes, and the Judges of the Court of Small Causes shall adjudicate upon such claim and make such order between the parties in respect thereof, and of the costs of the proceedings as to them shall seem fit, and such order shall be enforced in like manner as any order made in any suit brought in such Court.

LXXXIX. The powers of Act VII. 1847 to regulate distresses for small rents in Calcutta, shall be extended to the recovery of all arrears of rent not exceeding Five Hundred Rupees, and the Judges of every Court of Small Causes under this Act shall be empowered to exercise within their several jurisdictions the extended powers of the said Act; and the said Act shall be construed as if, instead of Calcutta and the Settlement of Fort William in Bengal, the limits of the jurisdiction of the Court had been therein mentioned, and the Judges of the Court of Small Causes under this Act instead of the Commissioners of the Court therein mentioned, and the amount of Five Hundred Rupees instead of One Hundred Rupees, and the forms contained in the Schedule annexed to the said Act shall be altered accordingly, and shall refer to this Act instead of Act VII. 1847.

XC. The affidavit of arrear required by the said Act No. VII. 1847 may, in every case, be made either by the person entitled to such arrear or by his or her lawfully constituted attorney, and a warrant of distress may issue on such affidavit.

XCI. Where any person shall hold or occupy any house, land or tenement, of which the value or the rent payable in respect thereof, does not exceed the rate of Five Hundred Rupees by the year, without leave of the owner, or under a lease or agreement which is ended, or duly determined by a legal notice to quit, and such tenant, or, if such tenant do not actually occupy the premises, or occupy only a part thereof, any person by whom the same or any part thereof shall be then actually occupied, shall neglect or refuse to quit and deliver up possession of the premises, or of such part thereof respectively, the owner or his agent may take out a summons from the Court directed to such tenant or occupier, to show by what title he claims to hold or occupy the premises or part thereof.

XCII. If the tenant or occupier shall not thereupon appear at the time and place appointed, and show cause to the contrary, and shall still neglect or refuse to deliver up possession of the premises, or of such part thereof, of which he is then in possession, to the said owner or his agent, such owner or agent may give to the Court proof of the holding, and of the end or other determination of the tenancy, if any had existed, with the time or manner thereof, and of the right by which he claims the possession.

XCIII. Upon proof of due service of the summons, and of the neglect or refusal of the tenant or occupier, as the case may be, the Judges may issue a warrant under the seal of the Court, to any Bailiff of the Court requiring and authorizing him within a period to be therein named not less than seven, or more than ten clear days from the date of such warrant, to give possession of the premises to such owner or agent, and such warrant shall be a sufficient warrant to the said Bailiff to enter upon the premises with such assistants as he shall deem necessary, and to give possession accordingly: Provided always, that entry upon any such warrant shall not be made on a Sunday, Good Friday, or Christmas-day, or any other day observed by the Court as a Holiday, or at any time except between the hours of six in the morning and six in the afternoon: Provided also, that nothing herein contained shall be deemed to protect any person by whom any such warrant shall be sued out of the Court of Small Causes from any action which may be brought against him by any such tenant or occupier for such entry and taking possession, where such person had not, at the time of suing out the same as aforesaid, lawful right to the possession of the same premises.

XCIV. Such summons, as last aforesaid, may be served either personally or by leave of the Court, upon proof that the tenant or occupier is not to be found within the jurisdiction of the Court, by leaving the same with some person being in, and apparently residing at the place of abode of the person or persons so holding over as aforesaid; or if the place of abode of such person or persons shall either not be known or admission thereto cannot be obtained for serving such summons, by posting the said summons on some conspicuous part of the premises so held over.

XCV. No action or prosecution shall be maintainable against the Judges or against the Clerk of the Court, by whom such warrant as aforesaid shall have been issued, or against any Bailiff or other person by whom such warrant may be executed, or summons affixed, for issuing such warrant, or executing the same respectively, or affixing such summons, by reason that the person by whom the same shall be sued out had not lawful right to the possession of the premises.

XCVI. Where the owner, at the time of applying for such warrant as aforesaid, had lawful right to the possession of the premises, or of the part thereof so held over as aforesaid, neither the said owner nor his agent, nor any other person acting in his behalf, shall be deemed to be a trespasser, by reason merely of any irregularity or informality in the mode of proceeding for obtaining possession under the authority of this Act; but the party aggrieved may, if he think fit, bring an action on the case, for such irregularity or informality, in which the damage alleged to be sustained thereby, shall be specially laid, and may recover full satisfaction for such special damage with costs of suit: Provided that, if the special damage so laid be not proved, the defendant shall be entitled to a verdict, and that, if proved, but assessed at any sum, not exceeding Ten Rupees, the plaintiff shall recover no more costs than damages, unless the Judge, before whom the trial shall have been holden, shall certify that in his opinion full costs ought to be allowed.

XCVII. In every case in which the person, by whom any such warrant shall be sued out of the Court of Small Causes, had not, at the time of suing out the same, lawful right to the possession of the premises, the suing out of any such warrant, as last aforesaid, shall be deemed a trespass by him against the tenant or occupier of the premises, although no entry shall be made by virtue of the warrant; and in case any such tenant or occupier will become bound with two sufficient sureties, to be approved by the Clerk of the Court, in such sum as to the Judges shall seem reasonable, regard being had to the value of the premises and to the probable cost of such action, to sue the person by whom such warrant was sued out with effect and without delay, and to pay all the costs of the proceeding in such action, in case a verdict shall pass for the defendant, or the plaintiff shall discontinue or not prosecute his action, or become nonsuit therein, execution upon the warrant shall be stayed until judgment shall have been given in such action of trespass; and, if upon the trial of such action of trespass, judgment be given for the plaintiff, such judgment shall supersede the said warrant.

XCVIII. Recovery of the possession of any such house, land or tenement shall be no bar to the institution of a regular suit, for trying the title thereunto, which may be brought in the Supreme Court, as if this Act had not been passed.

XCIX. Every bond given on the removal of any action out of the Court of Small Causes, or upon staying, delaying or reversing any judgment or execution awarded therein, or the execution of any such warrant of possession as aforesaid, or on moving for a new trial, or to set aside a verdict, judgment or nonsuit, shall be made to the other party to the action, and shall be approved by the Judges and attested under the seal of the Court; and if the bond so taken be forfeited, or if upon the proceeding for securing which such bond was given, the Judge, before whom such proceeding shall be had, shall not certify upon the record in Court, that the condition of the bond hath been fulfilled, the party to whom the bond shall have been so made may bring an action of debt and recover thereon: Provided always, that the Court in which such action as last aforesaid shall be brought may, by a rule of Court, give such relief to the parties liable upon such bond as may appear to him reasonable, and such rule shall have the nature and effect of a defeasance to such bond.

C. All actions and proceedings, which before the passing of this Act, might have been brought in the Supreme Court, where any Officer of the Court of Small Causes shall be a party, except in respect of any claim to any goods and chattels taken in execution of the process of the Court, or the proceeds or value thereof, may be brought and determined in the Supreme Court, at the election of the party suing or proceeding, as if this Act had not been passed.

CI. If any action shall be commenced after the passing of this Act in the Supreme Court, for any cause other than those lastly herein before specified, for which a summons might have been taken out from a Court holden under this Act, and a verdict shall be found for the plaintiff for a sum less than Five Hundred Rupees, if the said action is founded on contract, or less than One Hundred Rupees, if it is founded on wrong, the plaintiff shall have judgment to recover such sum only, and no costs; and if a verdict shall not be found for the plaintiff the defendant shall be entitled to his costs as between attorney and client, unless in either case the Judge, who shall try the cause, shall certify on the back of the record that, by reason of the difficulty, novelty or general importance of the case, or of some erroneous course of decision on like cases in the Court of Small Causes, the action was fit to be brought in the Supreme Court.

CII. If any person shall bring any suit in the Supreme Court in respect of any grievance committed by the Clerk, Bailiff, or Officer of any Court holden under this Act, under colour or pretence of the process of the said Court, and upon the trial of the action, no greater damages shall be found for the plaintiff than the sum of Five Hundred Rupees, no costs shall be awarded to the plaintiff in such action, unless the Judge shall certify in Court, upon the back of the Record, that the action was fit to be brought in the Supreme Court.

CIII. All penalties, fines and forfeitures by this Act, inflicted or authorized to be imposed, (the manner of recovering and applying whereof is not hereby otherwise particularly directed), upon proof before any Justice of the Peace or Magistrate having jurisdiction where the offender shall reside or be, or the offence shall be committed, either by the confession of the party offending, or by the oath or affirmation of any credible witness, shall be levied, with the costs attending the summons and conviction, by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the party offending, by warrant under the hand of any such Justice or Magistrate, and the overplus (if any) after such penalties, fines and forfeitures, and the charges of such distress and sale are deducted, shall be returned, upon demand, unto the owner of such goods and chattels.

CIV. If any such penalties, fines and forfeitures respectively, shall not be paid forthwith upon conviction, it shall be lawful for such Justice or Magistrate to order the offender so convicted to be detained in safe custody until return can conveniently be made to such warrant of distress; unless such offender shall give sufficient security to the satisfaction of such Justice or Magistrate for his appearance before him on such day as shall be appointed for the return of such warrant of distress, such day not being more than eight days from the time of taking any such security, which security the Justice or Magistrate shall be empowered to take by way of recognizance or otherwise, as to him shall seem fit.

CV. If upon return of such warrant it shall appear that no sufficient distress can be had thereupon, or in case it shall appear to the satisfaction of the Justice or Magistrate, either by confession of the offender or otherwise, that he hath not within the jurisdiction of such Justice or Magistrate, sufficient goods and chattels, whereon to levy all such penalties, forfeitures, costs and charges, the Justice or Magistrate may, at his discretion, without issuing any warrant of distress, commit the offender to the Common Gaol or House of Correction, for any time not exceeding three calendar months, unless such penalties, forfeitures and fines, and all reasonable charges attending the recovery thereof, shall be sooner paid and satisfied.

CVI. The monies arising from any such penalties, forfeitures and fines as aforesaid when paid and levied, shall (if not by this Act directed to be otherwise applied,) be, from time to time, paid to the Clerk of the Court, and shall be applied in like manner as the fees thereof.

CVII. In all cases in which by this Act any penalty or forfeiture is made recoverable before a Justice or Magistrate, he may summon before him the party complained against, and on such summons may hear and determine the matter of such complaint; and, on proof of the offence, may convict the offender, and adjudge him to pay the penalty or forfeiture incurred, and proceed to recover the same, although no information in writing shall have been exhibited before him; and all such proceedings by summons without information in writing shall be as valid and effectual to all intents and purposes, as if an information in writing had been exhibited.

CVIII. In all cases where any conviction shall be had for any offence committed against this Act, the form of conviction may be in the words or to the effect following: (that is to say,) "Be it "remembered that on this day of " in the year "A. B. is convicted before " a Magistrate "for the (or before "a Judge appointed under Act IX. 1850) of "having (state the offence;) and I (or we) the "said do adjudge the said " to forfeit and pay for the same "the sum of [or to be committed "to for the space of] given under " hand ( ) and seal ( ) "the day and year aforesaid."

CIX. No order, verdict or judgment, or other proceeding, made concerning any of the matters aforesaid, shall be quashed or vacated for want of form.

CX. Where any distress shall be made for any sum of money to be levied by virtue of this Act, the distress itself shall not be deemed unlawful, nor the party making the same be deemed a trespasser, on account of any defect or want of form in the information, summons, conviction, warrant of distress or other proceeding relating thereto, nor shall the party distraining be deemed a trespasser from the beginning, on account of any irregularity which shall afterwards be committed by the party so distraining, but the person aggrieved by such irregularity may recover full satisfaction for the special damage in an action upon the case.

CXI. All actions and prosecutions to be commenced against any person for any thing done in pursuance of this Act, shall be commenced within three calendar months after the fact committed, and not afterwards, and notice in writing of such action, and of the cause thereof, shall be given to the defendant one calendar month at least before the commencement of the action; and no plaintiff shall recover in any such action, if tender of sufficient amends shall have been made before such action is brought, or if after action brought, a sufficient sum of money shall have been paid into Court, with costs by or on behalf of the defendant.

FRED. JAS. HALLIDAY,
Secy. to the Govt. of India.

Fort William, Home Department, Legislative, the 15th March, 1850.

The following Act passed by the Governor General of India in Council on the 15th of March 1850, is hereby promulgated for general information:

ACT No. X. OF 1850.

An Act to declare Aden a free Port.

Whereas the trade between the Western Coast of India and the Red Sea and places thereunto adjacent will be improved by encouraging the resort of Vessels of all nations to the port of Aden in Arabia, It is declared and enacted as follows:

I. The port and settlement of Aden in Arabia, is a free port and settlement: and no duty of Customs is payable there on any Ship or other Vessel, or on any Goods lawfully carried by sea or land to or from the said port and settlement.

II. The said port of Aden shall not be taken to be within the provisions of Act VI. 1848.

FRED. JAS. HALLIDAY,
Secy. to the Govt. of India.

Fort William, Home Department, Legislative, the 15th March, 1850.

The following Act passed by the Governor General of India in Council on the 15th of March 1850, is hereby promulgated for general information:

ACT No. XI. OF 1850.

An Act to amend Act X. 1841.

For amendment of Act X. 1841, It is enacted as follows:

I. Section XIII. of Act X. 1841, is repealed.

II. The Passes which, under Section XXIV. of the said Act, may be issued for conferring the privileges and advantages of a British Ship, in certain cases, to any ship or vessel built within the dominions of a Native Prince or State in subordinate alliance with, or having subsidiary treaties with the East India Company, may, after the passing of this Act, be issued in the like cases, and under the same restrictions, to any ship or vessel belonging to any such Native Prince or State, or their subjects, wherever the same may have been built.

III. All ships or vessels, of whatever rig and of whatever tonnage, owned by British Subjects, entitled to registry under Act X. 1841, or owned by such Native Princes or States, or by their subjects entitled to passes under Act X. 1841, as amended by this Act, employed only in coasting voyages, or between any port of the continent of India and the Island of Ceylon, may be registered and obtain passes, and the tonnage may be marked, according to such rules as shall be made from time to time by the Governor or Governor in Council of each Presidency.

IV. The owners of Coasting Vessels, registered under Section III. of this Act, shall pay for each Certificate of Registry,

For a vessel not exceeding the burthen of four tons one Rupee,

Exceeding four tons and not exceeding twenty tons five Rupees,

Exceeding twenty tons and not exceeding eighty tons seven Rupees,

Exceeding eighty tons, for each ton two annas,

Which fees shall be carried to the credit of the Government of the Presidency in which they are levied.

V. This Act shall be construed with and as part of Act X. 1841.

FRED. JAS. HALLIDAY,
Secy. to the Govt. of India.

Fort William, Home Department, Legislative, the 8th March, 1850.

The following Draft of a proposed Act was read in Council for the first time on the 8th of March 1850:

ACT No. —— OF 1850.

An Act to amend the law for the Prevention of Poisoning.

For amendment of the law relating to the administration of poison, or other deleterious substance, It is enacted as follows:

I. Whoever shall wilfully and unlawfully administer to, or cause to be taken by any person, any poison, or any stupifying, or intoxicating drug, or thing, with intent in any of the cases aforesaid to do any permanent, or temporary bodily harm to such person, or with intent to commit, or abet the commission of any unlawful act, shall be liable at the discretion of the Court to be transported to such place as the Court shall direct for life, or for any term of years, or to be imprisoned for any term not exceeding four years.

II. In any case in which any person shall be charged with administering to, or causing to be taken by any other person any poison, or other destructive thing with intent to commit murder, and the offence proved shall amount only to an offence under this Act, he may be punished as if he had been charged with an offence under this Act.

III. This Act shall be construed with and as part of Act XXXI. 1838.

Ordered, that the Draft now read be published for general information.

Ordered, that the said Draft be re-considered at the first Meeting of the Legislative Council of India after the 8th day of June next.

FRED. JAS. HALLIDAY,
Secy. to the Govt. of India.

Fort William, Home Department, Legislative, the 8th March 1850.

The following Draft of a proposed Act was read in Council for the first time on the 8th of March 1850:

ACT No. —— OF 1850.

For regulating enquiries into the behaviour of Public Servants.

Whereas it is expedient to amend the law for regulating inquiries into the behaviour of public servants not removeable without the sanction of Government, and to make the same uniform throughout the territories under the Government of the East India Company, It is enacted as follows:

I. The following Acts VI. 1838, XXVI. 1839, and XIII. 1843, are repealed, but not so as to revive any Act or Regulation, or part of any Act or Regulation thereby repealed.

II. Whenever the Government shall be of opinion that there are good grounds for making a formal inquiry into the truth of any imputation of misbehaviour by any person in the service of the East India Company not removeable from his Office without the sanction of the same Government, it shall cause the substance of the imputations to be drawn into distinct Articles of Charge, and shall order a formal inquiry to be made into the truth thereof.

III. The inquiry may be committed either to the Court, Board or other authority to which the person accused is subordinate, or to any other person or persons, to be appointed by the Government Commissioners for the purpose.

IV. When the Government shall think fit to conduct the prosecution, it shall nominate some person to conduct the same on its behalf.

V. Where the imputations shall have been made by an accuser, and the Government shall think fit to leave to him the conduct of the prosecution, the Government before appointing the Commission shall require him to furnish reasonable security that he will attend and prosecute the charge thoroughly and effectually, and also will be forthcoming to answer any counter charge which may be afterwards preferred against him for malicious prosecution or perjury, as the case may be.

VI. At any subsequent stage of the proceedings, the Government may, if it think fit, abandon the prosecution, and in such case may, if it think fit, on the application of the accuser, allow him to continue the prosecution, if he is desirous of so doing, on his furnishing such security as is hereinbefore mentioned.

VII. The Commissioners shall have the same power of punishing contempts and obstructions to their proceedings as is given to Civil and Criminal Courts by Act XXX. 1841, and shall have the same powers for the summons of witnesses, and for the discharge of their duty under the Commission, and shall be entitled to the same protection as the Zillah and City Judges, except that all process to cause the attendance of witnesses, or other compulsory process, shall be served through and executed by the Zillah or City Judge in whose jurisdiction the witness or other person resides, on whom the process is to be served, and if he resides within Calcutta, Madras or Bombay, then through the Supreme Court of Judicature there. When the Commission has been issued to a Court, or other person or persons having power to issue such process in the exercise of their ordinary authority, they may also use all such power for the purposes of the Commission.

VIII. All persons disobeying any lawful process issued as aforesaid for the purposes of the Commission shall be liable to the same penalties, as if the same had issued originally from the Court or other authority through whom it is executed.

IX. A copy of the Articles of Charge, and list of the documents and witnesses by which each charge is to be sustained shall be delivered to the person accused, a least three days before the beginning of the inquiry, exclusive of the day of delivery, and the first day of the inquiry.

X. At the beginning of the inquiry, the prosecutor shall exhibit the Articles of Charge to the Commissioners, which shall be openly read, and the person accused shall thereupon be required to plead 'guilty' or 'not guilty' to each of them, which pleas shall be forthwith recorded with the Articles of Charge.

XI. The prosecutor shall then be entitled to address the Commissioners in explanation of the Articles of Charge, and of the evidence by which they are to be proved: his address shall not be recorded.

XII. The oral and documentary evidence for the prosecution shall then be exhibited: the witnesses shall be examined by the prosecutor, and may be cross-examined by the person accused. The prosecutor shall be entitled to re-examine the witnesses on any points on which they have been cross-examined, but not on any new matter, without leave of the Commissioners, who also may put such questions as they think fit.

XIII. If it shall appear necessary before the close of the case for the prosecution, the Commissioners may in their discretion allow the prosecutor to exhibit evidence not included in the list given to the person accused, and in such case the person accused shall be entitled to have, if he demand it, an adjournment of the proceedings for three clear days, before the exhibition of such new evidence, exclusive of the day of adjournment and of the day to which the proceedings are adjourned.

XIV. When the case for the prosecution is closed, the person accused shall be required to make his defence, orally or in writing, as he shall prefer. If made orally, at shall not be recorded; if made in writing, it shall be recorded, after being openly read, and in that case a copy shall be given at the same time to the prosecutor.

XV. The evidence for the defence shall then be exhibited, and the witnesses examined, who shall be liable to cross-examination and re-examination and to examination by the Commissioners according to the like rules is the witnesses for the prosecution.

XVI. All witnesses, either for the prosecution or defence, shall be examined on oath, or, if exempt from taking an oath in Courts of Justice, on Solemn Affirmation, to be administered in either case by one of the Commissioners, and every witness so examined and wilfully giving false evidence on any material point shall be liable to the penalties of perjury. When the prosecution is not conducted on behalf of Government, the prosecutor may himself give evidence for the prosecution and may be examined for the defence.

XVII. The Commissioners or some person appointed by them shall take notes of all the oral evidence, which shall be read aloud to each witness by whom the same was given, and shall be recorded with the proceedings.

XVIII. If the person accused makes only an oral defence, and exhibits no evidence, the inquiry shall end with his defence; if he records a written defence, or exhibits evidence, the prosecutor shall be entitled to a general reply on the whole case, and may also exhibit evidence to contradict any evidence exhibited for the defence, in which case the person accused shall not be entitled to any adjournment of the proceedings, although such new evidence were not included in the list furnished to him.

XIX. When the person accused shall object, and the Commissioners shall be of opinion, that the Articles of Charge, or any of them, are not drawn with sufficient clearness and precision, the Commissioners may, in their discretion, require the same to be amended, and may thereupon, on the application of the person accused, adjourn the inquiry for a reasonable time. The Commissioners may also, if they think fit, adjourn the inquiry from time to time, on the application of either the prosecutor or the person accused, on the ground of the sickness or unavoidable absence of any witness or other reasonable cause. When such application is made and refused, the Commissioners shall record the application, and their reasons for refusing to comply with it.

XX. After the close of the inquiry, the Commissioners shall forthwith report to Government their proceedings under the Commission, and shall send with the record thereof their opinion upon each of the Articles of Charge separately, with such observations as they think fit on the whole case.

XXI. The Government, on consideration of the report of the Commissioners, may order them to take further evidence, or give further explanation of their opinions, and when Special Commissioners have been appointed, may also, if it thinks fit, refer the report of the Commissioners to the Court or other authority to which the person accused is subordinate, for their opinion on the case; and will finally pass such orders thereon as appear just and consistent with its powers in such cases.

XXII. The word 'Government' as used in this Act means the Governor General in Council, the Governor or Deputy Governor of the Presidency of Fort William in Bengal, the Governor in Council of the Presidencies of Fort St. George and Bombay respectively, the Lieutenant Governor of the North-Western Provinces of Bengal, and Governor of the Settlements of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore and Malacca respectively, whose sanction is necessary for the removal of the person accused.

Ordered, that the Draft now read be published for general information.

Ordered, that the said Draft be re-considered at the first Meeting of the Legislative Council of India after the 8th day of June next.

containing

OF

A MANUAL OF ANATOMY

BY DR F. J. MOUAT, F. R. C. S,

etc. etc. etc.

The present work is published as a companion to the Atlas, and will form a complete Manual of Anatomy for the Students of the Military Class attached to the Medical College.

It will consist of the following parts, each complete in itself.

Part I. The General Anatomy of the Tissues.
II. The Bones and Ligaments.
III. The Muscular System.
IV. The Vascular System, including Arteries Veins, and Lymphatics.
V. The Nervous System.
VI. The Organs of Sense and Voice.
VII. The Viscera of the Chest, Abdomen, and Pelvis.

Each part will be stitched in a separate cover, and a General Index to the whole will be published upon the completion of the work.

The four first parts will be translated from the new edition of Quain's Elements of Anatomy, by Dr. Sharpey, and Professor Richard Quain—the best and most correct authority in the English Language.

The three last are already prepared for the press, and will appear first, commencing with the present issue.

The whole will be illustrated by drawings on stone, and brought up, as nearly as can be accomplished, to the standard of the most recent and approved anatomical text books in Europe.

The 5th Part contains 23 marginal illustrations, drawn on Stone, by Mr. COLESWORTHY GRANT.

BUOY ON THE TWO AND A HALF FATHOM BANK STRAITS OF MALACCA.

Notice to Mariners.

The following Notice of a First Class Buoy having been placed at the Western entrance to the Straits of Malacca, is published for general information.

By order of the Superintendent of Marine,

JAS. SUTHERLAND,

Secretary.

Fort William,
The 15th March, 1850.

A first class Buoy, painted black and white, having been placed on the 21st of January, 1850, on what is usually called the two and a half fathom bank, at the Western entrance to the Straits of Malacca, in two fathoms at low water Spring Tides, the following bearings were taken by Azimuth Compass from it:

Parcilar Hill ..... East half South
False Parcilar Hill ..... North 50° East
Trees on the low land of Callam Island just visible on the horizon, the eye being elevated 12 feet above the water ..... North 85° East

There is a small patch North East from the Buoy. about twenty fathoms distant with nine feet at low water spring tides.

About a mile to the Eastward of the Buoy on the tail of the bank, there are overfalls of three and four fathoms, with five, six, and seven fathoms between them.

To the Westward of the Buoy, nothing under five fathoms within a quarter of a mile.

To the North and Southward of the Buoy, there are ten and twelve fathoms within a quarter of a mile.

Vessels from the Eastward or Westward, keeping Parcilar Hill, East a quarter South, will just clear to the Southward of the bank, and East three quarters South, will lead a vessel clear to the Northward.

ACT No. VI. OF 1850.

For enabling the Commander-in-Chief to pardon Military Offences.

Whereas the power of pardoning persons under sentence of a Court Martial, for offences which are not punishable by any other authority, may be entrusted to the Commander-in-Chief of the Military Forces in the service of the East India Company in each Presidency, but in all other cases ought to belong only to the Supreme Government, It is enacted as follows:

I. The Commander-in-Chief of the Military Forces in the service of the East India Company, in each Presidency, shall have power to pardon any person belonging to the said Forces, convicted by sentence of a Court Martial of any offence against the Articles of War framed for the government of the Native Officers and Soldiers in the Military service of the East India Company, which, wherever committed, is not punishable otherwise than by sentence of a Court Martial; or, instead of granting a full pardon to any such person, may remit any part of the punishment awarded for such offence.

II. In such cases, the Commander-in-Chief shall issue a Warrant under his hand, setting forth the offence, and a copy of the Warrant or other instrument by which the offender is kept in custody in execution of the sentence, and pardoning or remitting such part of the punishment awarded for the offence as to him shall seem fit.

III. The said Warrant shall be countersigned by the Magistrate of the Zillah, or City in which the offender is undergoing his sentence; or, if he is confined in any prison belonging to one of the Supreme Courts of Judicature established by Royal Charter, shall be countersigned by a Judge of such Court, if it shall appear to such Magistrate or Judge that the offence, wherever committed, is not punishable by any authority other than that of a Court Martial; but not otherwise.

IV. All Sheriffs, Gaolers, and other persons having custody, of any offender under sentence of a Court Martial, shall obey and give effect to any Warrant of the Commander-in-Chief, countersigned by a Magistrate, or Judge of the Supreme Court as aforesaid, for the pardon and release of any offender in their custody respectively, or for the remission of any part of his sentence.

FRED. JAS. HALLIDAY,
Secy. to the Govt. of India.

Fort William, Home Department, Legislative, the 15th March, 1850.

The following Act passed by the Governor General of India in Council on the 15th of March 1850, is hereby promulgated for general information:

ACT No. VII. OF 1850.

An Act for better defining the Law as to the removal of Prisoners.

Whereas, by the Regulations in force, prisoners may in certain cases be removed from one prison to another by special order of the Nizamut Adawlut or Foujdaree Adawlut, and in other cases by the Governor or Governor in Council of the Presidency; and it is expedient that the Government should be empowered to direct such removal, in every case which appears necessary, without application to the Court for a special order, It is enacted as follows:

I. Act VIII. 1844, is repealed.

II. When any person is under sentence of imprisonment, within the territories under the Government of the East India Company, by any authority other than that of one of the Supreme Courts of Judicature established by Royal Charter, the Governor or Governor in Council, or other person administering the Government of the Presidency or place, may order the removal of such prisoner from the prison, or place, in which he is confined, to any other public prison or place of confinement within the same Presidency or Government.

III. The time of removal from one prison to another, or while the prisoner is in custody under such warrant of removal, shall reckon as part of his imprisonment.

FRED. JAS. HALLIDAY,
Secy. to the Govt. of India.

XXVI. On the application of any person desirous to bring a suit under this Act, the Clerk of the Court shall issue, under the seal of the Court, a summons which shall be numbered, and shall set forth the names of the plaintiff and defendant, the cause of action with such particulars as shall be, from time to time, directed by the Rules of the Court, and the amount sued for, and shall be served on the defendant, so many days before the day on which the Court shall be holden at which the cause is to be tried as shall be directed by the rules for regulating the practice of the Court; and delivery of such summons to the defendant, or in such other manner as shall be specified in the rules of practice, shall be deemed good service; and no misnomer or inaccurate description of any person or place in any such summons shall vitiate the same, if the person or place be therein described so as to be commonly known.

XXVII. No misstatement of the cause of action in the summons issued under this Act shall vitiate the same, and the Judges of the Court may, in their discretion, rectify such misstatement as soon as discovered, and alter the record accordingly, and if the defendant, or one of the defendants be present in Court at the time of such discovery, the hearing of the cause after the record shall have been so altered, shall be proceeded with as if no such misstatement had happened, but in the absence of the defendant or of all the defendants a new summons of the same number and date as the original summons shall be issued with the altered statement of the cause of action.

XXVIII. All persons shall be deemed within the jurisdiction of the Court, who dwell or carry on their business or work for gain within the district of the Court at the time of bringing the action, or who did so dwell or carry on their business or work therein at the time when the cause of action arose, or within six months before the time of bringing the action for causes of action which arose within the same time.

XXIX. Any summons or other process of any of the said Courts, service of which is needed out of the district of the Court, may be exhibited in any Court of Law, or before any Magistrate, and shall be thereupon endorsed by the Magistrate or Judge of such Court; and, when so endorsed, may be served in like manner as any order or process from such Court or Magistrate; and such service shall be as valid as if the same had been made by the Bailiff of the Court out of which such summons or other process shall have issued within the jurisdiction of the Court for which he acts.

XXX. Service of any summons or other process of the Court, which shall require to be served out of the district of the Court, may be proved by affidavit, or solemn affirmation, purporting to be sworn or made before any Judge or Magistrate; and, in every case of the unavoidable absence of the Bailiff by whom any summons or other process of the Court has been served, the service of such summons or other process may be proved, if the Judges think fit, in the same manner as a summons served out of the district of the Court.

XXXI. Any minor may prosecute a suit in any Court holden under this Act for any sum of money not greater than Five Hundred Rupees, which may be due to him for wages or piecework, or for work as a servant, in the same manner as if he were of full age.

XXXII. The jurisdiction of the Court shall extend to the recovery of any demand, not exceeding the sum of Five Hundred Rupees, which is the whole or part of the unliquidated balance of a partnership account, or the amount or part of the amount of a distributive share under an intestacy, or of any legacy under a will.

XXXIII. Any Executor or Administrator may sue and be sued in any Court holden under this Act, in like manner as if he were a party in his own right; and judgment and execution shall be such as in the like case would be given or issued in the Supreme Court in the like case: but no Executor or Administrator shall be summoned in that capacity within six months after the death of the person, whose Executor or Administrator he is.

XXXIV. A plaintiff shall not be allowed to divide any cause of action, for the sake of bringing two or more suits in any of the said Courts; but any plaintiff, having cause of action for more than Five Hundred Rupees, may abandon the excess, which shall be entered in the record, and stated in the summons, and thereupon the plaintiff shall, on proving his case, recover to an amount not exceeding Five Hundred Rupees; and the judgment of the Court shall be in full discharge of all demands in respect of such cause of action; and entry of the judgment shall be made accordingly.

XXXV. The Governor General and Members of the Supreme Council of India, the Governors and Members of Council of the Presidencies of Fort William in Bengal, Fort St. George and Bombay respectively, and the Chief Justices and Judges of the several Supreme Courts established therein by Royal Charter, shall not be liable to arrest or imprisonment by process issuing out of any Court holden under this Act, and no writ or process shall be sued out of the said Court against any of the persons privileged by Act I. 1844, or Act XVIII. 1848, without the consent of the Governor in Council.

XXXVI. Where any plaintiff shall have any demand recoverable under this Act, whether founded on contract or wrong, against two or more persons jointly answerable, it shall be sufficient if any of such persons be served with process, and judgment may be obtained and execution issued against the person or persons so served, notwithstanding that others, jointly liable, may not have been served or sued, or may not be within the jurisdiction of the Court; and every such person against whom judgment shall have been obtained under this Act, and who shall have satisfied such judgment, shall be entitled to demand and recover in the Court, holden under this Act, contribution from any other person jointly liable with him; and in all cases of misjoinder of defendants, the Judges may order the suit to proceed against such of the defendants only against whom cause of action appears, and may give judgment against them only; giving also judgment for costs for the defendants improperly joined.

XXXVII. The Judges of the Court shall be empowered to determine all questions as well of fact as of law or equity, as administered in the Supreme Court, in all cases which they have authority to try.

XXXVIII. On the day in that behalf named in the summons, the plaintiff shall appear, and thereupon the defendant shall be required to appear to answer; and on answer being made in Court, the Judges shall proceed in a summary way to try the cause, and give judgment, without further pleading or formal joinder of issue.

XXXIX. A defendant, having any cause of action against the plaintiff, whether or not the same exceeds Five Hundred Rupees, shall be entitled to set the same against the plaintiff's demand, and if judgment is given in such case for the plaintiff, shall be entitled to sue the plaintiff for the balance only of his original demand, after deducting the amount of debt or damages and costs recovered against him under this Act.

XL. The Judges may, in any case, with the consent of both parties to the suit, order the same, with or without other matters within the jurisdiction of the Court in dispute between such parties, to be referred to arbitration, to such person or persons, and in such manner, and on such terms as they shall think reasonable and just; and such reference shall not be revocable by either party, except by consent of the Judges; and the award of the arbitrator or arbitrators or umpire shall be entered as the judgment in the cause, and shall be as binding and effectual to all intents, as if given by the Judges; provided, that the Judges may, if they think fit, on application to them at the first Court held after the expiration of one week, after the entry of such award, set aside any such award, or may, with the consent of both parties, revoke the reference, or order another reference to be made in the manner aforesaid.

XLI. The Judges of each Court, holden under this Act, subject to the approval of the Judges of the Supreme Court, shall have power to make and issue all the general rules for regulating the practice and proceedings of the Court, and also to frame forms for every proceeding in the Court for which they shall think it necessary that a form be provided, and also for keeping all books, entries, and accounts to be kept by the Clerk of the Court, and, from time to time, to alter any such rule or form; and the rules so made and the forms so framed, shall be observed and used in the Court of that Presidency, and shall be sent to the Supreme Court for approval, but shall be of force until disapproved; and in any case, not expressly provided for herein, or by the said rules, the general principles of practice in the Supreme Court may be adopted and applied at the discretion of the Judges, to actions and proceedings in their Court.

XLII. If upon the day of the return of any summons, or at any continuation or adjournment of the said Court, or of the cause for which the said summons shall have been issued, the plaintiff shall not appear, the cause shall be struck out; and if he shall appear, but shall not make proof of his demand to the satisfaction of the Court, the Judges may nonsuit the plaintiff or give judgment for the defendant; and, in either case, where the defendant shall appear and shall not admit the demand, may award to the defendant, by way of costs and satisfaction for his trouble and attendance, such sum as they, in their discretion, shall think fit; and such sum shall be recoverable from the plaintiff by such ways and means as any debt or damage ordered to be paid by the same Court can be recovered: provided always, that if the plaintiff shall not appear when called upon, and the defendant, or some one duly authorized on his behalf, shall appear, and admit the cause of action to the full amount claimed, and pay the fees payable in the first instance by the plaintiff, the Court, if it shall think fit, may proceed to give judgment, as if the plaintiff had appeared.

XLIII. If on the day so named in the summons, or at any continuation or adjournment of the Court, or cause in which the summons was issued, the defendant shall not appear or sufficiently excuse his absence, or shall neglect to answer when called in Court, the Judges, upon due proof of service of the summons, may issue a writ of attachment to compel the appearance of the defendant; or, in their discretion, may proceed to the hearing or trial of the cause on the part of the plaintiff only; and the judgment thereupon shall be as valid as if both parties had attended; provided always, that the Judges in any such case, at the same or any subsequent Court, may set aside any judgment so given in the absence of the defendant, and the execution thereupon; and may grant new trial of the cause, upon such terms, as to payment of costs, giving security for debt or costs, or otherwise, as they think fit, on sufficient cause shown to them for that purpose.

XLIV. The Judges may, in any case, make orders for granting time to the plaintiff or defendant to proceed in the prosecution or defence of the suit, and also may, from time to time, adjourn any Court, or the hearing or further hearing of any cause, in such manner as to them may seem fit.

XLV. The defendant in any action brought under this Act, for the recovery of money, whether for debt or damages, within such time as shall be directed by the rules for regulating the practice of the Court, may pay into Court such sum of money as he shall think a full satisfaction for the demand of the plaintiff, with the costs incurred by the plaintiff up to the time of such payment; and the said sum of money shall be paid to the plaintiff; but, if he shall elect to proceed, and, if the plaintiff shall recover no further sum in the action than shall have been so paid into Court, the plaintiff shall pay to the defendant the costs incurred by him in the said action after such payment; and such costs shall be settled by the Court, and an order shall thereupon be made by the Court for the payment of such costs by the plaintiff.

XLVI. On the hearing or trial of any action or any other proceeding under this Act the parties thereto, their wives, and all other persons, may be examined, on behalf of either the plaintiff or defendant, subject nevertheless to the Acts and Regulations in force, with respect to the examination of women of a rank and situation in life, which, according to the customs of the country, would render it improper to compel them to appear in a Court of Justice.

XLVII. Every person shall be examined on oath, or when exempt by law from taking an oath in any Court of Justice, on solemn affirmation, and every person, who, in any examination upon oath or solemn affirmation under this Act, shall wilfully and corruptly give false evidence, shall be deemed guilty of perjury.

XLVIII. Either of the parties to the suit or any other proceeding under this Act may obtain, at the office of the Clerk of the Court, summonses to witnesses, with or without a clause requiring the production of books, deeds, papers and writings in their possession or control, and in any such summons any number of names may be inserted.

XLIX. Every person, on whom any such summons shall have been served, either personally or in such other manner as shall be directed by the general rules or practice of the Court, and who shall refuse or neglect, without sufficient cause, to appear, or to produce any books, papers, or writings required by such summons to be produced, and also every person present in Court, who shall be required to give evidence, and who shall refuse to be sworn and give evidence, shall forfeit and pay such fine, not exceeding One Hundred Rupees, as the Judges shall set on him; and the whole or any part of such fine, in the discretion of the Judges, after deducting the costs, may be applied towards indemnifying the party injured by such refusal or neglect.

L. The Judges of any Court established under this Act, in all suits where the debt or demand exceeds the sum of Thirty Rupees, upon proof before them, that any defendant against whom a summons has been taken out, conceals himself from, or otherwise evades process of the Court, or is disposing of his property and effects with intent to defraud the plaintiff, or his creditors generally, or is about to withdraw his person or effects from the jurisdiction of the Court, may issue a warrant for the apprehension of such person, and may commit him to gaol until he shall find security for his appearance in the said Court from time to time, until judgment shall be pronounced in the suit commenced by such summons, and for payment of the amount and the costs which may be decreed against him therein.

LI. Payment of any fine imposed by any Court under the authority of this Act may be enforced upon the order of the Judges, in like manner as payment of any debt adjudged in the said Court, and shall be accounted for as herein provided.

LII. All the costs of any action or proceeding in the Court, not herein otherwise provided for, shall be paid by or apportioned between the parties, in such manner as the Judges shall think fit; and, in default of any special direction, shall abide the event of the action; and execution may issue for the recovery of any such costs, in like manner as for any debt adjudged in the said Court.

LIII. Every order and judgment of any Court holden under this Act, except as herein provided, shall be final and conclusive between the parties; but the Judges shall have power to nonsuit the plaintiff, in every case in which satisfactory proof shall not be given to them, entitling either the plaintiff or defendant to the judgment of the Court; and shall also in every case whatever have the power, if they shall think fit, to order a new trial to be had, upon such terms as they shall think reasonable, and in the meantime to stay the proceedings.

LIV. No cause commenced in any Court, holden under this Act, shall be removed from the said Court into the Supreme Court by any writ or process, unless the debt or damage or value of the property claimed exceeds One Hundred Rupees, and then only by leave of a Judge of the said Supreme Court on proof to his satisfaction that some question of law or equity is likely to arise therein, which, by reason either of its difficulty, novelty or general importance, or of some erroneous course of decision on the same point in the Court of Small Causes may appear to him fit to be tried in the Supreme Court, and upon such terms as to payment of costs, giving security for debt or costs, or otherwise, as he shall think fit.

LV. The Judges of the Court of Small Causes may, in their discretion, reserve any question of law or equity on which they entertain doubts, or which they shall be requested by either party to the suit to reserve, for the opinion of the Judges of the Supreme Court, and shall give judgment contingent upon the opinion of the said Supreme Court on a case which they shall thereupon be entitled to state to the said Court. If only two Judges sit together, and shall differ in opinion, the question, on which they differ shall be so referred.

LVI. The Judges may make orders concerning the time or times, and by what instalments, any debt or damages or costs, for which judgment shall be obtained in the said Court, shall be paid; and all such monies shall be paid into Court, unless the Judges shall otherwise order.

LVII. If there be cross judgments between the parties, execution shall be taken out by that party only, who shall have obtained judgment for the larger sum, and for so much only as shall remain after deducting the smaller sum; and satisfaction for the remainder shall be entered, as well as satisfaction on the judgment for the smaller sum; and, if both sums shall be equal, satisfaction shall be entered upon both judgments.

LVIII. Whenever the Court shall have made an order for the payment of money, the amount shall be recoverable, in case of default or failure of payment thereof forthwith, or at the time or times and in the manner directed, by execution against the body or the goods and chattels of the person against whom such order is made without further notice or order; and the Clerk of the said Court, at the request of the person prosecuting such order, shall issue under the seal of the Court a writ of execution to one of the Bailiffs of the Court, which shall be his warrant to take the body of such person in execution, or to levy, or cause to be levied, by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of such person such sum of money as shall be so ordered, wheresoever they may be found within the district of the Court, and also the costs of the execution; and all Constables and other Peace Officers within their several jurisdictions shall aid in the execution of every such writ.

LIX. If the Court shall have made any order for payment of any sum of money by instalments, execution upon such order shall not issue until after default in payment of some instalment according to such order; and execution or successive executions may then issue without further notice or order for the whole of the said sum of money and costs then remaining unpaid, or for such portion thereof as the Court shall order, either at the time of making the original order, or at any subsequent time, under the seal of the Court.

LX. Whenever any warrant shall issue for taking in execution the body of any person under this Act, the Bailiffs of the Court shall be empowered, by virtue thereof, to take and convey him to any prison, appointed by the Governor in Council to be the prison of the Court, there to remain for such term as shall be directed by the warrant, not longer than six calendar months, or until he shall sooner perform the order of the Court.

LXI. No person shall be imprisoned twice under the same judgment, nor shall execution against the body and goods issue at the same time under the same judgment.

LXII. Every person suing out a warrant of execution against the body of any other person under this Act shall deposit with the Clerk of the Court, at the time of the issue of the warrant, diet money for one week, after the rate of one anna and a half for each day, which shall be paid by the Clerk to the Keeper of the Prison at the time of the execution of the warrant.

LXIII. Notice of the execution of every such warrant shall be forthwith given to the person at whose suit it issued, who shall thereupon deposit with the Keeper of the Prison, diet money for the remainder of the month in which the warrant is executed, after the same daily rate, and shall continue thereafter to deposit monthly with the said Keeper, in advance, diet money at the same daily rate, for each month which the debtor is liable to be kept in prison at his suit.

LXIV. The diet money shall be employed for the subsistence of the prisoner; and if, by default of the detaining creditor, such diet money is not paid, the prisoner shall be entitled to his discharge by order of the Court.

LXV. All diet money, which shall be spent in providing subsistence for any prisoner, shall be costs in the cause, and all diet money, which shall not be so spent, shall be repaid to the creditor advancing the same.

LXVI. Whenever any prisoner shall offer good and reasonable security for payment of any debt or damage and costs, either in full or by instalments as the Court shall think reasonable, the Court may order him to be discharged on giving such security.

LXVII. Upon payment of the debt or damage and costs in full, the prisoner shall be entitled to be forthwith discharged.

LXVIII. If the debt or damage and costs are not paid, the imprisonment shall not extinguish the liability to pay the same; but all property then belonging to or afterwards acquired by the prisoner shall be liable to be taken in execution after his discharge from prison for satisfaction thereof, or of so much thereof as is not paid, including the diet money actually expended for subsistence of the prisoner.

LXIX. Every Bailiff executing any process of execution issuing out of the said Court against the goods of any person, may, by virtue thereof, seize and take any of the goods of such person, (excepting the necessary wearing apparel and bedding of such person or his family, and the tools and implements of his trade,) and may also seize and take any money or Bank-notes, and any cheques, bills of exchange, promissory notes, bonds, specialties or securities for money belonging to any such person against whom any execution shall have issued as aforesaid.

LXX. The Bailiff shall forthwith deliver any cheques, bills of exchange, promissory notes, bonds, specialties, or other securities for money, which shall have been so seized or taken as aforesaid, to the Clerk or other person appointed by the Judges to receive the same, who shall hold them as a security or securities for the amount directed to be levied by such execution, or so much thereof as shall not have been otherwise levied or raised for the benefit of the plaintiff; and the plaintiff may sue in the name of the defendant, or in the name of any person in whose name the defendant might have sued, for the recovery of the sum or sums secured, or made payable thereby, when the time of payment thereof shall have arrived.

LXXI. If it shall, at any time, appear to the satisfaction of the Court that any defendant is unable, from sickness or other sufficient cause, to pay and discharge the debt or damages recovered against him, or any instalment thereof ordered to be paid as aforesaid, the Judges, in their discretion, may suspend or stay any judgment, order or execution given, made or issued in such action, for such time and on such terms as they shall think fit, and so, from time to time, until it shall appear by the like proof as aforesaid that such temporary cause of disability has ceased.

LXXII. No sale of any goods, which shall be taken in execution as aforesaid shall be made, until after the end of five days at least next following the day on which such goods have been so taken, unless such goods be of a perishable nature, or upon the request, in writing, of the party whose goods have been taken.

LXXIII. Until such sale, the goods shall be deposited by the Bailiff by whom they were taken in some fit place, or they may remain in the custody of a fit person approved by the Judges to be put in possession by the Bailiff.

LXXIV. The Judges, from time to time, as they shall think proper, may appoint such and so many persons for keeping possession, and so many of their Bailiffs or other fit persons to be sworn brokers and appraisers for the purpose of selling or valuing any goods, chattels or effects taken in execution under this Act, as shall appear to them to be necessary, and may direct security to be taken from each of them, for such sum and in such manner as they shall think fit, for the faithful performance of their duties, without injury or oppression; and the Judges may dismiss any person, broker or appraiser so appointed.

LXXV. No goods taken in execution under this Act shall be sold for the purpose of satisfying the warrant of execution; except by one of the brokers or appraisers so appointed.

LXXVI. The costs to be demanded or taken for such appraisement and sale, shall be One Anna in the Rupee on the produce of the goods sold; and the Judges may apply the sum so raised as costs towards payment of the contingent charges and remuneration of the said brokers and appraisers, in such manner as shall be approved by the Governor in Council.

LXXVII. The Clerk of the Court shall keep an account of all sums received upon such sales, distinguishing the amount paid to the party entitled to the benefit of the execution, and the amount levied and retained as costs, and also of all sums allowed to the brokers and appraisers upon such sales.

LXXVIII. Whenever any defendant against whom judgment shall have been given in the Court of Small Causes, shall go before execution thereof out of the jurisdiction of the Court, the Judge of any Zillah or Town where he shall be found, upon receiving from the plaintiff, either in person or by vakeel, an application in writing setting forth these facts, with a duly authenticated copy of the judgment of the Court, shall execute the said judgment in the manner prescribed by law for execution of his own decrees; unless the defendant shall allege any reasonable cause, why the judgment should not be executed, and shall give security to such amount as the Judge of such Zillah or Town shall deem reasonable, that he will, within such time as shall be allowed him for that purpose, either satisfy the judgment or produce a duly authenticated copy of an order of the Judges of the Court of Small Causes, discharging their former judgment.

LXXIX. No judgment or execution shall be stayed, delayed or reversed upon or by any writ of error or supersedeas thereon, to be sued for the reversing of any judgment given in any Court holden under the provisions of this Act, unless the amount recovered exceeds One Hundred Rupees, and then only after the person suing out such writ shall become bound with two sufficient sureties to be approved by the Clerk of the Court, in treble the sum adjudged to be recovered in the former judgment, to prosecute the said writ with effect, and also to satisfy and pay (if the writ be not prosecuted, or if the judgment be affirmed), the debt or damages and costs adjudged, and all costs and damages to be awarded for the delay of execution.

LXXX. Upon every warrant of execution issued against the goods and chattels of any person, the Clerk of the Court shall cause to be stated, the sum of money and costs adjudged with the sum paid for such warrant; and if the party against whom such execution shall be issued shall, before an actual sale of the goods and chattels, pay or cause to be paid or tendered unto the Clerk of the Court, or to the Bailiff holding the warrant of execution such sum of money and costs, as aforesaid, or such part thereof as the person entitled thereto shall agree to accept in full of his debt or damages and costs, together with the fees herein directed to be paid, the execution shall be superseded, and the goods and chattels of the said party shall be discharged and set at liberty.

LXXXI. The Clerk of every Court holden under this Act shall cause a record of all summonses, and of all orders, and of all judgments and executions, and returns thereto, and of all fines, and of all other proceedings of the Court, to be fairly entered, from time to time, in a book or books belonging to the Court, which shall be kept at the Office of the Court; and shall be duly authenticated by one or more of the Judges; and such entries in the said book or books or a copy thereof bearing the seal of the Court, and purporting to be signed and certified as a true copy by the Clerk of the Court, shall be admitted in all Courts and places as evidence of such entries, and of the proceeding referred to by such entry or entries, and of the regularity of such proceeding, without any further proof.

LXXXII. The Clerk of every such Court shall, in the month of March, in each year, make out a correct list of all sums of money belonging to suitors in the Court, which shall have been paid into Court, and which shall have remained unclaimed for five years before the first day of the month of January then last past, specifying the names of the parties for whom or on whose account the same were so paid into Court; and a copy of such list shall be put up and remain during Court hours in some conspicuous part of the Court House, and at all times in the Clerk's Office; and all sums of money which shall have been paid into any such Court, to the use of any suitor or suitors thereof, and which shall have remained unclaimed for the period of six years before the passing of this Act, and which are now in the hands of any Commissioner or Officer of such Court, or otherwise held in trust for such suitors, and all further sums of money, which shall hereafter be paid into such Court to the use of any suitor or suitors thereof, shall, if unclaimed for the period of six years after the same shall have been so paid into Court, be applicable as part of the fees receivable on account of the Court, and shall be carried to the same account; and no person shall be entitled to claim any sum which shall have remained unclaimed for six years; but no time during which the person entitled to claim such sum shall have been an infant or married woman or of unsound mind, or out of the Territories under the Government of the East India Company, shall be taken into account in estimating the said period of six years.

LXXXIII. If any person shall wilfully insult any Judge, Clerk or Officer of the said Court, for the time being, during his sitting or attendance in Court, or shall wilfully interrupt the proceedings of the Court, or otherwise misbehave in Court, it shall be lawful for any Bailiff or Officer of the Court, with or without the assistance of any other person, by the order of the Judges to take such offender into custody, and detain him until the rising of the Court; and the Judges shall be empowered, if they shall think fit, by a warrant under their hands, and sealed with the seal of the Court, to commit any such offender to any prison to which they have power to commit offenders under this Act, for any time, not exceeding seven days, or to impose upon any such offender a fine, not exceeding Fifty Rupees for every such offence, and in default of payment thereof to commit the offender to any such prison as aforesaid, for any time not exceeding seven days, unless the said fine be sooner paid, or instead of inflicting summary punishment under this Act may cause the offender to be indicted in the Supreme Court, if the offence be an indictable misdemeanour.

LXXXIV. If any Officer or Bailiff of any Court holden under this Act shall be assaulted while in the execution of his duty, or if any rescue shall be made or attempted to be made of any person arrested, or goods levied under process of the Court, the person so offending shall be liable to a fine, not exceeding One Hundred Rupees, to be recovered by order of the Court, or before a Magistrate as hereinafter provided; and the Bailiff of the Court, or any Peace Officer in any such case, may take the offender into custody, (with or without warrant,) and bring him before such Court, or Magistrate accordingly.

LXXXV. If any Bailiff of the said Court, who shall be employed to execute any warrant of the Court, shall, by neglect, or connivance or omission, lose an opportunity of executing such warrant, then, upon complaint of the party aggrieved by reason of such neglect, connivance or omission, (and the fact alleged being proved to the satisfaction of the Court,) the Judges shall order the Bailiff to pay such damages as it shall appear that the plaintiff has sustained thereby, not exceeding in any case the sum of money for which the said execution is issued, and the Bailiff shall be liable thereto; and upon demand made thereof, and on his refusal so to pay and satisfy the same, payment thereof shall be enforced by such ways and means as are herein provided for enforcing a judgment recovered in the said Court, without prejudice nevertheless to the execution of the original warrant.

LXXXVI. If any Clerk, Bailiff or Officer of the Court, acting under colour or pretence of the process of the said Court, shall be charged with extortion or misconduct, or with not duly paying or accounting for any money levied by him under the authority of this Act, the Judges may inquire into such matter in a summary way, and for that purpose may summon and enforce the attendance of all necessary parties in like manner as the attendance of witnesses in any case may be enforced, and may make such order thereupon for the repayment of any money extorted, or for the due payment of any money so levied as aforesaid, and for the payment of such damages and costs, as they shall think just; and also, if they shall think fit, may impose such fine upon the Clerk, Bailiff or Officer, not exceeding One Hundred Rupees for each offence, as they shall deem adequate; and in default of payment of any money so ordered to be paid, payment of the same may be enforced by such ways and means as are herein provided for enforcing a judgment recovered in the said Court.

LXXXVII. Every Clerk, Bailiff or other Officer employed in putting this Act or any of the powers thereof in execution, who shall wilfully and corruptly exact, take or accept any fee or reward whatsoever, other than his lawful salary, for any thing done or to be done by virtue of this Act, or on any account whatsoever, relative to putting this Act into execution, shall, upon proof thereof before the said Court, and in the case of a Clerk, on confirmation of the finding of the Court by the Governor in Council, be for ever incapable of serving, or being employed under this Act in any office of profit or emolument, and shall also be liable for damages as herein provided.

LXXXVIII. If any claim shall be made to, or in respect of, any goods or chattels taken in execution under the process of any Court holden under this Act, or in respect of the proceeds or value thereof, by any person not being the party against whom such process has issued, the Clerk of the Court, upon application of the Officer charged with the execution of such process, as well before as after any action brought against such Officer, may issue a summons calling before the said Court, as well the party issuing such process as the party making such claim, and thereupon any action, which shall have been brought in the Supreme Court in respect of such claim, shall be stayed, and any Judge of the Supreme Court on proof of the issue of such summons, and that the goods and chattels were so taken in execution, may order the party bringing such action to pay the costs of all proceedings had upon such action after the issue of such summons out of the Court of Small Causes, and the Judges of the Court of Small Causes shall adjudicate upon such claim and make such order between the parties in respect thereof, and of the costs of the proceedings as to them shall seem fit, and such order shall be enforced in like manner as any order made in any suit brought in such Court.

LXXXIX. The powers of Act VII. 1847 to regulate distresses for small rents in Calcutta, shall be extended to the recovery of all arrears of rent not exceeding Five Hundred Rupees, and the Judges of every Court of Small Causes under this Act shall be empowered to exercise within their several jurisdictions the extended powers of the said Act; and the said Act shall be construed as if, instead of Calcutta and the Settlement of Fort William in Bengal, the limits of the jurisdiction of the Court had been therein mentioned, and the Judges of the Court of Small Causes under this Act instead of the Commissioners of the Court therein mentioned, and the amount of Five Hundred Rupees instead of One Hundred Rupees, and the forms contained in the Schedule annexed to the said Act shall be altered accordingly, and shall refer to this Act instead of Act VII. 1847.

XC. The affidavit of arrear required by the said Act No. VII. 1847 may, in every case, be made either by the person entitled to such arrear or by his or her lawfully constituted attorney, and a warrant of distress may issue on such affidavit.

XCI. Where any person shall hold or occupy any house, land or tenement, of which the value or the rent payable in respect thereof, does not exceed the rate of Five Hundred Rupees by the year, without leave of the owner, or under a lease or agreement which is ended, or duly determined by a legal notice to quit, and such tenant, or, if such tenant do not actually occupy the premises, or occupy only a part thereof, any person by whom the same or any part thereof shall be then actually occupied, shall neglect or refuse to quit and deliver up possession of the premises, or of such part thereof respectively, the owner or his agent may take out a summons from the Court directed to such tenant or occupier, to show by what title he claims to hold or occupy the premises or part thereof.

XCII. If the tenant or occupier shall not thereupon appear at the time and place appointed, and show cause to the contrary, and shall still neglect or refuse to deliver up possession of the premises, or of such part thereof, of which he is then in possession, to the said owner or his agent, such owner or agent may give to the Court proof of the holding, and of the end or other determination of the tenancy, if any had existed, with the time or manner thereof, and of the right by which he claims the possession.

XCIII. Upon proof of due service of the summons, and of the neglect or refusal of the tenant or occupier, as the case may be, the Judges may issue a warrant under the seal of the Court, to any Bailiff of the Court requiring and authorizing him within a period to be therein named not less than seven, or more than ten clear days from the date of such warrant, to give possession of the premises to such owner or agent, and such warrant shall be a sufficient warrant to the said Bailiff to enter upon the premises with such assistants as he shall deem necessary, and to give possession accordingly: Provided always, that entry upon any such warrant shall not be made on a Sunday, Good Friday, or Christmas-day, or any other day observed by the Court as a Holiday, or at any time except between the hours of six in the morning and six in the afternoon: Provided also, that nothing herein contained shall be deemed to protect any person by whom any such warrant shall be sued out of the Court of Small Causes from any action which may be brought against him by any such tenant or occupier for such entry and taking possession, where such person had not, at the time of suing out the same as aforesaid, lawful right to the possession of the same premises.

XCIV. Such summons, as last aforesaid, may be served either personally or by leave of the Court, upon proof that the tenant or occupier is not to be found within the jurisdiction of the Court, by leaving the same with some person being in, and apparently residing at the place of abode of the person or persons so holding over as aforesaid; or if the place of abode of such person or persons shall either not be known or admission thereto cannot be obtained for serving such summons, by posting the said summons on some conspicuous part of the premises so held over.

XCV. No action or prosecution shall be maintainable against the Judges or against the Clerk of the Court, by whom such warrant as aforesaid shall have been issued, or against any Bailiff or other person by whom such warrant may be executed, or summons affixed, for issuing such warrant, or executing the same respectively, or affixing such summons, by reason that the person by whom the same shall be sued out had not lawful right to the possession of the premises.

XCVI. Where the owner, at the time of applying for such warrant as aforesaid, had lawful right to the possession of the premises, or of the part thereof so held over as aforesaid, neither the said owner nor his agent, nor any other person acting in his behalf, shall be deemed to be a trespasser, by reason merely of any irregularity or informality in the mode of proceeding for obtaining possession under the authority of this Act; but the party aggrieved may, if he think fit, bring an action on the case, for such irregularity or informality, in which the damage alleged to be sustained thereby, shall be specially laid, and may recover full satisfaction for such special damage with costs of suit: Provided that, if the special damage so laid be not proved, the defendant shall be entitled to a verdict, and that, if proved, but assessed at any sum, not exceeding Ten Rupees, the plaintiff shall recover no more costs than damages, unless the Judge, before whom the trial shall have been holden, shall certify that in his opinion full costs ought to be allowed.

XCVII. In every case in which the person, by whom any such warrant shall be sued out of the Court of Small Causes, had not, at the time of suing out the same, lawful right to the possession of the premises, the suing out of any such warrant, as last aforesaid, shall be deemed a trespass by him against the tenant or occupier of the premises, although no entry shall be made by virtue of the warrant; and in case any such tenant or occupier will become bound with two sufficient sureties, to be approved by the Clerk of the Court, in such sum as to the Judges shall seem reasonable, regard being had to the value of the premises and to the probable cost of such action, to sue the person by whom such warrant was sued out with effect and without delay, and to pay all the costs of the proceeding in such action, in case a verdict shall pass for the defendant, or the plaintiff shall discontinue or not prosecute his action, or become nonsuit therein, execution upon the warrant shall be stayed until judgment shall have been given in such action of trespass; and, if upon the trial of such action of trespass, judgment be given for the plaintiff, such judgment shall supersede the said warrant.

XCVIII. Recovery of the possession of any such house, land or tenement shall be no bar to the institution of a regular suit, for trying the title thereunto, which may be brought in the Supreme Court, as if this Act had not been passed.

XCIX. Every bond given on the removal of any action out of the Court of Small Causes, or upon staying, delaying or reversing any judgment or execution awarded therein, or the execution of any such warrant of possession as aforesaid, or on moving for a new trial, or to set aside a verdict, judgment or nonsuit, shall be made to the other party to the action, and shall be approved by the Judges and attested under the seal of the Court; and if the bond so taken be forfeited, or if upon the proceeding for securing which such bond was given, the Judge, before whom such proceeding shall be had, shall not certify upon the record in Court, that the condition of the bond hath been fulfilled, the party to whom the bond shall have been so made may bring an action of debt and recover thereon: Provided always, that the Court in which such action as last aforesaid shall be brought may, by a rule of Court, give such relief to the parties liable upon such bond as may appear to him reasonable, and such rule shall have the nature and effect of a defeasance to such bond.

C. All actions and proceedings, which before the passing of this Act, might have been brought in the Supreme Court, where any Officer of the Court of Small Causes shall be a party, except in respect of any claim to any goods and chattels taken in execution of the process of the Court, or the proceeds or value thereof, may be brought and determined in the Supreme Court, at the election of the party suing or proceeding, as if this Act had not been passed.

CI. If any action shall be commenced after the passing of this Act in the Supreme Court, for any cause other than those lastly herein before specified, for which a summons might have been taken out from a Court holden under this Act, and a verdict shall be found for the plaintiff for a sum less than Five Hundred Rupees, if the said action is founded on contract, or less than One Hundred Rupees, if it is founded on wrong, the plaintiff shall have judgment to recover such sum only, and no costs; and if a verdict shall not be found for the plaintiff the defendant shall be entitled to his costs as between attorney and client, unless in either case the Judge, who shall try the cause, shall certify on the back of the record that, by reason of the difficulty, novelty or general importance of the case, or of some erroneous course of decision on like cases in the Court of Small Causes, the action was fit to be brought in the Supreme Court.

CII. If any person shall bring any suit in the Supreme Court in respect of any grievance committed by the Clerk, Bailiff or Officer of any Court holden under this Act, under colour or pretence of the process of the said Court, and upon the trial of the action, no greater damages shall be found for the plaintiff than the sum of Five Hundred Rupees, no costs shall be awarded to the plaintiff in such action, unless the Judge shall certify in Court, upon the back of the Record, that the action was fit to be brought in the Supreme Court.

CIII. All penalties, fines and forfeitures by this Act, inflicted or authorized to be imposed, (the manner of recovering and applying whereof is not hereby otherwise particularly directed), upon proof before any Justice of the Peace or Magistrate having jurisdiction where the offender shall reside or be, or the offence shall be committed, either by the confession of the party offending, or by the oath or affirmation of any credible witness, shall be levied, with the costs attending the summons and conviction, by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the party offending, by warrant under the hand of any such Justice or Magistrate, and the overplus (if any) after such penalties, fines and forfeitures, and the charges of such distress and sale are deducted, shall be returned, upon demand, unto the owner of such goods and chattels.

CIV. If any such penalties, fines and forfeitures respectively, shall not be paid forthwith upon conviction, it shall be lawful for such Justice or Magistrate to order the offender so convicted to be detained in safe custody until return can conveniently be made to such warrant of distress; unless such offender shall give sufficient security to the satisfaction of such Justice or Magistrate for his appearance before him on such day as shall be appointed for the return of such warrant of distress, such day not being more than eight days from the time of taking any such security, which security the Justice or Magistrate shall be empowered to take by way of recognizance or otherwise, as to him shall seem fit.

CV. If upon return of such warrant it shall appear that no sufficient distress can be had thereupon, or in case it shall appear to the satisfaction of the Justice or Magistrate, either by confession of the offender or otherwise, that he hath not within the jurisdiction of such Justice or Magistrate, sufficient goods and chattels, whereon to levy all such penalties, forfeitures, costs and charges, the Justice or Magistrate may, at his discretion, without issuing any warrant of distress, commit the offender to the Common Gaol or House of Correction, for any time not exceeding three calendar months, unless such penalties, forfeitures and fines, and all reasonable charges attending the recovery thereof, shall be sooner paid and satisfied.

CVI. The monies arising from any such penalties, forfeitures and fines as aforesaid when paid and levied, shall (if not by this Act directed to be otherwise applied,) be, from time to time, paid to the Clerk of the Court, and shall be applied in like manner as the fees thereof.

CVII. In all cases in which by this Act any penalty or forfeiture is made recoverable before a Justice or Magistrate, he may summon before him the party complained against, and on such summons may hear and determine the matter of such complaint; and, on proof of the offence, may convict the offender, and adjudge him to pay the penalty or forfeiture incurred, and proceed to recover the same, although no information in writing shall have been exhibited before him; and all such proceedings by summons without information in writing shall be as valid and effectual to all intents and purposes, as if an information in writing had been exhibited.

CVIII. In all cases where any conviction shall be had for any offence committed against this Act, the form of conviction may be in the words or to the effect following: (that is to say,) "Be it "remembered that on this day of "in the year "A. B. is convicted before "a Magistrate "for the (or before "a Judge appointed under Act IX. 1850) of "having (state the offence;) and I (or we) the "said do adjudge the said "to forfeit and pay for the same "the sum of [or to be committed "to for the space of] given under "hand ( ) and seal ( ) "the day and year aforesaid."

CIX. No order, verdict or judgment, or other proceeding, made concerning any of the matters aforesaid, shall be quashed or vacated for want of form.

CX. Where any distress shall be made for any sum of money to be levied by virtue of this Act, the distress itself shall not be deemed unlawful, nor the party making the same be deemed a trespasser, on account of any defect or want of form in the information, summons, conviction, warrant of distress or other proceeding relating thereto, nor shall the party distraining be deemed a trespasser from the beginning, on account of any irregularity which shall afterwards be committed by the party so distraining, but the person aggrieved by such irregularity may recover full satisfaction for the special damage in an action upon the case.

CXI. All actions and prosecutions to be commenced against any person for any thing done in pursuance of this Act, shall be commenced within three calendar months after the fact committed, and not afterwards, and notice in writing of such action, and of the cause thereof, shall be given to the defendant one calendar month at least before the commencement of the action; and no plaintiff shall recover in any such action, if tender of sufficient amends shall have been made before such action is brought, or if after action brought, a sufficient sum of money shall have been paid into Court, with costs by or on behalf of the defendant.

Fort William, Home Department, Legislative, the 15th March, 1850.

ACT No. XI. OF 1850.

An Act to amend Act X. 1841.

For amendment of Act X. 1841, It is enacted as follows:

I. Section XIII. of Act X. 1841, is repealed.

II. The Passes which, under Section XXIV. of the said Act, may be issued for conferring the privileges and advantages of a British Ship, in certain cases, to any ship or vessel built within the dominions of a Native Prince or State in subordinate alliance with, or having subsidiary treaties with the East India Company, may, after the passing of this Act, be issued in the like cases, and under the same restrictions, to any ship or vessel belonging to any such Native Prince or State, or their subjects, wherever the same may have been built.

III. All ships or vessels, of whatever rig and of whatever tonnage, owned by British Subjects, entitled to registry under Act X. 1841, or owned by such Native Princes or States, or by their subjects entitled to passes under Act X. 1841, as amended by this Act, employed only in coasting voyages, or between any port of the continent of India and the Island of Ceylon, may be registered and obtain passes, and the tonnage may be marked, according to such rules as shall be made from time to time by the Governor or Governor in Council of each Presidency.

IV. The owners of Coasting Vessels, registered under Section III. of this Act, shall pay for each Certificate of Registry,

For a vessel not exceeding the burthen of four tons one Rupee,

Exceeding four tons and not exceeding twenty tons five Rupees,

Exceeding twenty tons and not exceeding eighty tons seven Rupees,

Exceeding eighty tons, for each ton two annas,

Which fees shall be carried to the credit of the Government of the Presidency in which they are levied.

V. This Act shall be construed with and as part of Act X. 1841.

FORT WILLIAM,
Civil Auditor's Office, the 19*th March,* 1850.

NOTIFICATION.

To the Officers of the Judicial, Revenue, Customs, Salt, Opium, Abkaree and other Branches of the Service.

The Civil Auditor requests that disbursing Officers will submit for audit a detailed Pay Abstract of their Office Establishments respectively for the month of April 1850, specifying therein, the names, dates of appointment and the dates of the authority of Government, &c. sanctioning the same, or any alteration in the salaries of Christian Assistants and Native Omlahs, that may have been made agreeably to the Financial Rules of 8th December 1843. The Thannah Establishments under the control of the Magistrates and Joint Magistrates to be specified in detail, distinguishing the sums drawn under each particular head, and the total of the Police Force shewn at one view in the outer column in the above Abstract. The Orders notified in the Calcutta Gazette of the 6th January 1849, page 11, should be strictly attended to with respect to vacant situations; at the foot of the April Abstract, a memorandum must be given, stating the amount which may have been drawn purely as batta, on account of salaries of old Incumbents, and reductions that may have been effected in consequence of vacancies, and subsequently carried to the credit of Government.

W. P. Palmer,
Civil Auditor.

BUOY ON THE TWO AND A HALF FATHOM BANK STRAITS OF MALACCA.

Notice to Mariners.

The following Notice of a First Class Buoy having been placed at the Western entrance to the Straits of Malacca, is published for general information.

By order of the Superintendent of Marine,

JAS. SUTHERLAND,
Secretary.

Fort William,
The 15th March, 1850.

A first class Buoy, painted black and white, having been placed on the 21st of January, 1850, on what is usually called the two and a half fathom bank, at the Western entrance to the Straits of Malacca, in two fathoms at low water Spring Tides, the following bearings were taken by Azimuth Compass from it:

Parcilar Hill ..... East half South
False Parcilar Hill ..... North 50° East

Trees on the low land of Callam Island just visible on the horizon, the eye being elevated 12 feet above the water ..... North 85° East

There is a small patch North East from the Buoy, about twenty fathoms distant with nine feet at low water spring tides.

About a mile to the Eastward of the Buoy on the tail of the bank, there are overfalls of three and four fathoms, with five, six, and seven fathoms between them.

To the Westward of the Buoy, nothing under five fathoms within a quarter of a mile.

To the North and Southward of the Buoy, there are ten and twelve fathoms within a quarter of a mile.

Vessels from the Eastward or Westward, keeping Parcilar Hill, East a quarter South, will just clear to the Southward of the bank, and East three quarters South, will lead a vessel clear to the Northward.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 27, 1850.

Fort William, Home Department, Legislative, the 15th March, 1850.

The following Act passed by the Governor General of India in Council on the 15th of March 1850, is hereby promulgated for general information:

ACT No. VI. OF 1850.

For enabling the Commander-in-Chief to pardon Military Offences.

Whereas the power of pardoning persons under sentence of a Court Martial, for offences which are not punishable by any other authority, may be entrusted to the Commander-in-Chief of the Military Forces in the service of the East India Company in each Presidency, but in all other cases ought to belong only to the Supreme Government, It is enacted as follows:

I. The Commander-in-Chief of the Military Forces in the service of the East India Company, in each Presidency, shall have power to pardon any person belonging to the said Forces, convicted by sentence of a Court Martial of any offence against the Articles of War framed for the government of the Native Officers and Soldiers in the Military service of the East India Company, which, wherever committed, is not punishable otherwise than by sentence of a Court Martial; or, instead of granting a full pardon to any such person, may remit any part of the punishment awarded for such offence.

II. In such cases, the Commander-in-Chief shall issue a Warrant under his hand, setting forth the offence, and a copy of the Warrant or other instrument by which the offender is kept in custody in execution of the sentence, and pardoning or remitting such part of the punishment awarded for the offence as to him shall seem fit.

III. The said Warrant shall be countersigned by the Magistrate of the Zillah, or City in which the offender is undergoing his sentence; or, if he is confined in any prison belonging to one of the Supreme Courts of Judicature established by Royal Charter, shall be countersigned by a Judge of such Court, if it shall appear to such Magistrate or Judge that the offence, wherever committed, is not punishable by any authority other than that of a Court Martial; but not otherwise.

IV. All Sheriffs, Gaolers, and other persons having custody, of any offender under sentence of a Court Martial, shall obey and give effect to any Warrant of the Commander-in-Chief, countersigned by a Magistrate, or Judge of the Supreme Court as aforesaid, for the pardon and release of any offender in their custody respectively, or for the remission of any part of his sentence.

The following Act passed by the Governor General of India in Council on the 15th of March 1850, is hereby promulgated for general information:

ACT No. VII. OF 1850.

An Act for better defining the Law as to the removal of Prisoners.

Whereas, by the Regulations in force, prisoners may in certain cases be removed from one prison to another by special order of the Nizamut Adawlut or Foujdaree Adawlut, and in other cases by the Governor or Governor in Council of the Presidency; and it is expedient that the Government should be empowered to direct such removal, in every case which appears necessary, without application to the Court for a special order, It is enacted as follows:

I. Act VIII. 1844, is repealed.

II. When any person is under sentence of imprisonment, within the territories under the Government of the East India Company, by any authority other than that of one of the Supreme Courts of Judicature established by Royal Charter, the Governor or Governor in Council, or other person administering the Government of the Presidency or place, may order the removal of such prisoner from the prison, or place, in which he is confined, to any other public prison or place of confinement within the same Presidency or Government.

III. The time of removal from one prison to another, or while the prisoner is in custody under such warrant of removal, shall reckon as part of his imprisonment.

The following Act passed by the Governor General of India in Council on the 15th of March 1850, is hereby promulgated for general information:

ACT No. VIII. OF 1850.

An Act to amend the law for enabling Zillah and City Judges and Principal Sudder Ameens, in certain cases of Appeal, to confirm the decision without summoning the Respondent.

Whereas it will lessen the delay and expense of Appeals, if the powers possessed by Zillah and City Judges of confirming decisions on certain Appeals without serving any notice on the Respondents, are extended to Principal Sudder Ameens, It is enacted as follows:

I. The powers given to Zillah and City Judges. by Clause Third, Section XVI. of Regulation V. 1831 of the Bengal Code, are extended to Principal Sudder Ameens, in all Appeals referred to them.

II. Every Judge and Principal Sudder Ameen who shall confirm any decision under the said Regulation, or this Act, without giving notice to the Respondent, shall record his reasons for rejecting the Appeal.

The following Act passed by the Governor General of India in Council on the 15th of March 1850, is hereby promulgated for general information:

ACT No. IX. OF 1850

An Act for the more easy Recovery of Small Debts and Demands in Calcutta, Madras and Bombay.

Whereas it is expedient to amend the constitution and practice, and to extend the jurisdiction, of the several Courts established at Calcutta, Madras and Bombay, for the Recovery of Small Debts, It is enacted as follows:

I. The several Courts of Commissioners and of Requests, for the Recovery of Small Debts, now holden in the Towns of Calcutta, Madras and Bombay, under the authority of the Charter of Justice of King George the Second, and of two Acts of Parliament, severally passed in the thirty-seventh year and fortieth year of the reign of King George the Third, and of the Regulations and Proclamations made, from time to time, for constituting, and for new-modelling, altering and reforming the constitution and practice of the said Courts respectively, and of Act XII. 1848, shall be holden according to the provisions of this Act, from and after such several days as shall be declared within the said Towns by proclamation, to be made and published in due form of law in each of the said Towns by the Governor in Council.

II. Where in this Act the words "Governor in Council," or "Supreme Court," are used, they shall be taken to apply severally to the person or persons administering the executive Government, and to the Supreme Court, established under Royal Charter of each of the Presidencies of Fort William in Bengal, Fort St. George and Bombay, with reference only to the Court holden under this Act, in the same Presidency.

III. From and after the day declared in any such proclamation, all provisions of the said Charter of Justice, and Acts of Parliament, and of any Regulation, Act or Proclamation heretofore made concerning the constitution or practice of the Court, referred to in such proclamation, shall be rescinded and repealed.

IV. The style of the several Courts holden under this Act shall be the ( ) Court of Small Causes, inserting in the blank space, Calcutta, Madras or Bombay, as the case requires.

V. The jurisdiction of the several Courts, holden under this Act, shall extend over the whole district now within the jurisdiction thereof respectively, and over such further district as may, from time to time, be declared by proclamation of the Governor in Council: provided, that no proclamation for extending the district of any of the said Courts be made without the previous sanction of the Governor General of India in Council.

VI. Every Court holden under this Act shall be a Court of Record, and shall be deemed a Court of Requests within the meaning of Act VII. 1841, Section VI.

VII. All proceedings commenced in any of the said Courts, before the time when the constitution and practice of such Court shall be altered under this Act, may be continued, executed and enforced against all persons liable thereunto, in the same manner as if they had been commenced according to this Act: and each of the said Courts shall be empowered in any case of doubt as to the proper manner of continuing, executing or enforcing any such proceedings, to make such orders thereon as shall appear to the Court to be necessary for giving full effect to this enactment.

VIII. The Governor in Council shall appoint as many persons as are necessary not exceeding three to be Judges of the Court, one of whom shall be a Barrister at Law, or Advocate of one of the Supreme Courts of India, or of the Court of Session in Scotland.

IX. No Judge appointed under this Act shall, during his continuance as such Judge, practise as an Advocate, Attorney, or Vakeel in any of the Queen's Courts, or in any Court of the East India Company, or trade or traffic for his own benefit, or for the benefit of any other person, or be the partner of any person so practising, trading or trafficking.

X. The Governor General of India in Council may remove any such Judge on the application of the Governor in Council.

XI. Any Judge or Judges of the Supreme Court of Judicature, who shall consent to aid in the execution of this Act, may exercise all the powers of a Judge appointed under this Act, and suits may be tried by him sitting in the Supreme Court under this Act in like manner as if he were a Judge of the Court of Small Causes, and no appointment of a Judge under this Act shall be made, while it appears to the Governor in Council that the whole business of the Court can be transacted by the Judges of the Supreme Court so consenting to act.

XII. The duties herein directed to be performed by the Clerk and Bailiffs respectively of the Court of Small Causes, shall be performed in such cases as are tried by a Judge of the Supreme Court, by such Ministerial Officers of the Supreme Court as shall be, from time to time, appointed by the said Judge of the Supreme Court for that purpose, and the persons so appointed shall have all the powers and protections by this Act given to the Clerk and Bailiffs of the Court of Small Causes respectively, and shall receive such remuneration for their services out of the fees received in the causes tried by a Judge of the Supreme Court as he shall deem reasonable, and the residue shall form part of the general fund of the Court of Small Causes.

XIII. There shall be a Clerk for every Court holden under this Act, whom the Judges of the Court shall appoint, subject to the approval of the Governor in Council, and may remove, subject to the like approval: if necessary, additional Clerks may be appointed with the sanction of the Governor in Council.

XIV. The Clerk of each Court shall issue all summonses, warrants, precepts and writs of execution, and keep an account of all proceedings of the Court, and shall take charge of, and keep an account of all Court fees, and fines payable or paid into Court, and of all monies paid into, and out of Court, and shall enter an account of all such fees, fines, and monies in a book belonging to the Court, to be kept by him for that purpose, and shall monthly, or at such other times as shall be directed by the Governor in Council, submit his accounts to be audited or settled in such manner as the Governor in Council, from time to time, shall direct.

XV. The Judges of every such Court shall, from time to time, appoint a sufficient number of persons to be Bailiffs of the Court, not exceeding the number, from time to time, allowed by the Governor in Council, and may at their pleasure suspend or dismiss any Bailiff so appointed.

XVI. The Bailiffs shall attend every sitting of the Court, for such time as shall be required by the Judges, and shall serve all the summonses and orders, and execute all the warrants, precepts, and writs, issued out of the Court; and shall, in the execution of their duties, conform to all such general rules as shall be, from time to time, made for regulating the proceedings of the Court.

XVII. Every Clerk, or other Officer of any such Court, who shall, by himself or by any partner, or in any way, directly or indirectly, be concerned or act as Attorney, or Vakeel, or be concerned in any trade or profession on his own account, or for any other person, shall forfeit and pay the sum of Five Hundred Rupees to any person who shall sue for the same in the Supreme Court by action of debt or on the case.

XVIII. The Clerk and Bailiffs shall give security for such sum, and in such manner and form, as the Governor in Council, from time to time, shall order, for the due performance of their several offices, and for the due accounting for and payment of all monies received by them under this Act, or which they may become liable to pay for any misbehaviour in their office.

XIX. There shall be payable in the Courts holden under this Act the fees set forth in the annexed Schedule beside the sum of Two Annas in the Rupee on the amount of the sum claimed, which fees shall be paid over to an account to be termed the General Fund of the Court.

XX. The ratable fee or commission shall be paid by the plaintiff before the summons issues; the other fees on every proceeding shall be paid in the first instance by the plaintiff or party on whose behalf such proceeding is to be had, on or before such proceeding: if the plaintiff recovers a less sum than he has demanded, the defendant shall not, in any case, be required to repay to him more than the fees and commission calculated upon the sum recovered. If the case is settled by agreement of the parties, before hearing, half the amount of the fees paid up to that time shall be returned to the parties by whom they have been severally paid. The Judges of the said Court may at their discretion grant summons to poor plaintiffs without deposit, or with a partial deposit of fees and commission, and also may remit costs wholly or partially to poor suitors.

XXI. The Governor in Council may, at any time, lessen the amount of the fees to be taken in the Courts holden under this Act in such manner as to him shall seem fit, and may again increase such fees, so that the scale of fees given in this Act be not in any case surpassed.

XXII. The Governor in Council shall, from time to time, make such rules as to him shall seem meet for securing the balances, and other sums of money in the hands of any Officers of every Court holden under this Act, and for the due accounting for and application of all such balances and other sums of money.

XXIII. The Courts shall sit daily, except on Sundays, Christmas-day, and Good Friday, and on Native or other Holidays, which the Governor in Council shall direct the Court to observe; and each of the Judges may sit apart from the others or with either of them, at the same time or at different times; and any one or two of the said Judges so sitting apart shall have all the judicial authority, which is herein given to all the Judges.

XXIV. A Seal shall be made for every Court holden under this Act, under the direction of the Governor in Council, and all summonses and other process issuing out of the Court shall be sealed or stamped with the Seal of the Court; and every person, who shall forge the seal or any process of the Court, or who shall serve or enforce any such forged process, knowing the same to be forged, or deliver or cause to be delivered to any person any paper falsely purporting to be a copy of any summons, or other process of the said Court, knowing the same to be false, or who shall act or profess to act under any false colour or pretence of the process of the said Court, shall be guilty of felony.

XXV. All suits, where the debt or damage claimed or value of the property in dispute is not more than Five Hundred Rupees, whether on balance of account or otherwise, may be brought in the Court of Small Causes; and all such suits brought in the said Court shall be heard and determined in a summary way, and every defence which would be deemed good in the Supreme Court sitting as a Court of Equity shall be a good bar to any legal demand in the Court of Small Causes. Provided always, that the Court shall not have jurisdiction in any matter concerning the revenue, or concerning any Act ordered or done by the Governor, or Governor General, or any Member of the Council of India, or of any Presidency, in his public capacity, or done by any person by order of the Governor General or Governor in Council, or concerning any act ordered or done by any Judge or Judicial Officer in the execution of his office, or by any person in pursuance of any judgment or order of any Court, or any such Judge or Judicial Officer, or in any suit for libel or slander.

XXVI. On the application of any person desirous to bring a suit under this Act, the Clerk of the Court shall issue, under the seal of the Court, a summons which shall be numbered, and shall set forth the names of the plaintiff and defendant, the cause of action with such particulars as shall be, from time to time, directed by the Rules of the Court, and the amount sued for, and shall be served on the defendant, so many days before the day on which the Court shall be holden at which the cause is to be tried as shall be directed by the rules for regulating the practice of the Court; and delivery of such summons to the defendant, or in such other manner as shall be specified in the rules of practice, shall be deemed good service; and no misnomer or inaccurate description of any person or place in any such summons shall vitiate the same, if the person or place be therein described so as to be commonly known.

XXVII. No misstatement of the cause of action in the summons issued under this Act shall vitiate the same, and the Judges of the Court may, in their discretion, rectify such misstatement as soon as discovered, and alter the record accordingly, and if the defendant, or one of the defendants be present in Court at the time of such discovery, the hearing of the cause after the record shall have been so altered, shall be proceeded with as if no such misstatement had happened, but in the absence of the defendant or of all the defendants a new summons of the same number and date as the original summons shall be issued with the altered statement of the cause of action.

XXVIII. All persons shall be deemed within the jurisdiction of the Court, who dwell or carry on their business or work for gain within the district of the Court at the time of bringing the action, or who did so dwell or carry on their business or work therein at the time when the cause of action arose, or within six months before the time of bringing the action for causes of action which arose within the same time.

XXIX. Any summons or other process of any of the said Courts, service of which is needed out of the district of the Court, may be exhibited in any Court of Law, or before any Magistrate, and shall be thereupon endorsed by the Magistrate or Judge of such Court; and, when so endorsed, may be served in like manner as any order or process from such Court or Magistrate; and such service shall be as valid as if the same had been made by the Bailiff of the Court out of which such summons or other process shall have issued within the jurisdiction of the Court for which he acts.

XXX. Service of any summons or other process of the Court, which shall require to be served out of the district of the Court, may be proved by affidavit, or solemn affirmation, purporting to be sworn or made before any Judge or Magistrate; and, in every case of the unavoidable absence of the Bailiff by whom any summons or other process of the Court has been served, the service of such summons or other process may be proved, if the Judges think fit, in the same manner as a summons served out of the district of the Court.

XXXI. Any minor may prosecute a suit in any Court holden under this Act for any sum of money not greater than Five Hundred Rupees, which may be due to him for wages or piecework, or for work as a servant, in the same manner as if he were of full age.

XXXII. The jurisdiction of the Court shall extend to the recovery of any demand, not exceeding the sum of Five Hundred Rupees, which is the whole or part of the unliquidated balance of a partnership account, or the amount or part of the amount of a distributive share under an intestacy, or of any legacy under a will.

XXXIII. Any Executor or Administrator may sue and be sued in any Court holden under this Act, in like manner as if he were a party in his own right; and judgment and execution shall be such as in the like case would be given or issued in the Supreme Court in the like case: but no Executor or Administrator shall be summoned in that capacity within six months after the death of the person, whose Executor or Administrator he is.

XXXIV. A plaintiff shall not be allowed to divide any cause of action, for the sake of bringing two or more suits in any of the said Courts; but any plaintiff, having cause of action for more than Five Hundred Rupees, may abandon the excess, which shall be entered in the record, and stated in the summons, and thereupon the plaintiff shall, on proving his case, recover to an amount not exceeding Five Hundred Rupees; and the judgment of the Court shall be in full discharge of all demands in respect of such cause of action; and entry of the judgment shall be made accordingly.

XXXV. The Governor General and Members of the Supreme Council of India, the Governors and Members of Council of the Presidencies of Fort William in Bengal, Fort St. George and Bombay respectively, and the Chief Justices and Judges of the several Supreme Courts established therein by Royal Charter, shall not be liable to arrest or imprisonment by process issuing out of any Court holden under this Act, and no writ or process shall be sued out of the said Court against any of the persons privileged by Act I. 1844, or Act XVIII. 1848, without the consent of the Governor in Council.

XXXVI. Where any plaintiff shall have any demand recoverable under this Act, whether founded on contract or wrong, against two or more persons jointly answerable, it shall be sufficient if any of such persons be served with process, and judgment may be obtained and execution issued against the person or persons so served, notwithstanding that others, jointly liable, may not have been served or sued, or may not be within the jurisdiction of the Court; and every such person against whom judgment shall have been obtained under this Act, and who shall have satisfied such judgment, shall be entitled to demand and recover in the Court, holden under this Act, contribution from any other person jointly liable with him; and in all cases of misjoinder of defendants, the Judges may order the suit to proceed against such of the defendants only against whom cause of action appears, and may give judgment against them only; giving also judgment for costs for the defendants improperly joined.

XXXVII. The Judges of the Court shall be empowered to determine all questions as well of fact as of law or equity, as administered in the Supreme Court, in all cases which they have authority to try.

XXXVIII. On the day in that behalf named in the summons, the plaintiff shall appear, and thereupon the defendant shall be required to appear to answer; and on answer being made in Court, the Judges shall proceed in a summary way to try the cause, and give judgment, without further pleading or formal joinder of issue.

XXXIX. A defendant, having any cause of action against the plaintiff, whether or not the same exceeds Five Hundred Rupees, shall be entitled to set the same against the plaintiff's demand, and if judgment is given in such case for the plaintiff, shall be entitled to sue the plaintiff for the balance only of his original demand, after deducting the amount of debt or damages and costs recovered against him under this Act.

XL. The Judges may, in any case, with the consent of both parties to the suit, order the same, with or without other matters within the jurisdiction of the Court in dispute between such parties, to be referred to arbitration, to such person or persons, and in such manner, and on such terms as they shall think reasonable and just; and such reference shall not be revocable by either party, except by consent of the Judges; and the award of the arbitrator or arbitrators or umpire shall be entered as the judgment in the cause, and shall be as binding and effectual to all intents, as if given by the Judges; provided, that the Judges may, if they think fit, on application to them at the first Court held after the expiration of one week, after the entry of such award, set aside any such award, or may, with the consent of both parties, revoke the reference, or order another reference to be made in the manner aforesaid.

XLI. The Judges of each Court, holden under this Act, subject to the approval of the Judges of the Supreme Court, shall have power to make and issue all the general rules for regulating the practice and proceedings of the Court, and also to frame forms for every proceeding in the Court for which they shall think it necessary that a form be provided, and also for keeping all books, entries, and accounts to be kept by the Clerk of the Court, and, from time to time, to alter any such rule or form; and the rules so made and the forms so framed, shall be observed and used in the Court of that Presidency, and shall be sent to the Supreme Court for approval, but shall be of force until disapproved; and in any case, not expressly provided for herein, or by the said rules, the general principles of practice in the Supreme Court may be adopted and applied at the discretion of the Judges, to actions and proceedings in their Court.

XLII. If upon the day of the return of any summons, or at any continuation or adjournment of the said Court, or of the cause for which the said summons shall have been issued, the plaintiff shall not appear, the cause shall be struck out; and if he shall appear, but shall not make proof of his demand to the satisfaction of the Court, the Judges may nonsuit the plaintiff or give judgment for the defendant; and, in either case, where the defendant shall appear and shall not admit the demand, may award to the defendant, by way of costs and satisfaction for his trouble and attendance, such sum as they, in their discretion, shall think fit; and such sum shall be recoverable from the plaintiff by such ways and means as any debt or damage ordered to be paid by the same Court can be recovered: provided always, that if the plaintiff shall not appear when called upon, and the defendant, or some one duly authorized on his behalf, shall appear, and admit the cause of action to the full amount claimed, and pay the fees payable in the first instance by the plaintiff, the Court, if it shall think fit, may proceed to give judgment, as if the plaintiff had appeared.

XLIII. If on the day so named in the summons, or at any continuation or adjournment of the Court, or cause in which the summons was issued, the defendant shall not appear or sufficiently excuse his absence, or shall neglect to answer when called in Court, the Judges, upon due proof of service of the summons, may issue a writ of attachment to compel the appearance of the defendant; or, in their discretion, may proceed to the hearing or trial of the cause on the part of the plaintiff only; and the judgment thereupon shall be as valid as if both parties had attended; provided always, that the Judges in any such case, at the same or any subsequent Court, may set aside any judgment so given in the absence of the defendant, and the execution thereupon; and may grant new trial of the cause, upon such terms, as to payment of costs, giving security for debt or costs, or otherwise, as they think fit, on sufficient cause shown to them for that purpose.

XLIV. The Judges may, in any case, make orders for granting time to the plaintiff or defendant to proceed in the prosecution or defence of the suit, and also may, from time to time, adjourn any Court, or the hearing or further hearing of any cause, in such manner as to them may seem fit.

XLV. The defendant in any action brought under this Act, for the recovery of money, whether for debt or damages, within such time as shall be directed by the rules for regulating the practice of the Court, may pay into Court such sum of money as he shall think a full satisfaction for the demand of the plaintiff, with the costs incurred by the plaintiff up to the time of such payment; and the said sum of money shall be paid to the plaintiff; but, if he shall elect to proceed, and, if the plaintiff shall recover no further sum in the action than shall have been so paid into Court, the plaintiff shall pay to the defendant the costs incurred by him in the said action after such payment; and such costs shall be settled by the Court, and an order shall thereupon be made by the Court for the payment of such costs by the plaintiff.

XLVI. On the hearing or trial of any action or any other proceeding under this Act the parties thereto, their wives, and all other persons, may be examined, on behalf of either the plaintiff or defendant, subject nevertheless to the Acts and Regulations in force, with respect to the examination of women of a rank and situation in life, which, according to the customs of the country, would render it improper to compel them to appear in a Court of Justice.

XLVII. Every person shall be examined on oath, or when exempt by law from taking an oath in any Court of Justice, on solemn affirmation, and every person, who, in any examination upon oath or solemn affirmation under this Act, shall wilfully and corruptly give false evidence, shall be deemed guilty of perjury.

XLVIII. Either of the parties to the suit or any other proceeding under this Act may obtain, at the office of the Clerk of the Court, summonses to witnesses, with or without a clause requiring the production of books, deeds, papers and writings in their possession or control, and in any such summons any number of names may be inserted.

XLIX. Every person, on whom any such summons shall have been served, either personally or in such other manner as shall be directed by the general rules or practice of the Court, and who shall refuse or neglect, without sufficient cause, to appear, or to produce any books, papers, or writings required by such summons to be produced, and also every person present in Court, who shall be required to give evidence, and who shall refuse to be sworn and give evidence, shall forfeit and pay such fine, not exceeding One Hundred Rupees, as the Judges shall set on him; and the whole or any part of such fine, in the discretion of the Judges, after deducting the costs, may be applied towards indemnifying the party injured by such refusal or neglect.

L. The Judges of any Court established under this Act, in all suits where the debt or demand exceeds the sum of Thirty Rupees, upon proof before them, that any defendant against whom a summons has been taken out, conceals himself from, or otherwise evades process of the Court, or is disposing of his property and effects with intent to defraud the plaintiff, or his creditors generally, or is about to withdraw his person or effects from the jurisdiction of the Court, may issue a warrant for the apprehension of such person, and may commit him to gaol until he shall find security for his appearance in the said Court from time to time, until judgment shall be pronounced in the suit commenced by such summons, and for payment of the amount and the costs which may be decreed against him therein.

LI. Payment of any fine imposed by any Court under the authority of this Act may be enforced upon the order of the Judges, in like manner as payment of any debt adjudged in the said Court, and shall be accounted for as herein provided.

LII. All the costs of any action or proceeding in the Court, not herein otherwise provided for, shall be paid by or apportioned between the parties, in such manner as the Judges shall think fit; and, in default of any special direction, shall abide the event of the action; and execution may issue for the recovery of any such costs, in like manner as for any debt adjudged in the said Court.

LIII. Every order and judgment of any Court holden under this Act, except as herein provided, shall be final and conclusive between the parties; but the Judges shall have power to nonsuit the plaintiff, in every case in which satisfactory proof shall not be given to them, entitling either the plaintiff or defendant to the judgment of the Court; and shall also in every case whatever have the power, if they shall think fit, to order a new trial to be had, upon such terms as they shall think reasonable, and in the meantime to stay the proceedings.

LIV. No cause commenced in any Court, holden under this Act, shall be removed from the said Court into the Supreme Court by any writ or process, unless the debt or damage or value of the property claimed exceeds One Hundred Rupees, and then only by leave of a Judge of the said Supreme Court on proof to his satisfaction that some question of law or equity is likely to arise therein, which, by reason either of its difficulty, novelty or general importance, or of some erroneous course of decision on the same point in the Court of Small Causes may appear to him fit to be tried in the Supreme Court, and upon such terms as to payment of costs, giving security for debt or costs, or otherwise, as he shall think fit.

LV. The Judges of the Court of Small Causes may, in their discretion, reserve any question of law or equity on which they entertain doubts, or which they shall be requested by either party to the suit to reserve, for the opinion of the Judges of the Supreme Court, and shall give judgment contingent upon the opinion of the said Supreme Court on a case which they shall thereupon be entitled to state to the said Court. If only two Judges sit together, and shall differ in opinion, the question, on which they differ shall be so referred.

LVI. The Judges may make orders concerning the time or times, and by what instalments, any debt or damages or costs, for which judgment shall be obtained in the said Court, shall be paid; and all such monies shall be paid into Court, unless the Judges shall otherwise order.

LVII. If there be cross judgments between the parties, execution shall be taken out by that party only, who shall have obtained judgment for the larger sum, and for so much only as shall remain after deducting the smaller sum; and satisfaction for the remainder shall be entered, as well as satisfaction on the judgment for the smaller sum; and, if both sums shall be equal, satisfaction shall be entered upon both judgments.

LVIII. Whenever the Court shall have made an order for the payment of money, the amount shall be recoverable, in case of default or failure of payment thereof forthwith, or at the time or times and in the manner directed, by execution against the body or the goods and chattels of the person against whom such order is made without further notice or order; and the Clerk of the said Court, at the request of the person prosecuting such order, shall issue under the seal of the Court a writ of execution to one of the Bailiffs of the Court, which shall be his warrant to take the body of such person in execution, or to levy, or cause to be levied, by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of such person such sum of money as shall be so ordered, wheresoever they may be found within the district of the Court, and also the costs of the execution; and all Constables and other Peace Officers within their several jurisdictions shall aid in the execution of every such writ.

LIX. If the Court shall have made any order for payment of any sum of money by instalments, execution upon such order shall not issue until after default in payment of some instalment according to such order; and execution or successive executions may then issue without further notice or order for the whole of the said sum of money and costs then remaining unpaid, or for such portion thereof as the Court shall order, either at the time of making the original order, or at any subsequent time, under the seal of the Court.

LX. Whenever any warrant shall issue for taking in execution the body of any person under this Act, the Bailiffs of the Court shall be empowered, by virtue thereof, to take and convey him to any prison, appointed by the Governor in Council to be the prison of the Court, there to remain for such term as shall be directed by the warrant, not longer than six calendar months, or until he shall sooner perform the order of the Court.

LXI. No person shall be imprisoned twice under the same judgment, nor shall execution against the body and goods issue at the same time under the same judgment.

LXII. Every person suing out a warrant of execution against the body of any other person under this Act shall deposit with the Clerk of the Court, at the time of the issue of the warrant, diet money for one week, after the rate of one anna and a half for each day, which shall be paid by the Clerk to the Keeper of the Prison at the time of the execution of the warrant.

LXIII. Notice of the execution of every such warrant shall be forthwith given to the person at whose suit it issued, who shall thereupon deposit with the Keeper of the Prison, diet money for the remainder of the month in which the warrant is executed, after the same daily rate, and shall continue thereafter to deposit monthly with the said Keeper, in advance, diet money at the same daily rate, for each month which the debtor is liable to be kept in prison at his suit.

LXIV. The diet money shall be employed for the subsistence of the prisoner; and if, by default of the detaining creditor, such diet money is not paid, the prisoner shall be entitled to his discharge by order of the Court.

LXV. All diet money, which shall be spent in providing subsistence for any prisoner, shall be costs in the cause, and all diet money, which shall not be so spent, shall be repaid to the creditor advancing the same.

LXVI. Whenever any prisoner shall offer good and reasonable security for payment of any debt or damage and costs, either in full or by instalments as the Court shall think reasonable, the Court may order him to be discharged on giving such security.

LXVII. Upon payment of the debt or damage and costs in full, the prisoner shall be entitled to be forthwith discharged.

LXVIII. If the debt or damage and costs are not paid, the imprisonment shall not extinguish the liability to pay the same; but all property then belonging to or afterwards acquired by the prisoner shall be liable to be taken in execution after his discharge from prison for satisfaction thereof, or of so much thereof as is not paid, including the diet money actually expended for subsistence of the prisoner.

LXIX. Every Bailiff executing any process of execution issuing out of the said Court against the goods of any person, may, by virtue thereof, seize and take any of the goods of such person, (excepting the necessary wearing apparel and bedding of such person or his family, and the tools and implements of his trade,) and may also seize and take any money or Bank-notes, and any cheques, bills of exchange, promissory notes, bonds, specialtiès or securities for money belonging to any such person against whom any execution shall have issued as aforesaid.

LXX. The Bailiff shall forthwith deliver any cheques, bills of exchange, promissory notes, bonds, specialties, or other securities for money, which shall have been so seized or taken as aforesaid, to the Clerk or other person appointed by the Judges to receive the same, who shall hold them as a security or securities for the amount directed to be levied by such execution, or so much thereof as shall not have been otherwise levied or raised for the benefit of the plaintiff; and the plaintiff may sue in the name of the defendant, or in the name of any person in whose name the defendant might have sued, for the recovery of the sum or sums secured, or made payable thereby, when the time of payment thereof shall have arrived.

LXXI. If it shall, at any time, appear to the satisfaction of the Court that any defendant is unable, from sickness or other sufficient cause, to pay and discharge the debt or damages recovered against him, or any instalment thereof ordered to be paid as aforesaid, the Judges, in their discretion, may suspend or stay any judgment, order or execution given, made or issued in such action, for such time and on such terms as they shall think fit, and so, from time to time, until it shall appear by the like proof as aforesaid that such temporary cause of disability has ceased.

LXXII. No sale of any goods, which shall be taken in execution as aforesaid shall be made, until after the end of five days at least next following the day on which such goods have been so taken, unless such goods be of a perishable nature, or upon the request, in writing, of the party whose goods have been taken.

LXXIII. Until such sale, the goods shall be deposited by the Bailiff by whom they were taken in some fit place, or they may remain in the custody of a fit person approved by the Judges to be put in possession by the Bailiff.

LXXIV. The Judges, from time to time, as they shall think proper, may appoint such and so many persons for keeping possession, and so many of their Bailiffs or other fit persons to be sworn brokers and appraisers for the purpose of selling or valuing any goods, chattels or effects taken in execution under this Act, as shall appear to them to be necessary, and may direct security to be taken from each of them, for such sum and in such manner as they shall think fit, for the faithful performance of their duties, without injury or oppression; and the Judges may dismiss any person, broker or appraiser so appointed.

LXXV. No goods taken in execution under this Act shall be sold for the purpose of satisfying the warrant of execution; except by one of the brokers or appraisers so appointed.

LXXVI. The costs to be demanded or taken for such appraisement and sale, shall be One Anna in the Rupee on the produce of the goods sold; and the Judges may apply the sum so raised as costs towards payment of the contingent charges and remuneration of the said brokers and appraisers, in such manner as shall be approved by the Governor in Council.

LXXVII. The Clerk of the Court shall keep an account of all sums received upon such sales, distinguishing the amount paid to the party entitled to the benefit of the execution, and the amount levied and retained as costs, and also of all sums allowed to the brokers and appraisers upon such sales.

LXXVIII. Whenever any defendant against whom judgment shall have been given in the Court of Small Causes, shall go before execution thereof out of the jurisdiction of the Court, the Judge of any Zillah or Town where he shall be found, upon receiving from the plaintiff, either in person or by vakeel, an application in writing setting forth these facts, with a duly authenticated copy of the judgment of the Court, shall execute the said judgment in the manner prescribed by law for execution of his own decrees; unless the defendant shall allege any reasonable cause, why the judgment should not be executed, and shall give security to such amount as the Judge of such Zillah or Town shall deem reasonable, that he will, within such time as shall be allowed him for that purpose, either satisfy the judgment or produce a duly authenticated copy of an order of the Judges of the Court of Small Causes, discharging their former judgment.

LXXIX. No judgment or execution shall be stayed, delayed or reversed upon or by any writ of error or supersedeas thereon, to be sued for the reversing of any judgment given in any Court holden under the provisions of this Act, unless the amount recovered exceeds One Hundred Rupees, and then only after the person suing out such writ shall become bound with two sufficient sureties to be approved by the Clerk of the Court, in treble the sum adjudged to be recovered in the former judgment, to prosecute the said writ with effect, and also to satisfy and pay (if the writ be not prosecuted, or if the judgment be affirmed), the debt or damages and costs adjudged, and all costs and damages to be awarded for the delay of execution.

LXXX. Upon every warrant of execution issued against the goods and chattels of any person, the Clerk of the Court shall cause to be stated the sum of money and costs adjudged with the sum paid for such warrant; and if the party against whom such execution shall be issued shall, before an actual sale of the goods and chattels, pay or cause to be paid or tendered unto the Clerk of the Court, or to the Bailiff holding the warrant of execution such sum of money and costs, as aforesaid, or such part thereof as the person entitled thereto shall agree to accept in full of his debt or damages and costs, together with the fees herein directed to be paid, the execution shall be superseded, and the goods and chattels of the said party shall be discharged and set at liberty.

LXXXI. The Clerk of every Court holden under this Act shall cause a record of all summonses, and of all orders, and of all judgments and executions, and returns thereto, and of all fines, and of all other proceedings of the Court, to be fairly entered, from time to time, in a book or books belonging to the Court, which shall be kept at the Office of the Court; and shall be duly authenticated by one or more of the Judges; and such entries in the said book or books or a copy thereof bearing the seal of the Court, and purporting to be signed and certified as a true copy by the Clerk of the Court, shall be admitted in all Courts and places as evidence of such entries, and of the proceeding referred to by such entry or entries, and of the regularity of such proceeding, without any further proof.

LXXXII. The Clerk of every such Court shall, in the month of March, in each year, make out a correct list of all sums of money belonging to suitors in the Court, which shall have been paid into Court, and which shall have remained unclaimed for five years before the first day of the month of January then last past, specifying the names of the parties for whom or on whose account the same were so paid into Court; and a copy of such list shall be put up and remain during Court hours in some conspicuous part of the Court House, and at all times in the Clerk's Office; and all sums of money which shall have been paid into any such Court, to the use of any suitor or suitors thereof, and which shall have remained unclaimed for the period of six years before the passing of this Act, and which are now in the hands of any Commissioner or Officer of such Court, or otherwise held in trust for such suitors, and all further sums of money, which shall hereafter be paid into such Court to the use of any suitor or suitors thereof, shall, if unclaimed for the period of six years after the same shall have been so paid into Court, be applicable as part of the fees receivable on account of the Court, and shall be carried to the same account; and no person shall be entitled to claim any sum which shall have remained unclaimed for six years; but no time during which the person entitled to claim such sum shall have been an infant or married woman or of unsound mind, or out of the Territories under the Government of the East India Company, shall be taken into account in estimating the said period of six years.

LXXXIII. If any person shall wilfully insult any Judge, Clerk or Officer of the said Court, for the time being, during his sitting or attendance in Court, or shall wilfully interrupt the proceedings of the Court, or otherwise misbehave in Court, it shall be lawful for any Bailiff or Officer of the Court, with or without the assistance of any other person, by the order of the Judges to take such offender into custody, and detain him until the rising of the Court; and the Judges shall be empowered, if they shall think fit, by a warrant under their hands, and sealed with the seal of the Court, to commit any such offender to any prison to which they have power to commit offenders under this Act, for any time, not exceeding seven days, or to impose upon any such offender a fine, not exceeding Fifty Rupees for every such offence, and in default of payment thereof to commit the offender to any such prison as aforesaid, for any time not exceeding seven days, unless the said fine be sooner paid, or instead of inflicting summary punishment under this Act may cause the offender to be indicted in the Supreme Court, if the offence be an indictable misdemeanour.

LXXXIV. If any Officer or Bailiff of any Court holden under this Act shall be assaulted while in the execution of his duty, or if any rescue shall be made or attempted to be made of any person arrested, or goods levied under process of the Court, the person so offending shall be liable to a fine, not exceeding One Hundred Rupees, to be recovered by order of the Court, or before a Magistrate as hereinafter provided; and the Bailiff of the Court, or any Peace Officer in any such case, may take the offender into custody, (with or without warrant,) and bring him before such Court, or Magistrate accordingly.

LXXXV. If any Bailiff of the said Court, who shall be employed to execute any warrant of the Court, shall, by neglect, or connivance or omission, lose an opportunity of executing such warrant, then, upon complaint of the party aggrieved by reason of such neglect, connivance or omission, (and the fact alleged being proved to the satisfaction of the Court,) the Judges shall order the Bailiff to pay such damages as it shall appear that the plaintiff has sustained thereby, not exceeding in any case the sum of money for which the said execution is issued, and the Bailiff shall be liable thereto; and upon demand made thereof, and on his refusal so to pay and satisfy the same, payment thereof shall be enforced by such ways and means as are herein provided for enforcing a judgment recovered in the said Court, without prejudice nevertheless to the execution of the original warrant.

LXXXVI. If any Clerk, Bailiff or Officer of the Court, acting under colour or pretence of the process of the said Court, shall be charged with extortion or misconduct, or with not duly paying or accounting for any money levied by him under the authority of this Act, the Judges may inquire into such matter in a summary way, and for that purpose may summon and enforce the attendance of all necessary parties in like manner as the attendance of witnesses in any case may be enforced, and may make such order thereupon for the repayment of any money extorted, or for the due payment of any money so levied as aforesaid, and for the payment of such damages and costs, as they shall think just; and also, if they shall think fit, may impose such fine upon the Clerk, Bailiff or Officer, not exceeding One Hundred Rupees for each offence, as they shall deem adequate; and in default of payment of any money so ordered to be paid, payment of the same may be enforced by such ways and means as are herein provided for enforcing a judgment recovered in the said Court.

LXXXVII. Every Clerk, Bailiff or other Officer employed in putting this Act or any of the powers thereof in execution, who shall wilfully and corruptly exact, take or accept any fee or reward whatsoever, other than his lawful salary, for any thing done or to be done by virtue of this Act, or on any account whatsoever, relative to putting this Act into execution, shall, upon proof thereof before the said Court, and in the case of a Clerk, on confirmation of the finding of the Court by the Governor in Council, be for ever incapable of serving, or being employed under this Act in any office of profit or emolument, and shall also be liable for damages as herein provided.

LXXXVIII. If any claim shall be made to, or in respect of, any goods or chattels taken in execution under the process of any Court holden under this Act, or in respect of the proceeds or value thereof, by any person not being the party against whom such process has issued, the Clerk of the Court, upon application of the Officer charged with the execution of such process, as well before as after any action brought against such Officer, may issue a summons calling before the said Court, as well the party issuing such process as the party making such claim, and thereupon any action, which shall have been brought in the Supreme Court in respect of such claim, shall be stayed, and any Judge of the Supreme Court on proof of the issue of such summons, and that the goods and chattels were so taken in execution, may order the party bringing such action to pay the costs of all proceedings had upon such action after the issue of such summons out of the Court of Small Causes, and the Judges of the Court of Small Causes shall adjudicate upon such claim and make such order between the parties in respect thereof, and of the costs of the proceedings as to them shall seem fit, and such order shall be enforced in like manner as any order made in any suit brought in such Court.

LXXXIX. The powers of Act VII. 1847 to regulate distresses for small rents in Calcutta, shall be extended to the recovery of all arrears of rent not exceeding Five Hundred Rupees, and the Judges of every Court of Small Causes under this Act shall be empowered to exercise within their several jurisdictions the extended powers of the said Act; and the said Act shall be construed as if, instead of Calcutta and the Settlement of Fort William in Bengal, the limits of the jurisdiction of the Court had been therein mentioned, and the Judges of the Court of Small Causes under this Act instead of the Commissioners of the Court therein mentioned, and the amount of Five Hundred Rupees instead of One Hundred Rupees, and the forms contained in the Schedule annexed to the said Act shall be altered accordingly, and shall refer to this Act instead of Act VII. 1847.

XC. The affidavit of arrear required by the said Act No. VII. 1847 may, in every case, be made either by the person entitled to such arrear or by his or her lawfully constituted attorney, and a warrant of distress may issue on such affidavit.

XCI. Where any person shall hold or occupy any house, land or tenement, of which the value or the rent payable in respect thereof, does not exceed the rate of Five Hundred Rupees by the year, without leave of the owner, or under a lease or agreement which is ended, or duly determined by a legal notice to quit, and such tenant, or, if such tenant do not actually occupy the premises, or occupy only a part thereof, any person by whom the same or any part thereof shall be then actually occupied, shall neglect or refuse to quit and deliver up possession of the premises, or of such part thereof respectively, the owner or his agent may take out a summons from the Court directed to such tenant or occupier, to show by what title he claims to hold or occupy the premises or part thereof.

XCII. If the tenant or occupier shall not thereupon appear at the time and place appointed, and show cause to the contrary, and shall still neglect or refuse to deliver up possession of the premises, or of such part thereof, of which he is then in possession, to the said owner or his agent, such owner or agent may give to the Court proof of the holding, and of the end or other determination of the tenancy, if any had existed, with the time or manner thereof, and of the right by which he claims the possession.

XCIII. Upon proof of due service of the summons, and of the neglect or refusal of the tenant or occupier, as the case may be, the Judges may issue a warrant under the seal of the Court, to any Bailiff of the Court requiring and authorizing him within a period to be therein named not less than seven, or more than ten clear days from the date of such warrant, to give possession of the premises to such owner or agent, and such warrant shall be a sufficient warrant to the said Bailiff to enter upon the premises with such assistants as he shall deem necessary, and to give possession accordingly: Provided always, that entry upon any such warrant shall not be made on a Sunday, Good Friday, or Christmas-day, or any other day observed by the Court as a Holiday, or at any time except between the hours of six in the morning and six in the afternoon: Provided also, that nothing herein contained shall be deemed to protect any person by whom any such warrant shall be sued out of the Court of Small Causes from any action which may be brought against him by any such tenant or occupier for such entry and taking possession, where such person had not, at the time of suing out the same as aforesaid, lawful right to the possession of the same premises.

XCIV. Such summons, as last aforesaid, may be served either personally or by leave of the Court, upon proof that the tenant or occupier is not to be found within the jurisdiction of the Court, by leaving the same with some person being in, and apparently residing at the place of abode of the person or persons so holding over as aforesaid; or if the place of abode of such person or persons shall either not be known or admission thereto cannot be obtained for serving such summons, by posting the said summons on some conspicuous part of the premises so held over.

XCV. No action or prosecution shall be maintainable against the Judges or against the Clerk of the Court, by whom such warrant as aforesaid shall have been issued, or against any Bailiff or other person by whom such warrant may be executed, or summons affixed, for issuing such warrant, or executing the same respectively, or affixing such summons, by reason that the person by whom the same shall be sued out had not lawful right to the possession of the premises.

XCVI. Where the owner, at the time of applying for such warrant as aforesaid, had lawful right to the possession of the premises, or of the part thereof so held over as aforesaid, neither the said owner nor his agent, nor any other person acting in his behalf, shall be deemed to be a trespasser, by reason merely of any irregularity or informality in the mode of proceeding for obtaining possession under the authority of this Act; but the party aggrieved may, if he think fit, bring an action on the case, for such irregularity or informality, in which the damage alleged to be sustained thereby, shall be specially laid, and may recover full satisfaction for such special damage with costs of suit: Provided that, if the special damage so laid be not proved, the defendant shall be entitled to a verdict, and that, if proved, but assessed at any sum, not exceeding Ten Rupees, the plaintiff shall recover no more costs than damages, unless the Judge, before whom the trial shall have been holden, shall certify that in his opinion full costs ought to be allowed.

XCVII. In every case in which the person, by whom any such warrant shall be sued out of the Court of Small Causes, had not, at the time of suing out the same, lawful right to the possession of the premises, the suing out of any such warrant, as last aforesaid, shall be deemed a trespass by him against the tenant or occupier of the premises, although no entry shall be made by virtue of the warrant; and in case any such tenant or occupier will become bound with two sufficient sureties, to be approved by the Clerk of the Court, in such sum as to the Judges shall seem reasonable, regard being had to the value of the premises and to the probable cost of such action, to sue the person by whom such warrant was sued out with effect and without delay, and to pay all the costs of the proceeding in such action, in case a verdict shall pass for the defendant, or the plaintiff shall discontinue or not prosecute his action, or become nonsuit therein, execution upon the warrant shall be stayed until judgment shall have been given in such action of trespass; and, if upon the trial of such action of trespass, judgment be given for the plaintiff, such judgment shall supersede the said warrant.

XCVIII. Recovery of the possession of any such house, land or tenement shall be no bar to the institution of a regular suit, for trying the title thereunto, which may be brought in the Supreme Court, as if this Act had not been passed.

XCIX. Every bond given on the removal of any action out of the Court of Small Causes, or upon staying, delaying or reversing any judgment or execution awarded therein, or the execution of any such warrant of possession as aforesaid, or on moving for a new trial, or to set aside a verdict, judgment or nonsuit, shall be made to the other party to the action, and shall be approved by the Judges and attested under the seal of the Court; and if the bond so taken be forfeited, or if upon the proceeding for securing which such bond was given, the Judge, before whom such proceeding shall be had, shall not certify upon the record in Court, that the condition of the bond hath been fulfilled, the party to whom the bond shall have been so made may bring an action of debt and recover thereon: Provided always, that the Court in which such action as last aforesaid shall be brought may, by a rule of Court, give such relief to the parties liable upon such bond as may appear to him reasonable, and such rule shall have the nature and effect of a defeasance to such bond.

C. All actions and proceedings, which before the passing of this Act, might have been brought in the Supreme Court, where any Officer of the Court of Small Causes shall be a party, except in respect of any claim to any goods and chattels taken in execution of the process of the Court, or the proceeds or value thereof, may be brought and determined in the Supreme Court, at the election of the party suing or proceeding, as if this Act had not been passed.

CI. If any action shall be commenced after the passing of this Act in the Supreme Court, for any cause other than those lastly herein before specified, for which a summons might have been taken out from a Court holden under this Act, and a verdict shall be found for the plaintiff for a sum less than Five Hundred Rupees, if the said action is founded on contract, or less than One Hundred Rupees, if it is founded on wrong, the plaintiff shall have judgment to recover such sum only, and no costs; and if a verdict shall not be found for the plaintiff the defendant shall be entitled to his costs as between attorney and client, unless in either case the Judge, who shall try the cause, shall certify on the back of the record that, by reason of the difficulty, novelty or general importance of the case, or of some erroneous course of decision on like cases in the Court of Small Causes, the action was fit to be brought in the Supreme Court.

CII. If any person shall bring any suit in the Supreme Court in respect of any grievance committed by the Clerk, Bailiff or Officer of any Court, holden under this Act, under colour or pretence of the process of the said Court, and upon the trial of the action, no greater damages shall be found for the plaintiff than the sum of Five Hundred Rupees, no costs shall be awarded to the plaintiff in such action, unless the Judge shall certify in Court, upon the back of the Record, that the action was fit to be brought in the Supreme Court.

CIII. All penalties, fines and forfeitures by this Act, inflicted or authorized to be imposed, (the manner of recovering and applying whereof is not hereby otherwise particularly directed), upon proof before any Justice of the Peace or Magistrate having jurisdiction where the offender shall reside or be, or the offence shall be committed, either by the confession of the party offending, or by the oath or affirmation of any credible witness, shall be levied, with the costs attending the summons and conviction, by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the party offending, by warrant under the hand of any such Justice or Magistrate, and the overplus (if any) after such penalties, fines and forfeitures, and the charges of such distress and sale are deducted, shall be returned, upon demand, unto the owner of such goods and chattels.

CIV. If any such penalties, fines and forfeitures respectively, shall not be paid forthwith upon conviction, it shall be lawful for such Justice or Magistrate to order the offender so convicted to be detained in safe custody until return can conveniently be made to such warrant of distress; unless such offender shall give sufficient security to the satisfaction of such Justice or Magistrate for his appearance before him on such day as shall be appointed for the return of such warrant of distress, such day not being more than eight days from the time of taking any such security, which security the Justice or Magistrate shall be empowered to take by way of recognizance or otherwise, as to him shall seem fit.

CV. If upon return of such warrant it shall appear that no sufficient distress can be had thereupon, or in case it shall appear to the satisfaction of the Justice or Magistrate, either by confession of the offender or otherwise, that he hath not within the jurisdiction of such Justice or Magistrate, sufficient goods and chattels, whereon to levy all such penalties, forfeitures, costs and charges, the Justice or Magistrate may, at his discretion, without issuing any warrant of distress, commit the offender to the Common Gaol or House of Correction, for any time not exceeding three calendar months, unless such penalties, forfeitures and fines, and all reasonable charges attending the recovery thereof, shall be sooner paid and satisfied.

CVI. The monies arising from any such penalties, forfeitures and fines as aforesaid when paid and levied, shall (if not by this Act directed to be otherwise applied,) be, from time to time, paid to the Clerk of the Court, and shall be applied in like manner as the fees thereof.

CVII. In all cases in which by this Act any penalty or forfeiture is made recoverable before a Justice or Magistrate, he may summon before him the party complained against, and on such summons may hear and determine the matter of such complaint; and, on proof of the offence, may convict the offender, and adjudge him to pay the penalty or forfeiture incurred, and proceed to recover the same, although no information in writing shall have been exhibited before him; and all such proceedings by summons without information in writing shall be as valid and effectual to all intents and purposes, as if an information in writing had been exhibited.

CVIII. In all cases where any conviction shall be had for any offence committed against this Act, the form of conviction may be in the words or to the effect following: (that is to say,) "Be it "remembered that on this day of "in the year "A. B. is convicted before "a Magistrate "for the (or before "a Judge appointed under Act IX. 1850) of "having (state the offence;) and I (or we) the "said do adjudge the said "to forfeit and pay for the same "the sum of [or to be committed "to for the space of] given under "hand ( ) and seal ( ) "the day and year aforesaid."

CIX. No order, verdict or judgment, or other proceeding, made concerning any of the matters aforesaid, shall be quashed or vacated for want of form.

CX. Where any distress shall be made for any sum of money to be levied by virtue of this Act, the distress itself shall not be deemed unlawful, nor the party making the same be deemed a trespasser, on account of any defect or want of form in the information, summons, conviction, warrant of distress or other proceeding relating thereto, nor shall the party distraining be deemed a trespasser from the beginning, on account of any irregularity which shall afterwards be committed by the party so distraining, but the person aggrieved by such irregularity may recover full satisfaction for the special damage in an action upon the case.

CXI. All actions and prosecutions to be commenced against any person for any thing done in pursuance of this Act, shall be commenced within three calendar months after the fact committed, and not afterwards, and notice in writing of such action, and of the cause thereof, shall be given to the defendant one calendar month at least before the commencement of the action; and no plaintiff shall recover in any such action, if tender of sufficient amends shall have been made before such action is brought, or if after action brought, a sufficient sum of money shall have been paid into Court, with costs by or on behalf of the defendant.

Secy. to the Govt. of India.

Fort William, Home Department, Legislative, the 15th March, 1850.

The following Act passed by the Governor General of India in Council on the 15th of March 1850, is hereby promulgated for general information:

ACT No. X. OF 1850.

An Act to declare Aden a free Port.

Whereas the trade between the Western Coast of India and the Red Sea and places thereunto adjacent will be improved by encouraging the resort of Vessels of all nations to the port of Aden in Arabia, It is declared and enacted as follows:

I. The port and settlement of Aden in Arabia, is a free port and settlement: and no duty of Customs is payable there on any Ship or other Vessel, or on any Goods lawfully carried by sea or land to or from the said port and settlement.

II. The said port of Aden shall not be taken to be within the provisions of Act VI. 1848.

FRED. JAS. HALLIDAY,
Secy. to the Govt. of India.

Fort William, Home Department, Legislative, the 15th March, 1850.

The following Act passed by the Governor General of India in Council on the 15th of March 1850, is hereby promulgated for general information:

ACT No. XI. OF 1850.

An Act to amend Act X. 1841.

For amendment of Act X. 1841, It is enacted as follows:

I. Section XIII. of Act X. 1841, is repealed.

II. The Passes which, under Section XXIV. of the said Act, may be issued for conferring the privileges and advantages of a British Ship, in certain cases, to any ship or vessel built within the dominions of a Native Prince or State in subordinate alliance with, or having subsidiary treaties with the East India Company, may, after the passing of this Act, be issued in the like cases, and under the same restrictions, to any ship or vessel belonging to any such Native Prince or State, or their subjects, wherever the same may have been built.

III. All ships or vessels, of whatever rig and of whatever tonnage, owned by British Subjects, entitled to registry under Act X. 1841, or owned by such Native Princes or States, or by their subjects entitled to passes under Act X. 1841, as amended by this Act, employed only in coasting voyages, or between any port of the continent of India and the Island of Ceylon, may be registered and obtain passes, and the tonnage may be marked, according to such rules as shall be made from time to time by the Governor or Governor in Council of each Presidency.

IV. The owners of Coasting Vessels, registered under Section III. of this Act, shall pay for each Certificate of Registry,

For a vessel not exceeding the burthen of four tons one Rupee,

Exceeding four tons and not exceeding twenty tons five Rupees,

Exceeding twenty tons and not exceeding eighty tons seven Rupees,

Exceeding eighty tons, for each ton two annas,

Which fees shall be carried to the credit of the Government of the Presidency in which they are levied.

V. This Act shall be construed with and as part of Act X. 1841.

FRED. JAS. HALLIDAY,
Secy. to the Govt. of India.

Fort William, Home Department, Legislative, the 22nd March, 1850.

The following Act passed by the Governor General of India in Council on the 22nd March, 1850, is hereby promulgated for general information:

ACT No. XII. OF 1850.

For avoiding loss by the default of Public Accountants.

For better avoidance of loss through the default of Public Accountants, It is enacted as follows:

I. Every Public Accountant shall give security for the due discharge of the trusts of his office, and for the due account of all moneys which shall come into his possession or controul, by reason of his office.

II. In default of any Act having special reference to the office of any Public Accountant, the security given shall be of such amount and kind, real or personal, or both, and with such sureties, (regard being had to the nature of the office,) as shall be required by any rules made or to be made from time to time, by the authority by which each Public Accountant is appointed to his office, subject to the approval of the Governor or Governor in Council of the Presidency or place.

III. Every person is a Public Accountant within the meaning of this Act, who, by reason of any office held by him in the service of the East India Company is entrusted with the receipt, custody or controul of any moneys or securities for money, or the management of any lands belonging to the East India Company, or as Official Assignee or Trustee, or as Surberakar, or in any other official capacity, with the receipt, custody or controul of any moneys or securities for money, or the management of any lands belonging to any other person or persons.

IV. The person or persons at the head of the office to which any Public Accountant belongs may proceed against any such Public Accountant and his Sureties, for any loss or defalcation in his accounts, as if the amount thereof were an arrear of land revenue due to Government.

V. All Regulations and Acts now or hereafter to be in force for the recovery of arrears of land revenue due to Government, and for recovery of damages by any person wrongfully proceeded against for any such arrear, shall apply, with such changes in the forms of procedure as are necessary to make them applicable to the case, to the proceedings against and by such Public Accountant.

VI. All sales of Estates, summarily sold before the passing of this Act, in satisfaction of the security bonds of any Public Accountants within the meaning of this Act, shall be deemed as good and valid, and be as liable to be reviewed and annulled, as if such Estates had been sold under authority of this Act, and no further or otherwise.

FRED. JAS. HALLIDAY,
Secy. to the Govt. of India.

Fort William, Home Department, Legislative, the 22nd March, 1850.

ACT No. XIII. OF 1850.

For Punishing Breaches of Trust.

For the punishment of Breaches of Trust, It is enacted as follows:

I. Every person employed in the Public Service of Her Majesty, or of the East India Company, and entrusted, by reason of such employment, with the receipt, custody or control of any chattel, money, or valuable security, who shall embezzle the same or any part thereof, or in any manner fraudulently apply, use, or dispose of the same, or any part thereof for any purpose other than a purpose to which the same is applicable under the trust reposed in him, shall be deemed to have feloniously stolen the same.

II. All Official Trustees, Assignees and Receivers of Money, by virtue of their several offices or appointments, all Justices of the Peace, Coroners, and other persons, receiving by virtue of their offices or appointments any fines, forfeitures, penalties or other moneys, on behalf of Her Majesty or of the East India Company, all Sheriffs, Under Sheriffs, Bailiffs, Officers and other persons employed to levy money in execution of the judgment or order of any Court, or in receiving any taxes or other moneys directed to be levied by any Regulation of the Governor or Governor in Council of any Presidency or Place, or by any Act of the Governor General of India in Council, and also all Subordinate Officers and Servants employed in the office or service of any of the persons hereinbefore enumerated, and entrusted with money in the course of such employment, are declared to be persons employed in the public service within the meaning of this Act; but this special enumeration of some of the persons included in the general description of persons in the public service of Her Majesty or the East India Company, shall not be taken to abridge the meaning of that general description.

III. The Clauses respectively numbered XCIX, C, CI, CII, CIII and CIV, in an Act of Parliament passed in the ninth year of the Reign of King George the Fourth, intituled an Act for improving the Administration of Criminal Justice in the East Indies, are repealed, except as to all things done or forborne to be done before the passing of this Act.

IV. Every Clerk or Servant, who shall steal any chattel, money or valuable security, belonging to or in the possession or power of his Master, shall be punishable in the same manner as persons convicted of felonious stealing under this Act.

V. Every Clerk or Servant, or any person employed for the purpose, or in the capacity of a Clerk or Servant, who shall by virtue of such employment, receive or take into his possession any chattel, money or valuable security, for or in the name or on the account of his Master, and who shall fraudulently embezzle the same or any part thereof, shall be deemed to have feloniously stolen the same from his Master, although such chattel, money or security was not received into the possession of his Master, otherwise than by the actual possession of his Clerk, Servant or other person so employed.

VI. Every Member and Officer of a Trading Corporation or Company, and also every Banker, Merchant, Factor, Broker, Attorney or other Agent, whether he be commonly so employed, or be employed as an Agent in that instance only, and whether he act as such Agent gratuitously or otherwise, to whom any chattel, money or valuable security is entrusted for safe custody, or for any special purpose, and whether with or without any authority to sell, negotiate, pledge or employ the same, but with an authority limited to some defined purpose as to the application of such money, chattel or valuable security, or of any part thereof, or of the proceeds or of any part of the proceeds thereof, who shall fraudulently apply, use or dispose of the same or any part of the proceeds thereof, for any purpose other than a purpose for which the same was entrusted to him, shall be deemed to have feloniously stolen the same.

VII. Every Sub-Agent, Clerk or Servant of any such Trading Corporation or Company, or of any Banker, Merchant, Factor, Broker or other Agent as aforesaid, who, knowing the purpose for which such chattel, money or valuable security was entrusted to the Corporation, Company, Person or Persons, by whom he is employed, shall fraudulently apply, use or dispose of the same, for any purpose other than a purpose for which the same was entrusted to his employer or employers, shall be deemed to have feloniously stolen the same though he were not himself immediately employed or entrusted with the disposition thereof by the person entitled thereto.

VIII. Every person, possessed, or having the receipt, custody or control, of any chattel, money or valuable security, in trust for any other person or persons, who shall embezzle the same or any part thereof, or in any manner fraudulently apply, use or dispose of the same, for his own use or benefit, in breach of the trust reposed in him, shall be deemed to have feloniously stolen the same.

IX. Every person convicted of having feloniously stolen any chattel, money or valuable security under this Act, shall be liable to be transported out of the territories under the Government of the East India Company for life, or to be imprisoned with or without labour for any term not exceeding seven years.

X. Every instrument entitling or shewing the title of any person to any share or interest in any public stock or fund of any Country or State, or in any Stock of any Corporation or Company, or for the transfer of any such share or interest, or for the receipt of any dividend or interest on any such share, or entitling or shewing the title to any deposit in any Bank, and every warrant, order, or instrument for the payment of any money on any event certain or contingent, or for the delivery or receipt of any goods, or merchandize, on any such event, is a valuable security within the meaning of this Act.

XI. Any offender under this Act may be proceeded against, on the same charge for any number of distinct acts of embezzlement or fraudulent application, use or disposition as aforesaid, committed by him within six calendar months, from the first to the last of such acts: and proof of a gross deficiency in the accounts of any such Trustee or Public Servant, shall be evidence of the offence charged, until such deficiency is otherwise explained.

XII. If the offence relates to money or to any Bank Note, Bank Post Bill, Banker's Cheque, Bill of Exchange, Promissory Note, Government Paper, or other like security for the payment of money, it shall be enough in the indictment or charge to allege the embezzlement or fraudulent application, use or disposition of money, without specifying any particular coin or valuable security; and such allegation shall, so far as regards the kind of property, be sustained, if the offender is proved to have embezzled or fraudulently applied, used or disposed of any amount of money or any valuable security, though the particular kind of coin or valuable security, of which such amount was composed shall not be proved.

XIII. It shall not be necessary, in any proceeding against any offender under this Act, to declare the person to whom the property embezzled or fraudulently applied or disposed of belongs otherwise than hereinafter provided, or to give any other description of it than by stating its general character according to the provisions of this Act; and if the offence be that of embezzlement or fraudulent application, use or disposition, by a person in the public service of the Crown, or of the East India Company, of property entrusted to him by reason of such employment, or part thereof, it shall be enough to state that the defendant was in such service, and that he received the property by reason of such employment and embezzled the same, or part thereof, or fraudulently applied, used or disposed of the same as the case may be; and, if the case be one of fraudulent application, use or disposition by any person not being such public servant but entrusted as aforesaid, it shall be enough to state that such person was entrusted with the property (describing its general character as aforesaid,) and it shall be enough to state shortly the purpose of the trust, and that he fraudulently applied, used or disposed of the same contrary to his duty in that behalf.

XIV. The Court before which any offender is tried under this Act shall have power upon the trial to make any amendments that may be necessary, by reason of any variance between the statements of the charge and the evidence, either in the description of the property, or of any person, or of any office, appointment or employment, or of the purpose of the trust or otherwise, when in the opinion of the Court the person charged cannot have been misled as to his defence by such imperfect or erroneous statement.

XV. Every offender under this Act may be tried and punished by any Court of competent jurisdiction either in the place where he is in custody, or where he committed the offence.

XVI. The punishment of any offender under this Act shall not be deemed to take away or lessen his liability or the liability of his sureties to make good any loss sustained by Her Majesty or the East India Company, or any other person or persons by his misbehaviour or breach of trust.

XVII. Every person charged with a felonious breach of trust under this Act, who shall be proved to have knowingly made up or furnished false statements or accounts of the sums of money received or paid by him, or entrusted to his care, or of the goods or balance of money in his custody or control, shall be liable to fine in the discretion of the Court, although no actual embezzlement or fraudulent application, use or disposition of trust, moneys, chattels, or valuable securities is proved against him, and in addition to such fine may be imprisoned, with or without labour, as the Court shall adjudge, for any term not exceeding one year; but no person convicted of felonious breach of trust as aforesaid shall be punished also for making up false accounts in connection with the same breach of trust.

FRED. JAS. HALLIDAY,
Secy. to the Govt. of India.

Fort William, Home Department, Legislative, the 22nd March, 1850.

ACT No. XIV. OF 1850.

An Act for assimilating the Penal Jurisdiction of Police Magistrates at the Straits' Settlements to that of Justices of the Peace at Calcutta.

Whereas it is expedient to apply the provisions of the Acts XXI. 1839 and III. 1842, to the Straits' Settlements, and to remove doubts whether Act III. 1844 is in force there, It is declared and enacted as follows:

I. All powers given by Act XXI. 1839, or Act III. 1842, to any Justice of the Peace for the Town of Calcutta, for the trial and punishment of certain simple larcenies and other felonies within the Town of Calcutta, and of assaults on board of Merchant Ships, in the River Hooghly, may be exercised by any Magistrate or Justice of the Peace of the Settlements of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore and Malacca, for the trial and punishment of the like larcenies, felonies and assaults within the said Settlements respectively, and the like assaults on board of any Merchant Ship in the roads belonging to the said Settlements respectively.

II. In execution of the powers of the said Acts, by any Magistrate or Justice of the Peace for any of the said Settlements, the said Acts shall be read, as if the said Settlement and the Recorder's Court there were severally mentioned therein, instead of the Town of Calcutta, and Supreme Court of Justice at Calcutta, and as if the said Settlement and the roads thereof were mentioned therein, instead of the River Hooghly, or the mouths thereof, and in construing the said Acts, and this Act, two rupees shall be deemed equivalent to one dollar.

III. Act III. 1844 is in force within the said Settlements, and any Magistrate or Justice of the Peace there shall be deemed a Magistrate within the meaning of that Act.

IV. Any Magistrate or Justice of the Peace for any of the said Settlements may punish any person who having been lawfully summoned to give evidence in any Criminal proceeding before any Magistrate or Justice of the Peace for the same Settlement, shall refuse or without reasonable cause neglect to attend and give evidence, by a fine not exceeding one hundred Rupees to be levied as directed by Act II. 1839.

NOTIFICATION.—An Examination will be held early in April 1850, in the College of Fort William, for the purpose of filling up existing Vacancies in the Military Class of the Medical College. All Candidates will be expected to possess a knowledge of the Hindustani Language, adequate to enable them to read and write it in Persian or Devanagri Character.

2nd. All Interpreters of Regiments and Battalions are requested not to grant Certificates of Qualification to any Candidates under the age of fifteen or above that of twenty years; and likewise to reject all who may not pass the prescribed ordeal with a sufficient degree of fluency and facility. Much disappointment, expense and inconvenience have already been experienced by lads from distant stations, being furnished with certificates, who were found, on examination, quite unqualified for admission, and it is with a view to prevent the recurrence of this that the above measure has been adopted.

3rd. Candidates for admission will be required to present themselves before the Secretary to the Medical College, at least three days prior to the day of examination, in order that a proper descriptive roll may be prepared for transmission to the Examiners of the College of Fort William.

4th. The preference in selection, qualifications being equal, will be given to those who have already been attached to, or served in Civil or Regimental Hospitals, or to those who are the sons of Native Officers and Soldiers.

5th. No Candidate will be allowed to present himself for examination, who cannot produce a written testimonial of his conduct and character, or afford satisfactory evidence as to who and what he may be. A few individuals of decidedly bad character, have, upon recent occasions, managed to obtain admittance, it is supposed by producing false papers; the strictest care and scrutiny will therefore be exercised in examining the credentials of all future Candidates, who will, in addition, require to be furnished with regular muster rolls, in order that they may be identified.

6th. All pupils must, as a condition of their appointment, reside within the College premises at all times, and never be absent from morning and evening muster without special leave.

7th. All Students in the Military Class are amenable to the Articles of War, and regularly enlisted as Soldiers.

8th. No Candidate will be admitted into the School, who is physically unfit for the duties of a Soldier.

(By order,)

F. J. MOUAT, M. D.,

Council of Education, January 21st, 1850. Secretary.

EDUCATION NOTICE.—The next Meeting of the Committee appointed for the examination of candidates for promotion and employment in the Education Department, will be held in the Hindu College, on Saturday, the 6th April 1850, at 10 A. M.

Detailed particulars of the nature and extent of the examination, the number of vacancies in the department, &c. &c., will be afforded by the Secretay to the Council of Education, to all candidates on personal application.

By Order,

FRED. J. MOUAT, M. D.,
Secy. Council of Education.

No. 967.

BUOY ON THE TWO AND A HALF FATHOM BANK STRAITS OF MALACCA.

Notice to Mariners.

The following Notice of a First Class Buoy having been placed at the Western entrance to the Straits of Malacca, is published for general information.

By order of the Superintendent of Marine,

JAS. SUTHERLAND,
Secretary.

Fort William,
The 15th March, 1850.

A first class Buoy, painted black and white, having been placed on the 21st of January, 1850, on what is usually called the two and a half fathom bank, at the Western entrance to the Straits of Malacca, in two fathoms at low water Spring Tides, the following bearings were taken by Azimuth Compass from it:

Parcilar Hill ..... East half South
False Parcilar Hill ..... North 50° East
Trees on the low land of Callam Island just visible on the horizon, the eye being elevated 12 feet above the water ..... North 85° East

There is a small patch North East from the Buoy, about twenty fathoms distant with nine feet at low water spring tides.

About a mile to the Eastward of the Buoy on the tail of the bank, there are overfalls of three and four fathoms, with five, six, and seven fathoms between them.

To the Westward of the Buoy, nothing under five fathoms within a quarter of a mile.

To the North and Southward of the Buoy, there are ten and twelve fathoms within a quarter of a mile.

Vessels from the Eastward or Westward, keeping Parcilar Hill, East a quarter South, will just clear to the Southward of the bank, and East three quarters South, will lead a vessel clear to the Northward.

S. CONGALTON, Commander,
